(c) Any individual licensee who is responsible for supervising attest services, and signs or authorizes someone to sign the accountant's report on the financial statements on behalf of the firm, shall meet the appropriate experience requirements for such services as required by professional standards for such services.

(d) Any individual licensee who signs or authorizes someone to sign the accountant's report on the financial statements on behalf of the firm shall meet the experience requirement of RSA 309-B:8, III(c).

IV. An applicant for initial issuance or renewal of a permit to practice under this section shall be required to register each office of the firm within this state with the board and show that all attest services rendered in this state are under the charge of a person holding a valid certificate issued under RSA 309-B:5 or the corresponding provision of prior law or some other state.

V. The board shall charge a fee for each application for initial issuance or renewal of a permit under this section in an amount prescribed by the board by rule.

VI. Applicants for initial issuance or renewal of permits under this section shall in their application list all states in which they have applied for or hold permits as CPA firms and list any past denial, revocation, or suspension of a license or permit by any other state, and each holder of or applicant for a permit under this section shall notify the board in writing, within 30 days after its occurrence, of any change in the identities of partners, officers, shareholders, members, or managers whose principal place of business is in this state, any change in the number or location of offices within the state, any change in the identity of the persons in charge of such offices, and any issuance, denial, revocation, or suspension of license or permit by any other state.

VII. Firms which fall out of compliance with the provisions of this section due to changes in firm ownership or personnel, after receiving or renewing a license, shall take corrective action to bring the firm back into compliance as quickly as possible. The board may grant a reasonable period of time for a firm to take such corrective action. Failure to bring the firm back into compliance within a reasonable period as defined by the board will result in the suspension of the firm permit.

VIII. The board shall by rule require, on either a uniform or random basis, as a condition to renewal of permits under this section, that applicants undergo, no more frequently than once every 3 years, peer reviews conducted in such manner as the board shall specify, and such peer review shall include a verification by the reviewer that individuals in the firm who are responsible for attest services and who sign or authorize someone to sign the accountant's report on the financial statements on behalf of the firm meet the experience requirements set out in professional standards for such services, provided that such rule:

(a) Shall be adopted reasonably in advance of the time when it first becomes effective;

(b) Shall include reasonable provision for compliance by an applicant showing that it has, within the preceding 3 years, undergone a peer review that is a satisfactory equivalent to peer review generally required pursuant to this paragraph;

(c) Shall require, with respect to peer reviews contemplated by subparagraph (b), that they be subject to oversight by an oversight body established or sanctioned by board rule, which body shall periodically report to the board on the effectiveness of the review program under its charge, and provide to the board a listing of firms that have participated in a peer review program that is satisfactory to the board; and

(d) Shall require, with respect to peer reviews contemplated by subparagraph (b), that the peer review processes be operated and documents maintained in a manner designed to preserve confidentiality, and that neither the board nor any third party, other than the peer review oversight body, shall have access to documents furnished or generated in the course of such peer review. This subparagraph shall not be construed to limit the board's subpoena power under RSA 309-B:11, I; nor shall it be construed to prevent the board from obtaining from the applicant, its peer review report, the related letter of comment, and the related letter of response.

309-B:9 Public Accountants and Firms of Public Accountants.

I. Persons who on January 1, 2,000 hold registrations as public accountants issued under prior law of this state shall be entitled to have their registrations renewed upon fulfillment of the continuing professional education requirements for renewal of certificates set out in RSA 309-B:7, and on the renewal cycle and payment of fees there prescribed for renewal of certificates. Any registration not so renewed shall expire January 1, 2003.

II. Firms of public accountants holding permits to practice as such issued under prior law of this state shall be entitled to have their permits to practice renewed pursuant to the procedures set out in RSA 309-B:8, subject to the requirements for renewal of permits to practice for firms of certified public accountants.

III. So long as such public accountants hold valid registrations and permits to practice, they shall be entitled to perform attest services to the same extent as holders of certificates and holders of permits. In addition, they shall be entitled to use the title "public accountant" and "PA," but no other title under this chapter. The holder of a registration issued under this section may perform attest services only in a firm that holds a permit under RSA 309-B:8.

309-B:10 Enforcement Against Holders of Certificates, Permits, and Registrations.

I. After notice and hearing pursuant to RSA 309-B:12, the board may revoke any certificate, permit, or registration issued under RSA 309-B:7, 309-B:8 or 309-B:9 or corresponding provisions of prior laws; suspend any such certificate, permit, or registration; or refuse to renew any such certificate, permit, or registration for a period of not more than 5 years. The board may reprimand, censure, or limit the scope of practice of any licensee; impose an administrative fine not exceeding $1,000; or place any licensee on probation, all with or without terms, conditions, and limitations, for any one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate, permit, or registration.

(b) Cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew a license or practice rights by any other state, including possessions of the United States, for any cause involving disciplinary reasons.

(c) Failure, on the part of a holder of a certificate under RSA 309-B:7 or permit under RSA 309-B:8 or registration under RSA 309-B:9, to maintain compliance with the requirements for issuance or renewal of such certificate, permit, or registration or to report changes to the board under RSA 309-B:7, VI and 309-B:8, VI.

(d) Revocation or suspension of the right to practice before any state, including possessions of the United States, or federal agency for disciplinary reasons.

(e) Dishonesty, fraud, or gross negligence in the performance of services as a licensee or in the filing or failure to file the licensee's own income or employment tax returns or the payment of the licensee's income or employment tax liability.

(f) Violation of any provision of this chapter or rule adopted by the board under this chapter or violation of professional standards.

(g) Violation of any rule of professional conduct adopted by the board under RSA 309-B:4, VIII(d).

(h) Conviction of a felony, or of any crime an element of which is dishonesty or fraud, under the laws of the United States, of this state, or of any other state, of any possessions of the United States, or of any other country if the acts involved would have constituted a crime under the laws of this state.

(i) Performance of any fraudulent act while holding a certificate, registration, or permit issued under this chapter or prior law.

(j) Any conduct reflecting adversely upon the licensee's fitness to perform services as a licensee.

(k) Making any false or misleading statement or verification, in support of an application for a certificate, registration, or permit filed by another.

II. In lieu of, or in addition to, any remedy specifically provided in paragraph I of this section, the board may require one or both of the following of a licensee:

(a) A peer review conducted in such fashion as the board shall specify.

(b) Satisfactory completion of such continuing professional education programs as the board may specify.

III. In any proceeding in which a remedy provided by paragraph I or II of this section is imposed, the board may also require the respondent licensee to pay the costs of the proceeding.

309-B:11 Enforcement Procedures; Investigations.

I. The board may, upon receipt of a complaint or other information suggesting violations of this chapter or of the rules of the board, conduct investigations to determine whether there is probable cause to institute proceedings under RSA 309-B:12, 309-B:15 or 309-B:16 against any person or firm for such violation, but an investigation under this section shall not be a prerequisite to such proceedings in the event that a determination of probable cause can be made without investigation. In aid of such investigations, the board, through its chairperson, shall have the power to compel the testimony of witnesses and the production of documents or other evidence by the issuance of subpoenas. The board and the defendant may take the depositions of witnesses residing within or without the state pertaining to any matter being investigated.

II. The board may designate a member, or any other person of appropriate competence, to serve as investigating officer to conduct an investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, the investigating officer shall file a report with the board. The board shall find probable cause or lack of probable cause based upon the report or shall return the report to the investigating officer for further investigation. Unless there has been a determination of probable cause, the report of the investigating officer, the complaint, if any, the testimony and documents submitted in support of the complaint or gathered in the investigation, and the fact of pendency of the investigation shall be treated as confidential information and shall not be disclosed to any person except law enforcement authorities, and, to the extent deemed necessary in order to conduct the investigation, the subject of the investigation, persons whose complaints are being investigated, and witnesses questioned in the course of the investigation.

III. Upon a finding of probable cause, if the subject of the investigation is a licensee, the board shall direct that a complaint be issued under RSA 309-B:12, and if the subject of the investigation is not a licensee, the board shall take appropriate action under RSA 309-B:15 or 309-B:16. Upon a finding of no probable cause, the board shall close the matter and shall thereafter release information relating to the investigation only with the consent of the person or firm under investigation.

IV. The board may review the publicly available professional work of licensees on a general and random basis, without any requirement of a formal complaint or suspicion of impropriety on the part of any particular licensee. If, as a result of such review, the board discovers reasonable grounds for a more specific investigation, the board may proceed under paragraphs I through III of this section.

309-B:12 Enforcement Procedures; Hearings by the Board.

I. In any case where probable cause with respect to a violation by a licensee has been determined by the board, whether following an investigation under RSA 309-B:11, or upon receipt of a written complaint furnishing grounds for a determination of such probable cause, or upon receipt of notice of a decision by the board of accountancy or similar agency of another state, possession of the United States or country furnishing such grounds, the board shall issue a complaint setting forth appropriate charges and set a date for a disciplinary hearing before the board on such charges. The board shall, not less than 30 days prior to the date of such hearing, serve a copy of the complaint and notice of the time and place of the hearing upon the licensee, together with a copy of the board's rules governing proceedings under this section, either by personal delivery or by mailing a copy by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the licensee at the licensee's address last known to the board.

II. A licensee against whom a complaint has been issued under this section shall have the right, reasonably in advance of the hearing, to examine and copy the report of investigation, if any, and any documentary or testimonial evidence and summaries of anticipated evidence in the board's possession relating to the subject matter of the complaint. The board's rules governing proceedings under this section shall specify the time and manner in which such right may be exercised.

III. In a hearing under this section the respondent licensee may appear in person or, in the case of a firm, through a duly authorized partner, officer, director, or shareholder member or manager, or by counsel. The respondent or counsel may examine witnesses and evidence presented in support of the complaint, and may present evidence and witnesses on the licensee's behalf. The licensee shall have the right, on application to the board, to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence.

IV. The evidence supporting the complaint shall be presented by the investigating officer, by a board member designated for that purpose, or by counsel. A board member who presents the evidence, or who has conducted the investigation of the matter under RSA 309-B:11, shall not participate in the board's decision of the matter.

V. In a hearing under this section, the board shall be advised by counsel, and such individual shall not be the same counsel who presents or assists in presenting the evidence supporting the complaint under paragraph IV of this section.

VI. In a hearing under this section, the board shall not be bound by the technical rules of evidence.

VII. In a hearing under this section, a stenographic or electronic record shall be made and filed with the board. A transcript need not be prepared unless review is sought under paragraph X of this section or the board determines that there is other good cause for its preparation. The respondent may request a copy of such record and shall bear the cost of making such copy.

VIII. In a hearing under this section, a recorded vote of a majority of all members of the board, excluding members disqualified by reason of paragraph IV or other reasons under this section, shall be required to sustain any charge and to impose any penalty with respect to such hearing.

IX. If, after service of a complaint and notice of hearing as provided in paragraph I of this section, the respondent licensee fails to appear at the hearing, the board may proceed to hear evidence against the licensee and may enter such order as it deems warranted by the evidence. The order shall be final unless the licensee petitions for review under paragraph X of this section, provided, however, that within 30 days from the date of any such order, upon a showing of good cause for the licensee's failure to appear and defend, the board may set aside the order and schedule a new hearing on the complaint to be conducted in accordance with applicable paragraphs of this section.

X. Any person or firm adversely affected by any order of the board entered after a hearing under this section may appeal such order by filing a written petition with the superior court in the county in which the respondent resides or, if not a resident of this state, in the county in which the respondent has a place of business or resident agent. The petition shall be filed within 30 days after the entry of the order. The respondent shall exhaust all applicable administrative procedures before periodical review may commence. The procedures for review and the scope of the review shall be as specified in RSA 541-A, the New Hampshire Administrative Procedure Act.

XI. In any case where the board renders a decision imposing discipline against a licensee under RSA 309-B:10 or RSA 309-B:12, the board shall examine its records to determine whether the licensee holds a certificate, license, or a permit in any other state, possession of the United States, or country. If that is the case, the board shall notify the board of accountancy or other similar regulatory agency of such other state, possession of the United States, or country of its decision, by mail, within 45 days of rendering the decision or within 45 days of a final decision of an appeal by a court reviewing the board's decision, whichever is later. The board may also furnish information relating to proceedings resulting in disciplinary action to other public authorities and to professional organizations having a disciplinary interest in the licensee. Where a petition for review has been filed pursuant to RSA 309-B:12, X, the notification and furnishing of information provided for in this paragraph shall await the resolution of such review and, if resolution is in favor of the licensee, no such notification or furnishing of information shall be made.

309-B:13 Reinstatement.

I. In any case where the board has suspended or revoked a certificate, permit, or registration or refused to renew a certificate, permit, or registration, the board may, upon application in writing by the individual or firm affected and for good cause shown, modify the suspension or reissue the certificate, permit, or registration.

II. The board shall by rule specify the manner in which such applications shall be made, the times within which they shall be made, and the circumstances under which hearings will be held.

III. Before reissuing or terminating the suspension of a certificate, permit, or registration under this section, and as a condition to such action, the board may require the applicant to show successful completion of specified continuing professional education. The board may make the reinstatement of a certificate, permit, or registration conditional and subject to satisfactory completion of a peer review conducted in such fashion as the board shall specify.

309-B:14 Unlawful Acts.

I. Only licensees may issue a report on financial statements of any other person, firm, organization, or governmental unit or otherwise offer to render or render any attest service. This restriction shall not prohibit any act of a public official or public employee in the performance of that person's duties as such; or prohibit the performance by any person from the use of accounting skills, or analyzing and preparing projections of financial data in the performance of management advisory services, financial advisory services, consulting services, the preparation of tax returns, or the furnishing of advice on tax matters. This restriction also does not apply to non-licensees who may prepare financial statements and issue reports thereon which do not purport to be in compliance with the Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services (SSARS).

II. Licensees performing attest services shall provide those services pursuant to statements on standards relating to those services adopted by reference or directly by the board.

III. No person not holding a valid certificate shall use or assume the title or designation "certified public accountant," or the abbreviation "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such person is a certified public accountant.

IV. No firm shall provide attest services or assume or use the title or designation "certified public accountants," or the abbreviation "CPAs," or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such firm is a CPA firm unless (1) the firm holds a valid permit issued under RSA 309-B:8, and (2) ownership of the firm is in accord with this chapter and rules adopted by the board.

V. No person shall assume or use the title or designation "public accountant," or the abbreviation "PA," or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such person is a public accountant unless such person holds a valid registration issued under RSA 309-B:9.

VI. No person or firm not holding a valid certificate, permit, or registration issued under RSA 309-B:7, 309-B:8 or 309-B:9 shall provide attest services or assume or use the title or designation "public accountant," the abbreviation "PA," or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such firm is composed of public accountants.

VII. No person or firm not holding a valid certificate, permit, or registration issued under RSA 309-B:7, 309-B:8 or 309-B:9 shall assume or use the title or designation "certified accountant," "chartered accountant," "enrolled accountant," "licensed accountant," "registered accountant," "accredited accountant," or any other title or designation likely to be confused with the titles "certified public accountant" or "public accountant," or use any of the abbreviations "CA," "LA," "RA," "AA," or similar abbreviation likely to be confused with the abbreviations "CPA" or "PA." The title "Enrolled Agent" or "EA" may only be used by individuals so designated by the Internal Revenue Service.

VIII. Persons not licensed under this chapter shall not use language in any statement relating to the financial affairs of a person or entity which is conventionally used by licensees in reports on financial statements. In this regard, the board shall issue safe harbor language non-licensees may use in connection with such financial information. Such disclaimer language shall include the following:

"I (we) have prepared the accompanying (financial statements) of (name of entity) as of (time period) for the (period) then ended. This presentation is limited to preparing in the form of financial statements information that is the representation of management (owners).

I (we) have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and accordingly do not express an opinion or any form of assurance on them."

IX. No person or firm not holding a valid certificate, permit, or registration issued under RSA 309-B:7, 309-B:8 or 309-B:9 shall assume or use any title or designation that includes the words "accountant," "auditor," or "accounting," in connection with any other language, including the language of a report, that implies that such person or firm holds such a certificate, permit, or registration or has special competence as an accountant or auditor. This paragraph shall not prohibit any officer, partner, or employee of any firm or organization from affixing a signature to any statement in reference to the financial affairs of such firm or organization with any wording designating the position, title, or office that person holds, nor shall it prohibit any act of a public official or employee in the performance of that person's duties. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit non-licensurees who perform services involving the use of accounting skills from describing such services as "bookkeeping", "tax preparation" or "general accounting" services or describing themselves as "accountants".

X. No persons holding a certificate or registration or firm holding a permit under this chapter shall use a professional or firm name or designation that is misleading about the legal form of the firm, or about the persons or number of persons who are partners, officers, members, managers, or shareholders of the firm, or about any other matter; provided, however, that names of one or more of the former partners, members, managers or shareholders may be included in the name of a firm or its successor.

XI. No provision of this section shall have any application to a person holding a certification, designation, degree, license, or permit granted in a foreign country entitling the holder to engage in the practice of public accountancy or its equivalent in such country, whose activities in this state are limited to the provision of professional services to persons or firms who are residents of, governments of, or business entities of the country in which the person holds such entitlement, who performs no attest services as defined, and who issues no reports with respect to the financial statements of any other persons, firms, or governmental units in this state, and who does not use in this state any title or designation other than the one under which that person practices in such country, followed by a translation of such title or designation into English, if it is in a different language, and by the name of such country.

XII. No holder of a certificate issued under RSA 309-B:7 or a registration issued under RSA 309-B:9 shall perform attest services in any firm that does not hold a valid permit issued under RSA 309-B:8.

XIII.(a) A licensee shall not for a commission recommend or refer to a client any product or service, or for a commission recommend or refer any product or service to be supplied by a client, or receive a commission, when the licensee also performs for that client an attest service as defined in RSA 309-B:3, I or a compilation of a financial statement when the licensee expects, or reasonably might expect, that a third party will use the financial statement and the licensee's compilation report does not disclose a lack of independence.

(b) A licensee who is not prohibited by this section from performing services for or receiving a commission and who is paid or expects to be paid a commission shall disclose that fact to any person or entity to whom the licensee recommends or refers a product or service to which the commission relates.

(c) Any licensee who accepts a referral fee for recommending or referring any service of a licensee to any person or entity or who pays a referral fee to obtain a client shall disclose such acceptance or payment to the client.

XIV.(a) A licensee shall not:

(1) Perform for a contingent fee any professional services for, or receive such a fee from a client for whom the licensee or the licensee's firm performs an attest service as defined in RSA 309-B:3, I or a compilation of a financial statement when the licensee expects, or reasonably might expect, that a third party will use the financial statement and the licensee's compilation report does not disclose a lack of independence; or

(2) Prepare an original or amended tax return or claim for a tax refund for a contingent fee for any client; provided however that a licensee may prepare an amended return or claim for refund for a contingent fee if that licensee has a reasonable expectation that the amended return or claim for refund will be the subject of substantive review by the taxing authority.

(b) The prohibition in subparagraph (a) applies during the period in which the licensee is engaged to perform any of the services listed in subparagraph (a) and the period covered by any historical financial statements involved in any such listed services.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, a contingent fee is a fee established for the performance of any service pursuant to an arrangement in which no fee will be charged unless a specified finding or result is attained, or in which the amount of the fee is otherwise dependent upon the finding or result of such service. Solely for purposes of this section, fees are not regarded as being contingent if fixed by courts or other public authorities, or, in tax matters, if determined based on the results of judicial proceedings or the findings of governmental agencies. A licensee's fees may vary depending, for example, on the complexity of services rendered.

XV. Nothing within this section shall prohibit a practicing attorney or firm of attorneys from preparing or presenting records or documents customarily prepared by an attorney or firm of attorneys in connection with the attorney's professional work in the practice of law, or from billing a client or receiving a fee from a client in conformity with the professional conduct rules that govern the practice of law by such attorney or firm of attorneys.

309-B:15 Injunctions Against Unlawful Acts. Whenever, as a result of an investigation under RSA 309-B:11 or RSA 309-B:12, the board believes that any person or firm has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of RSA 309-B:14, the board may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices. Upon a showing by the board that such person or firm has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such acts or practices, an injunction, restraining order, or other order as may be appropriate may be granted by such court.

309-B:16 Criminal Penalties.

I. Whenever, by reason of an investigation under RSA 309-B:11 or otherwise, the board has reason to believe that any person or firm has knowingly engaged in acts or practices which constitute a violation of RSA 309-B:14, the board may bring its information to the attention of the department of justice of this state which may, in its discretion, cause appropriate criminal proceedings to be brought.

II. Any person who knowingly violates any provision of RSA 309-B:14 shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

309-B:17 Single Act as Evidence of Practice. In any action brought under RSA 309-B:12, RSA 309-B:15 or RSA 309-B:16, evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this chapter shall be sufficient to justify the imposition of a penalty, injunction, restraining order, or conviction, respectively, without evidence of a general course of conduct.

309-B:18 Confidential Communications. Except by permission of the client for whom a licensee performs services, or the heirs, successors, or personal representatives of such client, a licensee or any partner, officer, member, manager, shareholder, or employee of a licensee shall not voluntarily disclose information communicated to such person by the client relating to and in connection with services rendered to the client by the licensee. Such information shall be deemed confidential, provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the disclosure of information required to be disclosed by the standards of the public accounting profession in reporting on the examination of financial statements or as prohibiting disclosures in court proceedings or administrative proceedings before governmental agencies in instances where a subpoena or summons has been issued, in investigations or proceedings under RSA 309-B:11 or RSA 309-B:12, in ethical investigations conducted by private professional organizations, or in the course of peer reviews, or to other persons active in the organization performing services for that client on a need to know basis or to persons in such professional organization, peer review entity, or organization performing services for that client who need this information for the sole purpose of assuring quality control.

309-B:19 Licensees' Working Papers and Clients' Records.

I. Subject to the provisions of RSA 309-B:18, all statements, records, schedules, working papers, and memoranda made by a licensee or a partner, shareholder, officer, director, member, manager, or employee of a licensee, incident to, or in the course of, rendering services to a client except for the records that are part of the client's records, shall be and remain the property of the licensee in the absence of an express agreement between the licensee and the client to the contrary. No such statement, record, schedule, working paper, or memorandum shall be sold, transferred, or bequeathed, without the consent of the client or the client's personal representative or assignee, to anyone other than one or more surviving partner, member or stockholder or new partner, new member or new stockholder of the licensee, or any combined or merged firm or successor in interest to the licensee. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any temporary transfer of work papers or other material necessary in the course of carrying out peer reviews or as otherwise interfering with the disclosure of information pursuant to RSA 309-B:18.

II. A licensee shall furnish to the client or former client, upon request and reasonable notice:

(a) A copy of the licensee's working papers, to the extent that such working papers include records that would ordinarily constitute part of the client's records and are not otherwise available to the client; and

(b) Any accounting or other records belonging to, or obtained from or on behalf of, the client that the licensee removed from the client's premises or received for the client's account. The licensee may make and retain copies of such documents of the client when they form the basis for work done by the licensee.

(c) A copy of computer prepared client data diskettes containing client ledger data, spread sheet data, client documents and any other such data of the client or former client that would ordinarily constitute part of the client's records and not otherwise be available to the client.

III. Nothing in this section shall require a licensee to keep any work paper beyond the period prescribed in any other applicable statute.

309-B:20 Appointment of Secretary of State as Agent. Application by a person or a firm not a resident of this State for a certificate under RSA 309-B:7 or a license to practice under RSA 309-B:8 shall constitute appointment of the secretary of state as the applicant's agent upon whom process may be served in any action or proceeding against the applicant arising out of any transaction or operation connected with or incidental to services performed by the applicant while a licensee within this state.

309-B:21 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HB 691-FN, relative to persons receiving split benefit accidental disability retirement benefit allowances. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill would have changed some of the requirements for vested deferred benefits in the retirement system. The changes are necessary but can be postponed for another year. After consultation with the retirement system, it was felt appropriate to make this bill inexpedient to legislate and address all similar questions of language changes in a future bill. Vote 15-0.

HB 616-FN-A, relative to providing funds to certified driver education courses from the driver training fund. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Finance: As received from the policy committee, this bill would reimburse students at private driving schools at the same rate that public schools are reimbursed for their drivers' ed students. Review of the financial aspects of the bill brought out that the Department of Safety is unsure of how many students are currently eligible for public driver education or of how many annually take private courses; that reimbursement is being made for some out-of-state residents; that passing the course is not required for reimbursement; and that reimbursement funds are used for widely different purposes, including support of athletic programs. The amendment therefore changes the bill to create a study committee to examine all of these issues. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (1165hh)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

This bill establishes a study committee to consider issues related the driver training fund, established pursuant to RSA 263:52.

HB 698-FN-L, restricting fees for registration permits for certain vehicles. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Finance: This bill is intended to create some consistency in the fees charged for registration of construction equipment. Neither the Department of Safety nor the Municipal Association could predict how the change would affect revenues, but both agreed that the amount of the change would be small and neither had any objection to it. Vote 22-0.

HB 551, relative to employers who are subject to state law against discrimination. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Tony F. Soltani for Judiciary: This bill, as amended, expands the application of the New Hampshire Anti-Discrimination Law and codifies certain exemptions. The bill will treat all entities in the private sector equally regardless of their for-profit or not-for-profit status. State and local governments will remain subject to the prohibitions of the statute. This act will also codify exemptions for religious organizations, where the entity seeks to advance its philosophical or theological objectives. Additionally, an exemption is made for circumstances where a bona fide employment qualification may create a preference. The exemptions adopted are, for the most part, adaptations of parts of the Federal Title VII exemption, as well as, the New York State Law exemptions for religious institutions. These laws have been subject to repeated scrutiny by the courts and the committee sought to avoid the reinvention of the wheel. The law will only impact employment relationships where the employer has six (6) or more employees. It does not affect membership in social clubs, public accommodations, housing or other activities. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (1156h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT revising the definition of "employer" under the employment discrimination laws of the state.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Commission for Human Rights; Definitions. Amend RSA 354-A:2, VII to read as follows:

VII. "Employer" does not include ~~[a club exclusively social, or a fraternal, charitable, educational or religious association or corporation, if such club, association or corporation is not organized for private profit, nor does it include]~~ any employer with fewer than 6 persons in its employ, but shall include the state and all political subdivisions, boards, departments and commissions thereof.

(a) Nothing in this section shall prevent an employer from hiring and employing employees on the basis of religion, sex, national origin, family or marital status, sexual orientation, color, creed or disability in those instances where religion, sex, national origin, family or marital status, sexual orientation, color, creed or absence of disability is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to bar any religious or denominational institution or organization, or any organization operated for charitable or educational purposes which is operated, supervised or controlled by or in connection with a religious organization, from limiting employment or giving preference to persons of the same religion or denomination in taking such actions as are calculated by the religious organization to promote the religious principles for which it is established or maintained.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill revises the definition of "employer" under the employment discrimination laws of the state.

HB 728-FN, relative to per diem reimbursement to legislators for expenses on days of legislative committee meetings. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Peter H. Burling for Legislative Administration: The committee felt it is time for a serious and thorough review of the compensation and reimbursement of legislators. This study will be done by June 30, 2000, and will offer the possibility of meaningful change for the next century. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1203h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a commission to study the compensation of members of the legislature and the reimbursement for expenses.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Commission Established. There is established a commission to study the compensation of members of the legislature and the reimbursement for expenses.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the commission shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(b) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(c) Three nonvoting members appointed by the governor.

II. Legislative members of the commission shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the commission.

3 Duties. The commission shall study the compensation and reimbursement for expenses of members of the New Hampshire house of representatives and the New Hampshire senate.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The speaker of the house shall appoint a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the commission shall be called by the first-named house member and shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Five members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The commission shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before June 30, 2000.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a commission to study the compensation of the members of the legislature and the reimbursement for expenses.

SB 81, permitting the city of Manchester to issue bonds to finance unfunded liability of the city's employee pension system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Municipal and County Government: This bill allows Manchester flexibility in funding one of its pension plans. The Committee was reassured that a great deal of preparation and research was done in preparation of the bill's filing. The amendment "sunsets" the bill after five years. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1169h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Definition. In this act, the "old" pension system means the city of Manchester pre-1974 non-contributory pension system.

3 Issuance of Bonds or Notes. The city of Manchester is hereby authorized to issue bonds or notes from time to time up to an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $30,000,000 for the purpose of funding the unfunded pension liability of the pay-as-you-go "old" pension system of the city of Manchester. Bonds or notes issued pursuant to the authority hereof shall be issued for terms not in excess of 30 years from their date of issue and, except as otherwise provided herein, shall be subject to the applicable provisions of RSA 33, the municipal finance act. The aggregate amount of bonds or notes which may be issued by the city of Manchester hereunder, shall not exceed the amount which the "old" pension system of the city of Manchester, with the approval of the mayor and city finance officer, shall determine to be the unfunded actuarial liability of the "old" pension system of the city of Manchester. Such determination of the "old" pension system of the city of Manchester shall be based upon the report of a nationally recognized independent consultant actuary, which may be the consulting actuary generally retained by the city of Manchester. Such report shall also set forth the present value savings to the city of Manchester reasonably expected to be achieved as a result of the issuance of such bonds and shall be filed with the board of mayor and aldermen of the city of Manchester prior to the final passage of any bond resolution of the city of Manchester authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes hereunder.

4 Maturity Schedules. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, the maturities of bonds or notes issued pursuant to the authority of this act shall either be arranged so that for each issue the annual combined payments of principal and interest shall be as nearly equal as practicable in the opinion of the officer of the city authorized to issue said bonds or notes or shall be arranged in accordance with a schedule providing for a more rapid amortization of principal.

5 Investment of Proceeds. Proceeds of any bonds or notes issued pursuant to the authority of this act, shall be paid by the city of Manchester to the trustees of trust funds of the city of Manchester, shall be allocated solely to reduce the funding obligations of the city of Manchester thereto, and shall be held, invested, and expended by the trustee of trust funds of the city of Manchester in accordance with law.

6 Authority to Issue Bonds or Notes. The authority of the city of Manchester to issue bonds or notes provided in section 3 of this act shall terminate on July 1, 2004. The termination of the authority to issue bonds or notes shall not effect the validity of any bonds or notes issued prior to July 1, 2004.

7 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

HB 263, repealing the Northern New England Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Compact. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Ralph J. Rosen for Science, Technology and Energy: This compact was formed on paper a number of years ago. It has never existed as an organization, no meetings were ever held, and no record of any correspondence exists. Maine and Vermont withdrew from the compact and entered into agreements with Texas for handling low-level waste. New Hampshire has turned to South Carolina. The current House and Senate appointees to the compact committee are the sponsors of this bill. Vote 16-0.

HJR 8, urging the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to change the structure of the New England Individual Service Organization (ISO). OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Gary R. Gilmore for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This resolution urges the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) to appoint a more diverse, representative, and local Board to govern the New England Independent System Operator (ISO), the agency responsible for operating New England's electric transmission grid. The current ISO Board is largely comprised of individuals from outside the New England region while some other regional ISOs are comprised in a similar manner as advocated in the resolution. Of additional concern is the lack of competitive power supply being built in New England and the ISO's failure in facilitating such energy policy. Vote 15-0.

Amend the title of the resolution by replacing it with the following:

A RESOLUTION urging the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to change the structure of the New England Independent System Operator (ISO).

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the resolving clause with the following:

That the general court of the state of New Hampshire urges the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to appoint a diverse body to govern the New England Independent System Operator (ISO), with membership from the following groups, selected by the membership of said groups:

- I. Four representatives from investor-owned utilities.
- II. Two representatives from municipally or cooperatively owned utilities.
- III. One representative of industrial consumers.
- IV. One representative of commercial consumers.
- V. One representative of residential consumers.
- VI. One representative from an environmental public interest group.
- VII. One representative from a public utility commission.

VIII. One representative from a non-utility organization which markets energy products; and

IX. One representative of a consumer advocate's office.

That membership shall be apportioned to provide representation from throughout the New England states; and

That a copy of this resolution, signed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house, be forwarded by the house clerk to the Commissioner of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, and the congressional delegations, house and senate leaders and governors of all the New England States.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This house joint resolution urges the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to change the structure of the New England Independent System Operator (ISO) to create a more appropriate and representative body to address the utility issues before it.

HB 680-FN-A, establishing a veterans' programs number plate trust fund and a special veterans' programs license plate, to support state veterans' programs. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE
Rep. Robert J. Letourneau for Transportation: An amendment was offered by the sponsor to establish a $25 fee for these special license plates and an advisory commission to design the plates. The committee has many members who are veterans and support veterans issues. They commend the sponsors for their effort, however, they are opposed to the use of special license plates to do so. The Department of Safety felt that the start up cost associated with the development and implementation of a new special plate issuance would be about $25,000 for 900 sets of special plates, not including the cost of a data base and programmers or commission. There were also recent reports from our neighbor to the south that has implemented 7 such special plates and have not sold well. This state has not even recovered the start up or inventories cost. The committee also recognizes that the conservation license plate has not been issued yet, and this needs to be considered. Finally, the committee heard testimony from the commissioner of safety that the legal purpose for license plates is for law enforcement to recognize proper registration. The department would like to discourage legislation of special license plates for recognition and safety concerns within the law enforcement community. Vote 18-0.

HB 241, relative to party nominations in multi-seat districts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE
Rep. Janet S. Arndt for Election Law: This bill would permit candidates for state office in multi-seat districts to receive the nomination of more than one political party. Under current law, only candidates for multi-seat districts are prohibited from accepting the nomination of more than one party. On March 25, this House passed HB 381, by a vote of 243-102, making this prohibition uniform for all candidates. This bill would reverse that action. The majority of the committee continues to endorse the goal of HB 381, which is to assure "truth in labeling" by having candidates run as members of their own party only. The purpose of the primary election is to allow party members to select the best candidate for the general election. It is less confusing to list candidates on the general election ballot with only one party affiliation——this allows voters to understand more clearly the actual party affiliation of the candidate for whom they are voting. Vote 11-2.

Rep. Vaillancourt requested a quorum count. The Speaker declared a quorum present.

Rep. Jacobson spoke against.

Rep. Vaughn spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Buckley and Lozeau spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Arndt requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 97, establishing a right to farm act. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Harold P. Melcher for Environment and Agriculture: In the conflict between agricultural interests and local zoning control, this bill strikes an acceptable compromise supported by the municipal association. The amendment, which replaces the original bill, provides protections for agricultural activities by creating a presumption that unless explicitly addressed through zoning, such activities are deemed permitted if conducted in accordance with best management practices adopted by the commissioner of agriculture, markets and food and all applicable laws and regulations. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (0590h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the right to farm.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Purpose. The purpose of this act is to clarify the requirements of RSA 672:1, III-b, that farming and agriculture, as defined in RSA 21:34-a, shall not be unreasonably limited by the use of municipal planning and zoning powers.

2 Purposes of Zoning Ordinances. Amend RSA 674:17, 1(g) and (h) to read as follows:

(g) To facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, solid waste facilities, water, sewerage, schools, parks, child day care; [~~and~~]

(h) To assure proper use of natural resources and other public requirements[~~;~~]; and

(i) To preserve agricultural land and buildings for agricultural use.

3 New Subdivision; Agricultural Uses of Land. Amend RSA 674 by inserting after section 32 the following new subdivision:

Agricultural Uses of Land

674:32-a Presumption. In accordance with RSA 672:1, III-d, whenever agricultural activities are not explicitly addressed with respect to any zoning district or location, they shall be deemed to be permitted there, as either a primary or accessory use, so long as conducted in accordance with best management practices adopted by the commissioner of agriculture, markets, and food and with federal and state laws, regulations, and rules.

674:32-b Existing Agricultural Uses. Any agricultural use which exists pursuant to RSA 674:32-a, or which was legally established prior to the enactment of restrictive regulations:

I. May be re-established after any period of disuse.

II. May without restriction be expanded, altered to meet changing technology or markets, or changed to another agricultural use, as set forth in RSA 21:34-a, so long as any such expansion, alteration, or change complies with all federal and state laws, regulations, and rules, including best management practices adopted by the commissioner of agriculture, markets, and food; subject, however, to the following limitations:

(a) Any new establishment, re-establishment after disuse, or significant expansion of an operation involving the keeping of livestock, poultry, or other animals may be made subject to special exception, building permit, or other local land use board approval.

(b) Any new establishment, re-establishment after disuse, or significant expansion of a farm stand, retail operation, or other use involving on-site transactions with the public, may be made subject to applicable special exception, building permit, or other local land use board approval and may be regulated to the extent necessary to prevent traffic and parking from adversely impacting adjacent property, streets and sidewalks, or public safety.

674:32-c Other General Provisions.

I. The tilling of soil and the growing and harvesting of crops and horticultural commodities, as a primary or accessory use, shall not be prohibited in any district.

II. Nothing in this subdivision shall exempt new, re-established, or expanded agricultural operations from generally applicable building and site requirements such as dimensional standards, setbacks, driveway and traffic regulations, parking requirements, noise, odor, or vibration restrictions or sign regulations; provided, however, that in circumstances where their literal application would effectively prohibit an agricultural use allowed by this subdivision, or would otherwise be unreasonable in the context of an agricultural use, the board of adjustment, building code board of appeals, or other applicable local board, after due notice and hearing, shall grant a waiver from such requirement to the extent necessary to reasonably permit the agricultural use, unless such waiver would have a demonstrated adverse effect on public health or safety, or the value of adjacent property. Such waiver shall continue only as long as utilized for the permitted agricultural use.

III. Nothing in this subdivision shall apply to any aspect of an agricultural operation determined to be injurious to public health or safety under RSA 147. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to modify or limit the duties and authority of the department of environmental services under RSA 485 or RSA 485-A or the commissioner of the department of agriculture, markets, and food under title XL.

IV. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to affect the regulation of sludge or septage.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides protections for agricultural activities by creating a presumption that unless explicitly addressed through zoning, such activities are deemed permitted if conducted in accordance with best management practices adopted by the commissioner of agriculture, markets, and food and all applicable laws and regulations.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

CACR 21, relating to gender neutral language in the constitution. Providing that all references to persons in part 2 of the constitution shall be gender neutral. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. William R. Zolla for Executive Departments and Administration: The committee by a vote of 15-0, felt that with the advance of women's rights since the inception of the Constitution in 1784, the time has come to formally recognize these changes throughout the New Hampshire Constitution by incorporating the gender neutral language. This bill with the amendment encompasses the entire document and not just part II as originally proposed and passed by both the house and senate last session. In that the gender neutral language will be incorporated as existing documentation is revised, reprinted or updated, no additional costs are anticipated. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (0830h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

RELATING TO: gender neutral language in the constitution.

PROVIDING THAT: all references to persons in the constitution shall be gender neutral.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the resolving clause with the following:

I. That article 1 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 1. [Equality of [Men] People; Origin and Object of Government.] All [men] people are born equally free and independent; therefore, all government of right originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

II. That article 2 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 2. [Natural Rights.] All [men] people have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights - among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by this state on account of race, creed, color, sex or national origin.

III. That article 3 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 3. [Society, its Organization and Purposes.] When ~~[men]~~ people enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

IV. That article 5 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 5. [Religious Freedom Recognized.] Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of ~~[his]~~ one's own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in ~~[his]~~ person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of ~~[his]~~ an individual's own conscience; or for ~~[his]~~ one's religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion; provided ~~[he]~~ such individual ~~[doth]~~ shall not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

V. That article 6 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 6. [Morality and Piety.] As morality and piety, rightly grounded on high principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of ~~[men]~~ all people, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, therefore, the several parishes, bodies, corporate, or religious societies shall at all times have the right of electing their own teachers, and of contracting with them for their support or maintenance, or both. But no person shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the schools of any sect or denomination. And every person, denomination or sect shall be equally under the protection of the law; and no subordination of any one sect, denomination or persuasion to another shall ever be established.

VI. That article 10 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 10. [Right of Revolution.] Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one ~~[man]~~ individual, family, or class ~~[of men]~~; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

VII. That article 11 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 11. [Elections and Elective Franchises.] All elections are to be free, and every inhabitant of the state of 18 years of age and upwards shall have an equal right to vote in any election. Every person shall be considered an inhabitant for the purposes of voting in the town, ward, or unincorporated place where ~~[he has his domicile]~~ one is domiciled. No person shall have the right to vote under the constitution of this state who has been convicted of treason, bribery or any willful violation of the election laws of this state or of the United States; but the supreme court may, on notice to the attorney general, restore the privilege to vote to any person who may have forfeited it by conviction of such offenses. The general court shall provide by law for voting by qualified voters who at the time of the biennial or state elections, or of the primary elections therefor, or of city elections, or of town elections by official ballot, are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants, or who by reason of physical disability are unable to vote in person, in the choice of any officer or officers to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election. Voting registration and polling places shall be easily accessible to all persons including disabled and elderly persons who are otherwise qualified to vote in the choice of any officer or officers to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election. The right to vote shall not be denied to any person because of the non-payment of any tax. Every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to be elected into office.

VIII. That article 12 of the first part of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

[Art.] 12. [Protection and Taxation Reciprocal.] Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of ~~[his]~~ life, liberty, and property; ~~[he is]~~ everyone is therefore bound to contribute ~~[his]~~ one's share in the expense of such protection, and to yield ~~[his]~~ personal service when necessary. But no part of ~~[a man's]~~ an individual's property shall be taken ~~[from him]~~,

HB 499-FN, relative to payment by the state of the cost of medical insurance benefits for certain New Hampshire retirement system members. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: When the bill was first introduced to the committee, it appeared as a duplicate of RSA 100:51 with the exception that it moved the responsibility of paying for a medical plan from an agreement between the trustees of the retirement system and the employer to one between the trustees and the retired member. The bill was voted ITL. Later the committee was provided an amendment that changed the responsibility for payment to the retirement system. This was done even though the retirement system stated, through its executive director, that NHRS does not have the staff to assume more health administrative responsibility. The committee voted to reconsider its previous vote of ITL and then voted to Re-Refer the bill for further study. Vote 13-2.

Adopted.

HB 88-FN, relative to purchasing credit for prior service for certain employees in the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for Finance: This bill allows employees to purchase credit for prior service with an employer joining the retirement system within 5 years from the date of the employer's participation. Current law limits both the employer and the employee to one year from the date of participation. The NH Retirement System indicates this bill will have no fiscal impact on state, county and local revenue or expenditures. Thus, the Finance Committee supports the decision of the policy committee, Executive Departments and Administration, and the previous vote by the House. Vote 19-4.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 89-FN-A, making an appropriation for a department of transportation study of the state house complex to evaluate space needs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: Both the Public Works and Finance committees see the need for this study to begin soon. The amendment delineates the six buildings (Capitol, L.O.B., Annex, State Library, Upham-Walker, and Justice/Bank) but allows consideration of adjacent areas. The amendment also changes funding from a new appropriation to $50,000 of the remainder from a previous borrowing authority. Study will include space use and assignment, and also adequacy of current systems for electricity, air handling, etc., as well as traffic flow, parking, related issues. Vote 25-0.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Study of State House Complex Space Needs. The general court recognizes that a thorough evaluation of the state house complex's current and future space needs must be conducted, including, but not limited to, an appraisal of the requirements of the state library, legislative office building, state house, state house annex, Upham Walker building, and department of justice building. Therefore, the general court hereby directs the department of transportation to retain the services of an architectural firm to conduct such a study.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Appropriation. The sum of $50,000 is hereby appropriated from the funds authorized by 1991, 355:115 and 1998, 226:1 to the department of transportation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2000, for the purposes of section 2 of this act.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the department of transportation to hire an architectural consultant to conduct a study of the state house complex's space needs. This bill makes an appropriation to the department of transportation for the purposes of the study from funds authorized by 1991, 355:115 and 1998, 226:1.
Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 294-FN-L, relative to state aid to municipalities for closure of certain municipal incinerators. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill expands the state's 20% grant program for closure costs of municipal unlined solid waste landfills to also include closure costs of 18 municipal solid waste incinerators. Half of these 18 have already closed, and the rest are expected to close in the next few years. The cost per capita of incinerator closure is far less than the cost per capita of landfill closure, so the additional cost of providing parity in state grant funds will be far less than the total long-term cost of landfill closure grants. The long-term cost of this program is expected to be less than $1,200,000 total over 20 years, with less than $100,000 in each of fiscal years 2000 and 2001 – compared to current landfill closure grant expenditures of just under $3,000,000 per year. Vote 23-1.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 311-FN-A, relative to grants made under the New Hampshire incentive program and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: The bill permits part-time students to be eligible for grants made under the New Hampshire incentive grant program: PAU 06-01-01, line 99. This bill increases state general fund expenditures by $750,000 in FY 2000 and FY 2001. The committee removed the $1.5 million from the bill, supporting the notion that an increase in this grant program be addressed during the review of the budget. Vote 21-4.

Amendment (0876h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to grants made under the New Hampshire incentive program.

Amend the bill by deleting section 2 and renumbering the original section 3 to read as section 2.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill permits part-time students to be eligible for grants made under the New Hampshire incentive grant program.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 608-FN-A, establishing a New Hampshire emergency management response and recovery fund and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Margaret A. Lynch for Finance: As introduced, this bill established an emergency management response and recovery fund at a cost of $3,000,000 to the general fund in the year 2000. It was determined during the hearing process that the main concern of the director of emergency management was to have provided a source for the matching funds required, and which the director states that he has, as a commitment to secure Federal Emergency Management Agency relief assistance grants.

The amendment replaces the entire bill and establishes a non-lapsing Response and Recovery Fund, at an appropriation of $100,000 from the general fund to meet the requirement for providing state matching funds. Vote 22-3.

Amendment (1035h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Hampshire Emergency Response and Recovery Fund. RSA 107-C:15 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

107-C:15 New Hampshire Emergency Response and Recovery Fund. There is hereby established a New Hampshire emergency response and recovery fund. The fund shall provide a source for the matching funds required as a commitment to secure Federal Emergency Management Agency relief assistance grants for costs incurred in disasters declared by the President of the United States. The fund shall be non-lapsing and continually appropriated.

2 Appropriation. The sum of $100,000 is hereby appropriated to the governor's office of emergency management for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2000, for the purpose of funding the emergency response and recovery fund established in section 1 of this act. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sum out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 695-FN-A, providing an exemption under the interest and dividends tax for taxpayers on a limited income. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David J. Alukonis for Finance: This bill provides an alternative tax exemption to the interest and dividends tax for taxpayers on a limited income. As defined in the bill, limited income means that the taxpayer's income from all sources does not exceed 200 percent of the most recent federal poverty guidelines. The Legislative Budget Assistant, Department of Revenue, and the Finance Committee agree that the fiscal impact of this bill cannot be estimated at this time as information on taxpayers' other (non interest and dividend) income is not collected. Being unable to determine this impact, the committee recommends that the bill be found Inexpedient to Legislate. Additionally, the Finance Committee is continuing its review of HB 235, which increases currently existing exemptions to the interest and dividends tax. The Finance Committee prefers to use HB 235 as the fiscal impacts of altering already existing exemptions can be readily and easily estimated. Vote 23-2.

Rep. Sabella spoke against.

Rep. Alukonis spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Langley moved that HB 695-FN-A, providing an exemption under the interest and dividends tax for taxpayers on a limited income, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, 236 members having voted in the affirmative and 99 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

HB 715-FN-A-L, granting responsibility for court security and custody and control of prisoners while in a courthouse to the county sheriff and abolishing certain court security officer positions. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill makes the county sheriffs, through their deputies and bailiffs, responsible for providing court security in all state courts, except the supreme court. The bill also abolishes the judicial employee positions currently performing these functions. Estimated savings of enacting this bill are approximately $600,000 per year.

This bill is a reenactment with modifications of the part of 1998 HB 204 that was ruled unconstitutional, by clearly stating that the sheriffs' employees performing these duties "shall be subject to the specific directives of the presiding justice."

The amendment removes proposed transfers of FY 1999 appropriations which are no longer relevant due to the passage of time. The amendment also removes contingency language which would take effect if this bill were also declared unconstitutional; this issue will be handled in other legislation. Vote 22-2.

Amendment (1105h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT granting responsibility for court security to the county sheriff and abolishing certain court security officer positions.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 6 with the following:

7 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. 1998, 297:1, relative to a statement of intent with regard to court security.

II. 1998, 297:8-11, relative to the abolishment of court security positions and transfer of funds.

8 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not effect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and, to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

9 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes the county sheriffs, through their deputies and bailiffs, responsible for providing adequate security in all state courts, except the supreme court. The bill abolishes judicial employee positions, except for court security officer positions at the supreme court.

The bill provides that when sheriffs are providing security in the state courts, they are subject to the specific directives of the presiding justice when actually performing this duty in areas of courthouses where trials or other adjudicatory functions are undertaken.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 723-FN, relative to standby and emergency guardianship proxies. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: The policy committee voted Ought to Pass, 13-0, concluding that the "bill would reduce the turmoil and potential trauma to children in times of family crises, especially when parents die unexpectedly or are incapacitated due to illness or accident."

The Finance Committee concluded that there was no fiscal impact on Health and Human Services, and no impact on state, county and local revenue. There may or may not be a slight positive or negative impact on probate court expenditures. Vote 22-1.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 738-FN, transferring funds from the judicial branch to the department of administrative services for the purpose of reimbursing counties for providing prisoner custody in courthouses. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: Last year with the passage of HB 204 the state assumed financial responsibility for the costs of both prisoner custody and courtroom security in superior and district courts. These costs were to be reimbursed to the county sheriffs and paid out of transfers from the judicial branch budget to the Department of Administrative Services budget. The court ruled the courtroom security and budget transfers unconstitutional. This bill appropriates money to pay the county bills for custody costs from HB 204's effective date of 1/1/99 until the end of this fiscal year. The amendment reduces the cost to $308,000, that actually needed according to the Sheriffs' Association, and takes the money from funds otherwise not appropriated rather than, at this late date, from the judicial branch budget Vote 24-0.

Amendment (1104h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT making an appropriation to the department of administrative services for the purpose of reimbursing counties for providing prisoner custody in courthouses.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Appropriation; Department of Administrative Services. The sum of $308, 000 is appropriated to the department of administrative services for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1999, for the purpose of reimbursing counties for providing prisoner custody in courthouses. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sum out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill appropriates funds to the department of administrative services for the purpose of reimbursing counties for providing prisoner custody in courthouses.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 297-FN, permitting a jury trial in the superior court for violations of the state law against discrimination for a certain time period or with the written assent of the commission for human rights after an action has been filed with the commission. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Loren J. Jean for Judiciary: Allowing the truism that justice is and ought to be blind, this bill is long overdue in that it allows for jury trials to both parties who have cases dealing with civil rights actions under 354-A:1. The bill in its original form would have granted jury trials only to the plaintiff; this amended version levels the playing field to allow respondents to also request a jury trial. It gives true meaning to Art. 20, Part I of the Bill of Rights, NH Constitution regarding jury trials. "This method of procedure shall be held sacred." Vote 12-3.

Amendment (1065h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT permitting a jury trial in the superior court for alleged violations of the state law against discrimination for a certain time period or with the written assent of the commission for human rights after an action has been filed with the commission.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Section; Filing Action in Superior Court. Amend RSA 354-A by inserting after section 22 the following new section:

354-A:22-a Filing Action in Superior Court.

I. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any party alleging to be aggrieved by or alleged to have committed any practice made unlawful under this chapter may, at the expiration of 90 days after the timely filing of a complaint with the commission, or sooner if the commission assents in writing, but not later than 3 years after the alleged unlawful practice occurred, bring a civil action for damages or injunctive relief, or both, in the superior court for the county in which the alleged unlawful practice occurred or in the county of residence of the party, to the same extent as damages and injunctive relief could be awarded by the commission in a complaint not removed. However, a superior court trial shall not be available to any party if the hearing before the commission has begun or has concluded pursuant to RSA 354-A:21, II(b). The party is entitled to a trial by jury on any issue of fact in an action for damages regardless of whether the party seeks equitable relief.

II. The party shall notify the commission of the filing of the superior court action. The commission shall then dismiss the complaint without prejudice, if the superior court action is filed by the complainant. A party electing to file a civil action with the superior court under paragraph I shall be barred from bringing any subsequent complaint before the commission based upon the same alleged unlawful discriminatory practice.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill permits a jury trial in the superior court for alleged violations of the state law against discrimination for a certain time period or with the written assent of the commission for human rights after an action has been filed with the commission.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 470, relative to settlement of personal actions. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Jane Wood for the Majority of Judiciary: A structured settlement is an amount payable to an injured party, in settlement of a law suit, that provides for structured periodic payments rather than one large sum. An investment of the agreed-upon sum is normally made in an annuity. There are various cases when this is preferable, especially where there are ongoing or recurring expenses. An injured adult may need to be covered over a long period of time. (Children are covered under a different statute.) If a structured settlement is agreed upon through the court process, the interest earned on the investment is not taxable. This is an added benefit to the injured party (the plaintiff, who filed the law suit). This legislation would give the plaintiff the exclusive right to choose or designate a structured settlement broker (the one who will actually invest the injured party's money. The plaintiff would also have the exclusive right to designate the insurance company or other entity to which settlement proceeds, or any portion thereof, are to be paid to fund structured periodic payments. The committee felt that the plaintiff should have the option to choose, giving the injured party greater control over his/her financial future. The legislation is basically consumer protection for the injured party. Presently, they normally rely on the defendant's insurance company, which may choose a subsidiary to be its broker. This arrangement usually results in a rebate payment to the insurance company. Most of the members questioned the motives of the insurance company. They could offer a deal with a high interest rate but with a company not very stable. The plaintiff would be more likely to choose a highly rated company, in an effort to minimize the risk involved. Vote 9-3.

Rep. John M. Pratt for the Minority of Judiciary: In the judgment of the minority of the committee, the effect of this bill, if passed, would be either (a) to decrease dramatically the number of structured settlements arrived at through the normal plaintiff/defendant negotiation process, causing a corresponding increase in the number of cases going to trial, or (b) to lower significantly the dollar amount of structured settlements which defendants will offer to plaintiffs. Either result harms the very people structured settlements were designed to serve.

Amend RSA 524:6-b as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

524:6-b Settlement of Personal Actions. In any action for personal injury or wrongful death where the parties have agreed to settlement, and where the parties have agreed that all or part of the settlement proceeds be used to provide for structured periodic payments, upon making such agreement:

I. The plaintiff shall have the exclusive right to designate a structured settlement broker to place the structured settlement; and

II. The plaintiff shall have the exclusive right to designate the insurance company or other entity to which settlement proceeds, or any portion thereof, are to be paid to fund structured periodic payments.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill permits plaintiffs in personal injury or wrongful death actions, where the parties have agreed to a structured settlement, to designate a structured settlement broker and an entity to receive the structured payments.

Adopted.

HB 605-FN, affirming sovereign immunity as it relates to the state's computers and computer software and programs and granting the state board of claims jurisdiction over claims against the state arising out of computer-related problems. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Janet G. Wall for Judiciary: This bill was recommitted back to the committee recognizing the complexity and uncertainty of the year 2000 compliance issue. The sub-committee essentially rewrote the bill to focus on technical aspects only for equipment readiness for the Y2K problem. In this amended version of the bill, the state of New Hampshire and its political subdivisions, including municipalities, will be granted limited liability if errors occur due to mechanical errors in system failures, program failure, and the generation of erroneous information. Every department in the state has an individual responsibility for oversight in upgrading equipment. While employee responsibilities in job performance are addressed elsewhere in law, this bill is narrowly focused on technological operations. Currently, quarterly reports on the state's readiness are issued. This bill does not address any other problems regarding the year 2000 such as 9/9/99, leap year, or the 100th day of the year, which has already passed without any computer problems. Vote 18-1.

Amendment (1096h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT affirming sovereign immunity for the state and its political subdivisions as it relates to the "year 2000 problem".

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Defense and Indemnification of the State, its Political Subdivisions; and Public Officers and Employees; Damages Arising From Computer-Related Problems. Amend RSA 99-D by inserting after section 8 the following:

99-D:9 Claims Arising Out of Computer-Related Problems. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the state hereby asserts for itself and its officers, legislators, employees, agents, and political subdivisions sovereign immunity with respect to any cause of action or claim for judicial relief or remedy brought or pending against the state or any of its political subdivisions or any of their respective officers, legislators, employees or agents arising out of any failure or problem related to the "year 2000" problem, as defined in RSA 541-B:1, VII.

2 New Paragraph; Actions Against Governmental Units; Definitions; Year 2000 Problem. Amend RSA 541-B:1 by inserting after paragraph VI the following new paragraph:

VII.(a) "Year 2000 problem" means an error resulting from or caused by a failure to recognize the year 2000, including an incorrect date or incorrect mechanical or electronic interpretation of a date, that is produced, calculated, or generated by any equipment, system, or process, that is owned or leased by the state, that is controlled, operated, or in any way impacted by interaction with any method of computer or automated data processing.

(b) For the purposes of this paragraph, "error" shall include, but not be limited to, system failure, program failure, and the generation of erroneous information.

3 New Subparagraph; Computer Error Immunity. Amend RSA 541-B:19, I by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) Any claim arising out of an error produced, calculated, or generated by a computer or information system, the cause of which is the year 2000 problem.

4 New Section; Liability of Governmental Units for Certain Computer Errors. Amend RSA 507-B by adding after section 2-b the following new section:

507-B:2-c Immunity for Certain Computer Errors. A governmental unit shall not be held liable for damages from any claim arising out of an error produced, calculated, or generated by a computer or information system, the cause of which is the year 2000 problem, as defined in RSA 541-B:1, VII, provided that the error is not the result of performing duties in a wanton, reckless, or grossly negligent manner.

5 Severability. In the event any of these sections are found to be unconstitutional, the provisions of RSA 541-B, relative to claims against the state, and RSA 507-B, relative to claims against governmental units, shall apply.

6 Applicability. The provisions of this act shall apply to all actions and causes of action brought after the effective date of this act.

7 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill affirms sovereign immunity for the state and its political subdivisions as it relates to the "year 2000" problem.

Adopted.

HB 707-FN, relative to the family division of the courts. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Andrew R. Peterson for Judiciary: This bill, as amended, achieved the unanimous support of the committee, and is endorsed by representatives of the New Hampshire District, Superior, and Supreme courts, the New Hampshire Bar Assn. and other interested parties. The amendment expands the existing Family Division now existing in Rockingham and Grafton counties to two additional counties, Carroll and Belknap, by 2001. It also creates a chartered study committee to consider the best method of implementing the family division statewide. This important bill offers the opportunity to provide enhanced legal services to the citizens of the granite state when dealing with such difficult matters as divorce, abuse and neglect, children in need of services, adoption and domestic violence cases. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1099h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Intent. It is the intent of the general court that a family court be implemented statewide in a manner which most expeditiously achieves the goal of providing enhanced services to parties involved in cases relating to divorce, custody, children, domestic violence, and other family law matters. The general court finds that this area of law requires the skills and attention of experienced and committed individuals who are dedicated to serving families and to the appropriate, timely resolution of family law cases in a manner which best serves the public interest. The goals of the family division are the respectful treatment of all citizens by justices, marital masters and other family division staff, the prompt and fair resolution of family issues by justices and marital masters specially selected and trained to deal effectively with such issues, the use of alternative dispute resolution to reduce the adversarial nature of proceedings involving families, and the assignment of all family matters of a single family to one family division justice or marital master located in a family division that is geographically accessible to the family.

2 New Subdivision; Family Division Established. Amend RSA 490 by inserting after section 31 the following new subdivision:

Family Division

490:32 Family Division.

I. There is hereby established a family division which shall be a permanent component of the judicial branch under the administrative authority of the supreme court in the counties of Rockingham and Grafton on the effective date of this subdivision. All matters under the jurisdiction of the family division shall be transferred from other state courts no later than 6 months after the effective date of this section.

II. The family division shall be expanded to the counties of Carroll and Belknap during the biennium ending June 30, 2001.

III. In establishing the family division, the supreme court shall:

(a) Designate the courthouses within each county which will house the family division.

(b) Select and designate judges, marital masters, and other court personnel from the district, probate and superior courts to serve in the family division, based on their expertise in, and commitment to, family law matters;

(c) Designate an administrative judge for the family division by selecting, from among the district and probate court judges serving in the family division, a jurist who has demonstrated an interest in legal issues affecting the family and a commitment to the values, objectives, and ideals of the family division.

490:33 Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, for each county in which the family division is established, jurisdiction over the following matters shall be exclusively exercised through the family division as jurisdiction was previously exercised in the superior, district and municipal and probate courts:

I. Petitions and libels of divorce, and petitions of nullity of marriage, alimony, custody of children, support, and to establish paternity.

II. Actions for support or custody for children of unwed parties.

III. Actions under RSA 169-B, relating to delinquent children.

IV. Actions under RSA 169-C, relating to abused and neglected children.

V. Actions under RSA 169-D, relating to children in need of services.

VI. Actions under RSA 173-B, relating to protection of persons from domestic violence except for concurrent jurisdiction with the superior and district and municipal courts to enter temporary protective orders under RSA 173-B:6.

VII. The adoption of children.

VIII. The guardianship of the person of minors.

IX. The termination of parental rights.

X. The change of names of persons who apply therefor in matters relating to jurisdiction in paragraphs I-IX.

490:34 Equity Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary and for each county in which the family division is established, the family division shall have the powers of a court of equity in cases where subject matter jurisdiction lies with the family division. Suits in equity where subject matter jurisdiction lies with the family division including, but not limited to, petitions and libels of divorce, and petition of nullity of marriage, alimony, custody of children, support, and other similar proceedings may be heard upon oral testimony or depositions, or both, or when both parties consent, or service having been made and a notice of the time and place of the hearing having been given, when both parties appear. Such suits may be heard by any justice of the family division at any time, but nothing contained in this section shall be construed as limiting the power of the family division to have issues of fact framed and tried by a jury, according to the rules in equity, or the course of such proceedings at common law.

490:35 Judges and Marital Masters.

I. With the understanding of the special nature of matters within the family division, judges and marital masters selected to serve shall possess the following qualifications:

(a) Willingness to serve in the family division;

(b) Professional experience in family law matters;

(c) Legal and personal qualities including, but not limited to:

(1) Knowledge of family matters, including related matters such as tax and pension law;

(2) Personal maturity so as to understand and make decisions on matters before the court; and

(3) Personal qualities of patience and understanding of the difficult personal matters which are the subject of the division and a willingness to deal with complex family matters in a non-adversarial manner.

II. The governor shall nominate and the council shall confirm all new marital masters. The governor and council shall approve those seeking a renewed contract term and the terms and conditions of the marital master contract.

3 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study procedures for implementation of a statewide family division.

(b) Three members of the senate, who shall be members of the judiciary committee, appointed by the senate president.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

5 Duties. The committee shall study and recommend the best method of establishing procedures for implementing a statewide family division.

6 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named house member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

7 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 1999.

8 Transfer of Funds and Personnel. Funds within the judicial branch operating budget and court personnel shall be transferred to the family division from the superior court and other courts as necessary.

9 Effective Date.

I. Sections 3-8 of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a family division of the courts in Rockingham and Grafton counties and requires the supreme court to expand the family division to Carroll and Belknap counties. The bill also establishes a committee to study implementation of a statewide family division.

HB 303-FN-A, relative to the preservation of and access to legislative records and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. John E. Tholl, Jr. for Legislative Administration: This bill was the request of a study committee on the preservation and access to legislative records established in 1998. This bill will provide for the entire record of any bill in the possession of the clerks of the House and Senate to be transferred to the Division of Records Management and Archives to be microfilmed and scanned for electronic access or otherwise preserved. This will make the records more accessible to the public and legislators in the future. This bill has a fiscal impact on state finances on the short term for equipment and long term for one data librarian. The Fiscal Note reflects an appropriation of $140,000 for the biennium. Vote 14-0.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 25-FN-A, making appropriations for capital improvements. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. William E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: The committee spent several days receiving testimony from various state agencies and heard about many necessary projects. Then the committee spent several weeks researching and learning more details about the projects. The treasurer provided the financial status of the state and suggested a bonding limit of $50 million for the general fund. Since the Laws of 1998 provided a $33 million appropriation for the new prison, the committee accepted $50 million as the limit, and met the challenge by recommending a $49.9 million General Fund capital budget for FY 2000-01 (about $20 million less than FY 1998-99). This appropriation will generate $20.8 million of federal funds for the approved projects. The Highway Fund projects total $8.7 million, and the Fish and Game projects total $1.04 million. The final bill balances the needs of the state, provides the greatest benefits and serves the greater number of citizens within the limited bonding. There were worthy projects not included that had some support, and there were many projects that would be 'nice to have' but funding limits this year did not permit their inclusion. There is concern among many members of this committee that too many projects are being proposed as capital projects that more appropriately should be funded in the operating budget. This practice causes delay in the funding of truly needed improvements or expansion of the state's crumbling infrastructure. An effort was made to 'weed out' such projects in this budget; but more effort is needed earlier in the budgeting process. The final version of this bill was passed by unanimous vote of the committee. Vote 19-0.

McCarty for Public Works and Highways: Skyhaven Airport, located in Rochester, is the only airport in this state owned and managed by the state of New Hampshire, other than the Pease Airport, which is managed by an authority. This bill endeavors to make possible the formulation of the mechanics to transfer Skyhaven to a local or regional entity. The objective is for better management and a more beneficial airport. The amendment specifies that revenues from hangars 2, 3 & 4 not needed for bond repayment shall be deposited for use in the operating fund. This bill calls for a plan to be developed by the Long Range Capital Planning and Utilization Committee and the Skyhaven Airport Operation Commission. This bill was the result of a study done last summer. This bill does not require that any city, town or other public entity take title; it does however, require that a plan be developed. Vote 16-1.

Amend RSA 422:49, III as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. Rental revenues from Hangars 2, 3 and 4 at Skyhaven airport which are not needed for bond repayment or required to be deposited in the Skyhaven hangar sinking fund account shall be deposited in this fund. All other revenues from Skyhaven airport rentals, leases, fees, and the sale of goods and services at Skyhaven airport shall be deposited in this fund.

Adopted.

On a division vote, 238 members having voted in the affirmative and 84 in the negative, the report was adopted.

Referred to Finance.

SB 12-FN-A, relative to the World War II memorial campaign and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. George R. Rubin for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This bill asks an appropriation of $1 for each NH citizen who served in W.W.II to help fund the construction of a W.W.II memorial on the national mall in Washington DC. This memorial will be the first national memorial dedicated to all who served in the Armed Forces and Merchant Marine of the US during W.W.II. In 1993, Congress passed legislation authorizing the building of the national W.W.II memorial. The Fiscal Note calls for a total appropriation of $60,000. Vote 13-0.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART II

HB 252, establishing a procedure for separation of condominium units at the Commons at Merrimack. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Tara G. Reardon for Commerce: This bill provides a mechanism to allow a condominium to divide itself into two separate properties. The condominium association that came before us included a block of rental units divided by a road from a group of owner-occupied townhouses. The owner-occupied units have been unable to obtain financing from some lenders because of the high rate of non-owner occupied units. The bill, as amended, included numerous opportunities for an opponent of the division to have an opportunity to be heard before the local governing body, planning board, and appeal to the superior court. Vote 12-2.

Rep. Hunt moved Re-commit to Committee.

Adopted.

HB 668, adding 2 members to the board of directors of the Pease development authority. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Commerce: While the sponsor had valid concerns as to the tenants' representation on the Board of Directors, many conflict of interest problems surfaced during the testimony. The committee does not feel that we can move ahead at this time with this piece of legislation. Vote 11-3.

Adopted.

HB 360-FN, clarifying that any person convicted of a felony in this state is prohibited from owning or possessing firearms and other dangerous weapons. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Frank M. Schanda for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill clarifies the current statutes relative to convicted felons who are prohibited from possession of firearms and/or other dangerous weapons. Under existing New Hampshire statutes those convicted of a non violent felony such as passing a bad check, can still possess a firearm. Under federal statutes, these same people are prohibited from possession of firearms. The existing conflict between federal and state statutes puts citizens of New Hampshire who have a non violent felony on their record, in harm's way. This correction to RSA 159:3 will clarify who can and who cannot possess firearms. RSA 159:3, III states that: "It is an affirmative defense to a charge under this section that a felony of which a defendant has been convicted in another jurisdiction would not have constituted a felony in the state of New Hampshire at the time such felony was committed." House Bill 360 as introduced makes New Hampshire statutes conform to federal statutes. Vote 14-2.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 574-FN-A, establishing a fisheries habitat fee required for persons obtaining a fishing license and continually appropriating the funds for fisheries habitats. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for Finance: This bill would raise the price of a fishing license by $1 (currently $23.25 for in-state residents, $35.50 for out-of-staters) generating an estimated $140,000 a year to be used to fund a fisheries habitat account within Fish and Game. Finance took into account the support this bill had from Fish and Game and members of the public during the hearing before the Wildlife and Marine Resources Committee. No general fund monies are involved; the increase seems appropriate for the purpose established by the policy committee; thus Finance has no objection. Vote 22-2.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 596, making technical corrections to certain laws administered by the department of revenue administration. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. David J. Alukonis for Finance: This bill makes technical corrections to certain tax laws and extends the temporary tax rate for the communications services tax through the biennium ending June 30, 2001. The technical changes include: reference to general tax provisions regarding penalties, reference to the United States Internal Revenue Code, clarification of an existing exemption from the real estate transfer tax, correction of a reference regarding the legacies and succession tax, and the repeal of a certain limitation on the commissioner's authority to waive or abate penalties which was enacted for the sole purpose of the tax amnesty program in the last biennium. The bill also provides that the 5.5% communications services tax rate is continued for the next biennium (3.0% permanent, 5.5% temporary). This extension will yield over $45 million during fiscal '00 & '01. Lastly, the bill also extends the prospective repeal date for the exemption of wooden poles used for communications purposes from real estate taxes. This action is taken pursuant to the extensive review and legislation which took place during the last legislative session. It should also be noted that the temporary tax rates regarding the real estate transfer tax and the rooms and meals tax are NOT in this bill as the rates for those taxes were addressed in HB 117. Vote 21-1.

Amendment (1135h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT making technical corrections to certain laws administered by the department of revenue administration and extending the temporary tax rate of the communications services tax through the biennium ending June 30, 2001.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 5 with the following:

6 Rate of Tax for Biennium Ending June 30, 2001; Intrastate and Interstate Communications Services Tax. Notwithstanding RSA 82-A:3 and RSA 82-A:4, for the period beginning July 1, 1999 and ending June 30, 2001, the rate of tax is 5.5 percent on the gross charge for communications services purchased at retail from a retailer.

7 Prospective Repeal Date Extended for Exemption of Wooden Poles Under RSA 72:8-b. Amend 1998, 304:6, I to read as follows:

I. Section 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, ~~1999~~ 2001.

8 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1-5 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. Section 7 of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

III. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes technical corrections to certain laws administered by the department of revenue administration. This bill extends the temporary tax rate of the communications services tax through the biennium ending June 30, 2001.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 601, allowing the assistant commissioner of corrections to assume the duties of the commissioner in the event that the commissioner is unable to perform such duties, and correcting out-of-date references and phraseology pertaining to the department of corrections. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill creates a new unclassified (appointed by governor and council) position of warden of the northern New Hampshire (Berlin) correctional facility, allows the assistant commissioner to assume the duties of the commissioner when necessary, renames two current superintendents as wardens, and corrects out-of-date references. The committee amendment changes this warden's pay group and salary to the minimum category exceeding his current classified employee salary ("N" instead of "O"; next-to-top step instead of the top step), and changes the personnel group of the lakes region facility (Laconia) warden to equal the new warden's personnel group.

While the Committee considered making both of these warden positions group "O" instead of "N", limiting the new position to group "N" leaves this recently-hired employee with one step increase still available; this decision also leaves time for the study committee being created by separate legislation to evaluate all unclassified positions within the state and recommend changes. However, given the increase in population at the Laconia facility since its warden was classified in group "M", to a population comparable with Berlin's capacity, the similarity between Laconia and Berlin justifies paying these two wardens equally Vote 22-1.

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT allowing the assistant commissioner of corrections to assume the duties of the commissioner in the event that the commissioner is unable to perform such duties, correcting out-of-date references and phraseology pertaining to the department of corrections, adding the position of warden of the Northern New Hampshire Correctional Facility to the unclassified system, and changing the personnel group status of the warden of the lakes region facility.

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Reference Change and Addition to Personnel Group. Amend RSA 94:1-a by:

I. Deleting in group M:

Superintendent, New Hampshire state prison for women

Superintendent, lakes region facility, department of corrections

II. Inserting in group M:

Warden, New Hampshire state prison for women

III. Inserting in group N:

Warden, lakes region facility, department of corrections

Warden, Northern New Hampshire Correctional Facility, department of corrections

Amend the bill by inserting after section 5 the following and renumbering the original sections 6-11 to read as 7-12, respectively:

6 Applicability of Salary Classifications. The warden of the Northern New Hampshire Correctional Facility (formerly the Berlin prison facility) on the effective date of this act shall become the unclassified warden at the salary step in group N which is not less than the warden's classified salary. The warden of the lakes region facility on the effective date of this act, shall be placed in the unclassified salary step in group N so that the warden shall be compensated at a rate not less than the superintendent's present salary.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the assistant commissioner to assume the duties of the commissioner in the event that the commissioner is unable for any reason to perform such duties, corrects certain out-of-date references pertaining to the department of corrections, and adds the position of warden of the Northern New Hampshire Correctional Facility to unclassified personnel group N and the position of warden of the lakes region facility to unclassified personnel group N.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 644-FN-A-L, authorizing the operation of electronic games of chance at pari-mutuel licensee locations. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE. Rep. William S. Belvin for the Majority of Finance: This bill authorizes electronic games of chance (e.g. slot machines or video poker), establishes the process for conducting these games, and creates a gaming enforcement division with the Department of Safety. The bill intends to grant an exclusive privilege to the state's four racetracks, as the gambling machines are only authorized for the existing holders of pari-mutuel licenses. Local communities in which racetracks are located must adopt the authorizing RSA by majority vote, but there is no provision for rescinding video gambling once adopted. Extensive provisions are made for the control of both persons and machines, including investments in central computer systems, thus recognizing the inherent dangers contained within the bill. The fiscal note shows first two years expenditures of $1.691 million to establish video gambling with state revenues of $160 million for the same time period. There is broad skepticism about these revenue estimates, particularly in light of the potential for Massachusetts to permit casinos on our border if such a bill is adopted.

The committee majority doubted that the state should in effect establish monopolies at the four racetracks for video gambling, and felt that the social and economic consequences would greatly diminish any presumed revenue benefits from video gambling. Some committee members viewed the proposal as exploitative of persons vulnerable to addiction. Others viewed the measure as a regressive means of raising revenue. Concerns were expressed over the potential damage to area small businesses from the diversion of discretionary dollars from stores and amusements into gambling.

Division IV of Finance and the full committee defeated motions of recommit and re-refer before voting 15-8 for Inexpedient to Legislate. Expanded gambling bills are heard in the legislature nearly every year. This bill will mark the third time this session that expanded gambling has been before the full House. It is clear to the committee majority that, on balance, video gambling brings more monetary and social ills than any presumed economic benefit. Vote 15-8.

Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for the Minority of Finance: The minority believes it is essential that this bill be re-referred for further study. While we can differ about the pluses and minuses of expanded video lottery, one thing we ought to be able to agree upon is that if we are going to do this, we ought to do it right. We ought to consider the arguments and counter-arguments regarding such things as: the social and economic impacts on society; whether this is a sustainable source of revenue should Massachusetts also legalize expanded gambling in the near future; does this type of activity lead to an increase in crime; and perhaps most significantly, what constraints should be placed on gambling and should it be limited to tracks, hotels, or opened to a wider array.

While this bill contains specific proposals, the sponsor is not married to any of them and offers the referral as an ideal device to address these and other philosophical and implementation issues. A starting point could well be the 1994 150-page gambling study which provides voluminous data on the issues raised here. The minority believes an extensive review of this is absolutely required, and if not now, then when?

The minority also believes that now is not the time to foreclose any funding source, not considering the gap we created in the general fund when we passed the committee of conference Claremont solution last week.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Vaillancourt moved that HB 644-FN-A-L, authorizing the operation of electronic games of chance at pari-mutuel licensee locations, be laid on the table.

Rep. Soltani requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

RECONSIDERATION

Having voted with the prevailing side, Rep. Kurk moved that the House reconsider its action whereby it voted to Indefinitely Postpone HB 644-FN-A-L, authorizing the operation of electronic games of chance at pari-mutuel licensee locations, and spoke against.

Reconsideration failed.

HB 652-FN, relative to victims' assistance, penalty assessments on criminal offenses, and establishing a surcharge on items sold at state prison commissaries which is continually appropriated to the victims' assistance fund. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill significantly increases funds available for the victims' assistance fund by increasing the surcharge on all fines and penalties for criminal offenses from 17 to 20 per cent ($500,000 additional revenue per year) and surcharging state prison commissary purchases by 5 per cent ($75,000 additional revenue per year). The bill also makes these funds continually appropriated. The Committee finds that the additional revenue generated for victim assistance will allow significant increases in dollar limits and significant relaxation of categorical limitations on expenses by the victims' assistance fund. The committee amendment simply clarifies language. Vote 20-3.

Amendment (1163h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 6 with the following:

6 Restitution First Priority. Amend RSA 651:63, VI to read as follows:

VI. Restitution, administrative fines and fees, and other fees collected, except for supervision fees pursuant to RSA 504-A:13, shall be allocated on a pro-rata basis by the commissioner of corrections or his or her designee when payments are insufficient to cover the full amount due for each of these balances, except that restitution to victims shall have priority over all other allocations. Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 719-FN, relative to procedures regarding children in need of services. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Mary Jane Wallner for Finance: This bill clarifies certain procedures involving children in need of services. The policy committee voted 14-0 Ought to Pass as Amended. The bill originated as the direct result of an 18-month study done by the court task force. Definitions for the terms of diversion and intervention are established.

The Finance Committee amended the bill to change the effective date, clarify the definition of diversion, and to make clear that the cost of the programs shall be paid by private insurance, if available, or otherwise by the child, parent, guardian or person having custody of the child, except under certain circumstances already provided by law. Vote 20-0.

Amendment (1185h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 New Paragraph; Diversion Defined. Amend RSA 169-D:2 by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

IV-a. "Diversion" means a decision made by a person with authority which results in providing an individually designed program for delivery of services for the child by a specific provider, or a plan to assist the child in finding a remedy for his or her inappropriate behavior. The goal of diversion is to prevent further involvement of the child in the formal legal system. Diversion of a child may take place either at pre-filing as an alternative to the filing of a petition or at any time after the filing of the petition.

Amend the bill by replacing section 9 with the following:

9 New Subparagraph; Dispositional Hearing May Include Certain After-School or Evening Programs. Amend RSA 169-D:17, I by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) Requiring any child to attend structured after-school or evening programs which address some of the child's compliance issues, as well as supervise the child during the time of the day in which the child most values his or her freedom and the time which is most often used to perform unruly acts. The cost of said programs shall be paid by private insurance, if available, or otherwise by the child, parent, guardian or person having custody of the child, or may be available to the child free of charge based on the limited means of the family or based on the program's receipt of other funding, including but not limited to funding distributed pursuant to RSA 170-G:4, XVI. Payment shall be made pursuant to RSA 169-D:29 only for those programs that have been certified pursuant to RSA 170-G:4, XVIII.

Amend the bill by replacing section 11 with the following:

11 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage. Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 505-FN, establishing a special license plate for veterans. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Jon P. Beaulieu Transportation: An amendment was offered by the sponsor to establish a $25 fee for these special license plates and an advisory commission to design the plates. This bill was very similar to HB 680, and most of the debate was centered around the same issues. The committee has many members who are veterans and support veterans issues. Once again they commend the sponsors for their effort, however, they are opposed to the use of special license plates to do so. There were also recent reports from our neighbor to the south that has implemented 7 such special plates, which have not sold well. This state has not even recovered the start up or inventories cost. The committee also recognizes that the conservation license plate has not been issued yet, and this needs to be considered. Additionally, the committee heard testimony from the Commissioner of Safety that the legal purpose for license plates is for law enforcement to recognize proper registration. The department would like to discourage legislation of special license plates for recognition and safety concerns within the law enforcement community. Vote 18-0.

Rep. Packard moved Re-commit to Committee and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 525-FN, relative to prisoner of war license plates. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Alfred C. Lerandeau for the Majority of Transportation: This bill as amended relative to special plates for certain veterans extends the transferring of plates to a surviving spouse. After much lively discussion amongst the committee over the role of caregiver or spouse, it became our opinion that the plate would only be for the surviving spouse. This bill creates no fiscal impact. Vote 12-5.

Rep. Stanley E. Czech for the Minority of Transportation: It was the opinion of the minority that since the amendment deleted the phrase, "... may be retained by widows upon death of a former prisoner of war for as long as they remain widows.", the original idea behind the bill is lost. Furthermore, the bill does not allow a spouse, who may have been the spouse for a greater number of years after the veteran returned, and provided support and loving care longer than the spouse at the time of incarceration, was not eligible to keep the plate simply because she was not married to the POW when he was a prisoner. We believe this bill does not do what was originally intended – to honor those spouses who supported their POW husbands after their return from the war.

Amendment (1142h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to special number plates for certain veterans.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Special Number Plates for Certain Veterans. RSA 261:86 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

261:86 Special Number Plates for Certain Veterans.

I. The department shall furnish one set of special number plates, designed by the director with the approval of the commissioner, for one motor vehicle owned by a veteran who:

(a) Because of being an amputee, or paraplegic, has received said motor vehicle from the United States government or whose vehicle is to replace one so received, or who is evaluated by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs to be permanently and totally disabled from such service-connected disability. The special number plates shall incorporate the international accessibility symbol.

(b) Has been determined by the veterans administration to be suffering from total blindness as a result of a service-connected disability.

(c) Is a former prisoner of war and was captured and incarcerated for 30 days or more while serving in a qualifying war or armed conflict as defined in RSA 72:28, IV, and who was honorably discharged, provided that such person has furnished the director with satisfactory proof of these circumstances. The plates shall be transferable upon death to the surviving spouse of the prisoner of war provided that such surviving spouse provides proof that he or she was married to the prisoner of war during the imprisonment.

(d) Was awarded the Purple Heart medal in a qualifying war or armed conflict as defined in RSA 72:28, IV, and who was honorably discharged, provided that such person has furnished the director with satisfactory proof of these circumstances.

(e) Survived Pearl Harbor and was honorably discharged, provided that such person has furnished the director with satisfactory proof of these circumstances. The plates shall be issued upon payment of the regular registration and number plate fees. The plates shall be transferable upon death to the surviving spouse of the Pearl Harbor survivor provided that such surviving spouse provides proof that he or she was married to the Pearl Harbor survivor at the time of the Pearl Harbor invasion.

II. Plates furnished pursuant to subparagraphs I(a)-(c) shall be issued without charge. Plates furnished pursuant to subparagraphs I(d) and (e) shall be issued upon payment of the regular registration and number plate fees. Notwithstanding RSA 265:73 or any other law, any person who is issued a plate pursuant to subparagraphs I(c)-(e) shall not be entitled to free parking privileges provided for disabled veterans. Individuals who qualify for special plates for certain veterans shall only be issued one set of plates pursuant to this section.

2 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 261:87, relative to special number plates for vehicles of blind veterans.

II. RSA 261:87-a, relative to plates for former prisoners of war.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill delineates the requirements for certain veterans to obtain special number plates. The bill also repeals provisions relative to special number plates for vehicles of blind veterans and plates for former prisoners of war.

Adopted.

Majority report adopted and ordered to third reading.

RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Rep. Bergin moved that the House reconsider its action whereby it ordered to third reading HB 487, relative to the adoption of bonds or notes in certain school districts and municipalities, and spoke against.

Rep. Weyler spoke in favor and requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

BILLS REMOVED FROM CONSENT CALENDAR ON MAY 13, 1999

HB 722-FN, revising the law relative to protection of persons from domestic violence. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Andrew Christie, Jr. for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill is a reorganization of the present Domestic Violence Statute, RSA 173-B. The various components are rewritten so that the process is easier to follow and understand. The first sections begin with the definitions and their statutory references followed by jurisdiction and venue. Next are commencement of proceedings, temporary relief, permanent relief and etceteras. A subcommittee met six times to work on this bill. Under the definition of abuse, we added a requirement that if a person violates one of the listed crimes the conduct has to constitute a credible threat to the plaintiff's safety. Further into the bill we made it very clear that a person filing a Domestic Violence Petition (DVP) would be subject to criminal penalties if they make a false allegation of abuse and on the DVP application we will require the following words to appear: "I swear that the foregoing information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that making a false statement on this petition will subject me to criminal penalties." We allow the temporary hearing to be held no sooner than three days and not later than five days if a request is made to have a hearing. Under RSA 173-B:5 (Relief) it is plainly stated that temporary reconciliation shall not revoke an order and a person restrained from contacting the plaintiff cannot do so even if invited by the plaintiff, unless the order is modified by the court. There are technical corrections such as changing the reference of Department of Safety to the Administrative Office of the Courts who is now responsible for maintaining the list of active DVP orders. Under the current statute firearms can be taken for the duration of a DVP. In this rewrite, provisions for a motion to return firearms can be filed with the court 15 days prior to the expiration of an order and the court shall schedule a hearing no later than 15 days after the expiration of the order. The court is required to notify the plaintiff of this hearing. Another change from current statutes regarding firearms has been included to allow defendants, when firearms are taken under an order, to make arrangements to have them stored with a federally licensed firearms dealer at the defendants' expense and with the approval of the court. This feature relieves local police departments with limited space or no storage facilities suitable for storage of firearms from responsibility for "proper storage" and allows the defendant to secure "proper storage" of the firearms if the court approves. The last major change from the bill as introduced is in the penalty section where in five different places we changed the phrase from "shall be charged" to the discretionary "may be charged"; thus allowing the judge to take special circumstances into consideration when making decisions. The committee believes that this bill presents improvements and fair treatment for all parties during times of great emotional stress. Vote 12-1.

Amendment (0954h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Purpose.

I. It is the public policy of this state to prevent and deter domestic violence through equal enforcement of the criminal laws and the provision of judicial relief for domestic violence victims.

II. It is the purpose of this act to preserve and protect the safety of the family unit for all family or household members by entitling victims of domestic violence to immediate and effective police protection and judicial relief. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that its purpose may be fulfilled.

2 Cross Reference Revised; Department of Safety Investigations. Amend RSA 159-C:2, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) Review its criminal history records and any protective order records in its possession, if any, to determine if the potential buyer or transferee is prohibited from receipt or possession of a handgun pursuant to state or federal law or protective order under RSA ~~[173-B:6]~~ 173-B;

I. All district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court over all proceedings under this chapter.

II. If the plaintiff has left the household or premises to avoid further abuse, the plaintiff shall have the option to commence proceedings pursuant to RSA 173-B:3 in the county or district where the plaintiff temporarily resides.

III. Proceedings under this chapter may be transferred to another court upon the motion of any party or of the court as the interests of justice or the convenience of the parties may require.

IV. In any county where the family division is located, the family division shall have jurisdiction over domestic violence cases consistent with 1995, 152.

173-B:3 Commencement of Proceedings; Hearing.

I. Any person may seek relief pursuant to RSA 173-B:5 by filing a petition, in the county or district where the plaintiff or defendant resides, alleging abuse by the defendant. Any person filing a petition containing false allegations of abuse shall be subject to criminal penalties. Notice of the pendency of the action and of the facts alleged against the defendant shall be given to the defendant, either personally or as provided in paragraph III. The plaintiff shall be permitted to supplement or amend the petition only if the defendant is provided an opportunity prior to the hearing to respond to the supplemental or amended petition. All petitions filed under this section shall include the home and work telephone numbers of the defendant, if known. Notice of the whereabouts of the plaintiff shall not be revealed except by order of the court for good cause shown. Any answer by the defendant shall be filed with the court and a copy shall be provided to the plaintiff by the court.

II.(a) The minority of the plaintiff shall not preclude the court from issuing protective orders against a present or former intimate partner, spouse, or ex-spouse under this chapter.

(b) A minor plaintiff need not be accompanied by a parent or guardian to receive relief or services under this chapter.

III. No filing fee or fee for service of process shall be charged for a petition or response under this section, and the plaintiff or defendant may proceed without legal counsel. Either a peace officer or the sheriff's department shall serve process under this section. Any proceeding under this chapter shall not preclude any other available civil or criminal remedy.

IV. The clerks of the district and superior courts shall supply forms for petitions and for relief under this chapter designed to facilitate pro se proceedings. All such petitions shall contain the following words: I swear that the foregoing information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that making a false statement on this petition will subject me to criminal penalties.

V. Upon entry of any action in a district court, where the court determines that there is pending in the superior court a cause of action involving the same parties arising out of the same situation on which the district court action is based, the case shall be transferred to the superior court to be heard as if originally entered in the superior court, unless the district court determines that the interests of justice or expediency require the district court to exercise jurisdiction. Any transfer to the superior court under this paragraph shall be made as soon as practicable following entry of the action.

VI. The findings of facts shall be final, but questions of law may be transferred from the district court to the supreme court in the same manner as from the superior court.

VII. The court shall hold a hearing within 30 days of the filing of a petition under this section or within 10 days of service of process upon the defendant, whichever occurs later.

VIII. In any proceeding under this chapter, the court shall not be bound by the technical rules of evidence and may admit evidence which it considers relevant and material.

173-B:4 Temporary Relief.

I. Upon a showing of an immediate and present danger of abuse, the court may enter temporary orders to protect the plaintiff with or without actual notice to defendant. The court may issue such temporary orders by telephone or facsimile. Such telephonically issued orders shall be made by a district or superior court judge to a law enforcement officer, shall be valid in any jurisdiction in the state, and shall be effective until the close of the next regular court business day. Such orders shall be returnable to the district court where the plaintiff resides or to which the plaintiff has fled, unless otherwise ordered by the issuing justice. If non-telephonic temporary orders are made ex parte, the party against whom such relief is issued may file a written request with the clerk of the court and request a hearing on such orders. Such hearing shall be held no less than 3 business days and no more than 5 business days after the request is received by the clerk. Such hearings may constitute the final hearing described in RSA 173-B:3, VII. Such temporary relief may direct the defendant to relinquish to a peace officer any and all firearms and ammunition in the control, ownership, or possession of the defendant, or any other person on behalf of the defendant for the duration of the protective order. Other temporary relief may include:

(a) Protective orders:

(1) Restraining the defendant from abusing the plaintiff.

(2) Restraining the defendant from entering the premises and curtilage where the plaintiff resides, except when the defendant is accompanied by a peace officer and, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, is allowed entry by the plaintiff for the sole purpose of retrieving toiletries, medication, clothing, business equipment, and any other items as determined by the court.

(3) Restraining the defendant from withholding items of the plaintiff's personal property which are specified in the order. A peace officer shall accompany the plaintiff in retrieving such property to protect the plaintiff.

(4) Awarding custody of minor children to either party or, upon actual notice, to the department when it is in the best interest of a child.

(5) Denying the defendant visitation, ordering that visitation shall be supervised, or ordering a specific visitation schedule. Visitation shall only be ordered on an ex parte basis where such order can be entered consistent with the following requirements. In determining whether visitation can be safely ordered, the court shall consider the following factors:

(A) The degree to which visitation exposes the plaintiff or the children to physical or psychological harm.

(B) Whether the risk of physical or psychological harm can be removed by ordering supervised visitation.

(C) Whether visitation can be ordered without requiring the plaintiff and defendant to have contact regarding the exchange of children.

(6) Restraining the defendant from contacting the plaintiff or entering the plaintiff's place of employment, school, or any specified place frequented regularly by the plaintiff or by any family or household member.

(7) Restraining the defendant from abusing the plaintiff, plaintiff's relatives, regardless of their place of residence, or plaintiff's household members in any way.

(8) Restraining the defendant from taking, converting, or damaging property in which the plaintiff may have a legal or equitable interest.

(9) Directing the defendant to relinquish to the peace officer, in addition to the relief specified in RSA 173-B:4, I, any and all deadly weapons specified in the protective order that are in the control, ownership, or possession of the defendant, or any other person on behalf of the defendant, for the duration of the protective order.

(b) Other relief, including but not limited to:

(1) Awarding to the plaintiff the exclusive use and possession of an automobile, home and household furniture, if the defendant has the legal duty to support the plaintiff or the plaintiff's minor children, or the plaintiff has contributed to the household expenses. The court shall consider the type and amount of contribution to be a factor.

(2) Restraining the defendant from taking any action which would lead to the disconnection of any and all utilities and services to the parties' household, or the discontinuance of existing business or service contracts, including, but not limited to, mortgage or rental agreements.

II. The defendant may be prohibited from purchasing, receiving, or possessing any deadly weapons and any and all firearms and ammunition for the duration of the order. The court may subsequently issue a search warrant authorizing the peace officer to seize any deadly weapons specified in the protective order and any and all firearms and ammunition, if there is probable cause to believe such firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons are kept on the premises or curtilage of the defendant and if the court has reason to believe that all such firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons have not been relinquished by the defendant.

173-B:5 Relief.

I. A finding of abuse shall mean the defendant represents a credible threat to the safety of the plaintiff. Upon a showing of abuse of the plaintiff by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall grant such relief as is necessary to bring about a cessation of abuse. Such relief shall direct the defendant to relinquish to the peace officer any and all firearms and ammunition in the control, ownership or possession of the defendant, or any other person on behalf of the defendant for the duration of the protective order. Other relief may include:

(a) Protective orders:

(1) Restraining the defendant from abusing the plaintiff.

(2) Restraining the defendant from entering the premises and curtilage where the plaintiff resides, except when the defendant is accompanied by a peace officer and is allowed entry by the plaintiff for the sole purpose of retrieving personal property specified by the court.

(3) Restraining the defendant from contacting the plaintiff or entering the plaintiff's place of employment, school, or any specified place frequented regularly by the plaintiff or by any family or household member.

(4) Restraining the defendant from abusing the plaintiff, plaintiff's relatives, regardless of their place of residence, or plaintiff's household members in any way.

(5) Restraining the defendant from taking, converting, or damaging property in which the plaintiff may have a legal or equitable interest.

(6) Directing the defendant to relinquish to the peace officer, in addition to the relief specified in RSA 173-B:5, I, any and all deadly weapons specified in the protective order that are in the control, ownership, or possession of the defendant, or any other person on behalf of the defendant.

(b) Other relief including, but not limited to:

(1) Granting the plaintiff the exclusive use and possession of the premises and curtilage of the plaintiff's place of residence, unless the defendant exclusively owns or leases and pays for the premises and the defendant has no legal duty to support the plaintiff or minor children on the premises.

(2) Restraining the defendant from withholding items of the plaintiff's personal property specified by the court. A peace officer shall accompany the plaintiff in retrieving such property to protect the plaintiff.

(3) Granting to the plaintiff the exclusive right of use and possession of the household furniture, furnishings, or a specific automobile, unless the defendant exclusively owns such personal property and the defendant has no legal duty to support the plaintiff or minor children.

(4) Ordering the defendant to make automobile, insurance, health care, utilities, rent, or mortgage payments.

(5) Awarding temporary custody of the parties' minor children to either party or, where appropriate, to the department, provided that:

(A) Where custody of the parties' minor children with the department may be appropriate, the department shall receive actual notice of the hearing 10 days prior to such hearing provided that, if necessary, such hearing may be continued 10 days to provide the department adequate notice.

(B) The department may move at any time to rescind its custody of the parties' minor children.

(6) Establishing visitation rights with regard to the parties' minor children. The court shall consider, and may impose on a custody award, conditions necessary to assure the safety of the plaintiff and minor children. This may include orders denying visitation or requiring supervised visitation, where such order can be entered consistent with the following requirements. In determining whether visitation shall be granted, the court shall consider whether visitation can be exercised by the non-custodial parent without risk to the plaintiff's or children's safety. In making such determination, the court shall consider, in addition to any other relevant factors, the following:

(A) The degree to which visitation exposes the plaintiff or the children to physical or psychological harm.

(B) Whether the risk of physical or psychological harm can be removed by ordering supervised visitation.

(C) Whether visitation can be ordered without requiring the plaintiff and defendant to have contact regarding the exchange of children.

(7) Directing the defendant to pay financial support to the plaintiff or minor children, unless the defendant has no legal duty to support the plaintiff or minor children.

(8) Directing the abuser to engage in a batterer's intervention program or personal counseling. If available, such intervention and counseling program shall focus on alternatives to aggression. The court shall not direct the plaintiff to engage in joint counseling services with the defendant. Court-ordered and court-referred mediation of cases involving domestic violence shall be prohibited.

(9) Ordering the defendant to pay the plaintiff monetary compensation for losses suffered as a direct result of the abuse which may include, but not be limited to, loss of earnings or support, medical and dental expenses, damage to property, out-of-pocket losses for injuries sustained, and moving and shelter expenses.

(10) Ordering the defendant to pay reasonable attorney's fees.

II. The defendant shall be prohibited from purchasing, receiving, or possessing any deadly weapons and any and all firearms and ammunition for the duration of the order. The court may subsequently issue a search warrant authorizing a peace officer to seize any deadly weapons specified in the protective order and any and all firearms and ammunition, if there is probable cause to believe such firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons are kept on the premises or curtilage of the defendant.

III. Reconciliation after a previous order, prior to filing the current action, shall not be grounds for denying or terminating a new or existing protective order. Furthermore, the court shall not deny the plaintiff protective orders based solely on a lapse of time between an act of domestic violence and the filing of a petition, provided that the underlying act presents a credible threat to the plaintiff's current safety.

IV. No order made under this section shall supersede or affect any court order pertaining to the possession of a residence; household furniture; custody of children pursuant to RSA 169-B, 169-C, or 169-D; support or custody made under RSA 458; or custody of children of unwed parents as determined by a superior court, probate court, or family division court, or title to real or personal property.

V.(a) Mutual orders for relief shall not be granted. A foreign mutual order for relief shall only be granted full faith and credit in New Hampshire if it meets the requirements set out in RSA 173-B:13, VII.

(b) Cross orders for relief may be granted only if:

(1) The court has made specific findings that each party has committed abuse against the other; and

(2) The court cannot determine who is the primary physical aggressor.

VI. Any order under this section shall be for a fixed period of time not to exceed one year, but may be extended by order of the court upon a motion by the plaintiff, showing good cause, with notice to the defendant. A defendant shall have the right to a hearing on the extension of any order under this paragraph to be held within 30 days of the extension. The court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce and collect the financial support obligation which accrued prior to the expiration of the protective order.

VII. Both parties shall be issued written copies of any orders issued by the court, and all orders shall bear the following language: "A willful violation of this order is a crime, as well as contempt of court. Violations of the protective provisions shall result in arrest and may result in imprisonment." Orders shall clearly state how any party can request a further hearing and how the plaintiff may bring a criminal complaint if there is a violation of any court order.

VIII.(a) No order issued under this chapter shall be modified other than by the court. Temporary reconciliations shall not revoke an order.

(b) If either party wishes the defendant to be excused from any provisions of an order of protection, the remedy is to petition the court for modification of such order.

(c) A defendant who is restrained from contacting the plaintiff or entering the premises of the plaintiff is prohibited from doing so even if invited by the plaintiff unless the restraining order has been modified by the court.

(d) This paragraph shall give unequivocal direction to peace officers that orders for protection are to be enforced as written and that no action by a party relieves them of the duty to enforce the order.

IX.(a) A copy of each protective order issued under this chapter shall be transmitted to the administrative office of the courts by facsimile or computer. An emergency protective order issued telephonically shall be transmitted by telephone or facsimile to the department of safety.

(b) The administrative office of the courts shall enter information regarding the protective orders into the state database which shall be made available to police and sheriff departments statewide. The department of safety shall make available information regarding emergency protective orders issued telephonically to police and sheriff departments statewide.

(c) The administrative office of the courts shall update the database upon expiration or termination of a protective order.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the administrative office of the courts or the department of safety, its employees and agents, and law enforcement officials shall not be held criminally or civilly liable for action taken under this chapter or RSA 458:16, provided they are acting in good faith and without gross negligence, and within the scope of their duties and authority.

X.(a) Within 15 days prior to the expiration of the protective orders, the defendant may request, by motion to the court, the return of any and all firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons held by the law enforcement agency while the protective order was in effect. Upon receipt of such a motion, the court shall schedule a hearing no later than 15 days after the expiration of the order. The court shall provide written notice to the plaintiff who shall have the right to appear and be heard, and to the law enforcement agency which has control of the firearms, ammunition, and specified deadly weapons. The scope of the hearing shall be limited to:

(1) Establishing whether the defendant is subject to any state or federal law or court order that precludes the defendant from owning or possessing a firearm; and

(2) Under circumstances where the plaintiff has requested an extension of the protective order, whether the plaintiff has established by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant continues to represent a credible threat to the safety of the plaintiff.

(b) If the court finds that the defendant is not subject to any state or federal law or court order precluding the ownership or possession of firearms, or if the court denies the plaintiff's request to extend the protective order, the court shall issue a written order directing the law enforcement agency to return the requested firearms, ammunition, or deadly weapon to the defendant.

(c) Law enforcement agencies shall not release firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons without a court order granting such release. The law enforcement agency may charge the defendant a reasonable fee for the storage of any firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons taken pursuant to a protective order. The fee shall not exceed the actual cost incurred by the law enforcement agency for the storage of the firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons. The defendant may make alternative arrangements with a federally licensed firearms dealer for the storage of firearms, at the defendant's own expense, upon approval of the court. Such firearms shall be turned over to the appropriate law enforcement agency for transfer to the storage facility. Retrieval of such firearms shall be through the law enforcement agency responsible for their transfer to the storage facility pursuant to a court order as prescribed in this paragraph.

(d) No law enforcement agency shall be held liable for alleged damage or deterioration due to storage or transportation to any firearms and ammunition and specified deadly weapons held by a law enforcement agency, so long as due care is used.

173-B:6 Guardian Ad Litem. In all proceedings under this chapter, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of the children of either or both parties. The guardian ad litem may continue to serve after the final disposition of the case.

173-B:7 Minority Not a Preclusion for Services. The minority of any individual seeking assistance from any domestic violence program, as defined by RSA 173-B:1, shall not preclude provision of such requested services.

173-B:8 Notification.

I. A copy of any order made under this chapter which prohibits any person from abusing another shall be promptly transmitted to the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to enforce such order.

II. Temporary orders shall be promptly served on the defendant by a peace officer. Subsequent orders shall be sent to the defendant's last address of record. The defendant shall be responsible for informing the court of any changes of address. Law enforcement agencies shall establish procedures whereby a peace officer at the scene of an alleged violation of such an order may be informed of the existence and terms of such order.

III. Any court-ordered changes or modifications of the order shall be effective upon issuance of such changes or modifications, and shall be mailed or otherwise provided to the appropriate local law enforcement agency and transmitted to the department of safety within 24 hours of the entry of such changes or modifications.

173-B:9 Violation of Protective Order; Penalty.

I.(a) When the defendant violates either a temporary or permanent protective order issued or enforced under this chapter, peace officers shall arrest the defendant and ensure that the defendant is detained until arraignment. Such arrests may be made within 6 hours without a warrant upon probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of a peace officer.

(b) Subsequent to an arrest, the peace officer shall seize any firearms and ammunition in the control, ownership, or possession of the defendant and any deadly weapons which may have been used, or were threatened to be used, during the violation of the protective order. The law enforcement agency shall maintain possession of the firearms, ammunition, or deadly weapons until the court issues an order directing that the firearms, ammunition, or deadly weapons be relinquished and specifying the person to whom the firearms and ammunition or deadly weapons will be relinquished.

II. The prosecution and sentencing for criminal contempt for a violation of a protective order shall not preclude the prosecution of or sentencing for other criminal charges underlying the contempt.

III. A person shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor if such person knowingly violates a protective order issued under this chapter, or RSA 458:16, III, or any foreign protective order enforceable under the laws of this state. Charges made under this chapter shall not be reduced to a lesser charge, as permitted in other instances under RSA 625:9.

IV. Any person convicted under RSA 173-B:9, III, or who has been convicted in another jurisdiction of violating a protective order enforceable under the laws of this state, who, within 6 years of such conviction or the completion of the sentence imposed for such conviction, whichever is later, subsequently commits and is convicted of one or more offenses involving abuse may be charged with an enhanced penalty for each subsequent offense as follows:

(a) There shall be no enhanced charge under this section if the subsequent offense is a class A felony or an unclassified felony;

(b) If the subsequent offense would otherwise constitute a class B felony, it may be charged as a class A felony;

(c) If the subsequent offense would otherwise constitute a class A misdemeanor, it may be charged as a class B felony;

(d) If the subsequent offense would otherwise constitute a class B misdemeanor, it may be charged as a class A misdemeanor.

(e) If the subsequent offense would otherwise constitute a violation, it may be charged as a class B misdemeanor.

V. A victim of domestic violence shall be entitled to all rights granted to victims of crime under RSA 21-M:8-k.

173-B:10 Protection by Peace Officers.

I. Whenever any peace officer has probable cause to believe that a person has been abused, as defined in RSA 173-B:1, that officer shall use all means within reason to prevent further abuse including, but not limited to:

(a) Confiscating any deadly weapons involved in the alleged domestic abuse and any firearms and ammunition in the defendant's control, ownership, or possession.

(b) Transporting or obtaining transportation for the victim and any child, to a designated place to meet with a domestic violence counselor, local family member, or friend.

(c) Assisting the victim in removing toiletries, medication, clothing, business equipment, and any other items determined by the court.

(d) Giving the victim immediate and written notice of the rights of victims and of the remedies and services available to victims of domestic violence. The written notice shall include a statement substantially as follows:

"If you are the victim of domestic violence and you believe that law enforcement protection is needed for your physical safety, you have the right to request that the officer assist in providing for your safety, including asking for an emergency telephonic order for protection. You may also request that the officer assist you in obtaining from your premises and curtilage, toiletries, medication, clothing, business equipment, and any other items as determined by the court, and in locating and taking you to a local safe place including, but not limited to, a designated meeting place to be used as a crisis center, a family member's or friend's residence, or a similar place of safety. If you are in need of medical treatment, you have the right to request that the officer assist you in obtaining an ambulance. You may request a copy of the report filed by the peace officer, at no cost, from the law enforcement department."

II. Pursuant to RSA 594:10, an arrest for abuse may be made without a warrant upon probable cause, whether or not the abuse is committed in the presence of the peace officer. When the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the persons are committing or have committed abuse against each other, the officer need not arrest both persons, but should arrest the person the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In determining who is the primary physical aggressor, an officer shall consider the intent of this chapter to protect the victims of domestic violence, the relative degree of injury or fear inflicted on the persons involved, and any history of domestic abuse between these persons if that history can reasonably be obtained by the officer.

173-B:11 Notice to the Victim.

I. Notwithstanding the peace officer's obligations in RSA 173-B:9 and RSA 173-B:10, all peace officers shall give victims of abuse immediate and adequate notice of their right to go to the district or superior court of their county to file a petition asking for protective orders against the abusive person and to seek a private criminal complaint.

II. The clerk of the court shall be responsible for advising victims of their right to request that the judge issue an order which may include removing any and all firearms and ammunition in the control, ownership, or possession of the defendant and may include:

- (a) Restraining the defendant from abusing the victim.
- (b) Directing the defendant to leave and stay away from the victim's premises and curtilage.
- (c) Giving the victim custody of any minor children, denying the defendant visitation, or requiring that visitation be supervised to ensure safety for the victim and minor children.
- (d) Directing the defendant to support the victim and any minor children if the defendant has the legal responsibility to support either or both.
- (e) Restraining the defendant from contacting the victim, or entering the victim's place of employment, school, or any specified place frequented regularly by the victim or by any family or household member.
- (f) Restraining the defendant from abusing, in any way, the victim, household members, or victim's relatives, regardless of their place of residence.
- (g) Restraining the defendant from taking, converting, or damaging property in which the victim may have a legal or equitable interest.
- (h) Directing the defendant to temporarily relinquish to the peace officer specific deadly weapons in the control, ownership or possession of the defendant which may have been used, or were threatened to be used, in an incident of abuse against the victim or any member of the victim's household.

(i) Ordering the defendant to pay the victim monetary compensation for losses suffered as a direct result of the abuse which may include, but not be limited to, loss of earnings or support, medical and dental expenses, damage to property, out-of-pocket losses for injuries sustained, and moving and shelter expenses.

(j) Ordering the defendant to pay reasonable attorney's fees.

173-B:12 Emergency Care; Limitation and Liability. Any act or omission of any peace officer rendering emergency care or assistance to a victim of domestic violence including, but not limited to transportation, shall not impose civil liability upon the peace officer or the peace officer's supervisors or employer if the care or assistance is rendered in good faith, unless the act or omission is a result of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

173-B:13 Orders Enforceable.

I. Any protective order issued under this chapter shall be effective throughout the state.

II. Any protective order issued by any other state, tribal, or territorial court related to domestic or family violence, including an ex parte order, shall be deemed valid if the issuing court had jurisdiction over the parties and matter under the law of the state, tribe, or territory, and the person against whom the order was made was given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard. There shall be a presumption of validity where an order appears facially valid.

III. Any valid protective order, as defined in paragraph II, shall be accorded full faith and credit throughout the state.

IV. A person entitled to protection under a foreign protective order, as defined in paragraph II, may file such order in any district or superior court by filing with the court a certified copy of the order. Such person shall swear under oath in an affidavit to the best of such person's knowledge that the order is presently in effect as written. Such filing shall be without fee or cost.

The clerk of the district or superior court shall forward such order to the state police who shall enter such order in the state database. Such filing shall not be a precondition to arrest or enforcement of a foreign order.

V. A peace officer may rely upon a copy of any protective order issued under this chapter, or under RSA 458, or upon a copy of a foreign protective order, as defined in this section, which has been provided to the peace officer by any source.

VI. Law enforcement personnel may rely on the statement of the person protected by the order that the order remains in effect as written.

VII. A mutual protective order issued by any other state, tribal, or territorial court against one who has petitioned, filed a compliant, or otherwise filed a written pleading for protection relating to domestic or family violence shall be accorded full faith and credit only if:

(a) A cross or counter petition, complaint or other written pleading was filed seeking such protection order; and

(b) The court made specific findings of domestic or family violence by both parties and that each party was entitled to such order.

173-B:14 Orders of Support.

I. The superior court, in any action determining the obligation of the obligor to support the obligee or the parties' minor children including, but not limited to, actions for divorce or custody pursuant to RSA 458; paternity pursuant to RSA 168-A; child support pursuant to RSA 161-B, RSA 161-C, and RSA 458; reimbursement of public assistance pursuant to RSA 161-C; and the uniform interstate family support act pursuant to RSA 546-B; shall take judicial notice of any support obligation established pursuant to this chapter upon the filing of a certified copy of the district court order in the superior court by:

(a) Either party to the domestic violence proceeding.

(b) The department.

(c) Any other agency or person legally entitled to enforce the obligation of support for the minor children.

II. Any superior court order for financial support shall include enforcement of any duly filed district court order from the date of filing forward, and shall include enforcement of any arrears which have been:

(a) Reduced to judgment by the district court;

(b) Documented by the department pursuant to an order to make payable through the department; or

(c) Documented by the obligee in a notarized statement, provided that the obligor shall have 30 days to object and request a hearing on the issue of arrears.

173-B:15 Fund for Domestic Violence Grant Program. A special fund for domestic violence programs is established. The sole purpose of the fund shall be to provide revenues for the domestic violence program established in RSA 173-B:16, and shall not be available for any other purpose. The state treasurer shall deposit all fees received by the department under RSA 457:29 in the fund. All moneys deposited in the fund shall be continually appropriated for the purposes of the domestic violence grant program and shall not lapse.

173-B:16 Grant Program Established. A grant program is established within the department for the allocation of grant money to New Hampshire programs which provide aid and assistance to victims of domestic violence. The grant program shall be funded by the fund established under RSA 173-B:15.

173-B:17 Duties of the Commissioner. The commissioner shall:

I. Administer the grant program established in RSA 173-B:16 through a coordinator. The costs of administration shall be covered by the fund, and shall not exceed 2 percent.

II. Adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, relative to procedures under which interested New Hampshire programs may apply for funding.

III. Appoint the coordinator.

IV. Enter into a contract with the coordinator, subject to the approval of the governor and council.

173-B:18 Selection of Coordinator. The commissioner shall be satisfied that the organization or agency chosen as the coordinator shall be qualified to provide at least those services listed in RSA 173-B:20.

173-B:19 Compensation for Coordinating Domestic Violence Grant Program. Compensation for the functions and duties of coordinating the program shall not exceed 30 percent of the total revenues of the fund.

173-B:20 Duties of Coordinator. The coordinator shall be a statewide organization or agency which has demonstrated its ability, at a minimum, to:

I. Serve as a clearinghouse for information relating to domestic violence.

II. Conduct educational programs on domestic violence, both for the general public and for specialized interest groups, such as law enforcement and medical personnel.

III. Provide technical assistance to local domestic violence programs in the areas of budget, management, and other such skills.

IV. Enlist the assistance of public and voluntary health, education, welfare, legal, and rehabilitation agencies in a concerted effort to prevent domestic violence.

V. Provide coordination and supervision of programs.

VI. Assist the commissioner in the administration of the fund.

VII. Publicize the availability of the fund and the date by which applications must be received, and act on all applications within 45 days of the application deadline.

VIII. Notify each appropriate agency or organization in writing whether or not it is eligible for funds, and specify the amount available.

IX. Publicize the availability of domestic violence programs to the public.

X. Provide training for court advocates and social services agency advocates to accompany domestic violence victims.

XI. Apply for and receive any federal funds for which this program may be eligible.

XII. Ensure, as far as possible, that grants are awarded on a reasonable geographical basis throughout the state.

XIII. Obtain and evaluate reports from each grantee, at least annually, on its operations under this chapter.

173-B:21 Criteria for Selection of Direct Service Grantees. The coordinator shall use all of the following criteria for selecting grantees:

I. A grantee's ability to provide direct services to victims of domestic violence as follows:

(a) Shelter or safe homes on a 24-hours-a-day, 7-days-a-week basis.

(b) A 24-hours-a-day, 7-days-a-week switchboard for crisis calls.

(c) Temporary housing and food facilities.

(d) Psychological support and peer counseling.

(e) Referrals to existing services in the community and follow-up on the outcome of the referrals.

(f) A drop-in center to assist victims of domestic violence who have not yet made the decision to leave their homes, or who have found other shelter but who have a need for support services.

(g) Arrangements for school-aged children to continue their education during their stay at the center.

(h) Emergency transportation to a shelter and, when appropriate, arrangements with local law enforcement for assistance in providing such transportation.

(i) Trained court advocates and social service agency advocates to accompany domestic violence victims.

II. A grantee shall be a private or private nonprofit organization, or a public agency.

III. A grantee shall demonstrate the need for the services proposed by the program.

IV. A grantee shall establish its ability to secure community support and its efficiency of administration.

V. A grantee shall receive at least 50 percent of its funding from sources other than the fund, including town, city, county, federal, or private sources. Contributions in kind, whether material, commodities, transportation, office space, or personal services, may be evaluated and counted as part of the required non-state funding.

173-B:22 Confidentiality. All persons who are employed, appointed, or who volunteer under this chapter shall maintain confidentiality with regard to persons served by the coordinator and grantees and files kept by the coordinator and grantees, except for reasons of safety for other shelter residents or staff.

173-B:23 Referral. Where centers are available, any law enforcement officer who investigates an alleged incident of domestic violence shall advise the person subject to such violence of the availability of programs from which that person may receive services.

173-B:24 Rights Reserved. A person shall not be prejudiced by the court having jurisdiction under RSA 173-B for having left the residence or household with or without the children to avoid further domestic violence.

173-B:25 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

4 Cross Reference Revised; Definition of "Domestic Violence Center." Amend RSA 173-C:1, II to read as follows:

II. "Domestic violence center" means any organization or agency which would qualify as a direct service grantee under RSA [~~173-B:19~~] 173-B:21.

5 Cross Reference Revised; Marriage License Fees. Amend RSA 457:29 to read as follows:

457:29 Marriage License Fee. The fee for the marriage license shall be $45 to be paid by the parties entering into the marriage. The clerk shall forward $38 from each fee to the department of health and human services for the purposes of RSA [~~173-B:13~~] 173-B:15. The clerk shall retain the remaining $7 as [~~his~~] the fee for making the records of notice, issuing the certificate of marriage, and forwarding the $38 portion of the marriage license fee.

6 Cross Reference Revised; Preparing Checklists. Amend RSA 654:25 to read as follows:

654:25 Preparing Checklist. The secretary of state shall issue and distribute guidelines for the composition and style of checklists and for the maintenance of data related to checklists by which the supervisors of the checklist shall compile and correct the checklist. Such guidelines shall specify the information which will be maintained and updated by the supervisors. The secretary shall establish standard forms and procedures for the use of the supervisors for the maintenance of such information. The information to be maintained and updated shall include the full name, address and party affiliation, if any, of each voter on the checklist and such other information as the secretary requires. The supervisors shall use the information so maintained and updated to prepare the checklist for all state elections. Every checklist used at any state election shall contain as a minimum the full name, address, and mailing address if different, and party affiliation, if any, of each voter on the checklist. The address and mailing address, if different, of a voter shall not appear on the checklist at the request of the voter if the voter presents to the supervisors of the checklist a valid protective order pursuant to RSA [~~173-B:4~~] 173-B. A voter who presents a valid protective order may, however, request that a mailing address, if different, be maintained on the checklist. If a voter who presents a valid protective order requests that no address be maintained on the checklist, the supervisors of the checklist may nonetheless maintain a designation on the checklist which indicates that no address is required for that voter.

7 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

Adopted.

Rep. Arnold offered a floor amendment (1333h).

Floor Amendment (1333h)

Amend RSA 173-B:5, VIII (c) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

A plaintiff shall be prohibited from inviting the defendant to contact the plaintiff or to enter the plaintiff's premises unless the restraining order has been modified by the court. Violations of this subparagraph by either a plaintiff or defendant shall subject either party to the penalty provisions in paragraph VII of this section.

and any costs related thereto. If a local law enforcement agency is unable to provide such safe and proper storage, the state police shall provide for their safe and proper storage, including any costs related thereto. Retrieval of such firearms shall be through the law enforcement agency responsible for their safe and proper storage pursuant to a court order as prescribed in this paragraph.

Ordered to third reading.

Rep. Dean Ouellette voted Yea and intended to vote Nay.

PROTESTS

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Weber requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

Isn't it a brave new world. It's another big day for "Uncle Joe" and all who love him.

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Boyce requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

I believe that both the existing law as well as HB 722 are contrary to both the New Hampshire Constitution and the United States Constitution. Further, I know that a similar federal statute has been ruled by a federal court in Texas to be unconstitutional. Therefore, I have voted against HB 722 as amended even though the current statute is unconstitutional.

HB 617-FN-A-L, relative to funding and monitoring seacoast harbor issues. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill would have changed how gasoline ("road tolls") collected from boats (about $1.7 million per year) but not claimed as refunds (only about $100,000 per year) is spent. Currently half of this $1.6 million per year is placed in the general fund. The bill would have moved this $800,000 per year to a harbor dredging and pier maintenance fund. However, since only a tiny fraction of the boats which generate these funds are registered along the seacoast, where this fund would be spent, the committee did not agree with this diversion from the general fund. Re-referring this bill will give the committee time to carefully examine appropriate allocation of these funds. Vote 23-0.

Rep. Leber moved Re-commit to Committee and spoke in favor.

Rep. Kurk spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HCR 11, urging Congress and the Internal Revenue Service to modify tax laws to broaden the ability of taxpayers to make tax-deductible contributions to Nuclear Decommissioning Reserve Funds. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. George R. Rubin for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: The Committee needed additional time and information to properly evaluate this bill for consideration. Vote 15-0.

Rep. Bradley moved Re-commit to Committee and spoke in favor.

Rep. Tufts spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 673-FN-A, establishing special number plates for emergency medical service providers and firefighters and continually appropriating fees charged for such plates to certain funds. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. John W. Flanders, Sr. for Transportation: This bill set out to accomplish two basic goals: 1) make the private vehicles of firefighters and emergency medical technicians recognizable; 2) to raise money for the Firefighter Workers Compensation Insurance Premium Fund. There are already in place ways firefighters can equip their vehicles to identify them with flashing red lights and/or sirens. Additionally, they may attach a plaque to their plates that identify them as a firefighter or EMT. The committee felt the amount of money that this may raise would fall short of solving the problem the sponsor was concerned about and wanted to address. The New Hampshire Fire Chief has concerns on the administration process of these proposed plates. Who would be responsible for the plates on unauthorized vehicles? A representative from the Compensation Funds of NH raised serious concerns with the language not being consistent with how towns now self-insure. The Department of Safety also opposed this bill and the committee felt that there were many problems. Vote 16-0.

Rep. McGough spoke against.

Adopted.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Rep. Chandler moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HB 512, relative to limiting work hours for 16 and 17-year old persons enrolled in school, removed by Rep. Pitts.

HB 443, allowing certain beverage manufacturers to distribute products directly to retailers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Commerce: This bill will allow brew pubs and beverage manufacturers who produce less than 15,000 barrels of beer annually and who have less than 5,000 barrels sold in-state per year, to self-distribute their products directly to retailers. It also outlines the reporting process and assures that the State will get all fees and taxes on these products. This bill has the support of the craft brewers and the beer distributors. Vote 14-0.

and holidays, from the date of delivery of beverages on the premises of such on-sale or off-sale licensee or on the premises of a liquor/wine/beverage warehouse storing the beverages for an on-sale or off-sale licensee. Each holder of a wholesale distributor license, brew pub license, beverage manufacturer license, beverage vendor license, or beverage vendor importer license shall report to the commission the name and license number of any holder of a wholesale distributor license who is delinquent in making payments of accounts within 30 days from the date of delivery of beverages on the premises of such holder of a wholesale distributor license. 10 Alcoholic Beverages; Beverage Distributor Agreements; Acts Prohibited; Multiple Agreements. Amend RSA 180:2, III to read as follows:

III. After designating a sales territory for which any wholesale distributor shall be primarily responsible, enter into any agreement with any other wholesale distributor for the purpose of establishing an additional agreement for its brand or label in the same territory served by a wholesale distributor with that particular brand or label, or file with the commission for self-distribution

The distribution agreement shall be in writing and shall specify the brand or label it covers. When a beverage manufacturer, beverage vendor, or beverage vendor importer sells several brands, the agreement need not apply to all brands sold by the beverage manufacturer, beverage vendor, or beverage vendor importer and may apply only to one brand. No beverage manufacturer, brew pub, beverage vendor, beverage vendor importer, or other supplier shall provide by the written distribution agreement for the distribution of a brand or label to more than one distributor for all or any part of the designated territory.

SB 13, relative to the bonding authority of joint boards in joint maintenance agreements and relative to the eligibility of joint maintenance agreement districts for school building aid. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Susan B. Durham for Education: The bill, as amended by the Senate, is no longer needed. The sponsor testified to that. He would like the original bill, which sets up a commission to study joint maintenance agreements for school building aid. This is an alternative already in law, but never used. This is a continuation of efforts from last year's legislation. Last year's commission was unable to address joint maintenance agreements because of the work needed to address educational funding. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1132h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study joint maintenance agreements in school districts.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study the creation of joint maintenance agreements between adjoining school districts.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall examine the following issues:

I. The establishment of joint maintenance agreements between adjoining public school districts.

II. The governance of a jointly maintained school.

III. Collective bargaining relative to a jointly maintained school.

IV. Apportionment of costs among the contracting districts.

V. The needs of towns and pupils in towns that do not operate a school in situations where neighboring school districts are at capacity and have no room for additional pupils.

VI. The management of major construction projects in a jointly maintained district.

VII. Whether or not the school boards in a jointly maintained district may establish an executive committee to address everyday issues or budget preparation.

VIII. The method of determining and apportioning school building aid in jointly maintained districts.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named house member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 1999.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study joint maintenance agreements in school districts.

This bill is a request of the committee established in 1998, 131 (SB 448).

SB 152-L, relative to the procedures for establishing a charter school. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Clair A. Snyder for Education: This bill only serves to clarify steps in the charter school process by amending the wording of the warrant article requiring fiscal audits by CPA's and clarifying the evaluation process by the local school board of the initial charter school application. Vote 16-1.

SB 204, establishing the New Hampshire excellence in higher education endowment trust fund. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elizabeth K. Hoadley for Education: The committee supports the establishment of the higher education endowment trust fund. The amendment simply requires the disclosure that some administrative fees may funnel back to the trust fund to provide scholarships for state residents. Participants in the original investing plan should know of this process. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1031h)

Amend RSA 6:40 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after paragraph V the following new paragraph:

VI. Requiring full disclosure regarding any fees incurred for the administration of the trust fund, including any administrative fee, or portion thereof, which is or may be returned to the trust fund.

HB 449-FN, requiring boating safety education. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert S. Mercer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill requires a certificate of boating safety education to operate any watercraft in excess of 15-horse power on the waters of this state after certain specified dates. The bill was referred to the Executive Departments and Administration committee for review after passing the House with a 258-100 vote. The committee found no need to make any changes in the sections dealing with Chapter 541-A, Administrative Rules issues. During the review process, the sponsors of the bill requested the committee adopt an amendment which helps clarify who can administer the temporary boating safety exam and who can issue a temporary certificate to operate a watercraft. After careful review and discussion, the committee agreed with the sponsors' intent and voted 16-0 to approve the clarifying amendment and the bill as amended. The committee strongly supports this legislation to improve boating safety through education of operators of most watercraft. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1193h)

Amend RSA 270-D:13, IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. The director shall issue a temporary certificate of boating safety education to a person who passes a temporary boating safety examination, consisting of 20 questions, administered by a person approved to offer the temporary boating safety examination. The minimum passing grade for the examination shall be 80 percent. The temporary certificate of boating safety education shall be valid for up to 14 days and shall entitle the holder only to operate a vessel on the public waters of New Hampshire. Any dealer or renter of boats or employee thereof, who has passed the boating safety education course as provided in RSA 270-D:13, I(a), shall be approved by the director to administer the temporary boating safety examination and to issue a temporary certificate.

HB 524, increasing the membership on the board of professional engineers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The original bill would add an additional member to the Board of Professional Engineers. The sponsor requested the original bill not be passed. The committee amended the title and the bill to provide for one additional member, to act as alternate chairman of the public employees labor relations board. This will provide an additional full board of 3 members: 1 public, 1 labor member and 1 employee member to hear public employees labor relations cases. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (0571h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT increasing the alternate members on the public employee labor relations board.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Intent. It is the intent of this act to create another alternate neutral or "public" member to the public employee labor relations board. This would give a depth of 3 board members for each constituency represented. Labor and management already have 3 such members and alternates, and by this act public members would increase to 3 members and alternates. There is no fiscal impact to this legislation because the creation of the third neutral member would merely facilitate the board's ability to meet and conform with quorum requirements as set forth in RSA 273-A:2, III. Per diem expenditures for the new member appointed under the provisions of this act shall be taken from appropriated funds.

2 Public Employee Labor Relations Board; Alternate Public Member Added. Amend RSA 273-A:2, I-a to read as follows:

I-a. The governor and council shall appoint, in addition to the regular board members specified in paragraph I, [3] 4 alternate board members. One member shall have extensive experience representing organized labor, one member shall have extensive experience in representing management interests, and ~~[one member]~~ 2 members shall represent the public at large, ~~[and]~~. The members representing the public at large shall not hold elective or appointive public office, or elective or appointive office, or membership in, organized labor at the time of ~~[his]~~ appointment or during ~~[his]~~ their term. Alternate board members shall serve a 6-year term, and may be removed by the governor and council.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds an alternate public member to the public employee labor relations board.

HB 586, clarifying certain terms relative to the practice of chiropractic. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Syliva A. Holley for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill states that the terms adjustment, manipulation and subluxation are primary to the practice of chiropractic and enables the Board of Chiropractic Examiners to define these terms in rules. The bill also addresses the penalties for unlawful practice of chiropractic and makes it a misdemeanor upon conviction to practice chiropractic in New Hampshire without a New Hampshire chiropractic license. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1152h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to rulemaking authority of the board of chiropractic examiners and unlawful practice of chiropractic.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Definition; Duty of Board. Amend RSA 316-A:1 to read as follows:

316-A:1 Definition. The science of chiropractic deals with the analysis of any interference with normal nerve transmission and expression, the procedure preparatory to, and complementary to the correction thereof, by an adjustment of the articulations of the vertebral column and its immediate articulations for the restoration and maintenance of health; it includes the normal regimen and rehabilitation of the patient using the procedures which are currently taught in accredited chiropractic colleges at the time of matriculation without the use of drugs, surgery, or colonic irrigation. The term analysis is construed to include physical examination, the use of x-ray and other analytical instruments generally used in the practice of chiropractic. The terms adjustment, manipulation, and subluxation are primary to the practice of chiropractic and shall therefore be specifically defined in rules adopted by the board of chiropractic examiners.

2 Rulemaking Authority; Approval of Commissioner Removed. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 316-A:3 to read as follows:

The board~~[-with the approval of the commissioner of the department of health and human services;]~~ shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to:

3 New Paragraph; Rulemaking; Define Terms. Amend RSA 316-A:3 by inserting after paragraph XVIII the following new paragraph:

XIX. Defining the specific terms "adjustment," "manipulation," and "subluxation," in the practice of chiropractic.

4 Penalties; Unlawful Practice. Amend RSA 316-A:25 to read as follows:

316-A:25 Penalties; Unlawful Practice.

I. Whoever, not being licensed as provided in this chapter, shall advertise oneself or in any way hold oneself out as qualified to practice chiropractic, [~~or shall practice chiropractic;~~] or whoever does so after receiving notice that the person's license has been revoked, and whoever, being licensed as provided in this chapter, shall advertise or call oneself, or allow oneself to be advertised or called a physician or a doctor, or use any physician's or doctor's insignia as such, except "Doctor (name of chiropractor), chiropractor", shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall, if licensed, have such license revoked.

II. No person shall practice chiropractic as defined in this chapter without first obtaining a license from the board; provided that nothing in this chapter shall prohibit persons licensed under any other provision of New Hampshire law from performing activities within the scope of such a license. Any person who violates this paragraph shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

5 Repeal. RSA 316-A:4, relative to monitoring by commissioner of health and human services of rulemaking activity of the board, is repealed.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes changes to the rulemaking authority of the board of chiropractic examiners and removes the requirement that the commissioner of health and human services monitor such rulemaking. The bill also adds a provision concerning the unlawful practice of chiropractic.

HB 688, relative to the custody and escheat of abandoned and unclaimed property. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Frank V. Sapareto for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill updates a number of provisions of the abandoned property law, which is administered by the state treasurer. Treasurer Thomas testified in support of this bill. The bill changes the timing for the publication and mailing of notices regarding abandoned property. It also removes the current requirement for a civil action in the Superior Court to determine that abandoned and unclaimed property escheats to the state. The amendment allows holders of unclaimed property to report such abandonment only to the state of New Hampshire and not to any other state. Such property is subject to the same uniform property rules as all other abandoned property. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (0768h)

Amend the bill by inserting after the enacting clause the following and renumbering the original sections 1-8 to read as 2-9, respectively:

1 New Paragraph; Abandoned Intangible Property. Amend RSA 471-C:3 by inserting after section VI the following new paragraph:

VII.(a) Unless otherwise provided by law, intangible property is subject to the custody of this state as unclaimed property awaiting claim by another state pursuant to RSA 471-C:27, I(b), if the conditions raising a presumption of abandonment under RSA 471-C:2 or RSA 471-C:5-18 are satisfied and the last known address of the apparent owner, as shown on the records of the holder, is in another state.

(b) Tangible and intangible property awaiting claim by another state pursuant to RSA 471-C:27, I(b) shall be reported to the administrator, subject to the dormancy periods set forth in this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of RSA 471-C:19.

Amend the bill by replacing section 9 with the following:

9 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

HB 725, relative to rulemaking under the administrative procedures act. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Sylvia A. Holley for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill changes the procedures for review, adoption and publication of agency rules under RSA 541-A, the administrative procedures act. Upon review of the numerous amendments submitted, and the suggested changes to the present Joint Committee on Administrative Rules process, the committee determined a more detailed analysis by a larger Executive Departments and Administrative subcommittee, familiar with the rules process, is needed to reach consensus. Vote 15-0.

SB 21, relative to domestic animals. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Howard C. Dickinson, Jr. for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill, as amended, provided for a Division of Animal Industry within the Department of Agriculture, Marketing and Food and assigns the state veterinarian as its director. Oddly enough, the state veterinarian has been performing these duties for the past eight years even though the Division of Animal Industry was not authorized in statute. Recently, when the "Director" approached the Joint Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules staff with proposed administrative rules, he was told that rules could not be written for his division that did not exist. SB 21, as amended, will correct this discrepancy. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1127h)

Amend RSA 436:7 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

436:7 Appointment. The commissioner of agriculture, markets, and food shall, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint a graduate of a veterinary[;] college of recognized standing, who shall have had at least 5 years' experience in the practice of veterinary medicine, including large animal practice, and who shall be known as the state veterinarian and the director of the division of animal industry.

SB 215, transferring certain responsibilities for shellfish harvesting and regulation. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Michael O'Neil for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill enables the transition of some responsibilities for the New Hampshire Shellfish Program from the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Environmental Services. DES duties would be expanded to include additional responsibility for the classification of shellfish, waters and related sanitary survey work in addition to its present responsibility for water quality, assessment and cleanup. The Department of Health and Human Services, Department of Fish and Game and the Office of State Planning will continue with their current responsibilities. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1153h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Emergency Closing. Amend RSA 211:63-a to read as follows:

211:63-a. Emergency Closing. Any rules adopted under the authority of RSA 211:62 may be suspended and the taking of [~~clams, clam worms, and oysters~~] bivalves may be prohibited in any area when the department of [~~health and human~~] environmental services shall determine that accidental pollution exists in the area. The emergency closing shall be ordered by the executive director without a hearing. The executive director after a hearing shall have authority to order a partial closing of clam, [~~clam worm, and~~] oyster, and other bivalve areas for the purpose of management of the areas by rotation. When such management closing is ordered the order shall be effective immediately without a waiting period.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HB 419-FN, repealing the certificate of need law. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Peter Batula for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: Prior to 1987 a federal statute required states to set up a "certificate of need" law. The objective and intent was to keep down the medical costs by controlling new construction for medical care, such as acute care facilities (hospitals), nursing homes, ambulatory surgical centers, etc. In 1987, Congress repealed this mandate, no longer requiring C.O.N. boards in the states. So far, 13 states have discontinued the C.O.N. boards entirely because in the opinion of some, it interfered with free enterprise and all but shut down competition. This bill to repeal the New Hampshire C.O.N. board was carefully considered and the subcommittee and the full committee decided to fix the problem areas of the C.O.N. board. House Bills 545 and 657 follow through with this recommendation. Vote 21-1.

SB 16, relative to revocation of wills by divorce. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John M. Pratt for Judiciary: This bill clarifies the law to make clear that any children of a former spouse shall not inherit after a divorce unless the will expressly provides otherwise. The amendment makes specific that an heir of a former spouse can inherit after a divorce only if the will expressly names that heir. Vote 12-0.

Amendment (1226h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Wills; Revocation by Divorce. Amend RSA 551:13, II to read as follows:

II. If after executing a will the testator is divorced or the marriage is annulled, the divorce or annulment revokes any disposition or appointment of property made by the will to the former spouse, any provision conferring a general or special power of appointment on the former spouse, and any nomination of the former spouse as executor, trustee, conservator, or guardian, unless the will expressly provides otherwise. Property prevented from passing to a former spouse because of revocation by divorce or annulment passes as if the former spouse and all heirs in the descending line of such former spouse who are not also heirs at law of the decedent failed to survive the decedent, and other provisions conferring some power or office on the former spouse are interpreted as if the spouse and all heirs in the descending line of such former spouse who are not also heirs at law of the decedent failed to survive the decedent. Any bequest or devise to any such heirs in the descending line of such former spouse that is contingent upon such spouse predeceasing the testator is revoked by this section, unless the will expressly provides otherwise. If provisions are revoked solely by this section, they are revived by the testator's remarriage to the former spouse. A decree of separation which does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a divorce for the purposes of this section. No change of circumstances other than as described in this section revokes a will.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds the former spouse's heirs who are not also heirs of the testator to the provisions of revocation by divorce. This bill also revokes any bequest or devise to any such heirs that is contingent upon such spouse predeceasing the testator.

SB 26, establishing a committee to study trustee process. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sandra B. Keans for Judiciary: This bill sets up a study committee to look at the trustee process – Chapter 512. In particular the study would look at and clarify the banks' responsibility when holding funds and in which cases they might become a party to court action. The current chapter has not had any changes in over 30 years. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1180h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 6 with the following:

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SB 111, relative to requirements for acknowledgements and jurats by justices of the peace. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John M. Pratt for Judiciary: This Senate bill requires a justice of the peace to print or type his or her name on any document or instrument acknowledged by the justice of the peace. The amendment requires that the justice of the peace must also state the expiration date of his or her commission on the document. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1201h)

Amend RSA 455-A:3 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

455-A:3 Powers. Every justice of the peace shall have the power to administer oaths, perform marriage ceremonies, acknowledge instruments, and any other power prescribed by law. A justice of the peace signing an acknowledgment or jurat on any document or instrument shall type, print, or stamp the name of the justice of the peace and state the expiration date of his or her commission on the document or instrument. However, failure to meet these requirements shall not impair the legal validity of any acknowledgment or jurat.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires a justice of the peace to print or type his or her name and state his or her commission expiration date when making an acknowledgment or jurat.

HB 242, establishing a committee to study lost wages due to work-related injuries. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert H. Turner for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: Currently the client has their case heard by a hearings officer who makes a determination as to causality of their claim. If the claimant is dissatisfied with the hearings officer's decision, he or she may request a hearing before a statutory appeals board and, if still not satisfied, may go to the Supreme Court for a further determination. The comprehensive Worker's Compensation Reform Bill of 1994 has some sections of law in very early stages of implementation. The committee, after considering the request, preferred to monitor the changes we implemented in 1994 rather than reopening issues that have not yet had time sufficient enough to determine their effectiveness. Vote 18-0.

HB 741, relative to the ratio of apprentices to journeymen in trade or industry apprenticeship programs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Gary Torressen for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill as amended reduces the required journeyman to apprentice ratio of 5-1 to 3-1. The committee believed that this was a fair compromise from the original ratio of the bill, seeking a 1-1 ratio. The commissioner of labor also supported this new ratio. This bill will provide more opportunity for those wanting to enter the trades and apprenticeship programs. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1140h)

Amend RSA 278:8, IX as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IX. A statement as to the ratio of apprentices to journeymen or number of apprentices to be employed during any year under the program. Where the agreement provides for a ratio of at least 3 journeymen to one apprentice in terms of overall workforce, no standard shall have the effect of requiring the agreement to provide for employment of any greater number of journeymen per apprentice;

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides that the minimum standards for the ratio of apprentices to journeymen in trade or industry apprenticeship programs may not require more than 3 journeymen to one apprentice.

HB 742, defining "domestic employee" for purposes of workers' compensation. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Robert E. Clegg, Jr. for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The purpose of this legislation is to define "domestic" for the workers compensation portion of homeowners insurance. Currently, all home insurance policies are required to carry workers compensation insurance. The Supreme Court requested the legislature to further define the term "domestic" employee, which the committee has done. This new definition clearly shows that contractors working at your home do not fall under the homeowner's workers compensation but housekeepers and babysitters do. Those holding themselves out as a business or self-employed must carry a valid workers compensation policy if they expect to be covered under the current system. Vote 17-0.

SB 42-L, establishing a committee to study safety improvements at the U.S. Route 1 traffic circle in the city of Portsmouth. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. John E. Tholl, Jr. for Public Works and Highways: The traffic count on the US route 1 traffic circle has gone from 10,200 vehicles per day in 1962, to a high of 29,000 vehicles per day in 1998, a three-fold increase. The traffic circle is approximately 50 years old, and there aren't many more changes that can be made less expensively. Commissioner Kenison from the Department of Transportation testified in favor of the bill. Studies of this nature provide for public input and awareness as well as possible solutions. Vote 16-2.

SB 43, creating a commission to research making Hilton Park in the city of Dover property of that city. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Leon Calawa, Jr. for Public Works and Highways: The committee felt that this was a local issue and could be better handled by local people and groups. A portion of the land will be needed for future expansion of the Spaulding Turnpike. The department of transportation is supportive of local input in developing properties as this, requested by local groups. This is not a unique situation, as the DOT has worked with local groups in other parts of the state on similar projects. The committee completely supports the concept of this legislation, but believes that it should be local and will support local efforts as necessary. The prime sponsor testified that the city of Dover is not interested in this property. Vote 17-0.

SB 155, relative to the naming of certain bridges in the city of Concord. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Candace White Bouchard for Public Works and Highways: This bill provides for the naming of certain roads and bridges as memorial war bridges in Concord. Both the city of Concord and the department of transportation approve of this bill to honor the state's veterans. This bill would rename Concord's Manchester Street bridge to the Korean Veterans Memorial Bridge. The Bridge Street bridge in Concord would be renamed the World War II Veterans Memorial Bridge. The only state bridge affected by this bill is the Interstate 393 bridge over the Merrimack River in the city of Concord. This bridge would be renamed the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Bridge. The cost of design, construction, maintenance and installation of any signage, replacement signage or other markers required under sections 1-3 of this act would be paid for by various veterans' organizations. However, the Department of Transportation shall approve the design, construction and installation of any signage or other markers. The committee felt this bill was an appropriate act to express the state's gratitude and to honor the veterans and their families. Vote 15-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 640-FN, relative to grievance procedures of managed care organizations. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill creates an external appeals process for consumers to access when an insurance claim is denied based on a medically necessary determination from the insurer. Today, policyholders have a right to an internal review only. Many believe this internal process has an inherent conflict of interest since the insurance company reviews itself. This new external process brings an independent panel, certified by the New Hampshire Insurance Department, to review adverse determinations. This is a tremendous step forward in addressing the concerns of managed care. The amendment replaces the entire bill. This bill requires the managed care plan to inform subscribers about this new external appeal. Managed care plans must pay for the appeal and assume all costs of processing the external appeal. There is no fee required of the consumer. Managed care plans must select an independent review agency from a list certified by the Insurance Commissioner. All certified external review agencies must have clinically matched medical professionals to review the case, who have no conflict of interest in the case. The bill requires an expedited appeal process for the life-threatening situations.

This process provides consumers an easy to access, non-judicial, no cost external review. The committee believes this version will have little, if any, effect on insurance premiums. The committee worked hard to develop a bill which considers all viewpoints and has elements from other states and national standards. There are other bills, still in process, which deal with external review. The committee is committed to ensuring an external appeal process becomes law in New Hampshire. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (1120h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Definitions Added. Amend RSA 420-J:3 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

III-a. "Authorized representative" means a person to whom a covered person has given consent to represent the covered person in an external review. Authorized representative may include the covered person's treating provider.

2 New Paragraphs; Definitions Added. Amend RSA 420-J:3 by inserting after paragraph XVI the following new paragraphs:

XVI-a. "External review" means a process by which a covered person may request that an adverse determination be reviewed by an external review organization.

XVI-b. "External review agent" or "review agent" means a clinical peer employed or under contract with an external review organization.

XVI-c. "External review organization" means an organization which employs or contracts with clinical peers to act as external review agents.

3 New Section; External Review. Amend RSA 420-J by inserting after section 5 the following new section:

420-J:5-a External Review Process.

I.(a) There is hereby established an external review process for the purposes of a managed care plan's covered person or the covered person's authorized representative appealing an adverse determination. A plan's covered person shall have the right to an external review when:

(1) A covered person has exhausted the internal appeals process of the contracted plan for a covered benefit and the outcome resulted in an adverse determination;

(2) A health carrier has upheld an adverse determination upon a second level review of a grievance or has failed to render a decision pursuant to RSA 420-J:5, V;

(3) The covered person's cost for the amount in controversy is, or is anticipated to be, equal to or in excess of $500; and

(4) The covered person submits a request, in writing, for such review to the plan within 90 days from the date of receipt of the final internal appeals determination by the managed care plan.

(b) The covered person shall have recourse to an expedited external review for emergency or life threatening situations which would seriously jeopardize the life or health of the covered person, provided that the provisions of subparagraphs I(a)(1) and (2) are met and when:

(1) The individual files a request for expedited external review no later than 72 hours after the managed care plan has issued its final adverse determination or has failed to render a decision pursuant to RSA 420-J:5, V; and

(2) The attending provider certifies that taking the time to complete the standard external review process would seriously jeopardize the life or health of the covered person.

II. Managed care plans shall:

(a) Maintain contracts with at least 2 external review organizations that are certified by the commissioner. A managed care plan shall not contract with an external review organization if the organization performed utilization review functions on behalf of the managed care plan for the specific case under consideration. A managed care plan shall not contract with an external review organization if the external review organization or its review agents have a conflict of interest, as described in subparagraph III(a)(3), with the managed care plan.

(b) Within 3 business days of the carrier's receipt of notification by the covered person of a request for external review, the plan shall select a certified external review organization.

(c) Within 10 business days of the carrier's receipt of notification by the covered person, the plan shall submit to the external review organization all information that was submitted to the plan by the covered person or the covered person's health care provider in support of the covered person's request for coverage under the plan's internal appeals procedures and all other evidence relied upon by the carrier in making its determination.

(d) When an expedited external review is warranted pursuant to subparagraph I(b) of this section, forward information described in subparagraph II(c) to the external review organization within one business day of receipt of the request for an expedited external review.

(e) Be responsible for the reasonable fees and costs of the external review organization, such that fees and costs of an external review shall not exceed $1,500.

III.(a) An external review conducted by an organization at the request of a managed care plan shall meet, at a minimum, the following standards for purposes of being certified by the commissioner. Any such organization that performs an external review may apply to the commissioner and be certified upon demonstrating that it complies, at a minimum, with the standards established in this paragraph.

(1) Any external review organization which meets the criteria under this paragraph, shall conduct its review pursuant to a written plan.

(2) Expert reviewers assigned by the external review organization shall be physicians or other appropriate health care professionals who meet the following requirements:

(A) Be an expert in the treatment of the covered person's medical condition and knowledgeable about the recommended service or treatment through actual clinical experience;

(B) Hold a non-restricted license in a state of the United States, and for physicians, a current certification by a specialty board recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties in the areas appropriate to the subject of review;

(C) Have no history of disciplinary action or sanctions, including, but not limited to, loss of staff privileges or participation restriction, taken or pending by any hospital, health carrier, government or regulatory body; and

(D) Have agreed to disclose any potential conflict of interest.

(3) Neither the expert reviewer, nor the external review organization, shall have any material, professional, familial, or financial conflict of interest with any of the following:

(A) The health carrier.

(B) Any officer, director, or management employee of the carrier.

(C) The physician, the physician's medical group, or the independent practice association (IPA) proposing the service or treatment.

(D) The institution at which the service or treatment would be provided.

(E) The development or manufacture of the principal drug, device, procedure, or other therapy proposed for the covered person whose treatment is under review.

(F) The covered person or authorized representative.

(4) The commissioner may determine, in specific cases, that an affiliation with a hospital, an institution, an academic medical center, or a health carrier provider network does not in and of itself constitute a conflict of interest.

(5) The following organizations are not eligible for certification as external review organizations:

(A) Professional or trade associations of health care providers.

(B) Subsidiaries or affiliates of such provider associations.

(C) Health carrier or health plan associations.

(D) Subsidiaries or affiliates of health plan or health carrier associations.

(6) Any external review organization shall have a documented process to review and evaluate the effectiveness of its external review program.

(7) The external review organization shall consider anew all previously determined facts, allow the introduction of new relevant information and make a decision that is not bound by decisions or conclusions made by the health carrier during internal review.

(8) Any external review organization shall not compensate an individual rendering review determinations based upon the number of adverse determinations upheld or denied.

(9) Any external review organization shall have a documented process for compliance with all applicable medical record confidentiality statutes and regulations.

(10) Any external review organization shall base its determination on the plan's applicable coverage documents, including any terms that are defined thereunder, and shall not expand the contractually agreed upon coverage.

(b) The external review organization shall submit the determination to the commissioner, the plan, and the covered person within 30 business days of the receipt of the request for review. For an expedited external review, the review agent shall issue a determination within 3 business days of receipt of the request. All statutory standards, other than time standards, applicable to external reviews shall apply to expedited external reviews. Reversal of the internal review decision made by the health plan shall be without prejudice to the health plan when the external review organization certifies that it has received new documentation which:

(1) Represents a material change in the submitted information upon which the external review agent based its adverse determination or upon which the managed care plan based its denial; and

(2) Has been made available to the health plan in a manner which failed to provide the plan with sufficient time, not less than 3 business days, to consider such documentation, and amend or confirm the adverse determination.

(c) When rendering a determination, any such external review organization shall consider and rely upon utilization review criteria for the specific case pursuant to the clinical standards of the plan. The external review organization shall examine the attending health care provider's recommendation, and shall consider the applicable generally accepted practice guidelines developed by the federal government or through national or professional medical societies, boards and associations.

(d) The determination shall be in written form and shall state the reasons the requested service or treatment should or should not be covered under the terms and conditions set forth in the evidence of coverage. The determinations shall specifically cite the relevant provisions in the evidence of coverage, the covered person's specific medical condition, and the relevant documents provided, to support the determination.

(e) An external review organization acting in good faith shall have immunity from any civil or criminal liability or professional discipline as a result of acts or omissions with respect to any external review, unless the acts or omissions constitute willful and wanton misconduct.

IV. The commissioner:

(a) Shall review and verify compliance criteria for the certification of an external review organization that contracts with managed care plans for the conduct of the external review as provided in paragraph III.

(b) Shall notify the certified entities of the $1,500 fees and cost limitation for conducting an external review.

(c) May grant up to an additional 5 business days for the external review organization to submit a determination, upon request of the external review organization, the covered person, the covered person's health care provider, or the managed care plan.

(d) Shall collect data regarding the nature of the service or treatment undergoing external review, the outcome determination, the external review organization, and the plan. The commissioner shall submit an annual report no later than November 1 of each year to the governor, the speaker of the house and the president of the senate.

V.(a) The determination of the review agent shall be binding on all parties.

(b) Decisions relating to the following health care services or treatments shall not be reviewed under this section:

(1) Health care services provided to beneficiaries of managed care plans regulated by the federal government through medicaid, the state children's health insurance program (Title XXI of the Social Security Act), medicare or services provided under these programs but through a contracted health carrier.

HB 503-FN-L, relative to the authorized regional enrollment area agreement in Conway. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John Alger for Education: This bill resolves a "glitch" in current law. This change requires review of any AREA school agreement or co-operative, if one or more of the districts voted to participate in a charter school under RSA 194-B. The review can be only for the purpose of addressing charter schools. At present, the adoption of charter school law can contradict an existing AREA agreement. The amendment replaces the bill. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1232h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the adoption of charter school and open enrollment provisions in cooperative school districts and authorized regional enrollment areas.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 AREA Schools; Procedure for Establishment Amended. Amend RSA 195-A:3, V to read as follows:

V. An area school planning board may recommend that there be established an authorized regional enrollment area plan for elementary or secondary schools, or both, or any other reasonable combination of grades, composed of all the school districts represented by its membership or any specified combination thereof. The planning board shall prepare a written plan for the proposed regional enrollment area, which shall be signed by at least a majority of the membership of such board, which shall set forth the following: (a) the name or names of each area school or schools proposed, and the receiving district in which such schools shall be located; (b) the sending districts or portions thereof which, together with the receiving district, shall form the region which each area school or schools shall serve; (c) the grades for which each area school or schools shall be responsible (which may include a combination of elementary and secondary grades or any other reasonable classification); (d) the formula for calculation of tuition; (e) the manner in which any form of state aid shall be credited, unless otherwise expressly provided by law; (f) the existing school buildings in the several school districts which shall be discontinued; (g) the existing school buildings in the receiving district which shall be designated as an area school or schools including any existing buildings to be initially enlarged; (h) the proposed new area school building or buildings to be initially constructed in the receiving district and the initial location of same; (i) the estimated initial enrollment in each area school from each of the sending districts and from the receiving district; (j) the proposed date or dates of operating responsibility of each planned area school, which date may be subsequently postponed by the state board upon petition of a receiving or sending district, in the event of unforeseen circumstances or for good cause shown; (k) the scheduled date or dates during each year upon which tuition payments shall be made by the sending districts to the receiving districts and whether the tuition shall be payable in installments, or in a lump sum; (l) procedure for improvement or changes in curriculum and other school programs and services; (m) the method, time, and manner in which the plan may be amended, subject to state board approval, where not incompatible with law; (n) the term of the plan which shall be for a minimum of 10 years unless otherwise provided by mutual agreement of the school districts consistent with the provisions of RSA 195-A:3, IX; (o) the manner in which the interests of the school boards of the sending districts will be addressed; (p) whether the districts within the area plan shall adopt the provisions of RSA 194-B, and how the adoption of such provisions and the adoption of the open enrollment percentage limitations will affect the districts within the area plan; (q) any other matters, not incompatible with law, which the area school planning board may consider appropriate to include in such written plan.

2 AREA School Plans; Modifications. Amend RSA 195-A:16 to read as follows:

195-A:16 Modification. Parties to any authorized regional area agreement may, either at the time of the original agreement, or at any subsequent modification of the agreement, specify that the agreement shall cover less than 100 percent of the student population of the sending district. In the event that a charter school is established within a sending or receiving district, after final approval by the state board, an area review board shall be convened pursuant to RSA 195-A:14 solely for the purpose of considering an amendment to the area agreement relative to the adoption of the charter school provisions under RSA 194-B. Any such amendment shall be consistent with the provisions of RSA 195-A:3, V(p). An area plan amended under this section shall be submitted to the state board for approval no later than December 1 of the year of amendment.

3 New Section; Cooperative Schools; Modification. Amend RSA 195:31 by inserting after section 30 the following new section:

195:31 Modification. In the event that the cooperative district adopts the provisions of RSA 194-B, and the cooperative district also adopts open enrollment percentage amounts pursuant to RSA 194-B:4, the percentage of pupils authorized by a vote of the cooperative district shall be permitted to attend a charter school which may be established in the district and approved by the voters in accordance with RSA 194-B:3.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides for the amendment of the terms of a authorized regional enrollment area agreement in the event one or more such districts adopt the provisions of the charter school and open enrollment law, or establish a charter school within the cooperative or area plan.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 518-FN-L, relative to a joint maintenance agreement to build a single high school involving the towns of Northwood, Nottingham, and Strafford. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Susan B. Durham for Education: This bill would allow state building aid for a school built on leased land. The committee asked to recommit to address any new information from Northwood. Northwood continues to meet to address building needs. The committee feels that a long-term lease does not equate to ownership for purposes of state building aid. This is also the advice from the Attorney General's office. Vote 15-3.

Adopted.

HB 633-FN-L, establishing parental choice scholarships. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Russell Cox for the Majority of Education: This bill, as amended, provides scholarship aid up to 80% of the adequate education grant to assist low-income families to choose a school other than the assigned public school for a child. The eligibility is limited to schools that are in the bottom 1/3 of the state assessment tests for two preceding years (the only available measure to identify schools where students may not be getting the education best for them), up to a limit of 5% of the population of any particular school or schools that agree to authorize such scholarships. The scholarships are funded by the school district from the state grant money received and are limited to reimbursements of actual expenses for tuition and supplies, not including transportation. The choice of alternative schools, if admitted, includes other public schools and non-sectarian private schools. The scholarship grants are graduated, depending upon income level of the parents, up to three times the poverty level with the remainder of the grant being retained by the public school district. Vote 12-8.

Rep. John M. White for the Minority of Education: The minority opposes the use of limited public resources outside of the public school system and the policy of identifying failing schools, which the bill institutes. It relies on a single measure, the state assessment tests, to identify schools in the bottom third on these tests without regard to where that third falls in performance. In addition, we feel that HB 633 fails to achieve its stated goal of ensuring low income children access to schools of their parents' choice. Private schools need not accept such pupils and if they do, the parents would be required to supplement the scholarship to meet private school tuition costs and to provide transportation for their children.

Amendment (1344h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Education; School Boards, Transportation and Instruction of Pupils; Definitions; Average Daily Membership in Residence; Parental Choice Scholarship Students Added. Amend RSA 189:1-d, IV to read as follows:

IV. "Average daily membership in residence" means the average daily membership of students enrolled in public schools within the district or students attending a public or private school with parental choice scholarship assistance from the district or students whose tuition is being paid by the district to another approved public or private school for a given school district in a given school year.

2 New Chapter; Parental Choice Scholarships. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 194-C the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 194-D

PARENTAL CHOICE SCHOLARSHIPS

194-D:1 Statement of Purpose. It is the purpose of this chapter to:

I. Ensure that school-age children of low-income families have current access to schools that are satisfactory to the parents.

II. Allow more parents to choose among public and nonpublic schools best suited to their children's needs and talents and the parents' educational philosophy regardless of family income and place of residence.

III. Encourage the establishment and operation of diverse learning environments designed to meet the individual educational needs and talents of New Hampshire's children.

IV. Encourage all schools to reach beyond educational adequacy to educational excellence.

194-D:2 Definition. In this chapter, "parent" means a parent, guardian, or person having legal custody of a child.

194-D:3 Eligibility and Limitations.

I. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 198:2 or any other law to the contrary, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a parent shall be eligible to receive a parental choice scholarship if:

(a) The public school within the district or the school to which the child has been assigned has average scores in the bottom 1/3 on a statewide basis in the state assessment tests for both of the 2 years preceding the parent's initial application for a scholarship; or

(b) The governing body or legislative body of the school district to which the child has been assigned has voted to authorize parental choice scholarships.

II.(a) No parent shall receive a parental choice scholarship whose total household adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes is greater than 300 percent of the federal poverty guidelines as set by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

(b) Parents whose total household adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes is not greater than 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines as set by the United States Department of Health and Human Services shall be eligible for 100 percent of the parental scholarship award amount established in RSA 194-D:4, II.

(c) Parents whose total household adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes is greater than 200 percent but not greater than 250 percent of the federal poverty guidelines as set by the United States Department of Health and Human Services shall be eligible for 75 percent of the parental scholarship award amount established in RSA 194-D:4, II.

(d) Parents whose total household adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes is greater than 250 percent but not greater than 275 percent of the federal poverty guidelines as set by the United States Department of Health and Human Services shall be eligible for 50 percent of the parental scholarship award amount established in RSA 194-D:4, II.

(e) Parents whose total household adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes is greater than 275 percent but not greater than 300 percent of the federal poverty guidelines as set by the United States Department of Health and Human Services shall be eligible for 25 percent of the parental scholarship award amount established in RSA 194-D:4, II.

III. No parent shall apply for a parental choice scholarship from a school district other than the district of the child's legal residence, as defined in RSA 193:12.

IV. No parental choice scholarship shall be awarded in violation of a tuition contract or an area plan under RSA 195-A existing on the effective date of this section. Tuition contracts and area plans approved and adopted after the effective date of this section shall not preclude receipt of a school choice scholarship by an otherwise eligible parent.

V. Parents shall apply for parental choice scholarships during the November or December before the academic year, unless the time limitation is waived.

VI. Once a parent receives a parental choice scholarship, the parent shall remain eligible for future scholarships until the child completes the final grade offered at the school to which the child was originally assigned, so long as the child remains a resident of the district and the parent meets the requirements of paragraph II.

VII. Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, school districts operating a parental choice program on the effective date of this section may continue to operate such program.

VIII. Parental choice scholarships shall be granted for no more than 5 percent of the total students assigned to the school. Scholarships shall be awarded to qualifying parents in the order that the applications are received by the school district.

194-D:4 Parental Choice Scholarships; Funding.

I. Parental choice scholarships shall be applied to tuition, textbooks, curricular materials, services, and expenses paid for kindergarten through grade 12 at a public or nonpublic school within or outside the state.

II. Parental scholarship award amounts shall be equal to 80 percent of the adequate education grant amount distributed to the school district pursuant to RSA 198:42 divided by the weighted average daily membership in residence or the actual costs of the school, whichever is less.

III. Parental choice scholarships shall be paid by the school district to the parent twice each school year upon submission of documentation that school services shall be provided.

IV.(a) Scholarship awards may only be applied towards attendance at a nonpublic school if the school meets the criteria set forth in the rules of the state board of education adopted pursuant to RSA 186:11, XXIX.

(b) All children attending nonpublic schools with parental choice scholarship assistance shall be given an academic achievement test chosen by the nonpublic school at least once every year. The nonpublic school shall pay the expense of the test. The test results shall be made available to the department of education upon request.

V. Parents may supplement scholarships with funds from their own or any other public or private sources, including scholarships from a school of choice.

194-D:5 Scholarship Program Requirements and Options.

I. A school district may enter into a contractual or other relationship with an approved nonpublic or charter school within or outside the state and may provide funds, services, equipment, materials, or personnel to a nonpublic school in order to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

II. A school district may enter into a tuition contract with an approved nonpublic or charter school within or outside the state.

III. For purposes of this chapter, RSA 189:6, RSA 189:8, and RSA 189:9, relative to transportation services, shall be optional for school districts.

IV. Parental choice scholarship funds shall not be applied towards attendance at a sectarian school.

194-D:6 Educationally Disabled Pupils; Discrimination Prohibited.

I. In accordance with department of education rules, the funding and educational decision-making process for educationally disabled pupils attending nonpublic schools shall be the responsibility of the local education agency and shall retain all current options available to the parent and to such agency.

II. In order for an attending pupil's parents to be eligible for a parental choice scholarship, a nonpublic school shall certify to the department of education that the school shall not discriminate in any manner prohibited by law and shall not discriminate against educationally disabled pupils. For the purposes of this chapter and in conformance with federal regulations, nonpublic schools shall provide an appropriate education to educationally disabled pupils including the provision of auxiliary aids and services unless doing so would fundamentally alter the nature of the program or would be an undue burden to the nonpublic school.

194-D:7 Liability Limited.

I. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, nonpublic schools shall not be required to comply with additional laws or rules as a result of attendance by pupils whose parents receive parental choice scholarship awards.

II. No nonpublic school shall be required to accept pupils whose parents receive parental choice scholarship awards.

III. No school district shall be held liable for damages in an action to recover for bodily injury, personal injury, property damage as defined in RSA 507-B:1, or failure to educate pupils, where the action arises out of a parent's exercise of options under the provisions of this chapter.

194-D:8 Construction. The provisions of this chapter shall be controlling over any provisions of law that are contradictory to or inconsistent with this chapter.

194-D:9 Rulemaking. The state board of education shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, necessary to administer the provisions of this chapter.

194-D:10 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable.

3 Report by Department of Education; Parental Choice Scholarship Program. The department of education shall report annually to the house and senate education committees on the parental choice scholarship program. Each report shall be submitted by November 1 and shall include, but not be limited to, the number of parental choice scholarships granted in each school district, test results of parental choice scholarship students, a statistical analysis of the incomes of parents receiving parental choice scholarships, and any information specifically requested by the committee chairpersons.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2000.

Adopted.

Rep. John White spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Cox spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Reps. Vivian Clark and O'Hearn spoke in favor.

Rep. O'Hearn requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

HB 690-FN-L, relative to establishing a state board for charter schools. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Warren Henderson for the Majority of Education: As amended, this bill creates an alternative method by which charter schools may be created. The alternative method routes the approval process through the State Board of Education and opens the opportunity to attend to any pupil in the state. Limitations are required in the original law, so no one district is adversely affected. The committee has taken exhaustive testimony for some time, as to the lengthy process needed to create a charter school. It seems clear that if we are to gauge through actual experience the impact of charter schools, we must provide a workable approval process. The process created by this bill involves input by both local and state authorities and provides that the bulk of the approval process may be conducted by the State Board of Education. The bill preserves the original method of gaining approval for a charter school as well. Vote 11-9.

Rep. Charles B. Yeaton for the Minority of Education: This bill permits the establishment of a charter school without the approval of the local school district, thereby overruling local control. While the money for the charter schools is said to be state funds, that money will come from the local districts' allotment as provided by the Claremont settlement.

Amendment (1209h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to charter schools and open enrollment districts.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Open Enrollment and Charter Schools; Admission Preference Amended. Amend RSA 194-B:2, VIII to read as follows:

VIII. [A] Any pupil who meets the admission requirements of an open enrollment or charter school[and who is a resident of the district where the school is located;] shall be [given absolute admission preference over a nonresident pupil] admitted to the open enrollment or charter school. Once admitted and unless expelled, open enrollment and charter school pupils need not reapply for admission for subsequent years.

2 New Paragraph; Charter Schools; Establishment and Application Procedures Amended. Amend RSA 194-B:3 by inserting after paragraph I the following new paragraph:

I-a. Persons eligible to submit an application to establish a charter school under this chapter shall have the option of initiating a charter school application with the school board of the district in which the charter school intends to be located or, in the alternative, with the state board of education.

3 Charter Schools; Establishment and Application; Role of State Board of Education. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 194-B:3, II to read as follows:

II. Except as expressly provided in this chapter, the duty and role of the local school board and the state board relative to the establishment of a charter school shall be ~~[in good faith]~~ to approve or disapprove the proposed charter school application based upon whether or not the proposed application contains ~~[and appropriately addresses these]~~ in specific detail the following required elements:

4 Charter Schools; Establishment and Application Procedures Amended. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 194-B:3, II (cc) to read as follows:

HB 510-FN, relative to monitoring aerial spraying of herbicides. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE.

Rep. David Scanlan for the Majority of Environment and Agriculture: The committee generally shares the concerns of the sponsors relative to the proper use of pesticides. However, this bill specifically targets the aerial spraying of pesticides, a forest management tool that is very important to the North Country timber industry. The large timber companies of the north adhere to the stringent requirements necessary for the proper application of pesticides on forestland. Any attempt to limit the ability of forest landowners to utilize this important tool should be carefully considered and based on solid information. The majority of the committee finds HB 510 inexpedient to legislate. Vote 13-5.

Rep. Betty B. Hall for the Minority of Environment and Agriculture: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has not re-registered insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and rodenticides as mandated by the Food Quality Protection Act. New Hampshire can be more stringent than the EPA but they need to monitor the results of spraying to be able to develop management plans for the toxic chemicals being used.

Majority report adopted.

HB 533-FN, changing the composition of the liquor commission. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Michael O'Neil for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration: Currently, the New Hampshire Liquor Commission has three full-time liquor commissioners. This bill would change the structure of the commission to one full-time commissioner with an annual salary of $80,832 and two part-time commissioners with annual salaries of $2,400. The majority of the committee agreed that the present three-member commission structure is working efficiently and profitably. Total sales increased $14 million in fiscal year 1998, with a total net profit of $66 million for the year. The majority feels that the present system of checks and balances enhance the effective operation of the Liquor Commission and that there is no compelling reason to change this structure. Vote 13-4.

Rep. Carolyn A. Virtue for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration: The minority believes that the time has come to restructure the senior management of the liquor commission. The legislature owes a duty to the taxpayers of New Hampshire to see to it that our state agencies are run efficiently and well. We do not need three commissioners; we need a businesslike management plan that places control of the commission in the capable hands of a single commissioner. Two recent studies have recommended this, and it is time to make the move. The fiscal note demonstrates that we could save $150,000 per year by doing so.

Rep. Virtue spoke against.

Rep. Burling spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Dickinson and O'Neil spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Buckley requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

HB 643-FN-A, transferring the regulation of emergency medical services from the department of health and human services to the department of safety. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Albert W. Hamel for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill will transfer the Emergency Medical Services Program from the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Safety. This will create a third division in the Department of Safety dealing with the fire service and related safety programs, the Division of Fire Safety, the Division of Fire Training and the Division of Emergency Medical Services. With the new Fire Academy, this change will provide a training facility for Emergency Medical Services and allow cross training for fire fighters and medical personnel that desire to be trained in both areas. This will be a benefit for the many communities that operate the emergency medical service out of the fire department. Emergency medical services are now funded by a federal grant to the Department of Health and Human Services. Under the proposed financing, the Department of Health and Human Services will reduce the general fund appropriation by an amount of the emergency medical services grant money and the general fund will pick up the appropriation of the Emergency Medical Services Program. There will be no net change in the general fund for this program. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (0850h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Intent. This bill establishes a division within the department of safety which will be responsible for the regulation of emergency medical services and the licensing of emergency medical services providers. By transferring the regulation for emergency medical services from the department of health and human services to the department of safety, the legislature recognizes that emergency medical services should be regulated by the same state department which regulates other emergency and public safety services.

2 New Subparagraph; Emergency Medical Services Added. Amend RSA 21-P:2, II by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) Administering and enforcing laws relative to emergency medical services.

The data and resulting analysis shall be provided to the bodies established under this chapter, provided that such use does not violate the confidentiality of recipients of emergency medical care. The provisions of RSA 126 shall be followed with regard to other uses of this data for research and evaluation purposes, and for protecting the confidentiality of data in those uses. (k) Prepare budgets and grant requests for funds needed to maintain an effective emergency medical and trauma services system, and plan initiatives related to improving the general health of the public.

(l) With the approval of the commissioner, accept in the name of the state any and all donations, fees for tuition, rents, services and any and all moneys and grants from any governmental unit, public agency, institution, person, firm, or corporation and receive, utilize, expend, and dispose of such funds subject to budgetary provisions, consistent with the rules of the department of safety and the purposes or conditions of the donation or grant.

III. (cc) Licensing of emergency medical care providers and administration and enforcement of emergency medical and trauma care services under RSA 153-A.

5 Unclassified Salary. Amend RSA 94:1-a by inserting in group N the following: director of emergency medical services, department of safety.

6 New Chapter; Emergency Medical and Trauma Services. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 153 the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 153-A

EMERGENCY MEDICAL AND TRAUMA SERVICES

153-A:1 Declaration of Policy and Purpose.

I. The general court declares that it is the policy of the state of New Hampshire to save lives and speed the healing of persons in need of medical services by providing an emergency medical and trauma services system that will bring an injured or sick person under the care of properly trained individuals in the shortest practical time, and that will provide safe transportation to the most appropriate treatment center prepared to receive the sick or injured person. It is the policy of the state of New Hampshire to insure that the sick or injured person is safely transported in properly equipped vehicles which are designed to supply supportive care and which are able to communicate with medical treatment centers. The use of properly licensed wheelchair vans for hire is to ensure that patients confined to a wheelchair are transported in equipped vehicles driven by personnel approved by the division.

II. The general court recognizes that traumatic injury is a health problem in the state of New Hampshire and a cause of unnecessary death and that an organized system for the delivery of trauma care services in New Hampshire should be available. Emergency medical services in rural and wilderness areas require adequately trained and equipped personnel to treat and transport trauma victims. Therefore, the general court declares that the establishment of a coordinated statewide trauma and injury prevention system will benefit all residents and visitors to New Hampshire by reducing the incidence of traumatic injury and minimizing human suffering and disability.

III. The general court, recognizing that the provision of emergency medical and trauma services at the local level is a continuation of a long and valued tradition of neighbor helping neighbor that should be encouraged and maintained, and that the individual providers of emergency medical care must be part of a comprehensive system of care delivery, declares that it is the purpose of this chapter to assure the development, coordination and administration of an emergency medical and trauma services system that reflects the differing needs and abilities of the state's communities and regions.

IV. The general court further recognizes that the delivery of adequate pre-hospital care is reliant on the thorough cooperation of the emergency medical care providers and, therefore, the general court urges the emergency medical care providers to cooperate with and follow the lead of each emergency medical service unit's medical resource hospital.

V. The general court recognizes that volunteers make up a large portion of the staffing of the emergency medical service units, especially in the northern portion of the state. Therefore, the general court believes that the training levels for minimum certification as an emergency medical care provider should continue to allow future volunteer emergency medical care provider participation.

VI. The general court declares that, to the extent it is possible, it is the policy of the state of New Hampshire to allow patients to be transported to the hospital, medical facility, or location of their choice in their area, if there is no compelling medical reason to the contrary. Further, the general court declares that, if appropriate, durable power of attorney for health care and the living will statutes should be taken into consideration in providing emergency medical and trauma services.

MIDWIFERY

I. The general court finds that the practice of midwifery has been a part of the culture and tradition of New Hampshire since colonial days and that it is in the public interest to remove impediments to the practice of midwifery.

II. For personal and economic reasons some New Hampshire citizens will have home births. It is the intent of the general court to preserve the rights of women to deliver children at home, to remove obstacles to safe out-of-hospital deliveries, and to assure quality care.

III. The general court further finds that childbirth is a culmination of pregnancy and is a natural process rather than an illness.

IV. The general court acknowledges that the services of a certified midwife are a reasonable alternative for healthy pregnant women.

V. The general court hereby intends that the scope of practice of midwifery shall be modeled on The International Definition of Midwifery as accepted by the World Health Organization and the International Confederation of Midwives. However, in no event shall the scope of midwifery practice exceed the parameters of the definition of "midwifery" under RSA 326-D:2, V.

326-D:2 Definitions. In this chapter:

9 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a contributory judicial defined contribution retirement plan administered by the administrative office of the courts which includes a 2 to 3 state match of contributions by member judges.

The bill also provides for a survivorship option for judges in the present non-contributing system. Adopted.

Rep. Dyer spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

Reps. Dalianis and Mirski declared conflicts of interest and did not participate.

HB 576-FN-A, establishing additional staff positions for child impact seminars, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: Required seminars for parents involved in divorce or custody/child support disputes are already in statute. They are only provided in four counties because the court system cannot stretch its existing staff to oversee them in the other six. The seminars help the parents focus on impact on their children and are considered successful by both the parents, who pay the full cost, and the court. This bill, as passed earlier by the House, adds 3 1/2 staff at a cost of $223,588 for the biennium to the court system to allow statewide implementation. The amendment clarifies the language. Some committee members questioned whether the parents should also pay the costs of court administration, but the logistics of returning this payment to the court were considered unwieldy, and the usual practice of the court is to absorb its own administrative costs of court-ordered courses and treatments. Vote 19-5.

Amendment (1189h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing additional staff positions for statewide child custody and support impact seminars, and making an appropriation therefor.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1-3 with the following:

1 Seminar for Parents Involved With Child Custody and Support Issues; Chapter Title Amended.

Amend the chapter heading of RSA 458-D to read as follows:

~~[SEMINAR FOR PARENTS INVOLVED WITH CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT ISSUES]~~

CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT IMPACT SEMINARS

2 Child Impact Seminars; Positions Created. There are hereby created 3 full-time court assistant III positions and one-part-time court assistant III position within the child impact program for the purpose of managing statewide child custody and support impact seminars pursuant to RSA 458-D.

3 Appropriation. The sum of $111,794 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2000, and the sum of $111,794 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2001, are hereby appropriated to the judicial branch for the purpose of establishing additional positions to manage statewide child custody and support impact seminars. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes and appropriates funds for the establishment of additional positions within the child impact program for the purpose of managing statewide child custody and support impact seminars.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 612-FN, relative to compensation paid to jurors. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for Finance: Part I, Article 21 of the New Hampshire constitution states that jurors "ought to be fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance." The current fee of $10 per half day cannot be deemed full compensation. The majority determined that, at a minimum, the minimum wage should be the rate to constitute full compensation. Rather than set a specific dollar amount (and thus require a change whenever the minimum wage changes), the amendment uses the prevailing federal hourly minimum wage and defines a half day as three and a half hours. The current minimum wage of $5.15 would mean a payment of $18.03 per half day. This would result in an increased cost of approximately $695,000 for the first full year the bill is in effect. Another $204,000 is required to meet the mileage increase from the current 20 cents being paid to the prevailing rate for state employees, now 31 cents.

The majority believes this is a small price to pay to come into compliance with our constitution and provide jurors with a more reasonable rate of remuneration. As is evident from the closeness of the vote, some members of Finance disagreed. Some in the minority believed that while desirable, this raise cannot be afforded this year, especially in lieu of the hole in the budget created by the Claremont solution of April 29. There are simply other priorities. Others suggested that "fully compensated" might be thought of in non-financial terms, the satisfaction received from helping out in the process of government, for example.

The majority agrees with the 13-2 vote of the Judiciary Committee that "the juror pool has been expanded with recent changes in the law. More and more self-employed, parents needing day care, and individuals working in companies are being called to serve. This small increase is still a token for their monetary loss."

The majority of Finance concurs. In fact, many of the majority, noting that jury service (unlike being a state rep) is mandatory, would like to see an even larger increase in juror compensation. This was viewed as an affordable compromise, which we can, should, and must accomplish even in these tough times. Vote 13-12.

Amendment (1011h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Jurors' Fee and Mileage Increased. Amend RSA 500-A:15, I to read as follows:

1. Grand and petit jurors' fees and mileage shall be paid by the state. The jurors' fees shall be ~~[$10]~~ 3 ½ times the prevailing federal hourly minimum wage for each half day's attendance before a ~~[superior]~~ court; for each mile's travel to and from the place where the juror serves, mileage shall be paid at the state employee rate ~~[of $.20 per mile, mileage to be allowed]~~ for each day's attendance when the juror is required to leave the town or city in which ~~[he]~~ the juror resides.

Adopted.

Rep. Torr yielded to questions.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Torr moved that HB 612-FN, relative to compensation paid to jurors, be laid on the table. Adopted.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Reps. Chandler and Burling moved that the Rules be so far suspended as to permit the Finance Committee to hold a hearing without the proper notice on HB 300, making technical corrections to 1999 HB 117.

Rep. Chandler spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Chandler requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

HB 545-FN, relative to ambulatory surgical facilities. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. Peter Batula for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill would remove ambulatory surgical facilities from under the jurisdiction of the Certificate of Need board. The bill sponsors' intention was to remove the jurisdiction from the C.O.N. board. The sponsor and one of the co-sponsors agreed that this bill, amended to form a study committee to study the overall structure of ambulatory surgical centers, the C.O.N. board and all related issues, was a more appropriate approach to resolve some very complex issues dealing with this matter in a less stressful atmosphere. The committee will consist of three representatives and three senators. Overall, this is one of three similar bills and the most appropriate use of this bill, at this time, is to send it to further study. Vote 22-0.

Amendment (1020h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study ambulatory surgical facilities.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study the overall structure of ambulatory surgical centers, the health services planning and review board, and any and all issues relating to these subject matters.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the house of representatives, one of whom shall be from the health, human services and elderly affairs committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(b) Three members of the senate, one of whom shall be from the public institutions, health and human services committee, appointed by the president of the senate.

II. The committee shall solicit information and advice from the following:

(a) The New Hampshire Hospital Association.

(b) The New Hampshire Medical Society.

(c) Any other group the committee deems necessary.

III. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee's study shall include, but not be limited to, a study of the overall structure of ambulatory surgical centers, the health services planning and review board, and any and all issues relating to these subject matters. The committee shall also study the potential for establishing an external review committee for the board to obtain advice as to costs it oversees, the potential effects of ambulatory surgical centers in rural and semi-rural areas, and investigation of the potential for ambulatory surgical center openings in New Hampshire border communities in abutting states.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named house member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 1999.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study ambulatory surgical facilities.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 615-FN-A, establishing a brain and spinal cord injury trust fund and continually appropriating a special fund. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James Pilliod for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The committee considered extensive testimony on the needs of citizens with severe brain and spine injury. This population suffers long-term consequences of injuries that require ongoing treatment and need for durable medical equipment that has been incompletely met by current programs. The committee strongly supports this bill as ought to pass. Although the committee felt that the proposed services are desperately needed, they did not take a position on the proposed method of financing, believing that this was more appropriately the responsibility of the Finance committee Vote 18-1.

The commissioner shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, relative to such waiver procedures. Fifty dollars of each such fee shall be forwarded to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the New Hampshire brain and spinal cord injury trust fund, established in RSA 137-K:4.

HB 657-FN, relative to the health services planning and review board. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Peter Batula for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: As explained in HB 419, the "Certificate of Need Board" was initially mandated into law as a watchdog on escalating medical costs. The board is no longer a federal mandate and many states have repealed the law for various reasons. Those include failure to slow down escalating medical costs as originally intended, and whether intentional or unintentional, it all but puts a moratorium on competition. The board has, at least in perception, created a wide division between physicians and hospitals. For example: Hospitals' cash cows are the operating rooms and in many instances, they build more surgical centers to reap the most often overpriced surgeries profits. If the cost of these additional surgical centers exceeds $1.5 million, they need C.O.N. approval and they have usually been approved based on past history. The problem arises when perhaps a group of physicians wish to build and open a private freestanding multi-use surgical center, which would obviously compete for the non-emergency type surgeries. If their building costs are expected to exceed $1,000,000, they need C.O.N. approval. That is where the problem starts, as the C.O.N. board controls not only the destiny of the approval process, but also has the power to shut down competition for the hospitals, even though a Blue Cross/Blue Shield study shows that ambulatory surgical centers reduce surgery costs by 47%, while providing quality, affordable health care for all citizens. 2600 ambulatory surgical centers have opened in the country and not one hospital has closed because of them. The federal government encourages the growth of these centers, due to cost savings. HB 657 restructures the C.O.N. board from seven to nine members, adjusts the capital expenditure threshold of $1,250,000 and levels the playing field between hospitals and surgical centers. There is and was an attempt to lower the threshold from the $1,250,000 and if adopted, this would create a moratorium on ambulatory surgical centers, meaning higher surgical costs due to a lack of competition. A vote to lower the threshold (producing a moratorium on competition) is indeed a journey in the wrong direction on the subject of controlling escalating medical costs. Vote 12-8.

Rep. Marion L. Copenhagen for for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The minority of the committee believes that ambulatory surgical centers should be subject to review by the Health Services, Planning and Review Committee (known as the Certificate of Need Board) to determine if there is a public need or to avoid costly duplicative services. The bill as passed, has a threshold of $1,250,000 which in effect, exempts these ambulatory surgical centers from the public review process. The minority feels the threshold should be $750,000, in order for the state to maintain a healthy balance of these necessary surgical facilities.

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Emerton moved that HB 657-FN, relative to the health services planning and review board, be made a Special Order for May 25, 1999 as the first order of business after the adoption of the day's Consent Calendar.

Adopted.

HB 471, exempting family owned and operated businesses from certain requirements in the workers' compensation act relative to safety programs. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Gary P. Torressen for the Majority of Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill, as amended, establishes an incentive program that offers small family-owned business with 15 or less employees a reprieve from bureaucratic safety regulatory requirements in return for maintaining a good safety record. All companies with 10 or more employees must now comply with mandatory safety regulations, which require the creation of a safety plan, the establishment of a safety committee and the yearly filing of a safety report. The majority felt that any small family-owned business (15 or less employees) that maintained a 3-year safe, injury-free track record without individual loss time that exceeded two days should be rewarded by permitting them to be exempted from the mandatory requirements to which they had been subject for three years or more. This would assist these businesses by alleviating a little of the bureaucratic paperwork and regulations that now plague many small businesses. We in the majority believe safety is vitally important. We also realize that businesses are becoming increasingly burdened by the regulatory requirements we place on them. We do not believe that businesses will suddenly become safety-insensitive after having striven for three years to achieve a safe, injury-free track record that finally makes them eligible for the exemptions they have been seeking. It makes no sense to believe that having achieved that goal, businesses would abandon their safety programs, knowing that just one individual loss time claim exceeding two days will draw them back into the mandatory systems for at least another three years and forfeit all that they had gained. The ideal situation is for businesses to be safety conscious without the heavy hand of government. The amendment to this bill provides a 3-year "training" period under government supervision in which companies learn to become safety conscious. Once eligible companies have demonstrated through their safe, injury-free track record that they have learned to handle safety issues responsibly it is only right that they be given their "diploma" by relaxing some of the applicable burdensome mandates to which they are now subject. Vote 10-9.

Rep. Rebecca C. Hutchinson for the Minority of Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: Currently businesses with less than 10 employees are exempt from the safety program requirements. Both the Department of Labor & the BIA did not support the original bill to increase the exemption because of their belief that the safety programs have contributed to the approximate 30% reduction in workers compensation insurance premiums to the employer. The minority did not think it wise to increase the exemption to 15 employees, as the amendment would require. Furthermore, the current reporting requirement is a simple, 10-question form.

Amendment (0795h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT exempting certain family owned and operated businesses from certain requirements in the workers' compensation act relative to safety programs.

Amend RSA 281-A:64, II(b) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Subparagraph (a) shall not apply to family owned and operated businesses of 15 employees or less, provided that the employer does not have lost time claims over a 3-year period which exceed 3 days for any employee.

Amend RSA 281-A:64, III(b) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Subparagraph (a) shall not apply to family owned and operated businesses of 15 employees or less, provided that the employer does not have lost time claims over a 3-year period which exceed 3 days for any employee.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill exempts certain family owned and operated businesses from certain requirements under the workers' compensation act relative to safety.

On a division vote, 216 members having voted in the affirmative and 81 in the negative, the amendment was adopted.

Majority report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 578, relative to a recovery against a third party related to a workers' compensation claim. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Nancy W. Wall for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The present law has worked effectively. The employee is compensated for lost earnings no matter the circumstances, since workers' compensation is a no-fault system. The court recognized double recovery by providing reimbursement to the carrier. The existing statute strikes a delicate balance between the rights of the worker who will receive workers' compensation benefits regardless of who may be at fault. The new provision would allow too much discretion to the court or the Department of Labor. Vote 13-6.

Adopted.

HB 606-FN, relative to compensation for law enforcement officers who are injured in the line of duty. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Nancy W. Wall for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill requires the Commissioner of Labor to review workers compensation managed care programs every five years after the initial review; and also raises the per diem from $150 to $200 for the attorney who chairs the Compensation Appeals Board. Vote 15-3.

Amendment (0962h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to managed care programs under workers' compensation and relative to certain members of the compensation appeals board.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Managed Care Programs. RSA 281-A:23-a, VI is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

VI.(a) The commissioner shall monitor approved managed care programs and shall review the effectiveness of the various programs, cost savings achieved by such programs, and the appropriateness and timeliness of services delivered to the injured employee by such programs. The commissioner shall review each managed care program for purposes of determining the program's continued compliance with the standards for approval and delivery of service. Such review shall take place prior to the expiration of 3 years from the date the program's approval was ratified by the advisory council. Additional review shall take place at least once every 5 years thereafter, or whenever the commissioner determines that such review is required to ensure the program is in compliance with this section. Upon such review, if the commissioner determines after a hearing that a managed care program has failed to maintain compliance with the standards for approval, the commissioner shall withdraw approval of the plan and immediately notify the chairperson of the advisory council of such withdrawal. The commissioner's decision to withdraw approval of a managed care program shall be submitted to the advisory council within 5 days of such a decision and shall be deemed accepted by the advisory council unless, at its first regularly scheduled meeting held at least 19 days after the commissioner's decision, the council, by a majority vote of all its members qualified to vote on ratification, declines to ratify the decision, stating in writing the reasons why the program continues to comply with the requirements of this section and rules adopted pursuant to it. Neither the commissioner nor the insurance commissioner shall be qualified to vote on ratification.

(b) If the commissioner determines that a managed care program has failed to comply with the provisions of this section or the rules adopted to implement such section, but that such failure does not warrant withdrawal of approval of the program, the commissioner may, after notice to the managed care program and hearing assess a civil penalty of not more than $100 for each such failure. If a managed care program fails to pay such penalty the commissioner shall recover the penalty in a civil action in the superior court of the county of jurisdiction.

(c) The commissioner, with the approval of the workers' compensation advisory council and the governor and council, may enter into such contracts as may be necessary to analyze and study the effectiveness of managed care programs. The cost of any contracts entered into under this subparagraph shall be a charge against the workers' compensation administration fund, established under RSA 281-A:59.

2 Appeals Board; Per Diem for Certain Board Members. Amend RSA 281-A:42-a, III to read as follows:

III. Attorney members of the board shall receive $200 per diem and all other members of the board shall each receive $150 per diem for each day devoted to the work of the board and shall be reimbursed for necessary travel expenses.

3 Hearings and Awards; Board Added. Amend RSA 281-A:43, II to read as follows:

II. A decision of the commissioner [or], the commissioner's authorized representative, or the board shall take effect upon the date of notification and shall become final, in the absence of an appeal from it, 30 days after notification. Payment of weekly compensation and entitlement to medical and vocational benefits, if necessary and so ordered by the commissioner, shall begin or continue as soon as possible, but no later than 5 working days after the decision's effective date, and shall not be terminated except in accordance with the terms of the decision or of a final court determination. If the commissioner determines that the employer has failed to comply with the order, then the commissioner may assess a penalty not to exceed $100 for each day of noncompliance, beginning on the date of notification of its assessment. Upon continued failure to comply with an order to make payment of the compensation or medical benefits, or to institute vocational rehabilitation, or to pay the penalty, or any combination thereof, the commissioner shall petition the superior court for an injunction to comply. The commissioner shall deposit with the state treasurer any penalty collected under this section.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

The bill requires the commissioner of labor to review workers' compensation managed care programs every 5 years after the initial review. The bill also raises the per diem for attorney members of the compensation appeals board.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 636-FN, relative to public safety employee collective bargaining negotiations under the public employee labor relations act. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Robert E. Clegg, Jr. for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The committee spent an extreme amount of time and effort on the subject of how to better serve the local communities in reference to collective bargaining. In 1998, the committee spent four months traveling from county to county holding public hearings. This year, the committee has worked for five months trying to reach a consensus among both unions and municipalities. The continued attempt to create a perfect law has raised many more questions, which must be addressed. The committee respectfully requests the House allow us to continue our work by re-referring this bill. Vote 14-5. Adopted.

HB 536, authorizing municipalities to exempt from the local property tax personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: In order to further the state's policy of promoting the development of a competitive electric supply market in New Hampshire and to give municipalities the ability to attract new electric generation facilities and retain existing generation facilities that have become subject to the economic pressures of a deregulated market, the general court believes that it is desirable to give municipalities the authority to exempt from taxation certain personal property that is used in the manufacture of electricity.

This bill gives the governing body the authority to determine an exemption. The amendment sets up that the determination requires approval by the legislative body of the municipality.

The determination for exemption may be applied to new construction of electric generating facilities, to retain existing electric generation facilities or to foster economic development.

At least four items must be disclosed to and approved by the legislative body: fair market value of equipment exempted, the term of the exemption, any agreement for payments of taxes, and/or agreement for payment in lieu of taxes.

An additional amendment to sunset the availability of this option on July 1, 2004 was adopted by the committee. If an exemption is granted by the legislative body, the agreement is not subject to the sunset date. Vote 11-4.

Amendment (1063h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. In order to further the state's policy of promoting the development of a competitive electric supply market in New Hampshire and to give municipalities the ability to attract new electric generation facilities and retain existing generation facilities that have become subject to the economic pressures of a deregulated market, the general court believes that it is desirable to give municipalities the authority to exempt from taxation certain personal property that is used in the manufacture of electricity.

2 Personal Property Used in Manufacture of Electricity; Exemption from Property Tax Authorized. Amend RSA 72:8 to read as follows:

72:8 Electric Plants and Pipe Lines.

1. All structures, machinery, dynamos, apparatus, poles, wires, fixtures of all kinds and descriptions, and pipe lines employed in the generation, production, supply, distribution, transmission, or transportation of electric power or natural gas, crude petroleum and refined petroleum products or combinations thereof, shall be taxed as real estate in the town in which said property or any part of it is situated; provided that no electric power fixtures which would otherwise be taxed under this section shall be taxed under this section if they are employed solely as an emergency source of electric power.

II.(a) A governing body of a municipality may exempt from taxation under this section any portion of the personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power that would otherwise be subject to taxation under paragraph I in accordance with this paragraph. If a municipality exempts any such property from taxation, the exemption shall apply to all owners of such property within the municipality.

(b) The governing body of each municipality shall make the determination to exempt from taxation so much of the equipment for the generation and production of electric power and for such a term of years as the governing body determines will attract new construction of electric generation facilities, retain existing electric generation facilities, or foster economic development.

(c) Such determination, including but not limited to the fair market value of the equipment exempted, the term of the exemption, any agreement for payment of taxes, and/or any agreement for payment in lieu of taxes, shall be subject to approval of the legislative body of the municipality.

3 Repeal. RSA 72:8, II, relative to an optional exemption from the property tax for personal property used in the manufacture of electricity, is repealed.

4 Applicability. The repeal of RSA 72:8, II under section 3 of this act shall not affect the validity of the terms of any exemption granted by a municipality under RSA 72:8 prior to the effective date of section 3 of this act.

5 Effective Date.

I. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2004.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes municipalities to exempt from the local property tax any portion of personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power that would otherwise be subject to taxation. The authority to grant this exemption is repealed on July 1, 2004.

Adopted.

Rep. Patten offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (1375h)

Amend RSA 72:8, II as inserted by section 2 of the bill by inserting after subparagraph (c) the following new subparagraph:

(d) Any portion of personal property exempted under the provisions of this paragraph from taxation for a term of years shall be deemed subject to local property taxation for purposes of the utility property tax imposed by RSA 83-F on utility property as defined in RSA 83-F:1, V.

Rep. Patten spoke in favor.

Adopted.

Rep. Hess yielded to questions.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Vaillancourt moved that HB 536, authorizing municipalities to exempt from the local property tax personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, 103 members having voted in the affirmative and 190 in the negative, the motion failed.

The question now being the adoption of the report.

HB 464, relative to economic development and retention rates and special contracts. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeb E. Bradley for Science, Technology and Energy: The committee amendment replaces the entire bill with a set of purpose and findings statements concerning the securitization of electric utility stranded costs. Though the subject matter of the amendment is different than that of the original bill, it has received a proper public hearing. The committee retains another bill, HB 457, that may be used at a later point to provide the actual authorization to use securitization if circumstances justify it.

Securitization (secured bonds) of an electric utility's stranded costs has been used in other states as a refinancing technique to lower the cost to customers of recovery of past utility investments; i.e., stranded costs that would not be recoverable in a competitive environment. The utility recovers the portion of its stranded costs covered by the secured bonds on an up-front basis in a lump sum payment. Bondholders finance that transaction on the basis of legislation that commits ratepayers to repay the commitment generally over a 10 to 12 year period. Repayment is an irrevocable guarantee. Due to that guarantee the bonds would expect to be AAA rated and, as such, lower the costs to customers of stranded cost recovery.

Utilities stand to benefit through use of these secured bonds. Utilities receive this portion of their stranded costs immediately at a time when having cash for acquisitions is advantageous. Risk of not recovering these stranded costs is removed. Risk removal is very attractive for a utility as self-generation is becoming an increasingly viable option for large electricity users and may well become viable for residential customers in the near future. Risk removal may allow a utility to recapitalize its debt structure and become more attractive as an investment opportunity. Some utilities that have used secured bonds to recover stranded costs have seen substantial stock appreciation.

The committee amendment recognizes these benefits to a utility and sets out corresponding principles of customer benefits that should also be achieved through this process of secured bonding. Those customer benefits include: lower electric rates, effective customer choice of electricity provider, electric rates that approach regional averages in four years, and potential risk sharing by a utility if a regional average is not approached. The principles also include calls for further efforts to reduce the high cost of wood to energy power, the end of litigation against restructuring efforts in New Hampshire, and filing of any proposed settlement with the Public Utilities Commission prior to further consideration of secured bonding legislation.

This committee amendment is a purpose and findings statement only. It does not authorize the use of secured bonds nor does it state how much stranded costs a utility could potentially recover through this process. Further legislation would have to be approved by both the House and Senate after a settlement is reached, prior to using secured bonds. If a settlement is reached, that would be the time to consider further legislation. However, the Science, Technology and Energy Committee feels it is important at this time to state these broad policy principles. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1182h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to electric rate reduction financing.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Statement of Purpose.

I. The state of New Hampshire and Public Service Company of New Hampshire (PSNH) are in the process of negotiating a settlement to resolve the outstanding issues concerning the implementation within PSNH's service territory of electric utility restructuring pursuant to RSA 374-F. Any settlement proposal that results from these negotiations will in all likelihood include a component for securitizing a portion of PSNH's stranded costs.

II. It is important that the general court, through the declaration of purpose and findings of RSA 369-A:1, express its understanding of securitization and the criteria that are essential to meet prior to authorizing the use of securitization.

2 New Chapter; Electric Rate Reduction Financing. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 369 the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 369-AELECTRIC RATE REDUCTION FINANCING

369-A:1 Declaration of Purpose and Findings. The general court finds that:

I. Restructuring of electric utilities to provide greater competition and more efficient regulation has been found by the general court to be in the public good and New Hampshire is now aggressively pursuing restructuring and increased customer choice in order to provide electric service at lower and more competitive rates.

II. The transition to competitive markets for electricity is a complex endeavor and requires the development of creative and flexible mechanisms to facilitate the movement from monopoly to competition.

III. The establishment of structured financing options for public utilities will enhance and facilitate the expeditious transition to competition, choice for retail electric customers, and reductions in electric rates for all customer classes consistent with the near term rate relief principle of RSA 374-F:3, XI, without creating any debt or obligation of the state or other adverse impacts upon the state's finances or credit rating. Structured financing options may facilitate and help mitigate stranded cost recovery that the commission determines is appropriate, equitable, and balanced pursuant to authority granted in RSA 374-F:3, XII and 374-F:4.

IV. Structured finance options are best pursued in the context of settlement agreements between a utility and the commission concerning the implementation of competition.

V. Rate reduction bonds are instruments underwritten for recovery by a guaranteed promise of customer repayment as part of the stranded cost recovery charge on a customer's bill. These bonds' irrevocable guarantee of repayment creates a secure expectation of performance and thus allows for an attractive rate of refinancing of a utility's stranded costs.

VI. Stranded costs are at significant risk of not being recovered under traditional rate regulation and market pressures. Electricity prices in New Hampshire are so high as to cause customers to aggressively consider fuel switching, conservation, or self generation. Technological innovation may soon allow small scale self generation units to be viable in the near future. Over time, technological innovation will increasingly threaten the recovery of stranded costs.

VII. Once stranded costs are securitized through rate reduction bonds, a utility immediately recovers through a lump sum payment that portion of its stranded costs underwritten by the bond. As such, the risk of not recovering that portion of a utility's stranded costs is completely removed. The utility may then favorably recapitalize its debt structure taking advantage of its improved risk profile.

VIII. A lump sum payment derived from a rate reduction bond provides a large infusion of cash with which a utility may repay its debt. This infusion of cash also gives a utility a tremendous opportunity to become a major participant in deregulated electric generation markets or deregulated telecommunication markets.

IX. The financial and security advantages that accrue to a utility in the form of improved debt structure, risk reduction, and new cash resources could make such a utility an attractive investment opportunity. It is likely that any such utility's publicly traded stock value would rise considerably, especially for a utility that had faced significant investor uncertainty.

X. The extraordinary benefits that utilities and their investors will receive through issuance of rate reduction bonds are appropriate and fair, but only to the extent that customers also receive equitable and extraordinary benefits. Unless these customer benefits can be achieved at the same time that utilities receive the extraordinary benefits of securitization, the use of revenue reduction bonds and the irrevocable obligation they create for customers is not in the public interest. The benefits to customers should be substantially consistent with the following principles:

(a) The opportunity to choose among a range of competitive suppliers in a manner that promotes public trust in the benefits of competitive options. Public trust is not achieved if a utility uses rate reduction bonds to maintain a commanding presence in all of the traditional utility functions of transmitting, distributing, and generating electricity.

(b) Electricity prices consistent with RSA 374-F:3, XI, the near term rate relief principles for all customer classes.

(c) Electricity prices that approach the regional average within 4 years.

(d) Electricity prices that do not create another rate gap for New Hampshire customers.

(e) Risk sharing by the utility of the non securitized portion of the utility's stranded cost should regional average prices not be approached in 4 years.

(f) The continued opportunity for end users to generate electricity for their own use without an exit fee.

(g) Further renegotiations between representatives of the 6 wood-to-energy facilities, Public Service Company of New Hampshire, the public utilities commission, and other interested parties in order to reduce customer cost of this source of electricity.

(h) The cessation of any dispute, litigation, or regulatory proceedings concerning any electric restructuring issue, in any forum where the utility's position is adverse to the state of New Hampshire, the commission, or the New Hampshire Electric Cooperative prior to use of structured financing options.

(i) Retention of commission jurisdiction over any proposed settlement.

(j) Filing of any proposed settlement at the public utilities commission prior to further legislative consideration of authorization to use structured financing options.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Michael Gilman for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The committee found that this bill as written, if implemented, would contribute to undermining the role of parents' authority in the lives of their teenagers. The bill would also create a stricter regulation than that of present federal regulations. Vote 16-2.

Rep. Chandler moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HB 281-A, making a capital appropriation for the expansion of veterans' home facilities, removed by Rep. Leber.

SB 24, extending the application of certain provisions of the child protection act to all children in out-of-home placements. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Constance A. Jones for Children and Family Law: This bill, with the amendment, clarifies the law regarding the return of a court-placed child in placement who is subject to the child protection statute. The amendment makes it clear that the existing standard applies to children in relative homes and group homes as well as foster care. There is no budgetary impact. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1251h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Standard for Return of a Child in Placement. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 169-C:23 to read as follows:

169-C:23. [~~Before a child in foster care is returned to the custody of its parents;~~] In the absence of a guardianship of the person of the minor, governed by the terms of RSA 463, before a child in out-of-home placement is returned to the custody of his or her parents, the parent or parents shall demonstrate to the court that:

SB 112, relative to the guardianship of minors. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. David A. Bickford for Children and Family Law: This bill clarifies “guardianship of a minor” within the definition of “custody proceeding” and places the jurisdiction of the court under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act. Passage of this bill would cause no fiscal impact. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1250h)

Amend RSA 458-A:2, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. “Custody proceeding” includes proceedings in which a custody determination is at issue or is one of several issues, including any action or proceeding brought to annul a marriage or to declare the nullity of a void marriage, or for a separation, or for a divorce, or relative to the guardianship of a minor, but not including proceedings for adoption, child protective proceedings or proceedings for permanent termination of parental custody, or proceedings involving the guardianship and custody of children found to be neglected or dependent [~~children~~] pursuant to RSA 169-B, 169-C, or 169-D.

HB 375, relative to substitutions for disqualified candidates and relative to nominations by nomination papers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert E. Clegg, Jr. for Election Law: This bill allows a 5-day window to replace a candidate who is disqualified from having their name printed on the ballot for a primary election because of age, domicile, incapacitating disability or death. The respective party shall have 5 days to replace the candidate by submitting a new name to the secretary of state. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1072h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to substitutions for disqualified and deceased candidates.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Elections; Nominations; Conduct of Primary; Disqualification of Candidate; Substitution Deadline Added. Amend RSA 655:38 to read as follows:

655:38 Disqualification of Candidate. If a candidate to be voted for at the general election shall make oath between the date of [~~his~~] the candidate's nomination and the day of the election that he or she does not qualify for the public office which he or she seeks because of age, domicile, or incapacitating physical disability acquired subsequent to the primary, the secretary of state may remove said person's name from the ballot. A new candidate may be substituted by the appropriate party committee by [~~notifying~~] submitting the name of the new candidate to the secretary of state within 5 days of the notice of disqualification. The name of the substitute candidate shall be placed on the ballots as provided in RSA 656:21.

2 Elections; Nominations; Conduct of Primary; Death of Candidate; Substitution Deadline Added. Amend RSA 655:39 to read as follows:

655:39 Death of Candidate. If any candidate to be voted for at the general election shall die between the date of nomination and the day of election, a new candidate may be substituted by the appropriate party committee by [~~notifying~~] submitting the name of the new candidate to the secretary of state within 5 days of the notice of death. The name of the substitute candidate shall be placed on the ballots as provided in RSA 656:21.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that a party committee notify the secretary of state of a substitute candidate for a disqualified or deceased candidate within 5 days of notification of the disqualification or death.

HB 445, relative to straight ticket voting procedures. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Raymond Buckley for Election Law: The committee requests that HB 445 be re-referred so that we may use the bill as a vehicle to study several ballot-related ideas that are of interest to the committee. As we have worked on our bills this year, a number of new ideas have been mentioned that the committee would like to study for potential legislation next session. Vote 17-1.

HB 458, relative to voter qualifications. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert R. Rodrigue for Election Law: The bill would have made changes in voter qualifications to accommodate homeless persons and others. The committee found both good and bad in the bill. After extensive amending in sub-committee, there are still some concerns of the constitutionality of this bill. Out of respect to the current workload of the legislature, the sponsor has asked that the bill be killed, so that the issue may be given proper attention at some later time. Vote 17-1.

HB 506-FN-L, relative to voter registration. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Francis W. Davis for Election Law: This bill would have required that voter registration forms be available in the office of the mayor or selectmen, the post office, and the library in each city and town in addition to the office of the clerk. The committee felt that these additional registration places were not necessary now that we have same day voter registration on election day. This bill would also have required the verification of the voter checklists every two years. The current purging of the voter checklist is on a ten-year cycle. To reduce this cycle to a two-year period would be very costly. The election law committee unanimously opposed this legislation. Vote 17-0.

HB 395-FN-A, establishing a pilot program of matching grants to preserve historic agricultural structures in New Hampshire and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Margaret A. Lynch for Finance: The amendment replaces the original bill. As presented, the original bill established a pilot program of matching grants to preserve historical agricultural structures at a cost of $100,000 to the general fund for the biennium. It was the consensus of the committee that we could support the policy intent; however, we could not justify a $100,000 grant program as a priority at this time for state financial support.

The amendment removes the state obligation for financial support and establishes a non-lapsing fund in the office of the state treasurer to be known as The Barn Preservation Fund. The division of historical resources is authorized to accept public and private donations of any kind to be awarded competitively to eligible applicants, who must match the award with equal or greater value. The amendment further establishes an advisory committee and eligibility criteria as well as the requirement to record such grant awards with the appropriate registry of deeds.

The Committee on Environment and Agriculture reviewed the changes to the bill and found them acceptable. There is therefore no fiscal impact on general funds. Vote 25-1.

Amendment (1166h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a program of matching grants to preserve historic agricultural structures in New Hampshire.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; Historic Agricultural Structure Matching Grants Program. Amend RSA 227-C by inserting after section 26 the following new subdivision:

Historic Agricultural Structure Matching Grants Program

227-C:27 Purpose. Historic barns and agricultural structures symbolize the distinctive New Hampshire values of heritage, hard work, productivity and stewardship. They are witnesses to the role of agriculture in our state's image and its economy, and they serve as scenic landmarks for residents and visitors alike. They are among our most highly valued heritage resources, but many can no longer generate sufficient income to prevent their loss by decay or demolition. In order to assist the owners who are making an effort to preserve these irreplaceable assets, it is hereby declared to be public policy and in the public interest of this state to establish a matching grants program consisting of funds from private and public sector grants, gifts, and donations for preserving historic agricultural structures in New Hampshire.

227-C:28 Matching Grants Program Established; Barn Preservation Fund.

1. A program of matching grants to preserve historic barns and agricultural structures in New Hampshire is hereby established.

II. There is established a nonlapsing fund in the office of the state treasurer to be known as the barn preservation fund. The division of historical resources, department of cultural resources, is authorized to accept public sector and private sector grants, gifts, or donations of any kind to be awarded competitively to eligible applicants. All such moneys shall be deposited in the fund.

Moneys in the fund shall be used solely for grant awards and shall be matched with an equal or greater value of cash, labor, or materials provided by the applicant from private, local, state, or federal sources.

227-C:29 Advisory Committee.

I. For the purpose of soliciting applications, recommending grant awards, and considering any other matter necessary to the administration of this act, an advisory committee to the division of historical resources shall be established, consisting of:

- (a) The commissioner of cultural resources, or designee.
- (b) The commissioner of agriculture, markets, and food, or designee.
- (c) The commissioner of resources and economic development, or designee.
- (d) The chairperson of the state conservation committee, or designee.
- (e) The director of the division of historical resources, or designee, who shall act as the committee chair.
- (f) The executive director of the New Hampshire Farm Service Agency, or designee.
- (g) The director of the New Hampshire Farm Bureau Federation, or designee.
- (h) The director of the university of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension, or designee.
- (i) The master of the New Hampshire state grange, or designee.
- (j) A member of the state historical resources council.
- (k) A staff member of the division of historical resources selected by the director.
- (l) Two individuals actively engaged in agriculture, selected by the committee.

II. On or before November 1 of the second year of each biennium, the committee shall make a report regarding the program to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, and the governor.

227-C:30 Eligibility. In order to qualify for grant assistance, agricultural buildings and structures shall be listed in the National Register of Historic Places, or shall be formally determined to be eligible for the National Register of Historic Places, or shall be listed or formally determined to be eligible for listing in the state register of historic places, in accordance with established procedures of the division of historical resources, prior to receiving any grant funds. Priority will be given to projects that:

- (a) Preserve historic building features.
- (b) Preserve important examples of historic agricultural building types.
- (c) Promote productive long-term use of the property.
- (d) Preserve important local landmarks.
- (e) Are located on designated scenic and cultural byways.
- (f) Would accept a preservation restriction, as defined in RSA 477:45.

227-C:31 Recapture. If a recipient or subsequent owner takes any action within 10 years of the grant award with respect to the assisted building or structure, such as dismantlement, removal, or substantial alteration, which causes it to no longer be eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places, within one year from the date of loss of eligibility, the preservation grant shall be repaid in full to the barn preservation fund.

227-C:32 Receipt of Grant Recorded in Registry of Deeds. Receipt of a grant award under this program and conditions of such award shall be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county in which the historic barn or agricultural structure is located.

2 New Subparagraph; Barn Preservation Fund Created. Amend RSA 6:12, I by inserting after subparagraph (www) the following new subparagraph:

(xxx) Moneys collected pursuant to RSA 227-C:28, which shall be deposited in the barn preservation fund.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a program of matching grants to preserve historic agricultural structures. Grant moneys shall be provided by private and public sector gifts, grants, and donations, and shall be deposited in a newly created special fund. Recipients of grants must provide an equal or greater value of cash, labor, or materials from private, local, state, or federal sources.

HB 685-FN-A, relative to the New Hampshire land and community heritage commission, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
 Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: The legislature in 1998 created the Land and Community Heritage Commission to develop plans for a land and historic building preservation program. The Finance Committee amended the bill as received from the policy committee by removing language that could have committed the legislature to appropriating $12 million to the new program to be proposed by the commission later this year, and by continuing the 1998 policy of voluntary funding of commission costs. Vote 23-3.

Amendment (1239h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the duties of the New Hampshire land and community heritage commission.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Statement of Purpose.

I. The general court recognizes and supports the principal conclusion of the interim report of the New Hampshire land and community heritage commission, established pursuant to 1998, 161 (SB 493), that in order to maintain New Hampshire's quality of life and economic vitality for its citizens, growth and development should be balanced with protection of New Hampshire's most important natural, cultural and historic resources. Permanent protection of any of these resources, through easements, acquisition or rehabilitation of such lands, culturally or historically significant buildings and other physical assets, or interests in these assets, should be accompanied by long-term stewardship of these resources.

II. The general court finds that it is an appropriate function of state government to enact such permanent policy measures as may be beneficial, to protect and preserve New Hampshire's natural, cultural and historic resources for this and future generations, in partnership with the federal government, municipalities, other political subdivisions, and the private sector.

III. The general court concludes that the enactment of such a program or programs, and such other policy measures as may be beneficial toward these ends, should be considered at the earliest possible date.

IV. Therefore, the general court accepts with gratitude the interim findings of the New Hampshire land and community heritage commission, and directs the commission to complete its work on or before November 30, 1999, according to the duties set forth herein, so that the general court may have the necessary information and recommendations upon which to base its consideration of a new program or programs to protect and preserve New Hampshire's natural, cultural, and historic resources for this and future generations.

2 New Paragraphs; Duties of Commission. Amend 1998, 161:4 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraphs:

IV. Work on completion of the original charge to the commission, including but not limited to refinement of the recommendations made in the commission's interim report relative to the scope, design and administration, including development of a plan for public dissemination of information, for a new public-private program to protect New Hampshire's most important natural, cultural and historic resources.

V. Evaluate and recommend specific public and private funding mechanisms to implement such a program.

VI. Examine the opportunity for partnerships among state and federal agencies, municipalities, not-for-profit organizations and others to protect New Hampshire's most important natural, cultural and historic resources.

VII. Evaluate possible economic and community benefits as well as local property tax impacts of public acquisition and protection of resources.

VIII. Develop an outreach and education program to communities, organizations and individuals to promote awareness of the importance of protecting natural, cultural and historic resources and creating effective stewardship programs for such resources.

IX. Cooperate and communicate with relevant committees of the house and senate on matters related to the purposes of this act.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the duties of the New Hampshire land and community heritage commission.

SB 25, expanding the waiver of administration under the law regarding decedents' estates. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert H. Rowe for Judiciary: This is a consumer-oriented bill that reduces the cost and time in the probating of estates when the sole heir of the estate is a spouse, or if no spouse an only child. In such instances the law allows the surviving spouse or the child to complete the probate process through the filing of an affidavit of administration rather than proceeding through the full probate process. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1045h)

Amend the bill by replacing section I with the following:

I Decedents' Estates; Waiver of Full Administration. Amend RSA 554:1-a to read as follows:
554:1-a Waiver of Full Administration.

I. As used in this section, "fiduciary" shall mean any executor or administrator, including voluntary administrator, special administrator, administrator with will annexed (hereafter administrator w.w.a.), and administrator de bonis non.

II. Notwithstanding any provision of law, whenever a deceased dies testate and the surviving spouse or, if no spouse, an only child is named in the will as the sole beneficiary of the deceased's estate and ~~[has also been]~~ is appointed to serve as ~~[executor or administrator with will annexed; hereafter administrator w.w.a.]~~ fiduciary; or whenever a deceased dies intestate and the surviving spouse or, if no spouse, an only child is the sole heir of the deceased's estate and is appointed to serve as fiduciary, there shall be no requirement for an inventory of the estate, no requirement for a bond, and no requirement for an accounting for assets. ~~[Any interested person may petition for a full administration of the estate within 6 months after the original grant of administration; and such petition may be granted by the probate court for good cause shown.]~~ Administration of the ~~[will]~~ estate shall be completed upon the fiduciary's filing, and the probate court's approval of an affidavit of administration ~~[with the probate court]~~. Such filing shall occur not less than 6 months nor more than one year after the date of appointment of the ~~[executor or administrator w.w.a.]~~ fiduciary. The affidavit of administration shall state that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the ~~[executor or administrator w.w.a.]~~ fiduciary there are no outstanding debts or obligations attributable to the deceased's estate and shall list all real estate owned by the decedent at the time of death, including the location, book and page. If the ~~[executor or administrator w.w.a.]~~ fiduciary fails to file the affidavit of administration within the time prescribed above, the ~~[executor or administrator w.w.a.]~~ fiduciary is in default. The register of probate shall give notice of the default to the ~~[executor or administrator w.w.a.]~~ fiduciary by first class mail within 10 days after the default. The register of probate shall issue a citation notice in accordance with RSA 548:5-a. ~~[If the executor or administrator w.w.a. is unable to complete the administration of the estate, administration may be completed pursuant to RSA 553:7.]~~

III. Any interested person may petition for a full administration of the estate at any time from the original grant of administration to the filing of the affidavit of administration, and such petition may be granted by the probate court for good cause shown.

IV. Disclaimer, ademption of legacies, or declination to serve as executor may be effectively used to cause the estate to conform to the requirements of paragraph II.

V. A guardian may be appointed as fiduciary if the ward qualifies under the provisions of this section.

VI. If the fiduciary is unable to complete the administration of the estate, administration may be completed in accordance with this section by the successor fiduciary.

VII. If both this section and RSA 553:31 are applicable to an estate, this section shall take precedence.

SB 64, relative to powers of appointment. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Janet G. Wall for Judiciary: This bill is a product of a study committee last summer. It is intended to clear up a problem in New Hampshire regarding powers granted to a person in a will or trust where the language in said will or trust is vague. In many wills or trusts written prior to 1986 a distinction is not made between general power of appointment, which is broad and taxable by IRS and, special power of appointment, which is limited power and not taxable by IRS. Currently, the Internal Revenue Service chooses to declare powers of appointment as taxable if general or special is not clearly defined. If a state enacts laws clarifying general and special powers of appointment, the Internal Revenue Service will defer to the state law. This bill has no impact on New Hampshire legacy and succession laws. Vote 13-0.

SB 101, relative to landlord-tenant obligations. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Phyllis L. Woods for Judiciary: This bill would prohibit sheriff's departments from collecting a fee for service from landlords unless the landlord and tenant writ was made properly returnable in 7 days in accordance with current statute. The bill further defines "voluntary departed tenant" and reduces the time that a landlord is required to store the personal property of a tenant who has voluntarily vacated a dwelling from 28 days to 3 days. The bill prohibits a landlord from knowingly renting premises or maintaining premises for rent that violate minimum housing standards. It requires that, if part of a rental agreement requires the tenant to pay part of a utility service used in another dwelling unit, it shall be confirmed in writing to the tenant. The bill requires landlords and tenants to make repairs to correct certain violations and allows landlords to defend against certain alleged violations of minimum housing standards on the grounds that another caused the violations, and such landlord may counterclaim for cost of repair. The committee amendment also deleted a provision granting police officers, notaries, and justices of the peace the power to serve writs of summons – leaving that responsibility with the sheriff's departments. To do otherwise would have a negative effect on county budgets. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1267h)

Amend RSA 540:13, III as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. The writ of summons and the notice provided in paragraph II shall be returnable 7 days from the date of service of the writ by the sheriff. If the writ of summons and notice are not made returnable within 7 days of service, no fee for service shall be due and any prepaid fees shall be reimbursed within 7 days of the return date on the writ. When computing the 7 days, the day of service shall not be included. The last day of the 7 day return period shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which event the period shall extend until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday as specified in RSA 288. The writ of summons shall provide an opportunity for the landlord, at the landlord's option, to make a claim for an award of unpaid rent. If the landlord elects to make a claim for unpaid rent, the court shall consider any defense, claim, or counterclaim by the tenant which offsets or reduces the amount owed to the plaintiff. If the court finds that the landlord is entitled to possession on the ground of nonpayment of rent, it shall also award the landlord a money judgment. If the court determines that the amount owed by the landlord to the tenant, as a result of set-off or counterclaim exceeds or equals the amount of rent and other lawful charges owed by the tenant to the landlord, judgment in the possessory action shall be granted in favor of the tenant. If the court finds that the tenant's counterclaim exceeds the amount of the nonpayment, a money judgment shall issue in favor of the tenant. Any decision rendered by the court related to a money judgment[?] shall be limited to a maximum of $1,500, and shall not preclude either party from making a subsequent claim in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover any additional amounts not covered by the $1,500 judgment. Amend RSA 540-A:3, VII as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

VII. A landlord shall maintain and exercise reasonable care in the storage of the personal property of a tenant who has vacated the premises, ~~[either voluntarily or by eviction]~~ who is not a voluntarily departed tenant, for a period of 28 days after the date upon which such tenant has vacated. During this period, the tenant shall be allowed to recover personal property without payment of rent or storage fees. After the 28-day limit has expired, ~~[such personal property may be disposed of by the landlord without notice to the tenant]~~ any personal property of the tenant may be disposed of by the landlord without notice to the tenant. In the case of a voluntarily departed tenant, any personal property of the tenant may be disposed of by the landlord without notice to the tenant after a period of 3 days has expired. The 3-day period starts after the tenant shows an affirmative act or acts indicating that the tenant has permanently relocated.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Extends payments on behalf of tenants to include payments by voucher from the state, a county, or any organization which disburses state or federal funds.

II. Provides that if a writ informing a tenant to quit the premises served by a sheriff is not made returnable within 7 days, no fee for service shall be due and any prepaid fees shall be reimbursed.

III. Defines "voluntary departed tenant."

IV. Allows a landlord to dispose of personal property of a voluntarily departed tenant without notice to such tenant after a 3-day period has elapsed from the time such tenant displays an affirmative act indicating permanent relocation.

V. Prohibits a landlord from knowingly renting premises or maintaining premises for rent that violate minimum housing standards.

VI. Requires that, if part of a rental agreement requires the tenant to pay part of a utility service used in another dwelling unit not the tenant's own, such part of the rental agreement be confirmed to the tenant in writing.

VII. Requires landlords and tenants to make repairs to correct certain violations.

VIII. Allows a landlord to defend against certain alleged violations of minimum housing standards on the grounds that another caused the violations, and such landlord may counterclaim for cost of repair.

SB 165, relative to the Uniform Trustees' Powers Act. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Phyllis L. Woods for Judiciary: This bill allows a trustee to certify their power and to convey personal property held in trust by the use of a certified and guaranteed document which is a written certificate signed by the trustee and sworn to before a notary public. This bill is really a consumer protection bill in that it protects persons who purchase property from a trustee from having that property confiscated due to the fact that the trustee did not have proper authority to dispose of the property of the estate. Vote 15-0.

HB 521-L, exempting initial bond issues from the 10 percent limitation on exceeding appropriations recommended by the budget committee. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. David W. Hess for Municipal and County Government: Current law sometimes empowers local budget committees to prevent local legislative bodies from even considering some bond issues by simply voting to "not recommend" the bond issue. The Committee agrees with the sponsors of this bill that giving municipal budget committees such a "veto" over bond issues does not appear to be the intent of the Municipal Budget Act. However, the Committee believed that completely exempting such bond issues from the ten per cent limitations on exceeding appropriations recommended by the budget committee also violated the intent of the Municipal Budget Act. After a number of attempts to address this issue within the spirit of the Act were unsuccessful, the Committee decided it should be studied further and voted unanimously to re-refer. Vote 15-0.

HB 733, relative to a state master plan for the deployment of personal wireless service facilities. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeb E. Bradley for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill deals with the siting of wireless telecommunication towers. The committee decided to re-refer this bill as it is very complex and in need of considerable scrutiny. The committee will examine a master plan for siting of towers, mapping of locations, model siting ordinances, local planning and zoning consensus, and a policy with regard to use of state owned mountain tops for location of telecommunication towers. Vote 17-0.

SB 124, establishing a committee to study the integration of technology at the state and municipal level. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Harold V. Lynde for Science, Technology and Energy: The committee heard testimony from municipal and county employees on the need for better coordination and integration of technology implementation at the state level that impacts on technology requirements at municipal and county levels of government as well as the need for efficient transfer and access to data. Additionally, testimony indicated the importance of improving the timeliness of the Division of Information Technology Management (DITM) involvement in technology decisions at the state level. The purpose of the study committee is to investigate specific measures, which would promote the integration of technology at the state, county, and municipal levels of government for the mutual benefit of all. The bill, as presented to the committee, only referred to the state and municipalities. The amendment adds counties because there is a desire and need to obtain successful technology integration at all levels of New Hampshire government. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1217h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study the integration of technology at the state, county, and municipal levels.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study integration of technology at the state, county, and municipal levels.

Amend the bill by replacing paragraph 1 of section 2 with the following:

1. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Five members of the house of representatives, at least one of whom shall be a member of the municipal and county government committee, and at least one of whom shall be a member of the science, technology and energy committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Duties. The committee shall investigate specific measures which would promote the integration of technology at the state, county, and municipal levels for the mutual benefit of all entities and the citizens of the state of New Hampshire. In conducting its research, the committee shall seek input from the department of administrative services, division of information technology management, in terms of specific technology applications that the state of New Hampshire is deploying or desires to deploy at the county and/or local level and the New Hampshire Association of Counties and the New Hampshire Municipal Association for their perspective on municipal technology needs. In addition, the committee shall seek the input from the oversight committee on telecommunications, which is considering the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of installing certain high-speed telecommunications lines.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study the integration of technology at the state, county, and municipal levels.

HB 505-FN, establishing a special license plate for veterans. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Robert J. Letourneau for Transportation: This bill was originally reported Inexpedient to Legislate by the committee. The sponsor asked if we would accept to recommit the bill on the day of the initial vote in the House. The committee accepted the bill back so that the sponsor could present some new ideas to the committee. Because of the time factors involved with house bills, we ask that this bill be re-referred so that the new material can be fully examined by the committee. Vote 14-0.

SPECIAL ORDER

HB 657-FN, relative to the health services planning and review board. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Peter Batula for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: As explained in HB 419, the "Certificate of Need Board" was initially mandated into law as a watchguard on escalating medical costs. The board is no longer a federal mandate and many states have repealed the law for various reasons. Those include failure to slow down escalating medical costs as originally intended, and whether intentional or unintentional, it all but puts a moratorium on competition. The board has, at least in perception, created a wide division between physicians and hospitals. For example: Hospitals' cash cows are the operating rooms and in many instances, they build more surgical centers to reap the most often overpriced surgeries profits. If the cost of these additional surgical centers exceeds $1.5 million, they need C.O.N. approval and they have usually been approved based on past history. The problem arises when perhaps a group of physicians wish to build and open a private freestanding multi-use surgical center, which would obviously compete for the non-emergency type surgeries. If their building costs are expected to exceed $1,000,000, they need C.O.N. approval. That is where the problem starts, as the C.O.N. board controls not only the destiny of the approval process, but also has the power to shut down competition for the hospitals, even though a Blue Cross/Blue Shield study shows that ambulatory surgical centers reduce surgery costs by 47%, while providing quality, affordable health care for all citizens. 2600 ambulatory surgical centers have opened in the country and not one hospital has closed because of them. The federal government encourages the growth of these centers, due to cost savings. HB 657 restructures the C.O.N. board from seven to nine members, adjusts the capital expenditure threshold of $1,250,000 and levels the playing field between hospitals and surgical centers. There is and was an attempt to lower the threshold from the $1,250,000 and if adopted, this would create a moratorium on ambulatory surgical centers, meaning higher surgical costs due to a lack of competition. A vote to lower the threshold (producing a moratorium on competition) is indeed a journey in the wrong direction on the subject of controlling escalating medical costs. Vote 12-8.

Rep. Marion L. Copenhaver for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The minority of the committee believes that ambulatory surgical centers should be subject to review by the Health Services, Planning and Review Committee (known as the Certificate of Need Board) to determine if there is a public need or to avoid costly duplicative services. The bill as passed, has a threshold of $1,250,000 which in effect, exempts these ambulatory surgical centers from the public review process. The minority feels the threshold should be $750,000, in order for the state to maintain a healthy balance of these necessary surgical facilities.

Majority Amendment (0896h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the health services planning and review board and the certificate of need process.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the health services planning and review board to meet on government property owned by the state of New Hampshire. For the purposes of certificate of need, the bill increases the expenditure for certain proposed new facilities from $1,000,000 to $1,250,000 and decreases the expenditure for acute care facilities from $1,500,000 to $1,250,000.

The bill also requires the staff appointed to serve the board to report to the board.

Adopted.

Majority report adopted and ordered to third reading.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 337, requiring that the order of candidate names on the ballot be determined by a random drawing. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Sandra J. Reeves for Majority of Election Law: Under current law, candidates for each office on the general election ballot are grouped first according to party and then listed alphabetically within each grouping. Candidates from the party that received the largest number of votes at the last general election are listed first. This law has been challenged and upheld in federal district court. On February 24, 1997, the court determined that the plaintiffs in the case failed to demonstrate that there is a positional advantage on the ballot of a partisan general election and that there are "substantial justifications" for the law that designates the order of candidate's names. HB 337 requires that the order of candidates names on the ballot be determined by a random public drawing conducted by the Secretary of State. After a lively discussion, and using the names of the Election Law Committee (whose last names begin with letters from A to Y) as a random sample, it became apparent that ballot placement does not necessarily determine outcome. Voters are sophisticated and vote according to the qualifications of each candidate. The majority feels that the current system is working well and there is no need to change it at this time. Vote 12-5.

Rep. Raymond Buckley for the Minority of Election Law: The testimony before the committee was unanimously in favor of passage of HB 337. The issue is fairness. Candidates should not be given an unfair advantage by virtue of their last name or political party. The committee heard testimony that the placement of the candidate's name on the ballot gives a six to ten percent advantage or disadvantage based on placement. The minority supports the concept of fairness in elections.

Rep. Burling requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

HB 411, requiring ballot clerks to verify the identity of persons receiving ballots by requesting an identification card. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Robert E. Clegg, Jr. for the Majority of Election Law: In an attempt to make voting as easy as possible, we have made many changes including same day registration. We have, in past years, done whatever was necessary to increase voter participation. However, in doing so, we inadvertently made it easier to commit fraud. By passing this bill, we protect the voters' rights by simply asking for a photo ID to be presented at the polls. Vote 16-3.

Rep. Raymond Buckley for the Minority of Election Law: The minority believes that this bill will lead to future litigation because of discriminatory enforcement. Many in the majority admitted during the committee discussion that they would only request an ID on election day from those with whom they were unfamiliar. This practice will open the door for the possibility of our growing minority community to be arbitrarily discriminated against on voting day. The committee did not hear compelling testimony that this legislation is needed.

Amendment (1268h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT requiring voters to present identification.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Requirements for Obtaining a Ballot Modified. Amend RSA 659:13 to read as follows:

659:13 Obtaining a Ballot. A person desiring to vote shall, before being admitted to the enclosed space within the guardrail, announce his or her name and present his or her New Hampshire driver's license, identification card issued by the director of motor vehicles under the provisions of RSA 260:21, armed services identification card, or United States passport to one of the ballot clerks who shall thereupon repeat the name; and, if the name is found on the checklist by the ballot clerk, [he] the ballot clerk shall put a checkmark beside it and again repeat the name. If the person does not have his or her driver's license, passport, or identification card, the person may sign the affidavit provided for in RSA 659:27. The voter, unless challenged as provided for in RSA 659:27-33, or unless failing to present proper identification and failing to sign an affidavit, shall then be allowed to enter the space enclosed by the guardrail. After [he] the voter enters the enclosed space, the ballot clerk shall give [him] the voter one of each ballot to be voted on in that election which shall be folded as it was upon receipt from the secretary of state.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2001.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that voters present identification or sign an affidavit to obtain a ballot.
Adopted.

On a division vote, 201 members having voted in the affirmative and 130 in the negative, the majority report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

HB 547-L, changing the state primary election day to the first Saturday after Labor Day. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. James R. Splaine for Election Law: This bill would change state primary election day to Saturday instead of Tuesday every two years. The committee heard of concerns of some religious communities and felt this was an unnecessary change that would have not resulted in greater voter turnout. The co-sponsors agreed that this should not pass as written. Vote 16-2.

Adopted.

HB 68, adding the name of Martin Luther King, Jr. to Civil Rights Day. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Sylvia A. Holley for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration: This bill adds the name Martin Luther King, Jr. to Civil Rights Day which is a holiday celebrated on the third Monday in January. This action sends a message, loud and clear that New Hampshire honors Dr. King and the other heroes of the civil rights movement. His principles of non-violence serve as an example to us all in this era of increasing violence. Vote 11-7.

Rep. Benjamine E. Moore for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration: In 1991, the legislature voted to establish Civil Rights Day. The intent of the legislation was clearly stated as follows: "Civil Rights Day Established. In recognition of the courage, determination, and personal sacrifice of the many people from a variety of cultural backgrounds who fought and died in the struggle to gain freedom and equality for all individuals, and to celebrate these freedoms in a manner consistent with every individuals' constitutional rights to free speech and liberty, this law seeks to honor these persons who have dedicated or will dedicate their lives to the issue of equality of all by establishing the third Monday in January as Civil Rights Day in New Hampshire. This recognized celebration of civil rights seeks to educate society, in an impartial manner, against prejudice." The minority strongly feels that the intent of the legislature should be sustained out of respect for those who worked diligently to establish Civil Rights Day in 1991.

Reps. Benjamin Moore, Donald White, Putnam, Rosen, Lefebvre, Eaton, and Loren Jean spoke against.

Reps. Norelli and Withee spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Reps. Millham, Kelley, John Pratt, Leishman and Keye spoke in favor.

Rep. Mercer requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

PROTESTS

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Weber requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

How can we honor a person who worked with the KGB to help his communist funders subvert the principles of government for which this nation stood and replace it with a soviet form of government. Treason is always wrong regardless of who promotes it. To honor such a man with revisionist history is outrageous.

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Boyce requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

The State of New Hampshire does not and should not have holidays honoring individuals. This is inappropriate. There are simply too many fine individuals who deserve to be honored and we would have no non-holidays. It matters little who is to be honored by a holiday only that it is improper to honor individuals by naming holidays for them.

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Loren Jean, and by signature Reps. Clegg and Soltani, requested that their protest be entered on the Journal.

All our heroes will now be relegated to the dustbins of history. We have done violence to the history and memory of all those that have preceded us in the unending struggles for human rights. The proper supplication has been made to the God of political correctness. All is embodied in one person. Political bigotry has won. Our shame is now complete.

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Reps. Mock and Karen Hutchinson requested that their protest by signature be entered on the Journal.

REMARKS

Rep. Rabideau moved that the remarks made by Rep. Withee on House Bill 68 be printed in the Journal.

Rep. Putnam requested a roll call; not sufficiently seconded.

Adopted.

Rep. Mirski moved that the floor debate on House Bill 68 be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Benjamin Moore: Thank you, Madam Speaker. As author of the Minority report in the calendar, I am in opposition to the motion "Ought to Pass", obviously. The "blurb", as printed, did not include two sentences that were a part of the blurb submitted. These two sentences followed the paragraph cited from Chapter 206 of the 1991 laws. The sentences are: The paragraph cited, as regard the Civil Right Movement, reflects the often-used current terms, "diversity" and "inclusiveness." Legislative intent, as explained by several sources is, "The intent of the legislature at the time the legislation was passed." I have heard several times on this floor the usage of the term "intent" or even "legislative intent" and I am not comfortable with the way these bills are presented. I feel they interfere with the intent of the legislature.

What brings this to mind is an incident in my own town, Seabrook. We had an appointment to be filled because the fire chief retired and the selectmen and the board of selectmen were going to fill the vacancy by appointment. However, the runner-up in the election, because this is an elective position, referred the manager and the selectmen to a paragraph in the town charter which would make him the fire chief because he was the runner-up. The matter was referred to town counsel and the town counsel ruling was the intent of the charter is as ordered. Therefore, the runner-up must be appointed fire chief. Town counsel must have researched to find a precedent upon which a ruling was based. Therefore, at this time, Madam Speaker, I would like to know if a motion to table would be in order?

Speaker Sytek: A motion to table would be in order if you are recognized for that purpose. You were recognized to speak against the bill.

Rep. Benjamin Moore: I would have liked to make a motion that we ask for a legal opinion so that we may put this matter before us in a proper manner as far as the process is concerned because I am not comfortable with this. In 1991, the intent was clearly stated and I don't think that we should interfere with the intent of the legislature of that time in the manner in which we are doing it. That being the case, if I can't make a motion at this moment in time I shall be done. God bless you and thank you very much.

Rep. Millham: Thank you, Madam Speaker and members of the House. I rise on behalf of the majority of the Executive Departments and Administration Committee in support of House Bill 68 and Senate Bill 80. This bill adds the name of Martin Luther King, Jr. to Civil Rights Day, a holiday that is celebrated on the third Monday in January. The vote of the Committee was 11-7. It was a bi-partisan vote. There was a large attendance at the hearing where the testimony was overwhelmingly in favor of adding Dr. King's name to the holiday. Supporters included the Governor, senators, representatives and many public members representing business, education, religious communities, parents and children. To name one, there was a ten-year-old 5th grader who testified and offered very articulate testimony, the kind that brings tears to your eyes. He was there and he waited probably three hours to speak. He was with his grandfather who did testify in opposition. Adding Dr. King's name to Civil Rights Day will mean we have four holidays named for individuals: Washington's Birthday, in this state, still on the books despite the fact that it has been called President's Day; Columbus Day, we have previously rejected a proposal to make it Explorer's Day; and Christmas. I can't help but add a personal note because I am one of those people who changed her mind. Though I am new to the House, I thought the compromise for Civil Rights Day was terrific at the time. Over the intervening years, I've come to better understand the words of freedom, equality and justice as they relate to people whose ancestors were slaves in this country for two centuries and for people who were considered second-class citizens for another century. This is an important act. If I were to express the essence of the supporting testimony, it is to say, "It's time." I hope you will join me and the majority of the ED&A Committee in support of this bill. Thank you.

Rep. Donald White: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Honorable members of this House. I rise today to speak against House Bill 68 for the simple reason that the history of this great nation reflects the pride and energy of all our people. It was ordinary people, regardless of status or class, who came forward to serve in every conflict. From the time the aristocracy in the colonies fought against the British rule and changed the history of the world, ordinary people, regardless of status or race have been our greatest source of strength. If we establish holidays to celebrate ideals, perhaps we should not reserve the day for one person, though many can certainly qualify.

Madam Speaker, Civil Rights Day and Veterans' Day are intertwined and rightly so since recognition of one complements the other. Observances shared by warriors who fought to preserve freedom and with people at home who struggled for equality and respect. Martin Luther King was such a person and a warrior, too. He bore neither shield nor pennoned lance but he was a warrior nonetheless. He knew fear but carried it with pride and that, certainly, is the measure. His place in our history is secure. But too often we look for and do not see them, and these ordinary people we certainly forget, sometimes too soon.

Madam Speaker, if you move among the battlefields and cemeteries of earlier conflicts, these places are seen as history, devoid of any sense of the thousands who perished for us on those bloody fields. Somehow, the impact of their sacrifice is really not brought home to you. I visited a more recent reminder of conflict, the great struggle we call World War II. I went early on a cool morning, the wind was just rising. Row on row of white monuments gradually emerging into the light. It was quiet, the silence only broken by the rustle of leaves answering the whisper of the wind. It was a place of overwhelming sadness. A place where many found the equality in death that they dreamed of in life, yet they served us. People who are not accepted in society served us. People who were afraid to vote and were not allowed to direct their own destiny served us. People kept inside in crowded enclaves came forth and served us. People who experienced shame, isolation, condemnation, terror and death, every appalling rejection, served us. There were black people and descendants of our aboriginal people along with those of oriental descent who took up arms for a nation that held them away from everyday society. They did this under no single banner and behind no single leader. Those white monuments, their medals of stone, testify to their sacrifice giving us undeserved loyalty with slight hope of recognition. But their strength was reflected by their people who risked the terror of the streets to proclaim their right to equality anywhere they chose to be. We don't know all the names and often we don't care. Are these people doomed to be headless busts in history's gallery?

Madam Speaker, as one who proudly served, I hope when we observe these days of recognition, we really understand that the memory of their enormous sacrifices in peace and war stands alone, and never be obscured by the dust of history. Thank you very much, Madam Speaker.

Rep. Norelli: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Over the past several months, I've been asked by some very well-meaning people, "Shouldn't this day remain Civil Rights Day and not become Martin Luther King Day because it recognizes everybody's contribution to the Civil Rights Movement?" I believe that Martin Luther King, Jr. Civil Rights Day continues to honor everyone who worked for civil rights, while singling out Dr. King for his extraordinary leadership. Martin Luther King's work for civil rights was motivated by a broader vision of social justice, a commitment to nonviolent change and deep faith in democracy. The impact of the 1960s civil rights movement reveals the lasting importance of his image of a nation without racial strife and hatred. In fact, many of the people in organizations most closely associated with the cause of civil rights want to give special recognition to Dr. King. In a recently released statement, 25 New Hampshire citizens who are veterans of the civil rights movement said, and I quote, "Because Dr. King's message is just as important as ever in battles against racism, injustice, poverty and violence, we stand steadfast in our support for a New Hampshire state holiday named for Martin Luther King, Jr." Nationally known activists agree. Rosa Parks explained that Dr. King was the one who brought everyone together as a group and motivated them to believe that no matter who they were as individuals they could not give up their right to freedom. Andrew Young, one of King's top aides, states, "It is vitally important to note that massive social change was achieved without violence. Martin's belief in the power of nonviolence is an essential part of what makes this holiday important to America. In that sense, we are talking about a day that celebrates nonviolent social change, not just civil rights." U.S. Congressman John Lewis's book, Walking with the Wind, A Memoir of the Movement, has been cited in letters to us as New Hampshire legislators as a reason not to rededicate Civil Rights Day by adding the name of Martin Luther King. However, when questioned about his intentions, Congressman Lewis wrote to the sponsors, "As a participant in the movement, I believe it is fitting and much deserved for New Hampshire to honor Dr. King by celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr. Civil Rights Day. Dr. King was my friend, my brother and my hero. No other individual so clearly demonstrated in his work and deeds the ideals, the idealism and the strength of the movement." It is clear that all of those people who have dedicated their lives to the cause of civil rights feel that, in fact, they will be honored for their efforts and for their sacrifices through the recognition of their leader, Martin Luther King, Jr. Please join me and other civil rights supporters by voting in favor of adding Martin Luther King, Jr.'s name to Civil Rights Day. Thank you.

Rep. Vivian Clark: Thank you, Madam Speaker and I want to thank the representative because I've been involved in listening to this debate on Martin Luther King Day for several times now and I truly have never understood why people would be so strenuous in their desire to add Martin Luther King's name to the holiday because I believe New Hampshire is right in what they did. But, listening to you I realize that everything that you have said was phrased in the past. It all had to do with a movement that was done, that took place in the '60s. It all had to do with a particular civil rights effort. I have always seen this holiday as being a continuing admiration for those who fight for civil rights. So, what I want to ask you is, do you see Civil Rights Day or Martin Luther King Civil Rights Day as being a remembrance holiday or a holiday which supports that effort in all of us continuing and particularly going forward to fight for the civil rights of all individuals?

Rep. Norelli: Actually, I believe that Martin Luther King, Jr. Civil Rights Day would actually do both. I think that it is very important to acknowledge the tremendous change. As I said, it was a tremendous nonviolent social change that took place during what is often referred to as the civil rights movement of the '60s. However, there are still people in our country who are discriminated against and that movement continues. I think that acknowledges both Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as someone who had a significant impact and who continues to have a significant impact today. As Rep. Millham mentioned, there was a five-year-old that came in and spoke. That five-year-old was not around in the '60s but that five-year-old is still being impacted today by the work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. By keeping, also, Civil Rights Day, it continues to move that forward as well.

Rep. Putnam: Thank you, Madam Chair. I am opposed to House Bill 68 and Senate Bill 80, changing Civil Rights Day to Martin Luther King Civil Rights Day. Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays are no longer — change for sake of change. We have heard comments that New Hampshire is the only state that does not honor King by name on Civil Rights Day. Madam Speaker, if you and 398 members of the House here jump out that window right now, don't look for the 400th member to jump behind you because this is the thing to do. It has been noted that times change and people change with them. I have not found any evidence of racism amongst my ancestors dating to back to 1634 when they arrived in Salem Village, Mass. Based on information in S.D. Hildreth's book, Pioneer History: Being an Account of the First Examination of the Ohio Valley and the Early Settlement of the Northwest Territory, the Marietta, Ohio Times reports as follows:

"The honor of being the first black person to vote in Washington County goes to Christopher "Kitt" Putnam, who cast his first ballot decades before black persons were officially guaranteed voting rights in the United States. Putnam's first vote was for delegates who went to write a constitution for Ohio while the area was still a territory. Ohio became a state in 1803. Historical records indicate Putnam was a personal servant of Gen. Israel Putnam in Connecticut. After Gen. Putnam's death, Kitt Putnam lived with the generals' son, Col. Israel Putnam. The two came to Marietta from Connecticut in the fall of 1789 when Kitt Putnam was about 16. Putnam struck out on his own at age 21, taking the Putnam name and working and living with Captain Devol on the banks of the Muskingum River. There he cleared farm land and assisted with mill work. He died in 1802 before the constitution he voted for came into effect." So blacks did vote before we were told that they were allowed to vote. Please join me in voting no against this bill. Thank you, Madam Chair.

Rep. Withee: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise today in support of House Bill 68. I didn't think I was going to be nervous this morning, but as I look out I begin to feel the weight of the debate. I look over to Jim Splaine who asked me to speak on this and this is something that he has been working on for 20 years and so, I just hope I don't drop the ball for you.

Madam Speaker, when Civil Rights Day was enacted, there were two reasons for the legislation. One reason was to honor those men and women who dedicated or were going to dedicate their lives to issues of equality. The second reason, and the reason I think is the most important one, was to educate people about prejudice. I believe that that is the most important aspect of the two objectives because without a solid, fundamental understanding of civil rights you can't begin to honor the work of the people that we actually created the holiday for. I believe it's because we need to strengthen the education component of Civil Rights Day that I stand before you today.

Madam Speaker, my perspective of Dr. King and of Civil Rights Day is probably a lot different from most members of this body. You see, Madam Speaker, I was born in December of 1969, that was after Martin Luther King was killed. I have no personal knowledge of the civil rights movement. I do not remember Rosa Parks. I do not remember school busing. I do not remember lunch counter sit-ins, and I do not remember the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1968. In short, Madam Speaker, I am a member of the first generation that had to be taught Civil Rights. It is because I had to learn Civil Rights that I feel that I am qualified to speak to you this morning about that education component.

Madam Speaker, how do we begin to transform the struggle for equality under law from some abstract historical event for people that have no knowledge of it into something real, something that they can see and feel and experience together? How do we begin to make civil rights relevant to people today? I believe that the answer lies in making Civil Rights Day personal. If we add to our Civil Rights holiday the name and the face of a citizen or a person who is synonymous with civil rights, then we begin to humanize the whole event. When we begin to humanize an issue as complex as the civil rights movement, we promote education. Education leads to understanding and when we have understanding is when civil rights becomes meaningful.

Madam Speaker, I believe Dr. Martin Luther King is that person that we should add to our Civil Rights holiday. It is not me that chose Dr. King. It is not the sponsors of this bill. History has chosen Dr. King for two reasons. One reason is that he advocated nonviolent social change in a period of tremendous upheaval. The second reason, and Rep. Clark, I believe that this goes to your question a little bit, is that his message above all other messages transcends the black/white issue of the 1960s. What Dr. King's message was, was that we as a people are a better and stronger nation, all members of that nation. That goes far beyond the black/white issue, that goes to women's issues and issues about how we will get along in the future. Madam Speaker, I urge the House to adopt this bill and to make Dr. Martin Luther King's message and his methods the beacon and the banner that we carry forward to help guide us into the next century. I thank you.

Rep. Lent: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Would you agree, then, that by adding Martin Luther King's name to Civil Rights Day we put a face on the civil rights movement? By that I mean just as the image of George Washington, his face on coins, bills and stamps, stands not just for one great man, but for those hundreds of men and women who participated in the great battle for our independence, so can the face, the name and the image of Martin Luther King stand for those brave men and women who worked 150 years later for the equality of African Americans? Do you agree that by adding the name Martin Luther King we put a face on the civil rights movement?

Rep. Withee: Yes, Representative, we do and I hope that that is the outcome.

Rep. Mock: Thank you, Madam Speaker. My fellow committee member, I wondered if you could allay a great bit of anxiety that I have if I were to vote for this. My question, I guess, is this: Can you give me a good solid reason for tying the first American's name to a holiday of a person whose criminal record is sealed from my view for 50 years? Why could I do that? Could you answer that for me?

Rep. Withee: Mr. Chairman, I will certainly try to answer that for you. I believe that it is Dr. King's message more so than his human frailties that we look to. That's what I look to because I never knew him and I don't have the same knowledge. I don't remember him being arrested. But to me and to people of my generation he really is a hero. He goes beyond being a leader of the civil rights to being an American leader.

Rep. Rosen: Thank you, Madam Speaker, and distinguished colleagues. I am here before you today to urge you to reject House Bill 68 and in turn support the next bill on the calendar, House Bill 336 which is an act establishing the third Monday in January as a holiday to be known as Abraham Lincoln Civil Rights Day. Later on, I will let you know why I am specifically taking this stand. I have been a member of this General Court for 11 years and every other year during that time, and many years before, the same issue has arisen, namely to create a Martin Luther King, Jr. Civil Rights Day. The most frequently heard argument has been that New Hampshire should adopt this holiday because every other state has. The effort has failed every time it has come before the House, probably because mindless conformity is not a characteristic of the people of New Hampshire or their elected representatives. The other frequently heard argument is that the state of New Hampshire may suffer penalties to its hospitality industry because of boycotts by business groups seeking to curry favor among King supporters. Just this last weekend, I received a letter, a shameful letter, all of you probably got the same letter, from a prominent purveyor of convention facilities in this state. That letter urges adoption of Martin Luther King Day for business reasons. There is no apparent veneration of King or of civil rights in this letter, just business. I am a supporter of our state's hospitality efforts. I am a member of the Tourism Council, but I hold it unconscionable to base the noble purpose of observing Civil Rights Day on such crass grounds.

It has been argued that Civil Rights Day must be linked to some person that has been associated with one of the most painful struggles in our country's history. I am not sure that this association is necessary, but if it is, I believe we should honor someone who meets the following requirements: first, be pre-eminent in the actual achievement of civil rights; second, be a person of unquestioned moral stature, let me repeat that, of unquestioned moral stature; and third, be recognized as a person who is completely dedicated to our country and all of the people in it.

There have many persons who have been and still are active in the battle for equality. Some of these persons have probably accomplished much more than King. Thurgood Marshall, John Lewis and Rosa Parks come to mind. But the one who stands head and shoulders above all others with respect to the requirements I mentioned above is Abraham Lincoln, the 16th President of the United States. King was a passionate orator. We all know of his "I Have A Dream" speech and he was effective in public relations. Lincoln was also a most powerful orator. Besides his Gettysburg Address, there are his unforgettable words, "A house divided against itself cannot stand. (I wonder if that applies to us) A nation cannot survive half free and half slave..." but beyond his speeches, he not only emancipated the slaves and put them on the road to equality, but he also successfully fought to preserve the Union. Both men did suffer the fate of martyrdom.

Now, I will admit to two prejudices in this discussion. First of all, I am a retired military officer. I spent 30 years in the Navy, having seen service from 1942 to 1973, and I, personally, am familiar not only with the hardware of warfare, but also the human factors, stress, devotion to duty and carrying out the nation's declared objectives and, I might add, even if personal sentiments might not be the same as those declared by our political leaders. I remember very vividly King's remarks concerning the Vietnam War and particularly his scurrilous comments concerning our beleaguered servicemen. I cannot forgive him for these remarks and his approach to the nation's tribulations. This is a very personal matter. I feel it strongly and basically that is the reason I am here.

The second prejudice stems from the fact that I am a native of the state of Illinois, the home state of Abraham Lincoln. In Illinois, Lincoln's birthday is a grand holiday on a par with July 4th and Christmas. I personally am baffled by the fact that the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington are not national holidays.

To return to the House Bill that is under consideration now, in 1991 I had an amendment prepared to the usual King bill. This amendment would have associated Lincoln with the day. I did not present the amendment when a compromise was hammered out that resulted in Civil Rights Day as we now have it with no associated name. Apparently, this compromise did not settle the dispute and, therefore, I am taking a stand today. I still think that might be the proper dispute but if we are going to have a name, it should be Abraham Lincoln.

In conclusion, New Hampshire has held a prominent position in the struggle to preserve the Union and to insure equality for all. A tour of the Hall of Flags will attest to that. Let us solidify our position in that monumental effort by honoring the leader of that struggle, Abraham Lincoln.

I ask you to oppose House Bill 68 and support House Bill 336, as amended, which is the next item on the calendar. Thank you very much.

Rep. Kelley: Thank you, Madam Speaker and members of the House. My good friends, on the advice of Rep. Splaine, I've cut down my 45-page speech to three. I am asking that you support House Bill 68 in order to give Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. the recognition he deserves. He was a giant among men and in honoring him, we honor all who worked for civil rights. As we enter into this Chamber and begin our day in service to our state, we approach the tasks ahead with reverence in prayer and in the oath each one of takes. "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." In the south, for a hundred years after the Civil War, blacks, although citizens of the United States, enjoyed neither liberty nor justice. Dr. King was reviled, stabbed and nearly killed in a book store. Both his home and church were bombed. He was arrested and jailed many times on trumped-up charges, even given a four-month sentence at hard labor on a chain gang for failure to get a Georgia drivers license. In 1964, he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize and led a march of 250,000 people in Washington to protest racial discrimination. In 1968, he was shot and killed in the prime of life. Although his life ended, his voice still rings out proclaiming freedom and justice for all. He dreamed of the day when little children will be judged not by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. So must New Hampshire now be judged by the content of its character. We must pass this legislation honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. so that the ugly stain of bigotry and racism will be cleansed from the face of our beautiful state. Thank you.

Rep. Lefebvre: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I would like to first thank the New Hampshire State Library for this particular edition of Jefferson's life and also the UNH library for the only book in existence about the colored people and how they lived and survived in America, etc. It is a beautiful book. There is so much in there to learn about their life and we have most all forgotten about Jessie Owens and Marilyn Anderson, the struggle that they had to go through to accomplish what they did when they were standing all alone in a mass sea of white people. But, what I have to say to you here may be a little bit difficult to understand, really. It is about what we carry in our hearts, secretly, that no one need ever know, perhaps never shall and it doesn't really matter. But it is what you do with what is in your heart that really matters.

Writers of the intimate history of Thomas Jefferson find it odd that Jefferson should have written such a detailed account of the speech of an Indian chief when he neglected ever to make mention of the dangerous adventures his father had accomplished.

But, I do understand why, because I have been and shall forever be guilty of the same neglect. Thomas Jefferson needed to be moved. He needed a profound sense of purpose, like I am doing right now. I sense it is a need so we can all understand what drives us. Permit me to ask you, why did I write that poem in 1989, "Proganitors?" Because I knew we could soon lose one of our most gracious-loved OWLs in this House, and I wanted her to know, secretly, no one must know the intent of that love and respect that in this poem while she lived was largely intended and inspired by her. I'm sorry I have to read this because if I did not I would go right off on a tangent. Though our Sandra upstairs in the LOB was very displeased and also very patient in putting up with this writing. If only you could have seen Caroline's eyes as I approached the end of that poem and leaped to her feet. That expression is engraved in my heart and no one ever knew before today why I did it.

Now, here we go. Who inspired Jefferson to take up his pen and stay up late night after night, writing, rewriting, constructing, to hand to this world the most beautiful document this world shall ever know? Hasn't anyone ever thought to ask that question? What was his inspiration, oh gifted, some would say and perhaps relevance? Did anyone ever ponder on the birth of that beautiful child that grew into his heart that overflowed with such love as he had never known in his life? What was it about that baby that drove him to such heights, night after night? He knew that child, those beautiful eyes, must be, shall be, protected through a document for all Americans to be protected for all point in time, from the secret wars over the rights of man that existed in America then. The birth of Sally Hemmings changed all that.

The extraordinary skill used by Jefferson that would change the world in due course is still at work today to establish freedom, not only for Africans in America but worldly. Should I ever be asked to pick one person who ever did or should ever do more for Africans, I unequivocally would shout out Jefferson, though he did it ever so skillfully and silently. To pick one and declare it is superior over all the others, as much as I love what Jefferson stated and started in his style, I could not declare all the many thousands who followed less human. The psychological, and here we go, implant with all emphasis on one is to limit thought and justice on all those beautiful ones that will be left unclaimed, undeclared and unmentioned and silence them for eternity which is usually what happens. The deed that Martin Luther King did accomplish will live in many hearts to follow that also contributed to all past accomplishments. But it could not have happened without the greater deed of Jefferson and those who contributed to give that awesome American right to all Africans and Americans and the world over protected under the Constitution. Our House of Representatives in New Hampshire has had thousands of excellent contributors to our New Hampshire way of life to our present life today. Tell me now which one would you pick and do justice to all as having been the greatest leader and not make a mistake.

On behalf of Thomas Jefferson and Martin Luther King, I thank you for your kind attention. Thank you. Rep. John Pratt: Thank you, Madam Speaker. It's been more than 30 years now since that spring day when I joined thousands of my countrymen in the long mournful march through the streets of Atlanta, following the old mule cart on which was the coffin of my colleague and my friend. As we walked through the streets we passed, on our right, the Atlanta City Hall its flags all at half-staff, its impressive portico draped in black crepe and a beautiful funeral spray in the double doors. A moving, moving tribute which Atlanta gave to its most famous citizen. A block or so later on the left on a small hillock was the Governor's Mansion, its three flags flying at full-staff, including the Confederate battle flag. Behind the tall wrought iron fence every 20 feet stood a state trooper in full flak jacket carrying a shot gun, many of them hurling invectives at us as we walked by. A vivid reminder that in death, as in life, Martin Luther King, Jr. was a figure who evoked deep, deep passions.

Madam Speaker, I hope my colleagues today will vote in this Chamber to dispel any doubts, if doubts there may be, as to which side of the street this venerable building and the people we represent stand with regard to this question. There are many things I could say. Let me try to relate two incidents which I hope will speak to the question of why this particular man should be memorialized by this nation.

The first happened on the very last day of the march from Selma to Montgomery. Dr. King and a small party left the home where he had been staying and we drove in a caravan to begin the march. We pulled onto Route 82. We passed, every hundred feet or so, soldiers who had been nationalized in order to protect the marchers. We arrived at the point, the Catholic seminary where the marchers had assembled and tried to turn left. But a young private was directing traffic and he had been given orders, "no left turns." So he motioned the caravan to keep going. Andy Young rolled down his window and said, "This is Dr. King's party. We're here to start the march." The young soldier said, "Sorry, sir, my orders are, keep going." So Andy got out and began to talk to him and wasn't getting anywhere. Ralph Bunch, the Under Secretary of the United Nations, got out and went up to him and said, "I'm Ralph Bunch, the Under Secretary General of the United Nations. We're here to start the march." The young private said, "Sir, this is Alabama and not the United Nations and you can't turn left." Another of us got out and finally Martin got out of the car and walked up the street, this is the road on which one person had already been murdered, and asked what the problem was. At that very moment, a motorcycle policeman came roaring up with lights flashing and came to a screeching halt and yelled at the young private, "What the hell is going on?" The private said, "These people want to turn left and my orders are they can't turn left." The motorcycle Montgomery police sergeant looked over, he saw this mixed crowd, black and white and then he spotted Dr. King and his mouth dropped. I could see it. He looked at King and he looked at the private and he looked back at King to be sure he was seeing what he thought he was seeing. Then he looked back at the private and said words I've never forgotten. "You goddamn fool, that's the man. Let him through." This was spoken at a time when still throughout the South white people called male black Americans "boy." In that inadvertent statement by that Montgomery police sergeant, I knew that a page had been turned in American history that could not be turned back. It was a symbolic statement of change that we had been waiting for and working for since the time that the first slave came.

The other event I didn't witness. It took place in Berlin in 1964. Dr. King went to Berlin after he had received the Nobel prize and a Lutheran minister, who I had dinner with in Walpole a few years ago, had been asked to escort him over to the eastern zone to meet with German clergy, East German clergy. You will recall 1964 was a time shortly after the Berlin Wall had been built, a time of maximum tensions. This Lutheran minister brought Dr. King and his party through the checkpoint and into East Berlin to the place where he was to meet the clergy and much to everyone's surprise, the plaza was filled with people. When he entered the church, the church was filled with East Germans, persons who had risked the wrath of their own state's police to be there. Instead of meeting with the clergy, Martin spoke to the gathering. His words were translated first into the church and then by someone at the door to those outside. When he had finished speaking the crowd broke into the civil rights hymn, "We Shall Overcome", including the great verse, "We are not afraid. We are not afraid. Deep in our heart, we are not afraid today." The Lutheran minister ended by looking at my friends the Schofields and I in Walpole and said, "You Americans simply do not understand how extraordinarily important Martin Luther King's message of nonviolent resistance was to the people behind the Iron Curtain in the 1960s."

We have a chance today, I think, to reaffirm the choice made first by American blacks then by America and then by the world, in proclaiming this man truly one of the great figures in world history in our blood-soaked century and I ask for your support. Thank you.

Rep. Eaton: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I picked those flowers this morning from the edge of the woods behind my house, the forget-me-nots for remembrance and the purple violets for humility, because I think when we are honest with ourselves it is not just our head but it's our heart and our soul and our spirit along with our head that helps us to make decisions and take direction. There was a dream and the dream was to have whites and blacks best able to realize their own potentials. For that dream a life was given. Martin Luther King believed in that dream. He lived it and he lost his life. Madam Speaker, Abraham Lincoln had a dream and he believed in blacks and whites realizing their own potential and he lost his life. Jack Kennedy had a dream. One of his dreams was to help people realize their own potentials and he lost his life. This morning I just need to tell you, I chose this silver cup from Hyannisport back in the vintage of Jack Kennedy and I smiled when I took it down and put the flowers in it because it was a subconscious choice. I was there and on a beautiful Sunday morning in the summer time where I was, they said, "Go out and sit on the north porch where the red rockers are and he (Jack Kennedy) will drive by. He will drive his own car. He will drive very slowly in his black Cadillac and he will be relaxed." So, I went out on the north porch and sat in a rocking chair. Pretty soon, I looked down the street, and it was a right-angle turn. It was a beautiful sunny morning. I was in the shade. The sun was on the street and pretty soon came this black Cadillac, probably going 10 miles an hour. His arm was on the window ledge. He was very relaxed. He was all by himself. He went slowly by and he gave me that great smile and said, "Good morning. What a beautiful day." Well, he touched my heart. Abraham Lincoln touched my heart. Martin Luther King touched my heart. Today, we have two choices. One choice is to take the shorter view in accomplishment and be specific or we can take the longer view, Madam Speaker.

The longer view is what I think is what we all strive for. It is when we work together, when we meld together, when we recognize that no one person does it all. This morning I will be voting for everyone so I will be pushing the red button. But, I have great regard for all of these men and for all of the men and women who, over the years, have put themselves on the line and helped make a difference. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Rep. Leishman: I wanted to relay a story. Madam Speaker and honorable members of the House. I often think of the members from New London and Conway who very often have interesting stories to tell and this certainly won't top theirs. The last time we voted on the Martin Luther King bill I was approached and thanked for my vote and I said that I was sorry that it was defeated. He said, "Don't be sorry, because I rode in the back of a bus and I fought in a black division. Be sorry for the kids, the kids that want to recognize a civil rights leader." That brief comment stuck with me because my two children, 9 and 11, said, "Why didn't the House vote to support Martin Luther King?" I listened carefully to the comments of the representative from Bedford who grew up in a time that civil rights had passed. I'm a little older than him and remember the violence that occurred after the death of Martin Luther King. We've heard the argument that we've got all these other civil rights leaders, why not honor them. This gentleman is a name that's recognized around the world like Gandhi or others that fought non-violent acts for freedom. In Tiennamin Square, the former Soviet Union or South Africa, the man is notarized and recognized and honored. I believe we ought to press the green button today and do the same thing. Thank you.

Rep. Loren Jean: There is always that 10 percent that doesn't get the word. You hear all about that in the military. Good morning to everybody and a special good morning to our visiting representative from Bosnia. Now, the Governor, in her inaugural speech, mentioned that we cannot end this century without making Martin Luther King part of our heritage that we leave to our children. A heritage is a birthright. We'll get into birthright in a little bit. This is about names. If we were to use names, let me just consider these names – Roger Williams, Thomas Paine, Nat Turner, John Brown, Amelia Bloomer, Susan B. Anthony, Standing Bear, Frederick Douglass, W. E. B. Dubois and that woman in Tennessee, and I don't know her name and that's what's lacking in our history today. She was a black publisher of a newspaper in Tennessee. At the height of the lynchings she started writing editorials that really piqued these people in Tennessee to the point that she was shot, she was burned out, but she persisted. In the end, she struck such a cord and hit the conscious of the people of Tennessee that there was not a lynching in Tennessee for 20 years. Harriet Tubman, William Lloyd Garrison, Rosa Parks, James Meredith, on and on. However, if you were to mention any of these names, and I've tried it, to some of these young people that come through here with the badges that we must have this holiday and ask them, "Tell me all you know about Frederick Douglass. Tell me all you know about Susan B. Anthony. Tell me all you know about William Lloyd Garrison," you will be met with a blank stare because today history does not teach about these people. It's kind of all focused in one direction, don't you think? There is a lot to civil rights. It is not just these particular individuals. There are names that are lost to history. Speak about the civil rights of children. We can't think back here because I don't think there is anybody alive today in this room that has a living memory of the mines with their blind ponies and dying boys. Of little boys in the machinery behind the looms because they were small, they could get in there. Every now and then somebody working on the looms was met with shrieks from these boys being tattered and these little girls with their flowing skirts caught in the machinery. You go down to your historical society in whatever town you live in, if it's an industrial town, and you just take a look at the pictures on the wall. What looks like a picnic, a company picnic, is actually the workforce. You see children eight and nine years old in that picture. My grandfather worked in the mills in Nashua when he was nine years old. We eliminated debtors' prisons. Now you don't go to jail if you owe somebody money; you used to. What about all those people that worked for these changes? Now, you have heard and you will probably continue to hear about what happened. We keep dredging up what occurred and what the laws were in the ante-bellum South and we hear what happened after Plessy v. Ferguson, we went through 58 years of "Jim Crow." But the die was well cast by the mid-fifties to end segregation in this country as we know it. It took a nudge, yes. There was an awful lot more before. Let's go back a little bit. Three million men fought for the North in the Civil War. New Hampshire was known as a state that did not like slavery. We were an abolitionist state. Forty thousand New Hampshire men served in the Civil War in the Union Army. We had a population of 230,000 something, you factor out the women, 20 percent for the young and old, and you have a percentage rate of 40 percent of the people of New Hampshire fought in that war to end that abominable practice. To paraphrase the marching hymn of the republic, "as He died to make men holy," how many beloved sons of the soil of New Hampshire left their plowshares, left the pulpits, left the cobblers bench, left their sweethearts and left their children to go fight for this cause. We've only to look downstairs and see the heartrending tatters of those battle flags for that answer. To give the true meaning of a heritage, a heritage of a birthright, of a free nation, we have to look at the essential character of its people. Ours is defined by a constant striving to better itself. Our legacy is of that striving and the legions of those who have fought for human betterment. Our heritage is alive and well. We would not be better served to embody all that is valorous and embody the sacrifices of all those that came before us in the persona of one. Regardless of the committee report, regardless of the pressures of your caucus, do not succumb to the political bigotry of this issue. Do not vote in such a manner as to do historical violence to our ancestors. I ask you to compose your emotions and vote for what is right. Finally, do not vote in such a manner that when walking through that hall downstairs you have to bow your head and say, "I'm sorry."

Rep. Key: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Honorable men and women of this historic House of Representatives, I rise to support the addition of Martin Luther King's name to the current House Bill 68 which is presently called the civil rights bill. Before getting up here I was told to make my remarks short by one person and to make them very short by another person. The reason I should keep my remarks short is because you have heard this same speech for the last 20 years. I want to guarantee you this, that you will not hear the same speech from me that you've heard. While I respect that you have sat in these hot, tight, sweaty and uncomfortable seats and have listened patiently to the same old stories about Martin Luther King for the last 20 years, I said to her, "My God, they must be a tough audience." I also said to her what Winston Churchill said when he gave the shortest commencement speech in the world, and I quote, "Never give up, never give up, never give up, never give up, never give up," and he said it about nine times. He said, "Thank you." and he sat down. The person who was speaking to me said, "Harvey that's perfect." I knew at that moment that my speech must not be too long. So, my first quote is from Frederick Douglass to President Andrew Johnson on February 7th, 1866, and I quote, "Peace between the races is not to be secured by degrading one race and exalting another, by giving power to one race and withholding it from the other; but by maintaining a state of equal justice between all classes."

My second quote to you is a question by Thurgood Marshall before the Supreme Court when he was chief counsel for the plaintiffs in Brown vs. the Board of Education and I quote, "Why, why, why of all the multitudinous groups that come into this country, do you have to single out Negroes to give this special treatment?"

My purpose here to you, ladies and gentlemen, is to give you a few good reasons why I think that Martin Luther King's name attached to the present civil rights bill will be beneficial to our state and our greater society, especially with our youth and our present state of ugly and ungodly violence. I want to take you on to a short journey about Martin Luther King and why his name should be attached. Then I will give you a little personal story about myself because what I've heard is like second and third stories about Birmingham. I was born in Birmingham and I'll tell you that story shortly. First of all, Martin Luther King was a pacesetter for human rights. His movement raised the level of self-esteem and self-worth for almost 30 million African Americans in our county and hundreds of millions around the world. He was the leader of one of the greatest and most powerful non-violent movements known to man in the last century. During his last 12 years, African Americans in this country made more progress than any other time in this century. He caused governments around the world to change the ways they treated all human beings. Martin Luther King helped extend human and civil rights where they never existed before from the valleys and hills of Vietnam to the Russian border. His work affected more than 150 different countries. He was the apostle of militant non-violent action for approximately 6 billion people around the world who came in all shapes, forms, colors, races, creeds, sexual and religious preferences. It didn't make any difference to him. He shook the foundation of racism in this country. He overthrew the legal segregation in the south. His movement guaranteed basic democratic rights, not only for blacks but for many whites, throughout this country. King was this country's greatest advocate of non-violence as a philosophy of life. Like Gandhi of India, he proved that non-violence is not passive but a militant, powerful and coercive method to achieve social reform. King's significance is recognized around the world by all world leaders. Martin Luther King was an eloquent spokesman for the conscience of human dignity and consciousness. He accomplished all of this without guns and without violence. Martin Luther King's mission was peace on earth for all men, not just in America but the entire world. King's movement caused America to live-up to his promise and to his dream that all men are created equal. This is just a part of his long enduring legacy.

I, too, put away four or five additional pages that I could be talking about. But, I want to tell you I was born in Birmingham, Alabama, under the feet of George Wallace and then the Police Commissioner, "Bull" Connor. As a little boy, I could not walk the streets and look white people in the eye because that was a threat to white people. I could be arrested for disorderly conduct. I could not shine shoes on the street. I could not deliver papers on the streets. You're telling me these are civil rights, this civil right, there is only one or two or however you want to dodge the bullet. As a young man, I saw many shootings of colored men, Negroes you might call them, who had supposedly stolen something from a store and were shot in the back by white policemen. The only excuse they had for that was that was the only way they could stop them, by shooting them. I suppose that may or may not be emotional for some of you. It gets me. I had an uncle whose name was Sam. He was 6-feet 4. He weighed about 280 pounds. He was accused of disrespecting a white woman and talking back to a policeman. They took him out one night and they beat him terribly bad. They beat him so bad that he came back and stayed in the house for almost a month. When he was able to come out, he told us that they had beaten him with belt buckles. He showed us the prints in his backside and on his legs. At that time he said to us, we were quite young, "Whenever you see a white man or a white woman or a white person on the street, get off the street and don't look them directly in the eye because you can be whipped just like I was." For a long time I found it difficult to look people in the eye. Sometimes, I find it difficult now. That was before I was age 14. At age 14, I had no self-esteem. I didn't have much hope for being anybody so I became a gang leader. I was tough, a little guy, but I was tough. I was put in jail at age 15 for assault and battery with attempt to murder. Somehow, I got out of that. I did get out of it and I went to a Catholic school. I was put out of public school, permanently, and went to a Catholic school and the good sisters took care of me. They beat me on the hand frequently with that ruler because I wasn't a good little guy. So, they turned me out pretty good. In that high school, I was the second highest, I guess, scholastic person there. I earned the highest grades in English, math and chemistry and won a scholarship to college. I went away to college and then I went to the Army. Armed with my college degree and an honorable discharge from the Army, I came back to get a job. The first place I went to get a job was the University of Alabama Medical Center and they said I didn't have enough education and I had a degree in Chemistry and Biology. I said to them that maybe I could take a janitorial job, and they said, "You have too much education." Those are civil rights that Martin Luther King wouldn't stand for. I couldn't get a job at either one of these places so I became a waiter at the country club. If any of you have traveled in the South, you might know that this is a fabulous country club. There, I became a waiter with other people who also had college degrees and we hung out at A.G. Gaston's motel. We used to have a few cool ones. I think you know what I mean. On this one day, we were having a cool one and Martin Luther King, we didn't know he was there, was having a conference with some of his SCLC leaders or members. Shortly thereafter, a big bomb blew a hole in the wall. It didn't hurt anybody. But it seemed it was contrived or manufactured by the police because about 10 minutes later they were having a press conference with Martin Luther King. Me and my boys were ready to go after them. We were tough and young and not too smart. But, while he was having the press conference we decided to go listen to the press conference and I didn't know Martin Luther King from anybody. He wouldn't know me now or anybody else, I would imagine, in that group. But we were ready to pick up anything we had to go and get the guys who happened to be people of a different color and kill them. While there, Martin Luther King said to us - he mentioned Mahatma Gandhi and his philosophy about non-violence and I was so electrified I stayed there until the wee hours of the morning talking to not only Martin Luther King but the other members of that group and at that time I put down my arms and I became warrior and I became an ambassador for peace and non-violence.

Just recently, last week - I have a granddaughter who is six-years-old and she wrote me a poem. "Papa, Papa, all the way from Alabama with a banjo on your knee up to New Hampshire to help keep people free." It's tough for me.

Madam Speaker and members of this august body, please vote for House Bill 68.

RECESS

(Speaker Sytek in the Chair)

HB 336, establishing the first Monday in February as a holiday to be known as Abraham Lincoln Civil Rights Day. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Maurice E. Goulet for Executive Departments and Administration: Although well intentioned, this bill was overshadowed by the Martin Luther King debate. The low positive vote was not a reflection of the committee's respect for President Lincoln, but merely recognition that other approaches to naming Civil Rights Day took precedence. Vote 15-3.

Rep. Rosen spoke against.

Rep. Pepino requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

SB 80, adding the name of Martin Luther King, Jr. to Civil Rights Day. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Carolyn A. Virtue for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration: This bill adds the name Martin Luther King, Jr. to Civil Rights Day which is a holiday celebrated on the third Monday in January. This action sends a message, loud and clear that New Hampshire honors Dr. King and the other heroes of the civil rights movement. His principles of non-violence serve as an example to us all in this era of increasing violence. Vote 11-7.

Rep. Benjamine E. Moore for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration: In 1991, the legislature voted to establish Civil Rights Day. The intent of the legislation was clearly stated as follows: "Civil Rights Day Established. In recognition of the courage, determination, and personal sacrifice of the many people from a variety of cultural backgrounds who fought and died in the struggle to gain freedom and equality for all individuals, and to celebrate these freedoms in a manner consistent with every individuals' constitutional rights to free speech and liberty, this law seeks to honor these persons who have dedicated or will dedicate their lives to the issue of equality of all by establishing the third Monday in January as Civil Rights Day in New Hampshire. This recognized celebration of civil rights seeks to educate society, in an impartial manner, against prejudice." The minority strongly feels that the intent of the legislature should be sustained out of respect for those who worked diligently to establish Civil Rights Day in 1991.

On a division vote, 183 members having voted in the affirmative and 148 in the negative, the majority report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

HB 497-FN-A, relative to family literacy planning grants and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: The Even Start program on family literacy is currently operating in some New Hampshire communities to assist illiterate parents with young children. It currently receives state funding in the amount of $564,399. This bill would increase state funding by $50,000 and be matched with $100,000 in federal funds for planning and consultants to develop new programs and coordinate with existing literacy programs. Because the program is already in place and local communities are receiving funding, the majority of the Finance Committee felt that the additional funding should not be appropriated in a year when there are so many competing demands for the limited funds in our state coffers. Vote 16-10.

Rep. Gile spoke against.

Rep. Vivian Clark spoke in favor.

Rep. Jane Wood requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 666-FN-A-L, relative to the taxation of sand, gravel, loam, and other similar substances. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jean R. Wallin for Finance: This bill was introduced to correct interpretive problems in RSA 72-B, enacted in April of 1998. The bill exempts from the excavation tax and the excavation activity tax all small operators; excavations not exceeding 1000 cubic yards in a tax year now will file a notice of intent with the state, but will not be subject to the tax. The bill also makes it clear that cellar holes, septic systems, pools, and other excavations ancillary to construction projects are exempt from the tax, and from the notice requirement. The Finance Committee amended the bill to incorporate technical changes to RSA 72-B suggested by the Department of Revenue Administration and the NH Municipal Association. A concern about how the acreage of quarries is determined was also addressed. The amendment is intended to make RSA 72-B conform with both RSA 155-E, local regulation of excavations, and RSA 485-A:17, the terrain alterations statute. Up until now, local officials have had to refer back and forth to all three laws. The committee believes that HB 666 as amended will eliminate confusion about who is taxed for what, and when. Vote 26-0.

Amendment (1353h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings and Declaration of Purposes. The legislature finds:

I. That there has been a great deal of confusion and uncertainty among taxpayers, assessors and municipalities regarding the applicability of the excavation activity tax imposed by RSA 72-B, and how it should be implemented;

II. That the legislature wishes to clarify that the excavation activity tax as defined in this act applies to the area of land which is being excavated, or has been excavated, and has not been reclaimed as defined in this act, and that the activity tax applies to the area of land which has not been so reclaimed;

III. That the legislature wishes to clarify that the excavation activity tax does not apply to excavation areas on which excavations ceased before August 24, 1977 and have not since reoccurred thereon; and that the excavation activity tax applies to exposed rock ledge area which has been actively worked within the previous tax year;

IV. That the legislature wishes to reiterate its findings and declaration of purpose of 1997, 219:1, that in appraising real property subject to the excavation activity tax, assessors shall not take into consideration the value of any earth contained in the real property;

V. That the legislature wishes to reiterate its original findings and declaration of purpose in enacting RSA 72-B, which provided a reliable means of taxing the value of earth by exempting earth and the real property constituting the area from which earth was being excavated from the real property tax imposed by RSA 72:6 and RSA 72:13, and subjecting it to the excavation tax and excavation activity tax created pursuant to RSA 72-B;

VI. That the legislature wishes to reiterate its original findings and declaration of purpose, which was to avoid the undesirable effects of taxing earth in the ground as real property, which included the premature excavation of such earth to avoid real property taxation; and that in order to ensure that this and other undesirable and unintended consequences of the taxation of earth, and the real property constituting the area from which earth was being excavated, do not occur, the legislature wishes to make clear that RSA 72-B must be read in conjunction with RSA 155-E, which provides a statewide comprehensive regulatory framework to regulate the excavation of earth;

VII. That one of the state's fundamental policy goals is to encourage and promote compliance with the statewide comprehensive regulatory framework for the regulation of earth removal and activities associated therewith, as set forth in RSA 155-E; and

VIII. That if the real property constituting the excavation area is exempted from the provisions of RSA 72:6 and RSA 72:13, and subjected instead to the excavation activity tax imposed by RSA 72-B, excavation operators will be encouraged to effectively use and manage known earth deposits and reclaim those areas of excavations that have been excavated since August 24, 1977.

2 Excavation Tax; Excavation Activity Tax. RSA 72-B:1 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

72-B:1 Excavation Tax; Excavation Activity Tax.

I. Earth and excavations, as defined in this chapter, shall be exempt from taxation as real property under RSA 72:6 and RSA 72:13, provided that such earth and excavations are subject to the excavation tax or the excavation activity tax as provided in this chapter.

II. Earth, as defined in RSA 155-E:1, I, shall be exempt from taxation as real property under RSA 72:6 and RSA 72:13. An excavation tax shall be assessed upon the excavation of earth against an owner as defined in RSA 72-B:2, VIII. Such tax shall be assessed at the rate of $.02 per cubic yard of earth excavated.

III. Excavations, as defined in RSA 155-E:1, II, shall be exempt from taxation as real property under RSA 72:6 and RSA 72:13, but shall be subject to the excavation activity tax. The owner of real property containing any excavation shall have assessed against such property an excavation activity tax. The excavation activity tax shall be assessed pursuant to RSA 72-B:12, and shall be assessed at a tax rate equal to the real property tax rate imposed under RSA 72:6. The excavation activity tax for those excavations occurring on public lands shall be assessed to the owner or purchaser of the excavation rights.

IV. The following, except as otherwise noted, shall not be subject to the excavation activity tax, the excavation tax, and related fees; however, the following shall be subject to taxation as real property pursuant to RSA 72:6 independent of any earth contained therein:

(a) An excavation that has been reclaimed and approved by the regulator to be in compliance with local reclamation standards and ordinances.

(b) An excavation area that is exposed rock ledge not subject to reclamation under RSA 155-E:5, I and III or RSA 155-E:5-a and has not been excavated during the preceding tax year.

(c) An excavation that has ceased commercially useful operation prior to August 24, 1977, as set forth in RSA 155-E:2, II(c).

(d) Permitted areas, or areas not requiring permits, that have not been excavated and remain undisturbed.

(e) Areas that are ancillary to the excavation.

(f) Any excavation of earth from a parcel of land that is put back on the parcel, or other parcel that is contiguous and in common ownership, in the construction, reclamation, reconstruction, or alteration of such parcel of land within the same tax year.

(g) Any excavation of earth that is used exclusively for agricultural or forest management by the owner of the land within the state of New Hampshire.

(h) Any excavation upon a parcel of land which does not exceed 1,000 cubic yards within any tax year; however, the owner of such excavation shall be subject to the excavation activity tax, shall be required to file a notice of intent to excavate pursuant to RSA 72-B:8, but such owner shall not be subject to the enforcement fee under RSA 72-B:16 and such parcel shall not be subject to the excavation tax lien under RSA 72-B:7, I.

(i) Any excavation which is solely necessary to construct a foundation, septic disposal system, or which is incidental to other construction projects and does not result in the removal from the parcel of more than 1,000 cubic yards of earth within the tax year.

3 Definitions. RSA 72-B:2 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

72-B:2 Definitions. In this chapter:

72-B:4 Assessment of the Excavation Tax and the Excavation Activity Tax.

I. The excavation tax shall be assessed [~~at the time of excavation~~] by the local assessing officials within 30 days after receipt of a report of excavated material form by such officials in the municipality in which the operation took place. 72-B:5 Bond.

I. If an owner does not own land in the town where such owner intends to excavate and has filed an intent to excavate form with respect to any parcel of land, the assessing officials shall, within 30 days of the receipt of that filing, notify the owner in writing of the amount and conditions of any bond or other security deemed necessary to secure the payment of the excavation tax to be due from the operation described in the notice of intent to excavate. The owner shall provide the bond within 30 days of notice or be guilty of a misdemeanor. No owner who owns land in the town where the owner intends to excavate shall be required to post a bond or other security as a condition for filing an intent to excavate or receiving a permit to excavate, unless the owner is delinquent on town timber taxes, excavation activity taxes, or property taxes.

II. If an owner does not own land in the town where the owner has excavation rights, the assessing officials shall notify the owner in writing of the amount and conditions of any bond or other security deemed necessary to secure the payment of the excavation activity tax. The owner shall provide the bond within 30 days of notice or be guilty of a misdemeanor. No owner who owns land in the town where the owner intends to excavate shall be required to post a bond or other security as a condition for filing an intent to excavate or receiving a permit to excavate, unless the owner is delinquent on town timber taxes, excavation taxes, or property taxes.

[H:] III. If an owner ceases to own land in the town where such owner is excavating after filing an intent to excavate form, such owner shall notify the assessing officials in writing of the change in ownership within 15 days of such change. An owner who neglects to so notify the assessing official shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

[HH:] IV. If any ~~[owner or any other]~~ person ~~[who]~~ commences ~~[an excavation operation]~~ excavating or ~~[who]~~ continues ~~[an excavation operation]~~ excavating without first furnishing a bond or other securities ~~[as deemed necessary]~~ required to secure payment of taxes by the assessing officials, such person and the owner of such land shall each be guilty of a misdemeanor.

6 Lien. Amend RSA 72-B:7 to read as follows:

72-B:7 Lien. Unless a bond or other security is required pursuant to RSA 72-B:5~~[, all excavation]~~:

I. Excavation tax assessments levied under RSA 72-B:4 shall, on the date the ~~[excavation]~~ excavating commences, create a lien upon the land on account of which it is made and against the owner of record of such land. ~~[Furthermore, such liens shall continue for a period of 18 months following the date of assessment by the local assessing officials. All excavation tax assessments shall be subject to statutory collection proceedings against real estate as prescribed by RSA 80:]~~

II. Excavation activity tax assessments levied under RSA 72-B:12 shall, on April 1, create a lien upon the land on account of which it is made and against the owner of record of such land.

III. Liens created under RSA 72-B:7, I and II shall continue for a period of 18 months following the date of assessment by the local assessing officials. All excavation tax and excavation activity tax assessments shall be subject to statutory collection proceedings against real estate as prescribed by RSA 80.

7 Notice of Intent to Excavate. Amend RSA 72-B:8 to read as follows:

72-B:8 Notice of Intent to Excavate. Every owner, as defined in RSA 72-B:2, VIII, who intends to excavate earth shall, at the beginning of each tax year and prior to ~~[commencing each excavation]~~ excavating ~~[operation]~~, file with the proper assessing officials in the city ~~[or]~~, town, or unincorporated place where such excavating is to take place a notice of intent to excavate as provided by the commissioner, stating ~~[such]~~ the owner's name; type of ownership; residence; [social security number] telephone number; tax map, block, and lot number; the town, city, or [unorganized] unincorporated place where the [operation] excavating will take place; an estimate of the volume of earth to be excavated; an estimate of the type of earth to be excavated; and such other information as may be [required in compliance with all local ordinances] necessary to locate, identify, verify, and determine the full extent of the excavation and extent of compliance with RSA 155-E and RSA 485-A:17. A separate intent shall be filed for each separate tract of land as identified by the municipal tax maps. If the excavation is located in more than one municipality, a separate intent to excavate shall be filed with each municipality. A supplemental notice of intent to excavate shall be filed in the same manner ~~[for]~~ stating any additional volume of earth to be excavated in excess of the original estimate within the same tax year. The assessing officials shall, within 30 days of signing a notice of intent to excavate, notify the tax collector that an intent to excavate has been filed. The assessing officials may decline to sign an intent to excavate for noncompliance by the owner with applicable requirements of RSA 72-B:5 relative to bonding, RSA 155-E relative to local regulation excavations, RSA 485-A:17 relative to terrain alterations or RSA 79-A relative to current use. The notice of intent to excavate shall serve as notice that the land is subject to a tax lien pursuant to RSA 72-B:7. The appropriate copies of all intents to excavate received by a city, town, or ~~unorganized~~ unincorporated place shall within 30 days be forwarded to the commissioner by the assessing officials. Upon receipt of an original intent to excavate, the commissioner shall assign an operation number and furnish to the owner a certificate to excavate and report of excavated material form. ~~[Such]~~ Each certificate shall be posted by the owner filing such intent to excavate in a conspicuous place within the area of ~~[excavation for each operation conducted within a city, town, or unorganized place]~~ excavating. ~~[Starting an operation]~~ Excavating before the appropriate notice of intent to excavate has been filed with the city, town, or unincorporated place and signed by the appropriate municipal officials shall constitute a violation by the owner or any other person doing the excavation, or both. Failure to post the certificate on the job in a conspicuous place upon receipt shall constitute a violation, and failure of the assessing officials to forward the appropriate copies of the intent to excavate to the department within 30 days after receipt shall constitute a violation.

8 New Section; Supplemental Notice of Intent to Excavate. Amend RSA 72-B by inserting after section 8 the following new section:

72-B:8-a Supplemental Notice of Intent to Excavate. Every owner who has filed a notice of intent to excavate under RSA 72-B:8 shall file a supplemental notice of intent to excavate for the amount of earth which exceeds the original amount of earth estimated. If the owner originally stated an estimate of 1,000 yards or less and was exempted from the $100 enforcement fee, the owner shall provide the $100 enforcement fee with the supplemental intent to excavate. If the owner paid the $100 enforcement fee with the original intent to excavate, no additional fee is required for the supplemental intent. Failure to file a supplemental intent and failure to provide the required enforcement fee shall constitute a violation by the owner or any other person doing the excavation, or both.

9 Report of Excavated Material. Amend RSA 72-B:9 to read as follows:

72-B:9 Report of Excavated Material. Every owner who has filed a notice of intent to excavate as provided in RSA 72-B:8 shall ~~make~~ sign under the penalties of perjury and file with the assessing officials a report of all excavated material for each intent to excavate filed. The report shall be upon a form provided by the commissioner, with 2 copies to be sent to the commissioner. If no earth was excavated during the tax year, then the report of excavated material shall be returned stating so. If ~~[an excavation operation finishes]~~ excavating is completed during the tax year, the owner ~~[may]~~ shall file the report of excavated material ~~[at the completion of the operation, and the assessing officials shall make an assessment within 30 days after receipt of the report of excavation form]~~ no later than 30 days following the completion of the excavating. The assessing officials shall make an assessment of the excavation tax within 30 days after receipt of the report of excavated material form. The report of excavated material ~~[forms]~~ form shall contain the owner's name, telephone number, residence, ~~[social security number;]~~ tax map, block, and lot number, the town, city or unincorporated place where the excavation occurred, the volume and type of earth in cubic yards, and such other information as may be necessary to locate, identify, verify, and determine the full extent of excavation, reclamation, and extent of compliance with either RSA 155-E or RSA 485-A:17, for which ~~[the]~~ each report is filed. ~~[A]~~ The report of excavated material ~~[covering]~~ form pertaining to [an operation] excavating still in progress through March 31 of any year shall be filed no later than the following April 15 [of said year] for all earth excavated during the tax year up to and including March 31. The report shall be accompanied by an estimate of the size of the ~~[pit]~~ excavation area as it existed at the end of the tax year, or in the alternative, a statement that the size of the ~~[pit]~~ excavation area has not changed since the prior tax year. A person who fails to file a report of excavated material with the proper assessing officials or to send copies of the report as required in this section to the commissioner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any owner who falsifies a report of excavated material form shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

10 Doomage. Amend RSA 72-B:10 to read as follows:

72-B:10 Doomage. If an owner neglects or fails to file a report of excavated material form pursuant to RSA 72-B:9, unless the time is extended by the assessing officials because of accident, mistake, or misfortune to a date not later than the following May 1, or willfully makes any false statement in the notice of intent to excavate, or willfully files a report of excavated material that does not contain a true and correct statement of the amount of earth excavated, or has willfully omitted to give any information required by the report of excavated material form, the assessing officials shall ascertain, in such way as they may be able and as nearly as practicable, the volume of ~~[excavation]~~ earth for which such owner should have been taxed and shall assess to such owner, by way of doomsage 2 times as much as such ~~[excavation]~~ earth would have been taxed had such form been seasonably filed and truly reported. Such doomsage shall be collected by the tax collector in the usual manner and paid over to the town or city treasurer for use of the town or city, or, in the case of ~~[a unorganized]~~ an unincorporated place, shall be collected by the county commissioners and paid over to the county treasurer for use of the county.

11 Disposition of the Excavation Tax and Excavation Activity Tax. Amend RSA 72-B:11 to read as follows:

72-B:11 Disposition of the Excavation Tax and Excavation Activity Tax.

I. The excavation tax, and the excavation activity tax, collected in the incorporated towns and cities under RSA 72-B:4 shall be paid by the tax collectors into their respective treasuries for the general use of the city or town.

II. The taxes assessed under RSA 72-B:4 in any unincorporated ~~[town or unorganized]~~ place shall be collected by the county commissioners of the county in which the ~~[town or]~~ place is located and paid by them to the county treasurer. The county commissioners shall have the same powers in collecting the taxes as provided under RSA 80 and RSA 81. All taxes collected by the counties under RSA 72-B:4 shall be credited to the unincorporated ~~[towns and unorganized places]~~ place from which the excavation tax and the excavation activity tax was collected and shall be used against the unincorporated ~~[town's or unorganized]~~ place's share for the county tax for the ensuing year.

12 Taxation of Excavation Activity. Amend RSA 72-B:12 to read as follows:

72-B:12 Taxation of Excavation Activity. The excavation activity tax imposed under RSA 72-B:1, III shall be administered as follows:

I. The ~~[pit] area[, as defined in RSA 72-B:2,]~~ constituting an excavation subject to the excavation activity tax shall be determined as of April 1 each year. The owner ~~[or excavator]~~ shall furnish to the ~~[local]~~ assessing officials for the jurisdiction in which the excavation is located such information as ~~[they]~~ the assessing officials may require to ~~[make such determination]~~ determine the area constituting a taxable excavation.

II. The ~~[amount of the excavation activity tax shall be determined by the local assessing officials, by considering a hypothetical owner of land, located in the vicinity of the excavation, but which was devoted to an intense commercial or industrial use, and determining the amount such hypothetical owner would pay in real estate taxes during that tax year upon an area of such land equivalent in size to the pit area, exclusive of any tax amount attributable to buildings or other structures. In making this determination, the assessing officials may take into consideration the land portion of assessments actually assigned to other properties in that municipality devoted to commercial or industrial uses, but shall not consider the value of the earth located upon, or excavated from, the excavation site]~~ area of any excavation subject to the excavation activity tax shall be appraised as if it contained no earth, as defined in RSA 72-B:2, V.

III. For purposes of administering the excavation activity tax, the excavation shall be assessed as if it were an equal size parcel devoted to a comparable industrial use located in a comparable location within the taxing jurisdiction; provided that if the excavation is a quarry, the vertical faces of the excavation shall be assessed as if horizontally level, pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner under RSA 541-A. If there is no such comparable property within the taxing jurisdiction, such area shall be assessed using the nearest comparable property within a comparable taxing jurisdiction. For purposes of such calculations, the assessing officials shall take into consideration the land portion of assessments actually assigned to such comparable parcels and shall not include the value of any buildings or other improvements when making such comparisons. [The excavation activity tax shall be billed to the owner, as defined in RSA 72-B:2, using the same schedule applicable in that municipality to the billing of real estate taxes. Such tax shall be deemed to be assessed upon April 1 of the tax year, and shall create a lien against the real estate, which shall continue for 18 months thereafter. All such taxes shall be subject to statutory collection proceedings against real estate as prescribed by RSA 80:]

13 New Section; Excavation Activity Tax Appeal and Abatement. Amend RSA 72-B by inserting after section 12 the following new section:

72-B:12-a Excavation Activity Tax Appeal and Abatement.

I. Any person aggrieved by the assessment of an excavation activity tax shall follow the process provided in RSA 76:16, RSA 76:16-a, and RSA 76:17.

II. Each excavation activity tax assessment bill must be the subject of a separate abatement request and appeal.

14 Excavation Tax Appeal and Abatement. Amend the section heading of RSA 72-B:13 to read as follows:

72-B:13 Excavation Tax Appeal and Abatement.

15 Excavation Tax Appeals Board. Amend the section heading of RSA 72-B:14 to read as follows:

72-B:14 Excavation Tax Appeals Board.

16 Excavation Tax Appeals Board Procedure. Amend the section heading of RSA 72-B:15 to read as follows:

72-B:15 Excavation Tax Appeals Board Procedure.

17 Enforcement. Amend RSA 72-B:17 to read as follows:

72-B:17 Enforcement.

I. The department shall administer and enforce this chapter, be responsible for educating municipal officials regarding the chapter, and have enforcement authority in regard to the proper filing of the [~~permit~~] intent to excavate form under RSA 72-B:8, authority to check on the volumes turned in on the report of excavated [~~materials~~] material form under RSA 72-B:9, the authority to issue cease and desist orders for violations under RSA 72-B, [~~the authority to monitor the operational and reclamation standards contained in RSA 155-E:4-a, 5 and 5-a,~~] and the authority to rescind the [~~certificate issued~~] intent to excavate form and certificate pursuant to RSA 72-B:8 of any excavation in violation of [~~such standards~~] RSA 72-B. The department shall otherwise assist the towns, cities, and [~~unorganized~~] unincorporated places in the enforcement of this chapter. Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 676-FN-A, increasing fees for motor vehicle inspection stickers and establishing motor vehicle inspector positions and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill establishes 6 new motor vehicle inspectors for enforcement duties related to the inspection process, including inspection station auditing and investigation, rejected vehicle follow-up, and sticker monitoring. These positions are necessary to carry out part of the agreement made with U.S. EPA last year, to inspect vehicles for the presence of emission control equipment instead of automobile tailpipe emission testing. The bill increases the fee per inspection sticker paid by inspection stations from $1.25 to $1.50, increasing state highway fund revenue by $320,000 per year (of which $38,000 will be used to increase distributions to cities and towns).

In addition to clarifying the duties and rights of the 6 new inspectors, the committee amendment places the new inspectors in retirement Group I, like many other state inspectors. This reduces the appropriation for these inspectors to $311,290 in the first year and $195,266 in the second year (decreases of about $120,000 and $80,000). Vote 26-0.

Amendment (1211h)

Amend RSA 266:1-a, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The commissioner of safety shall establish a force of motor vehicle inspectors to assist the director in enforcing the motor vehicle inspection laws and rules. A motor vehicle inspector appointed by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be totally dedicated to enforcement duties related to the inspection process, including inspection station auditing, investigation of alleged inspection station malfeasance, rejected vehicle follow-up, and sticker monitoring. A motor vehicle inspector appointed under this section shall have the authority to enter any motor vehicle inspection station authorized under RSA 266:1, during the station's business hours, to fulfill his or her duties.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Appropriation. The sums of $311,290 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2000 and $195,266 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2001, are hereby appropriated to the department of safety for the purpose of hiring 6 motor vehicle inspectors to enforce the motor vehicle inspection laws and rules, as provided in section 1 of this act. Said appropriations shall be a charge against the highway fund.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 3 the following and renumbering the original section 4 to read as 5:

4 New Subparagraph; Motor Vehicle Inspectors Excluded from Group II Classification. Amend RSA 100-A:1, VII-a by inserting after subparagraph (c) the following new subparagraph:

(d) Any motor vehicle inspector appointed pursuant to RSA 266:1-a.

Adopted.

Rep. Gilman requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 692-FN-A, adopting a single sales factor method of apportionment under the business profits tax. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jean R. Wallin for Finance: It is entirely possible that business activity in New Hampshire would be enhanced by adoption of the single sales factor method of apportioning the business profits tax. However, we have already increased not only the business profits tax, but also the business enterprise tax. At this moment we are unable to totally calculate the consequences of these changes. The Finance Committee prefers to take the conservative route of returning the bill to the committee to monitor the actual effects of both methods of apportionment. The results will be reported to the 2000 session of the House. Vote 24-2.
Adopted.

HB 300, making technical corrections to 1999, HB 117. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for the Majority of Finance: HB 300 makes important technical corrections to HB 117.

Section 1 changes the language used to calculate additional weights for pupils who receive free or reduced-price meals. The numbers for state aid in spreadsheets available when HB 117 was agreed to by conferees, adopted by the House and Senate, and signed into law do not conform with the language in HB 117. The conferees have stated that they had agreed to the spreadsheet numbers and that the words should be amended to conform to the data. The committee amendment made an additional conforming change not previously identified.

Sections 2 and 6 make changes to parts of HB 117 so that the policy established by the Legislature that adequate education grants be paid directly to school districts be consistent throughout the bill. Section 8 clarifies that it is the intention of the state to appropriate future funds, when necessary, to reimburse not only municipal hardware and software implementation costs but also administrative costs.

Section 9 provides funding at $750 per kindergarten pupil for those kindergartens starting in 1998, 1999 and 2000 because they are not yet in the count for education funding. It clarifies that the Springfield town kindergarten will receive $750 per pupil. The bill also grandfathers in the three existing alternative kindergartens because those pupils are already in the count for HB 117. The cost to the general fund is about $925,000 per year.

Sections 3 and 7 clarify implementation language. Sections 4 and 5 correct drafting errors. The committee amendment deleted sections 1 and 3 of the original bill, which dealt with cooperative school districts. The committee felt additional time was needed to consider the full ramifications of these sections. Vote 15-8

Rep. Mary Jane Wallner for the Minority of Finance: The minority is convinced that this bill, especially section 2, represents much more than a simple "technical correction." It is in fact a major policy change from HB 117 which was passed on April 29. Note that the language in section 2 strikes out the word "elementary" student. That seemingly innocuous deletion means a great deal in that it reduces the low income weighting for numerous communities. Experts have told us and Department of Education data bears out that high school students are not applying for reduced or free lunches, even though they are entitled to do so. Thus, including them skews the formula and provides less money to the neediest communities.

Amendment (1406h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Definition; "Weighted Pupils." RSA 198:38, VII(d) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(d) Additional weights based on pupils eligible to receive a free or reduced-price meal shall be calculated by multiplying each municipality's elementary average daily membership in residence by the fraction of the district's pupils eligible to receive a free or reduced-price meal multiplied by:

(1) If less than 12 percent of the district's pupils are eligible to receive a free or reduced-price meal, zero.

(2) If at least 12 percent but less than 24 percent of the district's pupils are eligible to receive a free or reduced-price meal, 0.5.

(3) If at least 24 percent of the district's pupils are eligible to receive a free or reduced-price meal, 1.0.

2 Determination of Per Pupil Adequate Education Cost and Adequate Education Grant. Amend RSA 198:40, II and III to read as follows:

II. The weighted average daily membership in residence for each ~~[district]~~ municipality shall be calculated by combining the ~~[district's]~~ elementary average daily membership in residence with ~~[its]~~ the weighted high school average daily membership in residence, the ~~[district's]~~ average daily membership in residence resulting from educationally disabled children, and the ~~[district's]~~ additional average daily membership in residence resulting from elementary pupils eligible to receive a free or ~~[reduced-priced]~~ reduced-price meal. The statewide weighted average daily membership in residence of pupils shall be calculated by combining the weighted average daily membership in residence of each ~~[school-district]~~ municipality in the state.

III. For each fiscal year, the statewide cost of an adequate education for all pupils shall be calculated by multiplying the average base per pupil cost of an adequate education by the statewide weighted average daily membership in residence of pupils and then adding 70 percent of total statewide ~~[district]~~ transportation costs.

3 New Paragraph; Distribution Schedule of Adequate Education Grant. Amend RSA 198:42 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant from funds not otherwise appropriated to satisfy the state's obligation under this section.

4 Funding; Adequate Education and Education Financing Commission. Amend RSA 198:49, VII to read as follows:

VII. The commission may request that the legislative facilities committee approve funding for the commission not to exceed ~~[$300,000]~~ $150,000.

5 Funding; Tax Equity and Efficiency Commission. Amend 1999, 17:55, VIII to read as follows:

VIII. The commission may request that the legislative facilities ~~[commission]~~ committee approve funding for the commission not to exceed ~~[$300,000]~~ $150,000.

6 Special Transition Rules. Amend 1999, 17:52, I to read as follows:

I. For the school year 1999/2000, the adequate education grant determined in RSA ~~[198:42]~~ 198:41 shall be distributed to each ~~[municipality]~~ school district or, in the case of a dependent school district, to the city, from the education trust fund in 4 payments as follows:

(a) ~~[On July 1, 1999]~~ On or before July 15, 1999, and on September 1, 1999, 1/8 the total adequate education grant;

(b) On January 1, 2000 and April 1, 2000, 3/8 the total adequate education grant. The department shall certify the amount of each grant to the state treasurer and direct the payment thereof to the [municipality] school district or, in the case of a dependent school district, to the city.

7 New Paragraphs; Special Transition Rules. Amend 1999, 17:52, V to read as follows:

V. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for any taxpayer required to pay utility property tax directly to the state for deposit in the education trust fund pursuant to RSA 83-F, the selectmen or assessors shall abate the state education property tax amount shown on any tax bill sent to such taxpayer pursuant to RSA 76:11-a, 1. Such abatements shall be exempt from the limitation in RSA 76:6.

VI. For the school year ending June 30, 2000, adequate education grant moneys received by a school district pursuant to RSA 198:42 shall not be considered unanticipated funds under RSA 198:20-b. School districts may appropriate additional sums for the school year ending June 30, 2000 in accordance with the provisions of 1999, 2 and RSA 197:3.

VII. For purposes of all calculations required by RSA 198:38-48, the department of education shall use the best available data.

8 Appropriations. Amend 1999, 17:53, VI to read as follows:

VI. It is the intent of the state to appropriate a sum certain to reimburse municipalities for the costs of additional administration, hardware and software necessary to implement the provisions of this act.

9 Kindergarten; Alternative Kindergarten Programs.

I. If a school district implements a public kindergarten program in school years 1998-1999 or 1999-2000, the school district maintaining such a kindergarten program shall receive reimbursement for fiscal year 2000 and fiscal year 2001 at the rate of $750 per pupil.

II. If a school district implements a public kindergarten program in school year 2000-2001, the school district maintaining such a kindergarten program shall receive reimbursement for fiscal year 2001 at the rate of $750 per pupil.

III. If the town of Springfield continues to maintain, at public expense, a kindergarten program established prior to school year 1998-1999, it shall receive reimbursement for fiscal year 2000 and each fiscal year thereafter at the rate of $750 per pupil.

IV. Notwithstanding the repeal of RSA 198:15-n by 1999, 17:58, VIII, the alternative kindergarten programs in the towns of Wentworth, Rumney, and Strafford, which were approved prior to such repeal, may continue to operate as approved alternative kindergarten programs under the provisions of RSA 198:15-n which were in effect prior to April 29, 1999.

10 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Reps. Jacobson, Almy and Hager spoke against.

Rep. MacGillivray spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Reps. Burling and Lozeau spoke in favor.

Rep. Chandler requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the amendment.

and the majority report was adopted.
Ordered to third reading.

SB 14, establishing a committee to study the impact of federal welfare reform on the cities and towns of New Hampshire. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Marion Copenhaver for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The majority supported the formation of a study committee to look at the impact of federal welfare reform on the cities and towns of New Hampshire. There was some concern by those who voted against it, that welfare recipients might move to New Hampshire to take advantage of our "generous" welfare benefits. Vote 8-7.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 22, relative to the pilot program relative to the administration of medication in residential care facilities. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Francine Wendelboe for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This legislation adds supported residential care facilities to an existing pilot program established in 1998. There are many frail, elderly in the state who require a supervised living environment, but do not require 24-hour skilled nursing services. The pilot program relative to medication administration in residential and supported residential care facilities provides cost effective services to our frail seniors by trained medication aides. Vote 14-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

CACR 15, relating to the establishment of an indirect initiative petition process. Providing that proposed laws may be submitted to the legislature by citizen petition. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE.

Rep. Gene G. Chandler for the Majority of Legislative Administration: CACR 15 proposes amending the constitution to allow legislation by petition. If adopted, laws could be proposed by a petition signed by 5% of the total popular vote cast in the most recent presidential election. Any law proposed by petition would be enacted or rejected by the General Court without change or amendment within 40 legislative days from the time the petition is received. If the proposed law is not enacted by the legislature, the Secretary of State would submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next general election. Among other procedures outlined in the bill is the provision that no law adopted by referendum can be vetoed by the Governor nor can the law be amended, repealed or suspended by the legislature for 5 years unless another petition is proposed and all the same steps are followed all over again. Given the size of the House and judging by the number of bills filed every year, it seems that if any citizen of New Hampshire wants a law enacted or changed, they can do so by finding a legislator to file a bill on their behalf. New Hampshire truly has a citizen legislature, and we do not need the extra bureaucracy, not to mention the tremendous expense involved with a referendum style government. Vote 10-4.

Rep. Betty B. Hall for the Minority of Legislative Administration: This CACR has the potential for allowing the people to offer options to the legislature, and the legislature to respond with an alternative from which the voters can choose. The need for such a measure has been front and center in the school-funding debate. This CACR could be a vehicle for similar contingencies in the future. Committee members were preoccupied with the current crisis when this came before us, and not many members were present for the hearing. The minority believes we should study this in more depth after the immediate crises are over. We recommend this CACR be re-referred to the Legislative Administration Committee. An indirect initiative is very different from referendums and direct initiatives and it is not well understood. When an indirect petition for a bill is presented to the legislature with a sufficiently large number of signatures, the legislature can choose one of the following options: (1) It can pass the petitioned bill exactly as presented and then it goes to the Governor for signature and no ballot vote would be necessary; or (2) The bill can be amended and then it will go to the voters as amended by the legislature along with the original petitioned bill. Both measures would be on the ballot at the next general election. If both measures received more than a majority of the votes cast, the one receiving the greatest number would become law; or (3) If either the House or Senate rejected the measure which had been petitioned, then it would go on the ballot with the rejection printed below the original petitioned bill. If passed by a majority, it would become law.

Rep. Cloutier spoke against.

Rep. Chandler spoke in favor.

Rep. Dyer requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

CACR 6, relating to municipalities' home rule. Providing that municipalities shall have home rule authority to exercise any powers not specifically prohibited by the state or federal constitutions or any statute. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Municipal and County Government: The House and Senate, representatives of towns and cities, and interested citizens have been working on this constitutional amendment for several years. Last session a similar CACR passed overwhelmingly in the House but met its demise in the Senate. The Municipal and County Government Committee has been studying this CACR and its companion bill in detail this year and again recommends its passage.

When and if this article becomes part of our constitution, the State will still retain its sovereignty. If this CACR is adopted by the people, our local communities will be allowed to act in their own affairs unless precluded by the state constitution, state statute or common law. Vote 14-3.

Amendment (1308h)

Amend the title of the resolution by replacing it with the following:

RELATING TO: municipalities' home rule.

PROVIDING THAT: municipalities shall have home rule authority to exercise such powers which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law.

Amend the resolution by replacing Article 40 as inserted by paragraph I with the following:

[Art.] 40 [Home Rule Authority Granted.] A municipality may exercise such powers and perform such functions pertaining to its government and affairs which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law. Nothing in this article shall be construed to alter or limit in any way the state's right of preemption over municipal powers and functions.

Amend the resolution by replacing paragraph IV with the following:

IV. That the wording of the question put to the qualified voters shall be:

Are you in favor of amending the constitution to provide that municipalities shall have home rule authority to exercise such powers and perform such functions pertaining to its government and affairs which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law, and that the state shall retain its right of preemption over municipal powers and functions?

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This constitutional amendment-concurrent resolution provides home rule authority to municipalities, so that they may exercise such powers which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law and provides that the state shall retain the right of preemption over municipal powers and functions.

Adopted.

Rep. MacGillivray spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Rice spoke in favor.

Rep. Stone spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Stone requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

and CACR 6 was read a third time and passed by the constitutionally required three-fifths.

THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

CACR 6, relating to municipalities' home rule. Providing that municipalities shall have home rule authority to exercise such powers which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Marple requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

I wish to record my dissent and protest on the basis of Part 2, Article 5 of the New Hampshire Constitution. The supreme legislative power cannot be delegated by the body or it is no longer supreme. Logic dictates that the supreme power to legislate remains with the General Court.

REGULAR CALENDAR (CONT'D.)HB 468, relative to the home rule powers of municipalities. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Thomas E. P. Rice for Municipal and County Government: This bill is a comprehensive compilation of the things that CACR 6 does and does not do. It makes clear the intent of CACR 6 to allow the individual communities to act on their own behalf in cases where the Constitution, the legislature, or the statutes are silent.

It also makes very clear that the state retains the right to overrule any local action and that no function now performed by the state may be usurped or duplicated by the community. Vote 14-2.

Amendment (1351h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Powers and Duties of Towns; Power to Make Bylaws. RSA 31:39 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

31:39 Declaration of Purpose. The purpose of this subdivision is to further define the home rule powers granted to municipalities by the New Hampshire constitution. It is not intended to impliedly repeal existing state laws and regulations nor to limit the authority granted to cities and towns pursuant to predecessor versions of RSA 31:39-43.

2 New Section; Powers and Duties of Towns to Make Bylaws and Ordinances. Amend RSA 31 by inserting after section 31:39-a the following new section:

31:39-b Bylaws and Ordinances. Any municipality, through the adoption, amendment or repeal of ordinances or bylaws by its legislative body, may exercise any power or function pertaining to its government and affairs which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law. The following provisions shall apply:

I. There is a rebuttable presumption that any ordinance or bylaw enacted under this section is a valid exercise of a municipality's home rule authority.

II. The legislature shall not be held to have implicitly denied any power granted to municipalities under this section unless the exercise of that power is inconsistent with a detailed and comprehensive program of statewide regulation.

III. Any local ordinance or bylaw hereafter adopted by a municipality, except where the general court has vested that power in the governing body, shall become effective no sooner than 60 days after its adoption. Unless otherwise specified, an effective date of 60 days after adoption shall be presumed.

IV. Except as otherwise provided by law, penalties established by ordinance or bylaw shall be recovered by the municipality for its use.

V. All ordinances and bylaws affecting the form of local government shall conform to laws adopted to implement part 1, article 39 of the New Hampshire constitution. No municipal charter shall be adopted or modified except in accordance with procedures delineated in those laws.

VI. This subdivision, being necessary for the welfare of the municipalities and their inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.

3 Powers of City Councils; Bylaws and Ordinances; Declaration of Purpose. RSA 47:17 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

47:17 Declaration of Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to further define the home rule powers granted to municipalities by the New Hampshire constitution. It is not intended to impliedly repeal existing state laws and regulations, nor to limit the authority granted to cities and towns pursuant to predecessor versions of RSA 47:17.

4 New Section; Powers of City Councils; Bylaws and Ordinances. Amend RSA 47 by inserting after section 17 the following new section:

47:17-a Bylaws and Ordinances. Any municipality, through the adoption, amendment or repeal of ordinances or bylaws by its legislative body, may exercise any power or function pertaining to its government and affairs which are not prohibited by the state constitution, state statute, or common law. The following provisions shall apply:

I. There is a rebuttable presumption that any ordinance or bylaw enacted under this section is a valid exercise of a municipality's home rule authority.

II. The legislature shall not be held to have implicitly denied any power granted to municipalities under this section unless the exercise of that power is inconsistent with a detailed and comprehensive program of statewide regulation.

III. Any local ordinance or bylaw hereafter adopted by a municipality, except where the general court has vested that power in the governing body, shall become effective no sooner than 60 days after its adoption. Unless otherwise specified, an effective date of 60 days after adoption shall be presumed.

IV. Except as otherwise provided by law, penalties established by ordinance or bylaw shall be recovered by the municipality for its use.

V. All ordinances and bylaws affecting the form of local government shall conform to laws adopted to implement part I, article 39 of the New Hampshire constitution. No municipal charter shall be adopted or modified except in accordance with procedures delineated in those laws.

VI. This subdivision, being necessary for the welfare of the municipalities and their inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.

5 Regulation of Use of Highways, etc. Amend RSA 41:11 to read as follows:

41:11 Regulation of Use of Highways, etc. Unless regulated by the commissioner of the department of transportation as provided in RSA 236:1, the selectmen may regulate the use of all public highways, sidewalks, and commons in their respective towns and for this purpose may exercise all the powers conferred ~~[on city councils by RSA 47:17, VII, VIII, and XVIII, and by any other provisions of the laws upon the subject]~~ as follows:

I. USE OF PUBLIC WAYS. II. TRAFFIC DEVICES AND SIGNALS.

(a) To make special regulations as to the use of vehicles upon particular highways, except as to speed, and to exclude such vehicles altogether from certain ways; to regulate the use of class IV highways within the compact limits and class V highways by establishing stop intersections, by erecting stop signs, yield right of way signs, traffic signals and all other traffic control devices on those highways over which the governing body has jurisdiction. The erection, removal and maintenance of all such devices shall conform to applicable state statutes and the latest edition of the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices.

(b) The commissioner of transportation shall only approve the installation and modification of traffic signals as to type, size, installation, and method of operation.

III. AUTOMOBILE PARKING CONTROLS. The governing body shall have the authority to adopt such bylaws and ordinances as are necessary to control the parking, standing and stopping of automobiles within the town limits, including ordinances allowing for the towing or immobilization of automobiles for nonpayment of parking fines and creating parking fines recoverable by means of civil process.

For violations for which any penalty provided in the bylaws is $500 or less, the official designated in the bylaws as the enforcement authority may issue a summons and notice of fine as provided in RSA 502-A:19-b, except that a copy of the fines for violations of the local bylaws shall be substituted for the uniform fine schedule. Defendants who are issued such summons and notice of fine may plead guilty or nolo contendere by mail by entering a plea as provided in RSA 502-A:19-b. If the plea is accepted by the court, the defendant shall not be required to appear unless directed by the court.

9 Entertainment and Entertainers. Amend RSA 179:19, V to read as follows:

V. On-sale or off-sale licensees may install amusement machines on their premises. 10 Parking Enforcement Provisions. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 231:132-a to read as follows:

11 Equipment of Vehicles; Special Permits. Amend RSA 266:24, 1 to read as follows:

1. Any person wishing to move objects having a weight, width, height or length greater than prescribed by this chapter, or wishing to move vehicle and load of which the weight, width, height, or length cannot be so distributed that it will meet the requirements of this chapter, may apply to the commissioner of transportation for a permit to move said object or said vehicle and load upon a way. The commissioner of transportation, with the approval of the director, may grant a permit for the moving of said object or vehicle and load upon a specified way and at a specified time if, in ~~[his]~~ the commissioner's opinion, it will not be detrimental to the preservation of the ~~[said]~~ way and the public use thereof. Provided, that the applicant, if required by ~~[said]~~ the commissioner and director, shall file a bond to cover any possible damage to the ways or to the bridges over which the object or vehicle and load to be moved may pass and shall fulfill such rules as may be prescribed by ~~[said]~~ the commissioner of transportation and director; and further provided that the commissioner of transportation or the director of the division may require a hearing before granting ~~[said]~~ the permit. After deduction of expenses enumerated above, fines and forfeitures collected by the clerk for violations of municipal ordinances, codes, or regulations, except those adopted ~~[pursuant to RSA 31:39, I(g); RSA 41:11; RSA 47:17, IV, VI, VII, or VIII]~~ under RSA 41:11, and those regulating operation of vehicles, use of public ways, and traffic devices and signals, and those adopted under RSA 105:6-7, shall be remitted within 14 days to the treasurer of the municipality prosecuting said violations, for the use of the municipality. All expenses related to the processing of parking violations and the administrative collection of parking fines shall be the responsibility of the local unit of government, and all fines collected shall be retained in their entirety by the local unit of government.

SPECIAL ORDER

HB 536, authorizing municipalities to exempt from the local property tax personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: In order to further the state's policy of promoting the development of a competitive electric supply market in New Hampshire and to give municipalities the ability to attract new electric generation facilities and retain existing generation facilities that have become subject to the economic pressures of a deregulated market, the general court believes that it is desirable to give municipalities the authority to exempt from taxation certain personal property that is used in the manufacture of electricity.

This bill gives the governing body the authority to determine an exemption. The amendment sets up that the determination requires approval by the legislative body of the municipality.

The determination for exemption may be applied to new construction of electric generating facilities, to retain existing electric generation facilities or to foster economic development.

At least four items must be disclosed to and approved by the legislative body: fair market value of equipment exempted, the term of the exemption, any agreement for payments of taxes, and/or agreement for payment in lieu of taxes.

An additional amendment to sunset the availability of this option on July 1, 2004 was adopted by the committee. If an exemption is granted by the legislative body, the agreement is not subject to the sunset date. Vote 11-4.

Amendment adopted House Journal 18, 5/20/99.

The question now being the adoption of the report.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Packard moved that HB 536, authorizing municipalities to exempt from the local property tax personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power, be laid on the table. Adopted.

HB 649-FN, relative to air pollution emissions from small, high-polluting electricity generators. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE.

Rep. Terie T. Norelli for the Majority of Science, Technology and Energy: Due to high electric rates in the state, many businesses have begun to use internal combustion engine electricity generators, which have increased nitrogen oxide (NOx) emissions. The majority of the committee believes that increased use of these high NOx-emitting generators should be discouraged. This bill, as amended, would subject these sources to requirements more similar to those for larger electricity generators. The amendment represents a compromise reached among the Department of Environmental Services, users of these generating sources, and the committee. Users must acquire emission reduction credits or make a direct payment for each ton of NOx emitted. This would not apply for eight years to generating sources existing as of July 1, 1999, and would not apply for six years to generating sources which had filed an application for a permit as of May 1, 1999. In addition, the fees are phased in over a five-year period for new sources. Funds collected under this legislation would be deposited in a NOx emissions reduction fund and used to reduce NOx emissions by electricity generation sources. Vote 13-3.

Rep. Thomas A. Varrell for the Minority of Science, Technology and Energy: This bill was hotly debated within the committee and various votes were taken during debate. The vote spread ranged from 8-7 to ITL, to the final vote of 13-3 OTP. Most of the debate centered around the implementation time frame. However, the most important aspect of the bill was generally overlooked. The major problem is the inability to accurately measure and evaluate the emissions from each and every generation site within the state. Due to the geography, topography and highly diverse synoptic and climatic nature of the state, it would be impossible to establish a baseline emission level, which would be accurate, fair, and equitable to each and every generating site however large or small. Every site would require its own unique baseline emission level, and would need to monitor all emission and pollution levels even during periods when the generator was shut down. Since we would need to monitor at least 100 or more actual emission sites, we would also need pollution measuring sites in locations outside the influence of any of these generating sites. In other words, the Bow Power Station baseline level would differ significantly from the baseline level at Concord Airport only a very few miles away. The Department of Environmental Services would have to establish a significant number of continuous monitoring sites, which would have to be manned and evaluated on a continuing basis. The fiscal impact would be significant and this cost could probably not be passed onto the site owner/operator since it would probably constitute an unfunded mandate. The implementation of this bill might be possible in a geographical and topographical homogeneous state, such as Kansas or Nebraska, where the only significant changes would be seasonal and daily synoptic changes; however, it cannot work here in New Hampshire.

Amendment (1345h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to nitrogen oxide emissions from electricity generation.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose.

I. The general court finds that due to high retail rates in the state, many businesses have sought to control their electric costs by use of internal combustion engine electricity generators that run on fossil fuels. These generators have increased nitrogen oxide (NOx) emissions and use of additional units has the future potential to substantially increase such emissions and to increase electric rates for customers purchasing electricity from sources subject to more stringent NOx regulations. The general court therefore finds that electricity generation equipment, defined as NOx-emitting generation sources, shall be subject to NOx emission requirements more similar to requirements for larger electricity generators that are NOx budget sources. The general court also finds that, as an alternative to such requirements, the owners of such sources may make certain payments to assist in NOx emission reduction from such generators.

II. The general court further finds that the need for such generation equipment, due to its direct link to high electricity rates, may accelerate unless there is a resolution of the excessive rates plaguing many New Hampshire customers. If settlements cannot be reached that effectively lower rates, the general court may need to consider legislation in the next session that would create special rate structures that would minimize the incentive for customers to install this type of generation.

2 New Paragraph; Definitions; NOx-Emitting Generation Source. Amend RSA 125-J:1 by inserting after paragraph XIX-b the following new paragraph:

XIX-c "NOx-emitting generation source" means any source which generates electricity for use or sale, except for sources which meet the definition of a NOx budget source. NOx-emitting generation source shall not include any generators which:

(a) Serve as an electrical or mechanical power source when the primary power source is unavailable;

(b) Are used as a start-up or a temporary supply of power to a facility which generates electricity for use or sale;

(c) Are used as a portable generator;

(d) Emit, in total from the facility, 5 tons of NOx or less per calendar year; or

(e) Are located in an area where electrical power is not reasonably or, considering the type of power needed by the user, reliably available.

3 New Section; NOx-Emitting Generation Source Requirements; Rulemaking. Amend RSA 125-J by inserting after section 12 the following new sections:

125-J:13 NOx-Emitting Generation Source Requirements.

I. Each NOx-emitting generation source emitting more than 7 pounds of NOx per megawatt hour generated shall be required to supply to the department NOx emissions information, and the amount of kilowatt hours actually produced during each period listed in subparagraph II(b). Additionally, except as provided either by paragraph I or II of this section, each NOx-emitting generation source shall acquire NOx budget allowances, emissions reduction credits, or other emissions reduction mechanisms on the same basis as a NOx budget source for all of its NOx emissions. However, NOx-emitting generation sources shall not be required to acquire NOx budget allowances, emissions reduction credits, or use emissions reduction mechanisms for the first 7 pounds of NOx emitted for each megawatt-hour of electricity produced and any amounts of NOx above such first 7 pounds that are attributable to the provision of other, non-electric services provided by the generating source, including but not limited to, steam and heat, and any amounts of NOx emitted during any period when the NOx-emitting generation source is operating to provide power during a power shortage at the request of any governmental authority or provider of electrical power to the public generally.

II.(a) NOx-emitting generation sources may, at the option of the generation source, make a direct payment for each ton of NOx emitted which would otherwise require the acquisition and use of emissions reduction mechanisms in accordance with paragraph I, in lieu of acquiring emissions reduction mechanisms.

(b) The payment provided for in subparagraph II(a) shall be made annually and shall be equal to the number of tons of NOx emitted by the NOx-emitting generation source, less the tons of NOx not requiring emission reduction mechanisms under paragraph I, times a fee of $200 per ton for tons emitted during the period running May 1 to September 30 and a fee of $100 per ton for tons emitted during the period running October 1 to April 30. These fees shall increase by adding $200 to the May 1 to September 30 period fee each year for 4 years, and by adding $100 to the October 1 to April 30 period fee each year for 4 years, such that at the end of the 4 years the fee for the period running May 1 to September 30 will be capped at $1,000 per ton and the fee for the period running October 1 to April 30 will be capped at $500 per ton.

(c) There is hereby established the nitrogen oxide emissions reduction fund. This nonlapsing, revolving special fund shall be continually appropriated to be expended by the department of environmental services in accordance with this section. The state treasurer shall invest the moneys so deposited as provided by law. Interest received on investments made by the state treasurer shall also be credited to the fund. All payments collected by the department under this paragraph shall be deposited in the nitrogen oxide emissions reduction fund and used to reduce NOx emissions by NOx-emitting generation sources. Fund moneys may be used for:

(1) The acquisition and retirement of NOx emissions reduction mechanisms by the department;

(2) Financial assistance for the purchase of NOx-emitting generation source equipment to obtain NOx emissions reductions from NOx-emitting generation sources located within the state, including but not limited to new technologies for such emissions control; and

(3) Refunds to NOx-emitting generation sources in proportion to their electric generation.

(d) If any governmental authority imposes NOx emissions reduction requirements applicable to facilities that are also NOx-emitting generation sources, then any emission reductions produced or secured under paragraph I shall be credited as emission reductions produced or secured by the NOx-emitting generation sources that made the reduction and any emission reductions produced or secured under paragraph II shall be credited as emission reductions produced or secured by all NOx-emitting generation sources in proportion to their payments to the dedicated fund.

III. The provisions of paragraphs I and II shall not apply:

(a) For a period of 8 years from the effective date of this section, to any electricity generating source which existed as of July 1, 1999, was permitted by the department, whether on a temporary or permanent basis, including any permit renewal or modification, whether applied for or issued, pertaining to any such generating source; and

(b) For a period of 6 years from the effective date of this section, to any electricity generating source which, as of May 1, 1999, filed an application for a permit with the division containing substantial but not necessarily complete information.

125-J:14 NOx-Emitting Generation Source Rulemaking. The commissioner shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A relative to:

I. Forms and procedures for submission of kilowatt hour data required by RSA 125-J:13, I, payments under RSA 125-J:13, II, and forms, procedures, and identification of NOx emissions information required by RSA 125-J:13, I; and

II. Forms, procedures, administration, and use of the nitrogen oxide emissions reduction fund.

4 New Subparagraph; Nitrogen Oxide Emissions Reduction Fund Created. Amend RSA 6:12, I by inserting after subparagraph (www) the following new subparagraph:

(xxx) Moneys received by the department of environmental services under RSA 125-J:13, II, which shall be credited to the nitrogen oxide emissions reduction fund.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires any new NOx-emitting generation source to supply NOx emissions information and acquire NOx budget allowances or other emissions reduction mechanisms.

This bill requires such sources to make a direct payment to the department which shall be credited to a special fund, for each ton of NOx emitted if emissions reduction mechanisms are not utilized, and provides a formula for the calculation of such fees.

This bill also defines NOx-emitting generation source.

Adopted.

Rep. Varrell spoke against.

Rep. MacGillivray spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Varrell requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

HB 724-FN, relative to an industry average performance system for comprehensive air pollution regulation. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE. Rep. Roy D. Maxfield for the Majority of Science, Technology and Energy: This bill would have established an Industry-Average Performance System (IAPS) for air pollution regulation. Although the committee agrees that IAPS is an innovative concept, there are several issues with this legislation that would be inappropriate for the State at this time. Geographical issues raised with this legislation require regional consensus to make it viable. Substantial costs would be incurred by the State Motor Vehicle Department in establishing and monitoring registration guidelines for controlled vehicles. Finally, our current energy industry consists of one major electricity producer. Previous agreements providing substantial emission reduction by this producer would be compromised. Vote 14-3. Rep. Donald B. White for the Minority of Science, Technology and Energy: This bill should be re-referred for additional statistical information to provide a bill that truly attacks air pollution problems with respect to utilities, automobiles, and especially diesel trucks, the most significant polluters today. Failure to address this problem fully (there is a very weak RSA) allows diesel operators and their lobbyists another two years to corrupt our atmosphere and not lift a finger to help beyond an absolute minimum. The utility is trying to improve and is spending money to do so. This is not the cause of the reluctant diesel lobby.

Majority report adopted.

HB 281-A, making a capital appropriation for the expansion of veterans' home facilities. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: This bill would provide a much needed expansion and improvement to the New Hampshire Veterans' Home, particularly in the dementia facility. This proposal was the result of study the last two years that identified the need for 100 additional beds with at least 50 beds for dementia patients. The cost is approximately $10 million, with the federal share $6.5 million, and the state's share $3.5 million. The committee voted with overwhelming support to include this project in the Capital Improvement Budget, HB 25-A, which the House approved on May 13, 1999. Therefore, this bill is no longer needed. Vote 21-0.

Rep. Leber spoke to the bill.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 20

Wednesday, June 9, 1999

The House assembled at 1:00 p.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

Compassionate God, on this wonderfully cooler New Hampshire day, we give You thanks for our many blessings. We ask that You bless the members of this General Court as they seek to represent the people of their communities. Bless their families and those they love. Be present today, we pray, with those Representatives who are facing any personal pain or illness. Especially, we remember Robert Milligan, Norma Sabella, Phil McColgan and Sharon Nordgren. Today's House Calendar brings many issues before this historic Legislature, and most importantly, issues which will help to shape New Hampshire's state budget for the coming year. Enable, O Lord, each of the peoples' Representatives to make the best decision possible, knowing that the way they spend the revenues of our beloved state will affect the quality of life for all our citizens. Bless the people of our beloved state and all who serve the public good. May we not rest until all the people of this land share the benefits of true freedom and gladly accept its disciplines. Amen.

HB 200-FN-L, relative to restructuring the juvenile justice system in New Hampshire. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Laura G. Pantelakos for Children and Family Law: The committee feels this bill has a lot of merit, but it needs a lot of work. If we are able to refer this back to committee we would be able to work on it this summer and bring it back next session. Vote 13-0.

SB 137-FN, relative to use of social security numbers in child support enforcement and in the issuance of driver's licenses. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Edward P. Moran for Children and Family Law: The majority of the committee had serious reservations about privacy issues presented by the bill. As 1 October 2000 is the federal deadline for state implementation of the use of social security numbers on all driver's license applications, the committee felt there was time to explore limiting the scope of this bill as well as ascertain the success of federal efforts to modify this requirement in the interim. Vote 11-2.

SB 150, making certain reference changes to the department of youth development services. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Thomas I. Arnold, Jr. for Children and Family Law: This bill makes a number of technical changes to be consistent with current law and enhances the ability to correct certain shortcomings revealed in the November '98 Performance Audit of the Juvenile Justice Organization. Vote 13-0.

AN ACT establishing a committee to study all aspects of the condominium act established under RSA 356-B.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill creates a committee to study all aspects of the condominium act established under RSA 356-B.

HB 331, relative to auto leasing. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: The bill requires further disclosure to consumers of leased vehicles. We are adding to the list of fees to be disclosed when signing an auto lease any settlement costs expected. The amendment adds to this requirement a new disclosure to any lessee or buyer of a vehicle that installation of equipment or parts after it leaves the factory may void the factory warranty. Failure to provide this disclosure will result in the auto dealer being held responsible for the remainder of the warranty and any loss in residual value of a leased vehicle. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1394h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to voiding warranties on leased or purchased motor vehicles where any additional equipment is installed after leaving the factory, and creating penalties for failure to disclose this information to consumers.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I New Section; Restriction on Certain Fees to be Collected at Culmination of Lease. Amend RSA 361-D by inserting after section 28 the following new section:

361-D:29 Restriction on Certain Fees to be Collected at Culmination of Lease. No final settlement costs shall be assessed to the lessee at the culmination of the lease other than those attributable to excessive wear or damage, or depreciation costs in early lease terminations or any other final settlement costs as disclosed to the lessee at the inception of the lease, in accordance with RSA 361-D:17, III. All such final settlement costs shall be itemized and disclosed in plain 12-point type on a separate disclosure statement included in the lease contract and signed by the lessee at the inception of the lease.

2 Lease Agreement; Form and Contents; Requirement for Disclosure Concerning Void of Warranties Where Any Equipment is Added to Leased Vehicle. Amend RSA 361-D:3, III(1) to read as follows:

(1) A statement identifying all express warranties and guarantees made by the manufacturer or lessor with respect to the leased motor vehicle, except when the standard manufacturer's warranty applies, then the warranty may be identified by a reference to the standard manufacturer's warranty, and identifying the party responsible for maintaining or servicing the leased property together with a description of the responsibility. The lease agreement shall also include a disclosure statement which notifies the lessee that warranties on the motor vehicle may be void in the event of installation of any equipment after the vehicle leaves the factory. Failure to notify the lessee shall result in the lessor being made responsible for the loss of any residual value assessed at the outset of the lease.

3 New Paragraph; Enforcement of Warranties; Requirement for Disclosure Concerning Void of Warranties Where Any Equipment is Added to Purchased Vehicle. Amend RSA 357-D:3 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

II-a. Sellers or lessors of motor vehicles shall disclose to the consumer that warranties on purchased or leased motor vehicles may be void in the event of installation of any equipment installed after the vehicle leaves the factory. Failure to notify purchasers or lessees shall subject the dealer to the following penalties:

(a) The motor vehicle dealer shall be responsible for honoring the remainder of the warranty.

(b) Lessors shall be responsible for the loss of any residual value, as defined in RSA 361-D:1, XII, assessed for the vehicle.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides for voiding warranties on leased or purchased motor vehicles where any additional equipment is installed after leaving the factory and provides penalties for failure to disclose this information to consumers.

SB 59-L, relative to bonding of animal owners convicted of animal cruelty. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Everett A. Weare for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill adds a paragraph to RSA 644:8IV which says the following: "If a person convicted of cruelty to animals appeals the conviction and any confiscated animal remains in the custody of the arresting officer or the officer's designee pending disposition of the appeal, in order for the appellant to maintain a future interest in the animal, the trial court may require the appellant to post a bond or other security in an amount not exceeding $2,000 for each animal in custody for costs expected to be incurred for the board and care of the animal during appeal. If the conviction is affirmed on appeal, the costs incurred for the board and care of the animal shall be paid to the custodian from the posted security and the balance, if any, returned to the person who posted it". As you can see from this new paragraph, we are talking about 3 issues. One, if the person appeals a conviction, two, if the person wants to maintain an interest in the animal and third they pay for the custodial costs during the appeal. The committee felt this was appropriate relief because the person who appeals has already been convicted and some offenders are using the present law as a tool to rack up expenses so a prosecutor will strike a deal to save the department money it really does not have. There was no testimony against the bill. Vote 13-1.

SB 163, establishing a commission to study methods for reducing violent incidents involving children and guns. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Frank D. Callaghan for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill was heard on May 12, 1999. The bill establishes a commission to study the issues of violent incidents involving children and firearms. There are many members included on this commission to study an issue that has become front-page news during the last few months. The committee amendment adds a rep-representative of a firearms manufacturer, a federally licensed firearms dealer, five members of the general public, three of whom shall be mental health practitioners specializing in child and adolescent mental health, and four additional members of an organized sportsman's club to represent each executive councilor district. (5) An extreme effort has been made to have members of all stakeholders in the issue represented as well as regional areas within the State of New Hampshire. The duty of the commission is to identify the problems associated with violent incidents involving our children, suggest programs that would help to reduce or minimize the causes of the extreme violence manifesting itself in our youthful society. The committee believes that to focus merely on the objects used by violent children does not begin to solve the underlying behavioral patterns that have been the central point of shocking news accounts of incidents in our state's schools. The committee further believes that there are programs in place elsewhere that can be identified as successful and might be replicated in our state. The commission will report its findings after extensive study of violent incidents and suggest methods to reduce such violent behavior that may or may not necessitate legislation. The commission is constituted of professionals and lay persons from a cross section of our society and can invite others to participate. There is no quorum requirement, which means that those members of the commission that make an effort to attend and participate will not be hindered when some appointees fail to attend. This commission is focused on producing results that can be translated into action to identify sources of problems and sources of solutions. In the past the general court has had legislation before it that would have made parents criminally responsible for the actions of their children. This has usually been unsuccessful. Children need to be accountable for their actions and realize that there are consequences to bad behavior. Parents need to know that their responsibility is to prepare children to be responsible citizens and that they are responsible for some of the poor choices that their children make. It is hoped that this commission will succeed in bringing all parties together to work toward a common solution Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1461h)

Amend paragraph I of section 2 by replacing it with the following:

I. The members of the commission shall be as follows:

- (a) Two members of the senate, who shall be selected from the judiciary committee, appointed by the president of the senate.
- (b) Two members of the house of representatives, who shall be selected from the criminal justice and public safety committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.
- (c) The commissioner of the department of safety, or designee.
- (d) The commissioner of the department of education, or designee.
- (e) The attorney general, or designee.
- (f) The president of the County Attorneys Association, or designee.
- (g) A representative of a sportsman's club from each executive councilor district, appointed by the governor.
- (h) The president of Gun Owners of New Hampshire, or designee.
- (i) A representative of the Injury Prevention Center at Lahey-Hitchcock Medical Center.
- (j) A representative of the New Hampshire School Boards Association.
- (k) A representative from the New Hampshire School Administrators Association.

SB 92-FN, relative to education grants funded by the companion animal neutering fund. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Suzan L.R. Franks for Environment and Agriculture: This act would dedicate funds presently used to spay and neuter cats and dogs towards heightening public awareness of the need for animal neutering.

Currently, the state veterinarian provides brochures covering the program, and testified that he believes that these dollars would be best maintained for spaying and neutering cats and dogs. Therefore, the Committee believes this bill should be found inexpedient to legislate at the present time. Vote 15-0.

SB 57, permitting challenges to judges. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert H. Rowe for Judiciary: This bill would permit each party in a court case one challenge to the justice assigned to the case for any reason whatsoever. Presently, statutes allow for a request of recusal for cause. Judges may recuse themselves whenever a conflict arises. The committee feels that were this bill to pass it would be disruptive to the justice system particularly in less populated areas of the state where the number of judges is limited. It would also cause delays in trials thus inconveniencing litigants and greater expense to the public and the judicial system. The committee feels that a more narrowly structured bill may be the appropriate route to pursue on this subject matter. Vote 14-1.

SB 67, limiting liability resulting from the use of automatic external defibrillation. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James W. Craig for Judiciary: It is the intent of this legislation to encourage the use and availability of automatic external defibrillators (AED's). AED's are medical devices which are capable of determining if defibrillation should be performed and then automatically delivering an electric impulse which hopefully restarts the heart. The bill provides immunity for any person using an AED in an emergency situation absent gross negligence. It also requires those expecting to use AED's to receive training in CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) and AED operation. The committee basically rewrote the senate version to include an "intent" section, a concise definition of "automatic external defibrillation", and a section requiring training in CPR and AED operation. Vote 12-1.

Amendment (1431h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I New Subdivision; Automatic External Defibrillation. Amend RSA 151-B by inserting after section 24 the following new subdivision:

Automatic External Defibrillation

151-B:25 Intent.

I. The use of automatic external defibrillators addresses an important public health problem in New Hampshire. It is the intent of the legislature to encourage the use and availability of automatic external defibrillators, along with training in the use of automatic external defibrillators, for the purpose of saving the lives of people in cardiac arrest.

II. Further, the legislature strongly encourages dissemination of educational information regarding automatic external defibrillators and encourages that access to these lifesaving devices be made widely available to businesses, schools, fire and police departments, and other public and private organizations throughout the state.

151-B:26 Definitions. For purposes of this subdivision, "automatic external defibrillator" means a medical device which combines a heart monitor and defibrillator and:

- I. Has been approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration;
- II. Is capable of recognizing the presence or absence of ventricular fibrillation;
- III. Is capable of determining whether defibrillation should be performed; and
- IV. Automatically charges and requests delivery of an electrical impulse to an individual's heart, upon determination that defibrillation should be performed.

151-B:27 Every person, association, corporation or other organization that acquires an automatic external defibrillator shall require every individual expected to use the automatic external defibrillator to receive training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and automatic external defibrillator use.

151-B:28 Liability Limited. Any person who, in good faith and without compensation, renders emergency care by the use of an automatic external defibrillator shall not be liable for civil damages for any acts or omissions unless the acts or omissions were grossly negligent or willful and wanton. Any person, association, corporation or other organization that acquires and maintains an automatic external defibrillator for emergency care shall not be liable for civil damages other than for gross negligence or willful and wanton acts or omission. This section does not limit civil liability protection provided by any other law.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SB 146, granting district courts exclusive jurisdiction over actions involving certain real estate purchase deposits held in escrow accounts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Sandra B. Keans for Judiciary: The Real Estate Commission worked with the courts to come to a solution that does not require new legislation. The anecdotal evidence suggests that some escrow cases involving real estate were automatically being moved up to superior court even though only those needing a jury trial or with title disputes have to be. Other cases can and should be handled in district court. The administrative judge of the district courts has agreed to issue instructional materials to all court personnel explaining the circumstances when cases need to be sent to superior court. Vote 14-0.

SB 159, relative to early reduction of greenhouse gases. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Jeb E. Bradley for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill authorizes the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services (DES) to establish a registry for sources of greenhouse emissions that voluntarily wish to reduce such emissions. Use of a registry would allow emissions sources to receive credit for voluntary emissions reductions in the event there are national greenhouse gas standards in the future. Use of a registry would establish an emissions baseline, which would quantify and document achieved reductions. In the event of national controls on greenhouse gases, a source would be able to receive credit for reductions already made voluntarily. In the public hearing there was no opposition to the bill due to its strictly voluntary nature and the fact that a registry offers protection for quantified emission reductions. It was indeed supported by both the environmental and business communities. DES testified that creation of this registry could be accomplished within existing departmental resources. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1467h)

Amend paragraph I of section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The general court assumes that, based on numerous ongoing scientific studies being conducted worldwide, there exists a possible human influence on global climatic change. The general court finds that it is in the best interest of the state of New Hampshire, the United States of America, and the earth as a whole, to encourage the voluntary undertaking of economically beneficial reductions of greenhouse gas emissions from New Hampshire sources.

Amend paragraph III of section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. The general court further finds that, although New Hampshire sources contribute only a minute proportion of the total greenhouse gases emitted annually in the United States and the world, the state's past initiative in undertaking early and responsible action to reduce its similarly minor contribution to other air pollution problems, including but not limited to acid rain, toxic air pollution, and ozone smog, has demonstrated political, economic, and technological leadership, which has served the state well in subsequent negotiations with other, more culpable jurisdictions and with the Environmental Protection Agency. The general court finds that the state's tradition of environmental leadership should be continued through the establishment of a registry to provide state recognition of early greenhouse gas emissions reductions voluntarily achieved by New Hampshire sources.

Amend RSA 125-L:1, IV as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. "Greenhouse gas" means but is not limited to such gases as carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide, hydrofluorocarbons, perfluorocarbons, or sulfur hexafluoride.

Amend RSA 125-L:2 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

125-L:2 Registry. In order to help protect the interests of New Hampshire sources and the state's economy under a future federal regulatory scheme relating to greenhouse gas emissions, and to help encourage the voluntary reduction of greenhouse gas emissions by New Hampshire sources, the department shall establish and administer a registry whereby sources of greenhouse gas emissions may record and register early, voluntary greenhouse gas emissions reductions made after 1990. The purpose of this registry shall be to help sources establish a baseline against which any future federal greenhouse gas emissions reduction requirements may apply.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Particulate Matter Registry Study. The commissioner of environmental services shall conduct a study to determine whether creating a particulate matter registry similar to the greenhouse gas registry established by RSA 125-L:2 as inserted by section 2 of this act would provide an overall benefit to the state. The commissioner shall report the results of this study, along with any recommendations for legislation, to the state library, the house science, technology and energy committee, and the senate environment committee on or before November 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a registry for voluntary greenhouse gas emission reductions in order to create an incentive for and reward those greenhouse gas sources which voluntarily reduce such emissions before being required to do so.

This bill also requires the commissioner of environmental services to conduct a study to determine whether creating a particulate matter registry similar to the greenhouse gas emissions registry would provide an overall benefit to the state.

HB 301, relative to burials and funerals at the New Hampshire state veterans cemetery. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Dennis H. Fields for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This is a policy stating a veteran shall be entitled to burial within a reasonable time after notification to appropriate cemetery personnel by a funeral director or a family member of the veteran, provided weather conditions permit the burial. This bill gives the family of the deceased veteran the option of a chapel service or graveside service. The state shall not be responsible for any costs associated with a funeral service not offered by any federal cemetery. The amendment solely changes the effective date from 60 days after passage to immediately upon passage. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1428h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; State Veterans Cemetery; Burials and Funeral Services. Amend RSA 110-B:77 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. A veteran shall be entitled to burial within a reasonable time after notification to appropriate cemetery personnel by a funeral director or a family member of the veteran, provided that weather conditions permit the burial. The family of the deceased veteran shall have the option of a chapel service or graveside service. The service may contain any or all customs and practices usual at a military funeral, including but not limited to, gun salutes, honor guards, and the playing of taps. The state shall not be responsible for any costs associated with a funeral service that is not offered by any federal cemetery.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

HB 665, relative to the New Hampshire emergency management compact with other jurisdictions. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Margaret E. Lynott for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This bill makes laws governing the state's emergency management compact consistent with laws of cooperating jurisdictions for the purpose of providing mutual assistance between jurisdictions when a disaster or emergency occurs. This emergency management assistance compact would, when entered into by and between the participating party jurisdictions, include 13 articles of compliance. Vote 18-1.

HCR 7, urging the federal government not to adopt certain proposed rules requiring financial institutions to monitor their customers' banking habits. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Margaret E. Lynott for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This resolution sends a message to the federal government that the citizens of New Hampshire do not want rules implemented that would require the financial institutions to monitor customer's banking habits based on their deposit and withdrawal patterns in its attempt to identify illegal sources of funds. Such a role is unnecessary and interferes with private contractual relationships. It is an invasion of privacy. It amounts to an illegal search and seizure and is a violation of the fourth amendment of the United States Constitution. The amendment changes the language in the resolution from present to the future as this proposal was withdrawn at the federal level. Vote 18-1.

Amendment (0867h)

Amend the title of the resolution by replacing it with the following:

A RESOLUTION urging the federal government not to adopt rules requiring financial institutions to monitor their customers' banking habits.

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the title with the following:

Whereas, the federal government was proposing to adopt rules requiring financial institutions first to monitor their customers' banking habits by determining their deposit and withdrawal patterns and second to attempt to identify the source of funds of some customers' deposits; and

Whereas, financial institutions might have been required not to do business with customers who out of concern for the privacy of their financial transactions refuse to provide information about their account activity; and

Whereas, the purpose of these proposed rules was to uncover illegal money laundering activities; and

Whereas, these proposed rules would have compelled private financial institutions to become investigative arms of the federal government; and

Whereas, these proposed rules could have been readily circumvented by those engaged in illegal money laundering, leaving honest customers to bear unnecessarily their continuing burden; and

Whereas, the federal government would have then been in possession of information to which it had no right and which it might find itself tempted to use for other purposes without the account holders' knowledge or permission; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

That such proposed involvement in the future by the federal government in the financial lives of the residents of our state:

(a) Is an unnecessary interference in private contractual relationships;

(b) Is an inappropriate and unacceptable invasion of privacy of the residents of this state that far outweighs any law enforcement objectives;

(c) Is an illegal search and seizure in violation of the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution; and

That such or any similar involvement in the future by the federal government in the lives of the residents of our state must never be allowed to occur; and

That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the house clerk to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, the members of the New Hampshire congressional delegation, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This house concurrent resolution urges the federal government not to adopt rules requiring financial institutions to monitor their customers' banking habits.

HCR 11, urging Congress and the Internal Revenue Service to modify tax laws to broaden the ability of taxpayers to make tax-deductible contributions to Nuclear Decommissioning Reserve Funds. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Dennis H. Fields for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This resolution urges the Internal Revenue Service to change its regulations with regard to use of a qualified trust for purposes of funding nuclear plant decommissioning. Currently there would be a tax penalty if a state chose to accelerate funding for nuclear decommissioning to a period shorter than the expected life of the plant. This possible tax penalty would discourage state efforts to accelerate decommissioning if a state chooses to do so. Many of the nation's nuclear plants have closed prematurely while several are seeking permit extensions. The committee believes states should be able to control the decommissioning process without facing tax penalties. The committee is also aware that utilities throughout the nation are urging the adoption of this common sense policy by the Internal Revenue Service. Vote 15-0.

HJR 4, urging the federal government to support telephone number conservation. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Dean Ouellette for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: A similar bill has already passed the House and is before the Senate. The committee felt this bill would be a duplicate and is not needed. Vote 15-2.

SJR 1, supporting the reduction of the sulfur content of gasoline. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Griffin Dalianis for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This resolution seeks to persuade the US Congress to support reducing sulfur content in gasoline. Sulfur is harmful because it renders a car's catalytic converter inactive. Sulfur also is a major contributor to haze and acid rain, which causes impacts to our tourism and natural resource industry. DES testimony stated that sulfur reduction would cost one to two cents. Vote 16-0.

REGULAR CALENDARHB 399, allowing the secretary of state to have flexibility in moving the date of New Hampshire's presidential primary. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James R. Splaine for Election Law: After several hours of discussion and public hearings, the committee unanimously recommends this important bill for passage. The bill, as amended, will do four (4) things that will contribute toward preserving the integrity and credibility of the NH First-In-The-Nation Presidential Primary for Year 2000 and beyond: 1.) It gives additional flexibility to the Secretary of State to move the NH presidential primary to a date that is "7 days or more immediately preceding the date on which any other state shall hold a similar election." This provision gives a clear message to presidential candidates, their organizations and the other states that New Hampshire is ready and willing to move its primary ahead as necessary to protect our "first" status. 2.) It gives greater flexibility to the Secretary of State by allowing the NH presidential primary to be held in "the year previous" to the year in which the president is chosen. The current law restricts the primary to the year in which the president is chosen. This provision makes it clear to other states that should they try to set a primary or similar election prior to our scheduled date, that we would be ready and willing to move our primary, as needed, to protect our "first" status. 3.) It moves the filing period for candidates running for president up a month and expands the filing period by a week, to the first Monday in November for a three-week filing period. Current law begins the filing period at the first Monday in December for a two-week filing period. 4.) Perhaps most important, the bill creates a "Findings and Purpose" opening clause, which encourages all presidential candidates to honor the tradition of the NH First-In-The-Nation Presidential Primary by asking that they not participate in any primary which is held by another state within seven days after New Hampshire. The Findings and Purpose clause states: "The general court finds that it is imperative to support the tradition of the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation presidential primary and to encourage candidates to honor the law which requires that New Hampshire's primary precede any similar election by 7 days. New Hampshire has held its presidential primary 7 or more days before the primary of any other state since at least 1920, and has statutorily required such precedence since 1976. However, recent efforts by other states to usurp New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation primary status necessitates legislative action to preserve the history, integrity and tradition of the New Hampshire primary. In lieu of substantial changes to the law of this state, however, the general court prefers to rely on the cooperation of candidates willing to declare their support for the first-in-the-nation primary tradition by pledging not to file or campaign in any state that holds its primary within 7 days of New Hampshire. It is, therefore, the intent of the general court to encourage candidates to honor the New Hampshire primary tradition, while establishing greater flexibility for the secretary of state in determining the presidential primary state." By providing for this unique "Findings and Purpose" clause, this bill will encourage candidates not to take part in the primary of another state that may choose to come within 7 days of our primary. It was the consensus of the committee that the New Hampshire First-In-The-Nation Presidential Primary could become meaningless and irrelevant unless we are able to get the cooperation of other states and candidates in the way detailed by this bill. If we encourage presidential candidates not to participate in other primaries that come with 7 days of New Hampshire's primary, we will protect the integrity, credibility and tradition of our "first" status. Vote 19-0.

Amendment (1304h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT allowing the secretary of state to have flexibility in moving the date of New Hampshire's presidential primary and changing the filing period for declarations of candidacy for candidates for president and vice-president at the presidential primary.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings and Purpose. The general court finds that it is imperative to support the tradition of the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation presidential primary and to encourage candidates to honor the law which requires that New Hampshire's primary precede any similar election by 7 days. New Hampshire has held its presidential primary 7 or more days before the primary of any other state since at least 1920, and has statutorily required such precedence since 1976. However, recent efforts by other states to usurp New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation primary status necessitate legislative action to preserve the history, integrity, and tradition of the New Hampshire primary. In lieu of substantial changes to the law of this state, however, the general court prefers to rely on the cooperation of candidates willing to declare their support for the first-in-the-nation primary tradition by pledging not to file or campaign in any state that holds its primary within 7 days of New Hampshire. It is therefore the intent of the general court to encourage candidates to honor the New Hampshire primary tradition, while establishing greater flexibility for the secretary of state in determining the presidential primary date.

2 Elections; Election of Officers and Delegates; Election Dates; Presidential Primary Election; Selection by Secretary of State. Amend RSA 653:9 to read as follows:

653:9 Presidential Primary Election. The presidential primary election shall be held on the second Tuesday in March or on [the] a Tuesday selected by the secretary of state which is [at least] 7 days or more immediately preceding the date on which any other state shall hold a similar election, whichever is earlier, of each year when a president of the United States is to be elected or the year previous. Said primary shall be held in connection with the regular March town meeting or election or, if held on any other day, at a special election called by the secretary of state for that purpose.

3 Elections; Nominations; Presidential Nominations; Declaration of Candidacy; Filing Period. Amend RSA 655:47, II to read as follows:

II. Declarations of candidacy shall be filed between the first Monday in [December and the Friday of the following week] November and the third Friday in November.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill permits the secretary of state to select a date for the presidential primary which is on a Tuesday 7 days or more prior to a similar election in any other state and provides that the presidential primary may be held in the year prior to a presidential election year. This bill also changes the filing period for declarations of candidacy for candidates for president and vice-president at the presidential primary election from December to November.

Adopted.

Reps. Splaine, Guay and Arndt spoke in favor.

Rep. Flanagan requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

REMARKS

Rep. Letourneau moved that the remarks made by Reps. Splaine, Guay and Arndt on House Bill 399 be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Splaine: Thank you, Madam Speaker and members of the House. This, I think, will be a rather quick debate and dialogue. The committee has done some tremendous work on this during the past several months. In over six hours of discussion and public hearing, we tried to figure out how we could maintain, preserve and protect the "First-in-the-Nation" status for New Hampshire. Because it is so important that we give a positive message to other states with this bill or whatever we may pass, the committee is taking an unusual step in asking, as a committee, for a roll call so that we can let after this legislation passes, should it pass, other states know of New Hampshire's determination to protect and preserve our "First-in-the-Nation" status. I just have a couple of things to say about this legislation. First, to bring you up-to-date with something very important is how we got here from there. The New Hampshire Primary is part of New Hampshire's tradition. As we saw people recognized earlier today, it is something that sets us apart from the rest of the country, the rest of this nation. We have had a primary that has come first since 1920 when we started sending delegates to the national Democratic and Republican conventions. In 1952, a second important date in the New Hampshire Presidential Primary history, we had a process whereby the names of candidates running for President would now be placed on the ballot. That is the modern-day primary process that we experience. A third important time came in 1976 when legislation I sponsored guaranteed New Hampshire's "First-in-the-Nation" status by saying that we would, indeed, be one week ahead of any other state. If we had not done that in 1976 as a Legislature, I think we would have lost the primary during the past 25 years. And 1999 is a fourth important step. By passage of this legislation that the Committee is recommending, we are going to be able to negotiate with the other states and give our Secretary of State the flexibility he needs and the tools he needs to be able to keep New Hampshire first. This legislation does four things and we put it in the blurb so I didn't have to repeat it all to you. Number one, it lets the Secretary of State be able to move the primary seven days or more ahead of any other state. Right now, he is limited by law, the 1976 law I had sponsored, to seven days. Secondly, it allows the Secretary of State to be able to move it into the previous year, i.e., December, in order to be able to respond to other states that might try to predate us. Third, it changes the filing period from a current first Monday in December to the first Monday in November. This allows the candidates to get out there sooner and it also allows the Secretary of State to be able to adjust the primary date quicker should he need to. Fourth it encourages with, I think, an interesting approach, the "Findings and Purpose" clause at the beginning. It encourages the cooperation of all the presidential candidates to appreciate, recognize and accept the tradition of the New Hampshire "First-in-the-Nation" primary by agreeing not to participate or campaign in any other state that holds a similar election within seven days of New Hampshire. We are not asking them to pledge. We are not asking them to sign anything. We are asking through this legislation to respect our tradition. Let me close by saying that there are certainly plenty of reasons, I think all of us appreciate, that we remain first in the election process. It is good for democracy. As Hugh Gregg has told us a number of times, and he has been here today working on behalf of this legislation and Governor Shaheen supports this legislation and she said the same thing, too, that it provides a way for the candidates themselves to become a little bit educated as well as voters to become educated to the candidacies. When it gets beyond New Hampshire we don't have that luxury. They end up on airport campaigns. They end up hiding behind podiums. They end up in motorcades, but in New Hampshire they have to come onto our streets and sidewalks and into our living rooms and that is vitally important. By passage of this legislation, we can encourage states like Delaware not to try to come within the seven-day period of New Hampshire. Not saying that no other state should have a primary, but that there are other things that they can do such as caucuses and straw polls and respect the long-held, 80-year tradition of the New Hampshire "First-in-the-Nation" presidential primary. Thank you very much.

Rep. Guay: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Members of the House, I think that the primary in this state is very important for us in many categories. The reasons that I appear here before you today is relative to the three persons that you saw that served for a long, long time in the state as elected officials that we honored today. There is a gentleman Alcide Valliere, that wanted me to read a little message to you because he wanted to say so himself. But before I do that, I wanted to let you in on a little secret. When you get your Red Book and you see the picture where Alcide Valliere is and you look at the flag of the City of Berlin, on one side of the flag is my hand which you don't see holding that flag and on the other side of it is the ex-governor Gregg that's pulling on the other side and I'm telling him, "Hold it tight. Hold it tight." So, this is the little secret that's in this picture that you don't see. So we were making history there. Alcide Valliere has been honored to serve for 66 years. He wanted me to tell you, "I have worked as an election official in every presidential primary since the 1930s." He wants you to remember these words, "Long live the 'First-in-the-Nation' presidential primary." I hope today when we have a vote we have a good solid vote on this issue to show the rest of the nation that we mean business and we want to keep it here. Thank you.

Rep. Arndt: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Today, the Election Law Committee is asking you to join them in supporting House Bill 399 to help keep New Hampshire the "First-in-the-Nation" presidential primary. The committee has listened to hours of testimony from past as well as present participants in making New Hampshire "first." The citizens of our great state have done a commendable job for the nation, asking the tough questions and gleaning an accurate picture of candidates from which to choose. Much discussion ensued around ways to keep New Hampshire "first" as other states have and continue to challenge our position. When the final solution was agreed upon, the Election Law Committee unanimously supported the bill that you have before you. We are in a historic session. Let your vote today, to keep New Hampshire as the "First-in-the-Nation" presidential primary state, be historic in preserving our position for our citizens in the years to come. Please join our committee in the 19-0 vote of Ought to Pass.

HB 493-FN, relative to alteration of sample ballots. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Janet S. Arndt for Election Law: This bill prohibits the alteration of "official" sample ballots. The committee would like this bill re-referred in order to find a solution that will be enforceable and constitutional. Vote 9-3.

Adopted.

SB 195-FN-A, appropriating funds for sludge testing. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Betty B. Hall for Environment and Agriculture: Testing the quality of sludge is an important part of the new sludge rules and this bill will help the municipalities with costs. It does not require new money. Vote 16-0.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 684, allowing the department of health and human services to accept and expend federal reimbursement funds. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for Finance: The amendment replaces the bill. The amendment provides for supplemental appropriations to the Department of Health and Human Services for FY 99 to deal with shortfalls in several accounts. These include (1) additional provider payments for hospital, medical and pharmaceutical products and services for people on Medicaid; (2) additional payments for court-ordered placements of children in foster and residential care; and (3) additional payments for departmental computer and data services provided by Administrative Services. The cost of these appropriations is partially offset by additional federal funds for covered services provided by the department in prior years and by reductions in personnel services and benefits. These appropriations are necessary so that providers and others may be promptly paid.

Finally, the amendment also provides for increased contributions to retired state employees' health insurance premiums which have risen faster than anticipated.

The net cost to the general fund of this amendment is approximately $7.6 million. Vote 20-1.

Amendment (1504h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT making adjustments to the fiscal year 1999 budget for the department of health and human services.

SB 176-FN-A, relative to technology support for individuals and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Peter Batula for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill, as amended, establishes a fund of $500,000 to provide technology support, assistive devices, information and training programs to individuals with disabilities. This bill would positively impact in excess of 20,000 people with disabilities in the state of New Hampshire and would in the long run, save millions of dollars by the cost savings related to remaining in the home, instead of a nursing home. The benefits derived from this piece of legislation are numerous. Having said that, the committee majority agreed to an amendment that would fund the program from the states' general fund instead of funding by a 911 reserved fund and that's what the amendment does. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1485h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Appropriation. The sum of $500,000 is hereby appropriated, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2000, to the department of health and human services, for the purposes of this act. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sum from any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes an appropriation of $500,000, from the general fund to the department of health and human services to provide technology support, assistive devices, information, and training programs to individuals with disabilities.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance. .

SB 192, relative to vital records. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Francine Wendelboe for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill addresses the improvement of the registration, certification, preservation and management of the state's vital records concerning birth, death, marriage and divorce. An increase in copy fees (not increased since 1991) will provide funds to be allocated for software applications and development, preservation efforts, hardware, communications and technical support needed. There were also additional members added to the Vital Records Advisory Committee: two additional town clerks, a Health Information Specialist appointed by the NH Hospital Association, the Director of the Division of Information Technology Management or designee and the state archivists or designee. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (1454h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Fees Increased. Amend RSA 126:15 to read as follows:

126:15 Fees for Copies and Verifications.

I. A town clerk or the registrar of vital records and health statistics shall be paid in advance, by any person requesting any copy or verification as provided in RSA 126:14, the sum of ~~[$10]~~ $12 for making search, which sum shall include payment for the issuance of such copy or verification, and ~~[$6]~~ $8 for each subsequent copy, provided that the fee to town clerks for examination of documents and issuance of a delayed birth certificate shall be $25.

II. The town clerk shall forward ~~[$6]~~ $8 of each search fee collected under this section to the department of health and human services for deposit in the vital records improvement fund established under RSA 126:31 and shall retain the remaining $4 as ~~[his]~~ the clerk's for issuing such a copy. For subsequent copies issued at the same time, the town clerk shall forward ~~[$3]~~ $5 of the fee collected for each subsequent copy under this section to the department of health and human services for deposit in the vital records improvement fund established under RSA 126:31, and the town clerk shall retain the remaining $3 as ~~[his]~~ the clerk's fee for issuing such a copy. The town clerk shall retain the $25 fee for a delayed birth certificate as ~~[his]~~ the clerk's fee for examining documents and issuing the delayed birth certificate.

2 Purpose of Fund; Approval Required. Amend RSA 126:31 to read as follows:

126:31 Vital Records Improvement Fund. There is hereby established a special fund for the improvement and automation of vital records at the state and local levels. The sole purpose of the fund shall be to provide revenues for the improvement of the registration, certification, preservation and management of the state's vital records ~~[improvement]~~, and said money shall not be used for any other purpose. Moneys in the fund shall be allocated for software applications and development, preservation efforts, hardware, communications and technical support associated with these purposes. (h) The director of the division of information technology management, department of administrative services, or designee.

(i) The state archivist, or designee.

II. The members of the committee shall choose a chairperson by majority vote. SB 141, relative to information not subject to the right-to-know law. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Peter F. Bergin for Judiciary: This bill makes information or records provided by a telephone utility in support of a filing with the Public Utilities Commission or placed in the record during a telephone utility proceeding confidential and not subject to the right-to-know law if they meet certain requirements. The requirements are that the telephone utility shall represent to the PUC that the information or records are not general public knowledge or published elsewhere, due to trade secrets, research, development, financial, or commercial information, including customer's geographic markets, vendor or product – specific data, such as pricing, usage, costing, forecasting, revenue, earnings, or technology information not reflected in tariffs of general application. However, if the PUC subsequently determines on its own motion or on request of another party, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing, that the telephone utility's representation is incorrect or records do not satisfy the requirements, it shall be subject to disclosure under RSA-91A (Right-to-Know Law). Before permitting public disclosure, the PUC shall afford the telephone utility 30 days from issuance of its written decision, to request reconsideration. Vote 11-4.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 172, relative to representation by a citizen in a court proceeding. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Martha S. Solow for Judiciary: This bill, as amended, accomplishes two purposes. First, it clarifies the statute entitling persons in causes or proceedings to represent themselves (pro se), or to be represented by a citizen of good character (not necessarily an attorney). Second, because the existing statute is silent on the matter, it presumes that the person representing another is of good character unless demonstrated otherwise, thereby putting the burden of proof on the challenger. Vote 9-5.

Amendment (1433h)

Amend RSA 311:1 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

311:1 Right to Appear, etc. A party in any cause or proceeding may appear, plead, prosecute or defend in his or her proper person, that is, pro se, or may be represented by any citizen of good character. For the purposes of this section, a citizen shall be presumed to be of good character unless demonstrated otherwise.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 314, relative to universal service. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Gary R. Gilmore for Science, Technology and Energy: As part of the 1989 rate agreement with Northeast Utilities, Public Service Company of New Hampshire (PSNH) was to return to traditional ratemaking in 1997. The rate case to determine PSNH's appropriate electric rates has been repeatedly postponed, most recently when PSNH went to Federal Court in Rhode Island and implied that this rate case was part of electric restructuring. This legislation allows the Governor, under certain circumstances, to establish an escrow account withholding up to 15% of the utility's electric bill. Upon such action by the Governor, other ratepayers of that utility may also escrow the same percentage of moneys due to that utility. It is hoped by the committee that this legislation will be unnecessary, that either PSNH will enter into a settlement with the state or that the rate case will occur and be adhered to. However, the committee feels that it is prudent and necessary that this legislation be enacted to prevent past delays from occurring once again. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1388h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the escrowing of certain utility payments.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Findings. The general court finds that:

I. New Hampshire has the highest average electric rates in the nation and such rates are unreasonably high. The general court also finds that electric rates for most citizens may further increase during the remaining years of the Public Service Company of New Hampshire rate agreement and that there is a wide rate disparity in electric rates both within New Hampshire and as compared to the region. The general court finds that this combination of facts has a particularly adverse impact on a majority of New Hampshire citizens.

II. New Hampshire's extraordinarily high electric rates disadvantage all classes of customers: industries, small businesses, and captive residential and institutional ratepayers and do not reflect an efficient industry structure. The general court further finds that these high rates are causing businesses to consider relocating or expanding out of state and are a significant impediment to economic growth and new job creation in this state.

III. In 1997, Public Service Company of New Hampshire was scheduled to return to traditional ratemaking and was directed by the public utilities commission to participate in a rate case proceeding pursuant to the agreement between the state of New Hampshire and Northeast Utilities.

IV. Although a rate case proceeding was commenced, such rate case proceeding has not been concluded and is presently enjoined by a Federal Court at the request of Public Service Company of New Hampshire, thereby preventing the state from exercising its appropriate police powers to protect the citizens of New Hampshire from the abuse of monopoly practices.

V. Authority to escrow certain moneys due to Public Service Company of New Hampshire is an appropriate exercise of the power granted to the general court by Part II, Article 83 of the New Hampshire constitution to "enact laws to prevent the operations within the state of all persons and associations, and all trusts and corporations, foreign or domestic, and the officers thereof, who endeavor to raise the price of any article of commerce or to destroy free and fair competition in the trades and industries through combination, conspiracy, monopoly, or any other unfair means; to control and regulate the acts of all such persons, associations, corporations, trusts, and officials doing business within the state; to prevent fictitious capitalization; and to authorize civil and criminal proceedings in respect to all the wrongs herein declared against."

2 New Subdivision; Escrow of Utility Payments. Amend RSA 9 by inserting after section 28 the following new subdivision:

Escrow of Utility Payments

9:29 Withholding of Utility Payments.

I. The governor shall direct the treasurer to withhold up to 15 percent of moneys due to a utility for electric power supply to the state if:

(a) The utility's rates are the subject of a proceeding before the public utilities commission that was commenced more than 12 months previously;

(b) Such proceeding has not concluded due to events outside the control of the public utilities commission and the state;

(c) The public utilities commission has ordered temporary rate reductions pursuant to RSA 378:27;

(d) The governor, based upon information submitted to the public utilities commission relating to the rate case proceeding, finds that the utility has requested only a minor increase in rates or no increase in rates whereas intervenors have represented that the public good requires a substantial additional decrease in rates; and

(e) The amount withheld does not, in the opinion of the governor based upon the considerations in subparagraph (d), put at risk normal operations of the utility in serving its customers.

II. Withholding moneys pursuant to paragraph I shall be presumed to be a matter of sound business practice and in the interest of protecting New Hampshire taxpayers.

III. Upon the withholding of moneys pursuant to paragraph I and the establishment of an escrow account pursuant to RSA 9:30, I, municipalities, businesses, and individual ratepayers may withhold the same percentage of moneys due for electric power supply to the utility designated by the governor pursuant to paragraph I.

9:30 Escrow of Withholdings.

I. The treasurer shall deposit moneys withheld under RSA 9:29, I in a segregated escrow account.

II. Money to be withheld by a ratepayer pursuant to RSA 9:29, III shall be escrowed on a monthly basis either by:

(a) The ratepayer depositing the money in an interest bearing, segregated escrow account established by the ratepayer and notifying the utility of the establishment of the account; or

(b) Upon agreement of the utility and the ratepayer, the utility depositing the money into one segregated escrow account established by the treasurer for the collective withholdings of ratepayers. The utility shall derive such moneys from bill payments made by the participating ratepayers.

III. No utility shall take any action, such as disrupting or threatening to disrupt electric power supply, against a ratepayer because the ratepayer escrows money pursuant to this subdivision.

9:31 Payments From Escrow. Upon conclusion of the rate case proceeding before the public utilities commission or pursuant to a settlement between the utility and the state, payments shall be made, consistent with the rate case or settlement, in the following manner from the specified escrow accounts:

I. RSA 9:30, I, the governor is authorized to draw a warrant for any money in the account to pay any moneys due and owing to the utility; any moneys remaining after payment to the utility shall be deposited into the general fund;

II. RSA 9:30, II(a), the ratepayer shall pay from the account any moneys due and owing to the utility and shall retain the remainder; and

III. RSA 9:30, II(b), the governor is authorized to draw a warrant up to the total amount in the account to be paid over to the utility. The utility shall retain any moneys due and owing to the utility and shall credit the electric bills of participating ratepayers that amount which is due and owing to them.

3 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be invalid, the invalidity shall not affect any other provision or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the governor, under certain circumstances, to direct the treasurer to place up to 15 percent of moneys due to a utility for electric power supply to the state in an escrow account. Upon such action by the governor, other ratepayers may also escrow a percentage of moneys due to the utility.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Rep. Chandler moved that the Rules be so far suspended as to permit consideration at the present time, without the required notice, of HB 745-L, authorizing the town of Ashland to call a special meeting for the purpose of raising money to address a general fund deficit.

Adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

HB 745-L, authorizing the town of Ashland to call a special meeting for the purpose of raising money to address a general fund deficit. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: During an audit of the Town of Ashland a general fund deficit was discovered. In order to avoid receivership, the selectmen requested through their Representatives and Senator, the General Court to allow them to hold a special meeting without seeking court permission. The committee voted unanimously OTP. Vote 16-0.

SB 29-L, relative to the proper sheltering of dogs. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Frank M. Schanda for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill creates a new statute that describes minimum standards for the sheltering of dogs. The standards are in common sense language and should put no burden on anyone who keeps dogs. The standard for sanitary conditions, for example, are to periodically clean the area where the animal is kept of excrement and any other waste materials that could adversely affect the animals' health. The penalty for not responding to a warning that a violation exists is a violation. The response has to take place within 48 hours of a written notice that a violation exists. The bill is an attempt to provide those who keep or shelter dogs in unsanitary conditions an opportunity to be put on notice that such conditions are not lawful and should be corrected. Vote 14-0.

Rep. Welch moved Re-commit to Committee, spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Adopted.

HB 744, ratifying the Plainfield Village Water District annual meeting held on March 27, 1999. OUGHT TO PASS

The District made a few procedural errors – improper positing and failing to place the bond article first on the agenda. The committee voted unanimously to ratify the meeting to allow the Plainfield Valley Water District to move forward with their project. Vote 13-0.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 12

requesting an opinion of the justices on the constitutionality of HB 536, as amended.

Whereas, there is presently pending before the House of Representatives HB 536, as amended by document number 1999-1063h, authorizing municipalities to exempt from the local property tax personal property employed in the generation and production of electric power; and

Whereas, section 2 of HB 536 as amended provides that the governing body of a town or city may make the determination to exempt from local property taxation so much of the equipment for the generation and production of electric power and for such a term of years as the governing body determines will attract new construction of electric generation facilities, retain existing electric generation facilities, or foster economic development; and

Whereas, section 2 of HB 536 as amended further provides that the determination, including but not limited to the fair market value of the equipment exempted, the term of the exemption, any agreement for payment of taxes, and/or any agreement for payment in lieu of taxes, shall be subject to approval of the legislative body of the municipality; and

Whereas, legislation proposing new tax exemptions should be scrutinized to determine its constitutionality; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the Justices of the Supreme Court be respectfully requested to give their opinion on the following questions of law:

1. Do the provisions of HB 536 as amended, which exempt from local property taxes so much of the equipment for the generation and production of electric power and for such a term of years as may be determined by the municipality, violate constitutional requirements of uniformity and equality governing the assessment and collection of property taxes and the constitutional prohibition against authorizing gifts to corporations organized for profit, as provided by part II, article 5 of the New Hampshire constitution?

2. Do the provisions of HB 536 as amended, which exempt from local property taxes so much of the equipment for the generation and production of electric power and for such a term of years as may be determined by the municipality, violate the constitutional provision that government is instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men under part I, article 10 of the New Hampshire constitution?

3. Is the classification of taxable property provided for in HB 536 as amended based on a reasonable distinction which promotes a proper object of public welfare and does not require any taxpayer to pay more than his or her fair share of the tax burden as required by part I, article 12 of the New Hampshire constitution?

That the clerk of the House of Representatives transmit copies of this resolution and copies of HB 536, as amended by document number 1999-1063h, to the justices of the New Hampshire supreme court.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Reps. Weber and Loren Jean addressed the House.

Rep. Mock moved that the remarks made by Rep. Loren Jean be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Loren Jean: Since 1979, for a period of 20 years now, we've been voting on whether or not to have a Martin Luther King Day. We all went at it for different reasons. Those of us that were opposed to it, the reasons varied from genuine concerns about the man; others thought others more fitting and others with a strong sense of history. I had all three. But to dismiss such motives as a cover for bigotry and racism is beyond the pale. Never, never in that 20 years, or in the time that I have been here and talked to people that are opposed to that holiday did I ever hear anything remotely being construed as being bigoted or racist. Half way through that 20 years the opponents were rather magnanimous in that they offered a compromise and that compromise was on a holiday called Civil Rights Day on the birthday of that slain civil rights leader. To dismiss all that out of hand and characterize someone as having the basest of human instincts, that of bigotry and racism, is very wounding. We have won for 18 of those 20 years. This is the 20th year. But, we have been magnanimous in our victory. But, over the years I have heard "beacon for bigotry" hollered from that podium. "Everyone that voted against this is a racist." And, this last one, "I feel bad for some of those who spoke against this. They have severe racism in their hearts and it must feel terrible." The author of that knows who she is. There is to me hardly a more severe, if you will, label to place on somebody that they would be guilty of these base instincts. The very core of what humanity should be and that is magnanimous to each other and to love one another and to be accused of just the opposite for noble reasons given to the opposition to that holiday. I feel that person owes an apology to this House and especially to those people that spoke against this for reasons that were true to their heart and not on those base instincts.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Rosen addressed the House.

Rep. Weyler moved that the remarks made by Rep. Rosen be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Rosen: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I'd like to, very briefly, report on last week. This last week saw June 4th and June 6th. June 6th was the anniversary of the D-Day landings in Normandy and June 4th was the anniversary of the Battle of Midway. Probably two of the most memorable days in the history of this country. We all know about D-Day. This was the beginning of the end of the war in Europe and led to the vast changes that have come over Europe and the United States since then. June 4th was the anniversary of the Battle of Midway, certainly the most significant naval battle of all time and probably one of the most important battles in the history of this country. The Japanese attempted to seize Midway. They came out with four aircraft carriers, dozens of ships, thousands of men to make a landing. We opposed them with three aircraft carriers, a number of ships and some very fine pilots. It was not an easy victory. We lost a lot that time but we did prevent the landings at Midway. If that had not happened, the Japanese probably would have taken Hawaii and the whole scene of the war in the Pacific would have been vastly different. Whether we would have ever gotten into a position where we could launch an atomic bomb or not, I don't know, probably not. It might have led to a negotiated peace and we would have continuing struggles as we always have when we don't settle a war finally. So, let's remember today the people in the battle on D-Day and let's remember those that fought at Midway and the glorious victories that were achieved in those days. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 21

Wednesday, June 16, 1999

The House assembled at 1:00 p.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Representative Gary L. Johnson from the Franconia Community Church of Christ.

We bow our heads before our Creator. We stand before our Creator in humility; in humbleness. Lord, we are Your children. We stand ready to listen; we stand ready to learn; we stand ready to serve. We are Your creation and we recognize our Creator. You created us in love, and our faith tells us that love continues today and will continue forever; our faith also tells us that You like us. As Your children, we are all brothers and sisters. We pray for guidance, for understanding, for wisdom, for vision; and, we pray for sensitivity; sensitivity to all our sisters and brothers, and to the planet that we share. Help us to understand that among all the frantic, religious messages of this world, You ask only one thing: take care of one another. With Your help, we will do just that. Amen.

Rep. Belanger led the Pledge of Allegiance.

CONSENT CALENDAR – PART I

Rep. Chandler moved that the Consent Calendar, Part I, with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

SB 74, relative to the rule making authority of the real estate commission concerning practices relating to certain dwellings, removed by Rep. Mirski.

SB 173-FN, relative to optional allowances for beneficiaries of New Hampshire retirement system members, removed by Rep. Mirski.

SB 182-FN, relative to eligibility for ordinary death benefits under the New Hampshire retirement system, removed by Rep. Mirski.

SB 217-FN, relative to real estate brokers of other jurisdictions doing business in this state, removed by Rep. Mirski.

SB 170-FN-A, establishing a parents as teachers pilot program in Sullivan county and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Iris Estabrook for Education: Given the positive potential of the Parents as Teachers program for the long-term benefit of the children of New Hampshire, the committee would like to continue work on unresolved issues of program and budgetary coordination. Vote 16-0.

SB 208-FN, establishing a "parents as scholars" program. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Iris Estabrook for Education: Since this bill involves policy in the area of Health & Human Services, the Education committee would like to re-refer to enable further study, for the purpose of determining the value of this program. Vote 16-0.

SB 94, relative to absentee voter affidavits. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. James R. Splaine for Election Law: This bill would have absentee voters sign an affidavit when they request a ballot rather than on the envelope in which the ballot is enclosed. There is some value in the idea proposed by this bill, but logistics need to be worked out and considered. This is a paradigm shift in the way we validate absentee voter ballots so further study by the committee is requested. Vote 13-0.

SB 116, eliminating straight ticket voting. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Michael S. Rollo for Election Law: This bill would eliminate the straight ticket voting procedure during the general election. The committee was of the opinion that with all of the confusion surrounding straight ticket voting, and the time constraints, the committee would prefer to study this important issue and report back to the House fully and appropriately. Vote 13-0.

SB 164, relative to persons exempted from the registration of ophthalmic dispensers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Carolyn A. Virtue for Executive Departments and Administration: SB 164, as amended, clarifies the existing statute relative to individuals exempt from registration while employed by an ophthalmic dispenser, licensed physician or optometrist. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1332h)

Amend RSA 327-A:13, IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. The activities of any employee of an ophthalmic dispenser, licensed physician, or optometrist if the employee is not engaged in [the] ophthalmic dispensing [of eyeglasses or contact lenses including, but not limited to, the sale of related products, laboratory technicians and the making of minor mechanical repairs upon eyeglasses or frames] as defined in RSA 327-A:1, I. Such activities shall include, but not be limited to, the sale of related products, work performed by laboratory technicians, and the making of minor mechanical repairs on eyeglasses or frames.

SB 193-FN, relative to holiday pay for certain state employees. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Maurice E. Goulet for Executive Departments and Administration: The bill clarifies a minor point in holiday pay for approximately 23 persons at New Hampshire Hospital and the Department of Corrections. Each of the above persons must work a minimum of 24 hours per week. It only affects one holiday per year, Washington's Birthday, and has less than $10,000 impact per year for the next three years. Vote 14-0.

SB 216-FN, allowing veterans the right to purchase credit in the retirement system for certain service in the armed forces. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill allows veterans of military services or the New Hampshire National Guard or reserves to purchase up to four years additional creditable service toward the retirement system or if National Guard, one year of purchased time for each five years of National Guard duty or reserve service time. The payment was to have been made in either a lump sum or by installments, however, there was no time limit applied to the length of time required to pay the full amount of the actuarial cost for the time purchased. It was felt that further study was required to solve this problem. Vote 15-0.

HB 501-FN-A, relative to the repair of a certain covered railroad bridge in Contoocook village in the town of Hopkinton. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Norman L. Major for Finance: The appropriation has been removed from the original bill and now allows the community to provide funding for the study of repairs required to restore the covered railroad bridge in Contoocook village in the town of Hopkinton. This bill now allows the Department of Cultural Resources to use state, federal and private grants and funds for the purpose of this study. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (1475h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Study Required. The department of cultural resources may hire a competent structural engineering firm to study and evaluate the repairs required to restore the covered railroad bridge in Contoocook village in the town of Hopkinton. A report containing the firm's recommendations and findings shall be submitted to the speaker of the house, the senate president, and the governor on or before June 30, 2000.

SB 45-FN-A, allowing a waiver of interest for the time period of an extension of the date of payment of the legacies and successions tax. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: This bill allows heirs, legatees, or interested persons granted an extension of time for payment of legacies and successions tax by the probate court to apply to the Commissioner of the Department of Revenue Administration for a waiver of interest that accrued during the period of the extension. Waivers may be granted for good cause. DRA declares that decreases of state revenues are indeterminable. Vote 23-0.

SB 129-L, requiring school districts to disclose any reimbursements received to offset special education expenditures. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jean R. Wallin for Finance: By requiring that school districts report both actual special education expenditures and off-setting revenues in their annual reports, citizens will be better able to judge the true cost of special education. With enactment of this bill the school districts' annual report will contain the prior two years' activity. Vote 22-1.

SB 71, prohibiting the use of MTBE as an additive in gasoline. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Jacqueline A. Pitts for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill would ban the additive methyl tertiary butyl ether (MTBE) in gasoline completely. The committee has passed SB 70 and HB 694-FN and feels that we need this bill only to retain a vehicle for further action, if necessary. Vote 16-1.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART I

HB 743, requiring that the question relative to the necessity for a convention to revise the New Hampshire constitution be presented to the voters in the November 2000 general election. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Francis W. Davis for Election Law: After spirited debate, the committee approved this bill at a vote of 8-5. The majority of the committee felt that the question on the necessity of a convention to revise the NH Constitution should be presented to the voters in the November 2000 election. The last constitutional convention was held in 1984. The voters did not approve a constitutional convention in 1994. Vote 8-5.

Rep. Corbin spoke against.

Rep. Francis Davis spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Weber spoke in favor.

Rep. Francis Davis requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

SB 47-FN, relative to compensation for time lost by fish and game conservation officers for injuries received in the line of duty, and restoring certain leave time for a conservation officer injured while on duty on August 19, 1997. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill restores sick leave and annual leave time that Conservation Officer Wayne T. Saunders lost as a result of his being shot in the Carl Drega case. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1544h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to restoring certain leave time for a conservation officer injured while on duty on August 19, 1997.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Certain Officer's Annual Leave and Sick Leave Benefits Restored. On August 19, 1997, conservation officer Wayne T. Saunders was shot by Carl Drega, while performing his duties as a conservation officer for the New Hampshire fish and game department. As a result, Officer Saunders suffered a debilitating injury to his right arm and shoulder, was hospitalized, and received workers compensation benefits. During such time, Officer Saunders was unable to perform his normal duties as a conservation officer and his accrued sick leave and annual leave time was used to augment workers compensation benefits. Any sick leave and annual leave time accrued to August 19, 1997, which was lost as a direct result of his line of duty injury as determined by the executive director of fish and game, shall be restored.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill restores certain leave time for a conservation officer injured while on duty on August 19, 1997.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 113, establishing a division of travel and tourism development within the department of resources and economic development. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Howard, C. Dickinson, Jr. for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill, as amended, elevates the Office of Vacation Travel to the Division of Travel and Tourism Development within the Department of Resources and Economic Development. In addition to establishing an unclassified director of the division, the bill reclassifies and upgrades three current positions and adds three new positions to the staff increasing the division budget for FY 2000 by $138,607 and for FY 2001 by $131,523. The committee unanimously agreed that it is important to make this change in light of the many faceted, growing tourism industry in New Hampshire. It has been said that for every dollar we spend on tourism, $8 in revenue is returned to the state. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1452h)

Amend RSA 12-A:44, II as inserted by section 6 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The advisory committee shall consist of the director of the division of travel and tourism development, 3 individuals at-large having an interest in travel and tourism, and an individual representing each of the following:

- (a) Chambers of Commerce.
- (b) Regional and/or statewide trade associations.
- (c) Lodging.
- (d) Food and beverage.
- (e) Recreation.
- (f) Attractions.
- (g) Camping.
- (h) Culture, arts, and history.
- (i) Environment and wildlife.
- (j) Retail industry.
- (k) Transportation.
- (l) Education.

Amend the bill by replacing section 10 with the following:

10 Reference Change. Amend RSA 216-A:3-f, III to read as follows:

III. Funding for park system promotion shall be appropriated to the division of parks and recreation and shall be expended with the assistance of the ~~[office of vacation travel of the division of economic development]~~ division of travel and tourism development.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

SB 187-FN-L, relative to payment of group health insurance premiums for eligible retired teachers in the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill establishes a post retirement medical plan for certain members of the teachers' component of the New Hampshire Retirement System. Initially those teachers retired as of June 30, 1999 will be covered and the bill provides for additional coverage for those not yet retired but are retired by June 30, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004. The funds for the initial group will be drawn from the teachers' special account and the balance of the funds encumbered and drawn each year as required. These funds will be drawn from the special account which as of June 30, 1998 has $182.6 million for additional benefits (1) to provide supplemental allowances or COLA's, and (2) to the extent that funds may be available in the special account, to provide additional benefits to retired members and beneficiaries of the retirement system. To date, approximately $19 million has been withdrawn for a 4 percent COLA payable July 1, 1999 leaving a balance of $163 million. The cost in year 2000 is $70.43 million and the ultimate cost by June 30, 2004 will be $89.1 million. After payment of these costs without future additions to the special account and no accrued interest, will still leave $73.9 million for additional COLAs. This trust fund will be terminally funded and is finite. Additional funds or additional coverage requires that it be terminally funded from the special account and only with legislative approval. There is no obligation on the Legislature or the state to fund this program beyond the funds available. The bill as amended will provide an amount of $202 for a non-Medicare plan or $128 for a Medicare eligible plan (equal the amount available the police and fire under their post-retirement medical plan) and may increase by an amount not to exceed 8 percent compounded per year. This type of plan has been available to the Group II members since 1988. The funds for this coverage shall be paid only to their political subdivision or their medical coverage carrier. The last portion of the bill includes an amendment to include permanent police officers retired between July 1, 1993 and before July 1, 1995. This will be terminally funded by the police special account. The total is $15 million leaving a balance at this time of $56.9 million less the COLA due July 1, 1999 of $9.4 million. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1453h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to payment of group health insurance premiums for eligible retired teachers and for certain active or retired group II members in the New Hampshire retirement system.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 3 with the following:

4 New Sections; Group I Teachers; Medical Benefits; Payment; Financing. Amend RSA 100-A by inserting after section 53 the following new sections:

100-A:53-a Payment by Retirement System; Group I Teachers.

I. The New Hampshire retirement system shall pay the cost for permanent group hospitalization, hospital medical care, surgical care and other medical and surgical benefits, in the employer-sponsored plan provided for active employees of a retiree's former employer, subject to the provisions of this section, for the following persons:

(a) Any person, who has at least 20 years of creditable service as a group I teacher member if age 60 or older, or at least 30 years of creditable service as a group I teacher member if age 55-59, retired on or before July 1, 2004 as a group I teacher member of the New Hampshire retirement system on service or disability retirement, provided that such person shall be entitled to retirement on the basis of group I creditable service without including any credit for service as a group I employee member of the retirement system, or any person retired on or before July 1, 2004, as a group I member whose service retirement benefit is based upon the provisions of RSA 100-A:19-c and who has a minimum of 20 years of creditable service as a group I teacher member.

(b) The spouse of such a qualified retiree.

(c) The surviving spouse of a deceased retired group I teacher member who met the qualifications of subparagraph (a), or of a deceased member who died while in service as a group I teacher member, provided that such surviving spouse was covered as the member's spouse in the employer-sponsored plan before the member's death and is entitled to a monthly allowance under RSA 100-A:8, 100-A:9, or 100-A:13.

(d) Any certifiably dependent child with a disability living in the household and being cared for by the qualified retired member, the member's spouse, or the qualified surviving spouse.

(e) The surviving spouse and children of a deceased group I teacher member who dies as the natural and proximate result of injuries suffered while in the performance of duty, provided that:

(1) Any such child shall be qualified under this subparagraph only if under 18 years of age, or under 23 years of age if attending school on a full-time basis; and

(2) Such surviving spouse shall cease to be qualified upon the remarriage of the surviving spouse; and

(3) No surviving spouse or child shall be qualified or continue to be qualified under this subparagraph while receiving or eligible to receive medical insurance or health care benefits from any employer-sponsored plan.

(f) Any person who has completed no less than 20 years of group I teacher creditable service, but who for reasons other than retirement or death ceased to be a group I teacher member prior to attaining the age of 60, and who, as of July 1, 2004, receives a vested deferred retirement allowance and who subsequently attains the age of 60.

(g) Any person who has completed no less than 20 years of group I teacher creditable service and who retired as a group I teacher member prior to age 60, and who subsequently attains the age of 60.

II. However, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1999, the maximum amount payable by the retirement system under this subdivision on account of each person qualified under paragraph I who is not entitled to medicare benefits, and on account of each person qualified under paragraph I who is entitled to medicare benefits, shall be the same as the amount provided in RSA 100-A:52, II for group II retirees. As of July 1, 1999, and on each July 1 thereafter, the maximum amount payable by the retirement system as provided in this paragraph shall be increased by 8 percent, compounded on previous increases.

III. In the case of group I teacher members retired from employment by political subdivisions of the state, if the cost of the premium for any eligible person under paragraph I shall exceed the maximum under paragraph II, and the employer does not elect to pay the excess cost, the excess cost shall be paid by the retiree or qualified surviving spouse and may be deducted from retirement benefits as provided in RSA 100-A:51. The employer may require, as a condition for coverage, that the retiree or surviving spouse apply for deduction of such excess cost from retirement benefits as provided in RSA 100-A:51.

IV. There shall be no age limit to participate in the employer sponsored medical and health plan provided in paragraph I, and there shall be no physical examination or health statement required for such coverage, provided, however, that if an eligible retired group I teacher member of the retirement system fails to apply for such coverage within the time required by the insurance contract, the insurer may require satisfactory evidence of insurability as a condition for becoming insured.

V. Any group I teacher member retired before January 1, 2000, or other eligible person under paragraph I, who would have been eligible for medical benefits under this section if this section had been in effect on the member's date of retirement, shall have the option of re-joining the medical or health plan sponsored by the retired member's former employer and of receiving benefits under this section, provided that such eligible person shall apply to the employer for such benefits before January 1, 2002. Upon receipt of such application, the former employer shall enroll such retiree or other eligible person in the employer's plan in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as enrollment of a new employee but without any benefit-waiting period which may be applicable to new employees of that employer. Neither an employer nor an employer's group plan or insurer shall be liable for any claims incurred prior to the date of enrollment under this paragraph.

VI. The retirement system shall notify all group I teacher retirees and surviving spouse beneficiaries, who are currently drawing monthly allowances from the retirement system, of their possible right to re-join an active-employee medical insurance or health plan and to receive benefits under this section.

VII. Any person who is eligible to receive group insurance or other medical benefits under the provisions of this section, but who does not need and who declines such benefits because they would be duplicative of coverage under any employer-sponsored plan, shall nevertheless continue to be eligible and, upon ceasing to be eligible for the other coverage, shall be permitted to receive the benefits allowable under this section without any waiting period.

100-A:53-b Method of Financing; Group I Teachers.

I. The benefits provided under RSA 100-A:53-a shall be provided by a 401(h) subtrust of the New Hampshire retirement system. The 401(h) subtrust shall be funded by allocating 25 percent of future group I teacher employer contributions made for group I teachers in accordance with RSA 100-A:16 to the subtrust until such time as the benefits are fully funded. Thereafter the subtrust shall receive only that portion of each year's contribution as is necessary to keep the benefits fully funded.

II. All contributions made to the retirement system to provide medical benefits under RSA 100-A:53-a shall be maintained in a separate account, the 401(h) subtrust. All funds and accumulated interest shall not be used for or diverted to any purpose other than to provide said medical benefits. Similarly, none of the funds accumulated to provide the retirement benefits set forth in this chapter may be used or diverted to provide medical benefits under RSA 100-A:53-a. The funds, if any, providing medical benefits under RSA 100-A:53-a may be invested pursuant to the provisions of RSA 100-A:15.

5 New Paragraph; Application. Amend RSA 100-A:55 by inserting after paragraph I the following new paragraph:

I-a. It is the intent of the legislature that future group I teacher members eligible after July 1, 2004 shall be included under the provisions of RSA 100-A:53-a only if the total cost of such inclusion can be terminally funded from the special account established under RSA 100-A:16, II(h).

HB 346-FN-A, relative to permissible fireworks. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for Finance: The new amendment increases the license fee for locations which sell fireworks from $1500 to $2000. Finance found this necessary to assure the bill's policy intent, that of establishing a seasonal part-time fireworks inspector was maintained, while at the same time, the general fund will not be increased. The original amendment which increased the fee from $1000 to $1500 was deemed insufficient to meet the $17,300 per year cost of the new position. The Department of Safety estimates that 15 locations will be licensed to sell fireworks. Vote 21-0.

Amendment 1468(h)

Amend RSA 160-B:6, V as inserted by section 8 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

V. The fee for a license for each location shall be ~~[$1,000]~~ $2,000 per year, payable annually to the department of safety for deposit into the general fund.

Amend RSA 160-C:3, VII as inserted by section 14 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

VII. The fee for a license for each location shall be $2,000 per year, payable annually to the department of safety for deposit into the general fund.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 363-FN, increasing the bonding limit of the school building authority. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Norman L. Major for Finance: This bill increases from $75,000,000 to $95,000,000 the limit on the issuance of bonds and notes by the school building authority. The debt limit is currently within a million dollars of the authorized level. The $20,000,000 increase requested by the state treasurer is required to meet ongoing school district debt that can be guaranteed by the state. Vote 22-0.
Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 412-FN, relative to the powers of the state treasurer and increasing the limit on state indebtedness, and relative to the use of bond proceeds awarded under a state guarantee. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jean R. Wallin for Finance: This bill was originally requested by the State Treasurer to increase the limit of state indebtedness to 20% of general fund expenditures; require that all payments to the state be made in US currency; clarify the duties of deputy treasurers; and require that excess premiums after the sale of bonds be deposited into the general fund. Subsequent amendments require that the Business Finance Authority award state guarantees to facilities in economically depressed areas and repeal the requirement that bonds be issued only by FDIC insured banks. These lending institutions are not willing to lend money in economically depressed areas so this repeal will enable the BFA to cover the residual risk required by the IRS in lease projects currently designed to preserve as many as 800 jobs in the Franklin/Laconia area. These economic development efforts by the BFA are not paid out of the general fund. Vote 20-0.

Amendment (1546h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 5 with the following:

6 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 6:23, relative to duties of the deputy treasurers.

II. RSA 162-I:9-b, III, relative to the minimum charge on the reasonable value of a state guarantee.

III. RSA 162-I:9-b, III-a, relative to the use of bond proceeds awarded under a state guarantee.

IV. RSA 162-I:9-b, VIII, relative to guaranteed loans issued by a federally insured depository institution.

7 Applicability of Prospective Repeal. Any bonds awarded under the provisions of RSA 162-I:9-b, III-a shall not be affected by the prospective repeal in paragraph III of section 6 of this act.

8 Effective Date.

I. Paragraph III of section 6 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2002.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Increases the limit of state indebtedness for borrowing in anticipation of insufficient general funds from $125,000,000 to $200,000,000.

II. Requires that any excess bond premiums remaining after the sale of bonds and the payment of bond issuance costs be deposited into the general fund.

III. Clarifies the duties of the deputy state treasurers.

IV. Requires that all payments due to the state be paid in United States dollars.

Adopted.

Rep. Wallin yielded to questions.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Martin moved that HB 412-FN, relative to the powers of the state treasurer and increasing the limit on state indebtedness, and relative to the use of bond proceeds awarded under a state guarantee, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, 29 members having voted in the affirmative and 285 in the negative, the motion failed. Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART I (CONT'D.)HB 542-FN-A, relative to the rate of and exemptions from the legacies and succession tax. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: There has been a long-term interest in decreasing the rate of the legacy and succession tax. The tax was increased to 18% in 1991. Sponsors of the bill objected to the fact that it was imposed on non-lineal or unrelated heirs, but not on lineal heirs. They proposed a 7% rate, adding lineal descendants and exempting the first $100,000, attempting to make the change revenue neutral. The committee objected to adding a new tax to a large group that had been by tradition and common law the natural heirs and therefore exempt under NH law. The committee amendment attempts to accomplish the sponsors' intent by reducing the rate of the tax by 1% per year from June 30, 2001 until June 30, 2008. The permanent rate will then be 8%. The plan is to keep the resulting revenue at a flat rate. Natural growth from other sources will lead this tax to be a less significant revenue source and will allow its repeal long-term to be a less controversial event. There will be no effect on general fund revenue this year or in the FY 00-01 biennium. Vote 18-6.

Amendment (1317h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the rate of the legacies and succession tax.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Rate of the Legacies and Succession Tax. Amend RSA 86:6, I to read as follows:

I.(a) All property within the jurisdiction of the state, real or personal, and any interest therein, belonging to domiciliaries of the state; and all real estate within the state, or any interest therein, belonging to persons who are not domiciliaries of the state; which shall pass by will, or by the laws regulating intestate successions, or by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift, made in contemplation of death, or made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the death of the grantor or donor, to any person, absolutely or in trust, shall be subject to a tax ~~[of 18 percent of its fair market value]~~, for the use of the state at a rate as provided in subparagraph (b) on its fair market value, except as provided in paragraphs II and III and RSA 86:9-a.

(b)(1) For the biennium ending June 30, 2001, the rate of the tax shall be 18 percent.

(2) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2002, the rate of the tax shall be 17 percent.

(3) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003, the rate of the tax shall be 16 percent.

(6) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006, the rate of the tax shall be 13 percent.

(7) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007, the rate of the tax shall be 12 percent.

(8) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2008, the rate of the tax shall be 11 percent.

(9) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2009, the rate of the tax shall be 10 percent.

(10) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2010, the rate of the tax shall be 9 percent.

(11) Beginning July 1, 2010, the rate of the tax shall be 8 percent.

HB 602-FN, establishing the position of health insurance consumer assistant. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: This bill as passed by the policy committee adds one health insurance consumer assistant to deal with insurance options and complaints. The person now handing health insurance queries gets 14,000 calls a year, which are increasingly complex. He also handles life and accident insurance. The new commissioner has slashed her consultants' budget in order to pay for this new position, so there is no new fiscal impact. The Insurance Department costs are paid by fees charged to the insurance companies, not by the general fund. Vote 21-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 645-FN, relative to telecommunications equipment assistance and the enhanced 911 system.
OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. McGillivray for Finance: The bill created a one cent per month per telephone line charge to pay for continuing a program which provides telecommunications equipment to lower-income persons, limited this program only to persons with hearing or speech disabilities, and expanded those eligible for the program to include partial assistance for persons whose income exceeds 200 per cent of federal poverty level guidelines. The bill also limited such expenditures to not more than $96,000 per year, and made small changes to enhanced 911 statutes.

The committee amendment eliminates the increase in eligible persons, so that as under existing law, only those with income up to 200 per cent of poverty level qualify. The committee amendment also changes the funding source, continuing the current practice of using part of the funds raised for the telecommunications relay service trust fund by an 8 cent per month per telephone line charge. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (1542h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 7 with the following:

7 Public Utilities; Telecommunications Equipment Assistance Program; Duties; Eligibility Criteria; Cost-Sharing Added. Amend RSA 362-E:3, I(b) to read as follows:

(b) Eligibility criteria, ~~[including] which shall include~~ ability to pay~~[, which]~~. The telecommunications equipment assistance program shall [be based on] pay the full costs for persons whose income levels [which shall] do not exceed 200 percent of the federal poverty level guidelines published in the Federal Register, exclusive of disability-related expenses.

Amend the bill by replacing section 9 with the following:

9 Public Utilities; Telecommunications Equipment Assistance Program; Funding. RSA 362-E:6 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

362-E:6 Funding. The telecommunications equipment assistance program shall be funded in an amount not to exceed $96,000 annually from the telecommunications relay service trust fund established by the public utilities commission.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill

I. Changes the name of the telecommunications assistance program to the telecommunications equipment assistance program.

II. Provides funding for the telecommunications equipment assistance program from the telecommunications relay service trust fund.

III. Requires the telecommunications equipment assistance program to pay the costs for persons within current income criteria.

IV. Adds a representative of the disabled community to the enhanced 911 commission.

V. Specifies that a qualified person under the telecommunications equipment assistance program is a person with a hearing or speech disability.

VI. Requires telephone service providers to transfer emergency calls, including the caller's telephone number, to the public safety answering point.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 653-FN-A, increasing the personal needs allowance of nursing home residents and certain other residents and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: For Medicaid recipients in nursing facilities, the resident's income, after certain deductions, goes to meet the cost of their care. Currently, one deduction allows the resident to retain $40 per month to meet personal needs. If the resident does not have $40 a month of their own income the balance is paid 50% by Medicaid (federal funds) and 25% each by general and county funds. Based on the Attorney General's opinions and the record of the Constitutional Convention, this is not a 28-a issue. This amount has not increased since 1988. This bill, as amended, increases the allowance to $50 per month. The increased cost to the general fund and the counties would be $160,000 each. Vote 22-1.

Amendment (0582h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT increasing the personal needs allowance of nursing home residents and residents of residential care facilities and community residences and making an appropriation therefor.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill increases the personal needs allowance of nursing home residents and residents of residential care facilities and community residences and makes an appropriation for that purpose.

Rep. Belvin yielded to questions.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 168, adopting a model statute included in the tobacco litigation master settlement agreement. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sandra B. Keans for Judiciary: In the summer of 1998, the Attorneys General of the various states came to an agreement with the major tobacco companies. It is a settlement that comes under the purview of "states rights" and, therefore, must be approved by the individual states. SB 168 is model legislation with slight changes tailored to the State of New Hampshire. A major component of SB 168 is how those small companies who were not a party to the agreement but who choose to sell tobacco products provide for their share of the settlement based upon their volume of sales for the next 25 years. There must be an 80 percent approval of the model settlement by the states before the monies will flow to the individual states. In addition, New Hampshire's portion of the settlement is contingent upon the passage of SB 168. The amendment merely corrected a grammatical error requested by the Office of the Attorney General. Vote 9-4.

Amendment (1411h)

Amend RSA 541-C:2, IX(a)(1) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(1) Manufactures cigarettes anywhere that such manufacturer intends to be sold in the United States, including cigarettes intended to be sold in the United States through an importer (except where such importer is an original participating manufacturer (as that term is defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) that will be responsible for the payments under the Master Settlement Agreement with respect to such cigarettes as a result of the provisions of subsection II(mm) of the Master Settlement Agreement and that pays the taxes specified in subsection II(z) of the Master Settlement Agreement, and provided that the manufacturer of such cigarettes does not market or advertise such cigarettes in the United States);

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 62-FN-A-L, relative to the acquisition of Umbagog Lake Campground in Cambridge, New Hampshire, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. H. Charles Royce for Resources, Recreation and Development: The Lake Umbagog Campground is the only campground on the lake, which is located in Cambridge, New Hampshire, 7 miles east of Errol, New Hampshire. The owners are retiring after twenty-four (24) years of operation. They wanted the campground to continue and felt the State Division of Parks and Recreation was the best organization for ownership. The purchase price for the campground (9.6 acres and 1030 feet of frontage) and all buildings and equipment is 600,000 dollars. This price was determined by a New Hampshire appraisal company. The bill as amended by the Resources, Recreation, and Development Committee will require the Division of Parks and Recreation to pay the principle and interest on bonds issued by the state treasurer out of the state park fund. There will be no appropriation from the state general fund for this purchase. The campground has been very profitable for the owners and the Parks Division will be able to pay the bonds with profits from the operation of the campground. It is estimated by the Parks Division the payment will be 40,000 dollars a year, which is well within the profit margin of the campground. This campground will be one of the jewels in the state park system, it will set the tone for this wild and scenic lake, which has 4532 acres in New Hampshire and 3318 acres in Maine. The majority of the campers using this campground are residents of New Hampshire. Vote 19-0.

Amendment (1413h)

Amend paragraph III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. The purchased property will be managed by the department of resources and economic development, division of parks and recreation. Currently the sale of this property is being negotiated by the Trust for Public Lands and the owners of the property. The division of parks and recreation will operate this campground under agreement with the Trust for Public Lands until the sale is final.

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Bonds Authorized. To provide funds for the appropriation made in section 3 of this act, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to borrow upon the credit of the state not exceeding the sum of $600,000 and for said purpose may issue bonds and notes in the name of and on behalf of the state of New Hampshire in accordance with RSA 6-A. Payments of principal and interest on the bonds and notes shall be made from the state park fund.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

SB 70, changing the safe drinking water standard for MTBE. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. Jeb E. Bradley for Science, Technology and Energy: As passed by the Senate, this legislation would establish, in statute, a primary drinking water standard for the gas additive methyl tertiary butyl ether (MTBE) of 5 parts per billion. The Senate also passed SB-71, which would ban use of the additive in New Hampshire's gas supply by 2003. While the committee appreciates the dedication and hard work of the Senate sponsors, the committee recommends the approach of this amendment and re-referral of SB 71, which is on the consent calendar. Use of MTBE in reformulated gasoline was designed to lessen air pollution, but when spilled or when storage tanks leak, MTBE readily enters groundwater.

The amendment instructs the Department of Environmental Services (DES) to immediately seek a waiver from the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) so that non-reformulated gas, which contains far less MTBE, could be used on an interim basis until there is a regional or national alternative found to this problem. This is similar to the approach adopted by Maine. The amendment also instructs DES to develop a health-based primary drinking water standard, a secondary taste and odor standard, as well as a groundwater remediation standard. Drinking water standards have never been legislatively determined. The committee recommends that standards for MTBE be adopted based upon sound, technical and economic information and go through a thorough review process as DES has done when setting other standards.

Regarding the proposed MTBE ban, the committee is also sympathetic to the sponsor's intent. However, with the exception of California, individual states cannot set specific criteria for the content of gasoline. For better or worse, that is federal law. Banning MTBE in 2003 would only invite significant lawsuits and do little to solve the groundwater and drinking water contamination problem existing today. That is why Maine did not ban MTBE, but chose to seek an EPA waiver to use a different fuel containing far less MTBE. That is the approach of this amendment. If a waiver were received, that would be the most helpful method of eliminating the groundwater threat in the short run.

This amendment is very similar to HB 694-FN, which is currently being reviewed by the Finance Committee. The one key change is that this proposed amendment does not legislatively determine the groundwater remediation standard as is proposed in HB 694-FN. Adoption of this amendment should lessen the fiscal impact of MTBE remediation at this time. If DES recommends health-based drinking water standards or groundwater remediation standards as called for in this amendment, there would be a fiscal impact at that time. That future fiscal impact would be subject to the scrutiny that any proposed rule would have. If the House adopts this amendment to SB 70, the Science, Technology and Energy Committee would recommend that it supersede HB 694-FN. Vote 15-2.

Amendment (1486h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to prevention of MTBE contamination of drinking water and groundwater.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings and Recommendations.

I. The general court finds that New Hampshire's participation in the federal reformulated gasoline program in Strafford, Merrimack, Hillsborough, and Rockingham counties, in order to comply with federal air pollution regulations, has had mixed results. The oxygenate methyl tertiary butyl ether (MTBE) is a major constituent of reformulated gasoline. Though MTBE's presence in gasoline has helped reduce harmful automobile tailpipe emissions and toxic constituents such as benzene, unintended contamination to the state's water resources has occurred. MTBE is extremely water-soluble and even the smallest spills of gasoline may allow MTBE to migrate into the groundwater. While MTBE is not classified as a known or probable carcinogen, initial research indicates that it may be found to be a carcinogen.

II. A recent preliminary study in Maine found detectable levels of MTBE in 15.8 percent of private wells and 16 percent of public water supplies. Levels of MTBE were below 5 parts per billion in 97 percent of Maine's tested private wells and 98.6 percent of Maine's tested public supplies. Due to similar soil and bedrock characteristics in New Hampshire, it is reasonable to assume that New Hampshire would find similar contamination levels in its water supplies if testing were done. Maine has adopted a 35 part per billion health standard.

III. The general court finds that alternatives to using MTBE in gasoline may have undesirable environmental effects, that restricting MTBE in gasoline may cause significant gasoline supply disruptions and price increases, and that regulation by the state of MTBE levels in gasoline may not be legal under federal law. The general court finds that the only realistic, near term means of lowering MTBE levels in gasoline, while avoiding supply disruptions and price increases, is reverting to the use of conventional gasoline as is currently allowed in the six New Hampshire counties that have demonstrated attainment of federal air quality standards. An Environmental Protection Agency waiver is necessary to use conventional rather than reformulated gasoline in Strafford, Merrimack, Hillsborough, and Rockingham counties.

IV. The general court finds that, based on available information, there is not an imminent threat to public health due to MTBE contamination. However, the general court believes that there is a sufficient threat of groundwater contamination to warrant preventive action in order to protect drinking water supplies and prevent costly remediation of MTBE contaminated groundwater.

V. Therefore, the general court recommends that:

(a) The department of environmental services and the department of health and human services continue to monitor New Hampshire's public and private drinking water supplies.

(b) Both departments continue to study MTBE alternatives.

(c) The department of environmental services in consultation with the department of health and human services adopt primary and secondary drinking water standards and ambient groundwater quality standards designed to protect the public health.

(d) The commissioner of the department of environmental services seek all necessary waivers from the Environmental Protection Agency such that conventional gasoline (or some other substitute gasoline that is readily available and reasonably priced) may immediately replace reformulated gasoline in Strafford, Rockingham, Hillsborough, and Merrimack counties until January 1, 2002. As such waivers would be temporary, they shall not be predicated upon the state implementing substitute air emissions reduction strategies in order to comply with the state implementation plan.

(e) The commissioner of the department of environmental services be given the authority to require lower MTBE concentrations in gasoline upon determining that readily available and reasonably priced substitute gasoline supplies exist, that alternative gasoline formulations are less hazardous to humans and the environment, and that such gasoline alternatives are approved for use in New Hampshire by the Environmental Protection Agency.

(f) The commissioner of the department of environmental services explore all mitigation alternatives, including but not limited to, the commissioner's authority to enforce the New Hampshire safe drinking water act under RSA 485.

2 New Subdivision; Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether (MTBE). Amend RSA 485 by inserting after section 16 the following new subdivision:

Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether (MTBE)485:16-a Drinking Water Standards and Notification.

I. The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of health and human services, shall adopt primary and secondary drinking water standards pursuant to RSA 485:3, and ambient groundwater quality standards pursuant to RSA 485-C:6, applicable to MTBE. The commissioner shall not commence rulemaking for these standards until after the department has reviewed the scientific record on the risks posed by the presence of MTBE in drinking water supplies. Such review shall be completed at the earliest possible date, but no later than June 30, 2000.

II. Any public water system delivering water with greater than 5 parts per billion of MTBE shall notify each customer of the MTBE content.

485:16-b Authority to Limit MTBE in Gasoline; Penalties.

I. The commissioner, after consultation with the commissioner of health and human services, may limit, with the approval of the governor and council, the concentration of MTBE allowed in any gasoline sold in all or part of the state after first holding a public hearing on the issue and certifying to the air pollution advisory committee established in RSA 125-J:11 that gasolines which meet such limit are:

(a) Readily available to New Hampshire consumers at a reasonable price;

(b) Less hazardous overall to humans and the environment than gasoline having higher MTBE concentrations taking into account all exposure routes, including air and water; and

(c) Approved for use in New Hampshire by the Environmental Protection Agency without a requirement to substitute additional air emissions reductions.

II. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the commissioner from phasing in any limitations approved under paragraph I.

III. Retail sellers of gasoline and the suppliers to such retail sellers shall comply with the provisions of paragraph I or be subject to the enforcement provisions of RSA 485:58.

IV. The limitations on MTBE concentrations established under the provisions of this section shall be exempt from the requirements of RSA 541-A, the administrative procedure act. The department shall file, however, in the office of legislative services a copy of all rules adopted, amended, or repealed under this section by the department.

3 New Subparagraph; Proceedings in Special Cases; Administrative Procedure Act; Exceptions; Limits on Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether. Amend RSA 541-A:21, I by inserting after subparagraph (u) the following new subparagraph:

(v) RSA 485:16-b, I relative to limits on the concentration of methyl tertiary butyl ether in gasoline.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Requires that the commissioner of environmental services adopt primary and secondary drinking water and ambient groundwater quality standards applicable to MTBE.

II. Authorizes the commissioner to limit the concentration of MTBE allowed in gasoline.

III. Requires that public water systems delivering water with a certain concentration of MTBE notify each customer of the MTBE content.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 74, relative to the rulemaking authority of the real estate commission concerning practices relating to certain dwellings. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Dave G. Poulin for Executive Departments and Administration: The majority believes that this bill will enable the New Hampshire Real Estate Commission to differentiate between the procedures and rules of disclosure for the sale of significantly different types of properties. Some examples of types of properties that may require different disclosures are land, residential dwellings (up to four families), apartment complexes (five or more families), and commercial properties. The committee has been assured by the New Hampshire Real Estate Commission and the New Hampshire Association of Realtors that this bill will not lead to prohibiting the sale of any of these types of properties by any duly licensed sales associate or broker in the State of New Hampshire. Although some real estate salespersons may choose to specialize in specific types of property, they will not be required to do so. Vote 13-1.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Mirski declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

SB 173-FN, relative to optional allowances for beneficiaries of New Hampshire retirement system members. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill revises the wording of RSA 100-A:13 I and II to read "spouse and/or children," removes the statement "to be divided equally among children" and allows the converted payment of the retiree's allowance after remarriage of the spouse to be paid without having the retiree having to give notice of the termination of an elected option upon issuance of a divorce decree to subsequent remarriage "within 90 days of the remarriage of the former spouse." Vote 16-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

Reps. DeChane and Mirski declared conflicts of interest and did not participate.

SB 182-FN, relative to eligibility for ordinary death benefits under the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill changes the eligibility for an ordinary death benefit from "service retirement" to "10 years of creditable service". The ordinary death benefit payable to the spouse is 50 percent of the member's benefit accrued at death. If the member did not have 10 years of creditable service and was not eligible for service retirement, the spouse or other person nominated would receive $3,600 or the deceased member's earnable compensation. If the member had at least 10 years service, but is not survived by a spouse, these amounts shall be paid to a designated beneficiary or to the estate. Vote 16-0.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

Rep. Mirski declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

SB 217-FN, relative to real estate brokers of other jurisdictions doing business in this state. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill establishes a new section to RSA 331-A, Real Estate Practice Act, concerning practice by brokers of other jurisdictions. A broker licensed in another jurisdiction shall enter into a cooperative brokerage agreement with a broker licensed under this chapter. The amendment proposed by the committee specifies that the commission shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A concerning the cooperative brokerage agreement. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1540h)

Amend RSA 331-A:22-a as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. The commission shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A relative to cooperative brokerage agreements under this section. Such rules shall include:

- (a) The form and content of a cooperative brokerage agreement.
- (b) The length of time an agreement may be effective.
- (c) The procedure for extension or early termination of an agreement
- (d) Any fees which may be associated with a cooperative brokerage agreement.
- (e) The penalty, in addition to any other penalty under this chapter, for violation of the rules concerning cooperative brokerage agreements, and the procedure to appeal the commission's ruling.
- (f) Any other matter necessary for the implementation and administration of this section.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Mirski declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

COMMITTEE REPORTSCONSENT CALENDAR – PART II

Rep. Chandler moved that the Consent Calendar, Part II, with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HCR 13, urging the selection of a final design for the New Hampshire commemorative quarter which includes the state motto "live free or die.", removed by Rep. Eugene Gagnon.

SB 140, relative to ear and body piercing. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Janeen Dalrymple for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: SB 140 as introduced intended to insure use of a disposable, single-use needle for the purpose of body and ear piercing. Current law permits jewelry stores to utilize reusable devices in the process of piercing ears and body parts. These devices are operated by individuals unlicensed in their use. In most cases, the earrings are sterile, but the gripping device is not and most often comes in direct contact with the skin at the site of piercing. Some of the devices used have components that are simply wiped with alcohol, not sterilized and then reused on another client. Single-use piercing devices are readily available at a cost of about $10.00. Gripping or ear stabilizing tools must also be single use or capable of being sterilized, to prevent exposure to infected blood. Unfortunately, these devices can only be used on ears and will not accommodate other body parts for the purpose of body piercing. The subcommittee felt strongly that SB 140, as amended, would address the immediate need to protect individuals seeking ear piercing at unlicensed places, who currently perform ear piercing. Future legislation is necessary to establish comprehensive guidelines for body piercing practices. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (1314h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to ear piercing.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Chapter; Ear Piercing. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 141-H the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 141-I EAR PIERCING

141-I:1 Ear Piercing. Persons engaged in the practice of piercing the ears of the human body shall use disposable single-use needles for such purpose. Any person violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a violation.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires persons engaged in piercing the ears of the human body to use disposable single-use needles.

SB 156, granting the commissioner of transportation authority to layout and approve the construction of a restricted use driveway onto a public highway in Canterbury and creating a legislative study committee to consider options for addressing the development of major projects which have statewide or significant regional impacts, such as the New Hampshire International Speedway. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. John P. Gleason for Public Works and Highways: The New Hampshire International Speedway has applied for and has been granted a driveway permit from the town of Canterbury. The urgency for this legislation has been diminished as a result of this granting. After hearing from the Chair of the Canterbury Planning Board and the NHIS, the committee felt that the situation is better handled by each party directly, which makes this bill unnecessary. By virtue of action taken by the NHIS to construct a north access road from Route 106 into their parking lots, and sanctioned by local planning board(s), will help mitigate traffic congestion during racing events. Vote 16-0.

SB 178-FN-A, relative to appropriations to the port authority for dredging projects. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. William E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: This bill would change language on a 1991 appropriation for expansion of the Port of Portsmouth, and construction of a 750 foot pier to add "dredging projects including associated mitigation to maintain channels and harbors." The initial intent was to permit a portion of the previous appropriation for a project for eel grass mitigation in Little Harbor. This mitigation is required to permit the Corps of Engineers (COE) to dredge the harbor. Recent information received from the Port Authority indicates that the eel grass mitigation would be completed by COE at federal expense. The other portion of the bill would permit expenditure of up to $1 million for dredging projects needed on the seacoast. Both of these issues have merit and should be studied further. If some issues can be resolved, this bill could be brought to the House in January of 2000, and still have time to address the original intent, if it is needed. Vote 14-0.

SB 207, relative to authorizing bonds for the construction and renovation of regional vocational education centers. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Willilam E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: This bill is very similar to HB 413, which was Re-referred earlier this year. Both bills include authorizing bonds for construction and renovation of regional vocational education centers. This bill would commit up to $10 million of state funding per biennium. Since there are slight differences in the bills, the committee decided to Re-refer this bill to be studied this summer along with HB 413. Vote 17-0.

HJR 10, requiring that the United States Marine Corps flag be flown over the state house every November 10 to honor the birth of the Corps. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Griffin T. Dalianis for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: The State of New Hampshire annually honors its citizens who have served in the United States Marine Corps by flying the Corps flag over the NH State Capitol on every November 10th. This will put into NH Statutes that this will be a law. The United States Marine Corps was founded on November 10, 1775 at Tun's Tavern in Philadelphia and this year it will celebrate its 224th birthday. Semper Fidelis! Vote 14-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR - PART IIMOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Franks moved that HB 703-FN-A-L, establishing a regional youth center pilot program in the city of Nashua and making an appropriation therefor, be made a Special Order for the next session day in the regular calendar order and spoke in favor.

Rep. Lozeau spoke in favor.

Adopted.

SB 220-FN, relative to the disclosure of child abuse and neglect information. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. L. Randy Lyman for Children and Family Law: This bill enables the Department of Health and Human Services to respond to the changes in the Federal Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act that are designed to improve the public accountability of the department in those few cases where there has been a fatality or near fatality resulting from neglect or abuse. The amendment permits the commissioner, upon request, to disclose certain specified information about such cases only if it is determined that the disclosure is not contrary to the best interest of the child, the child's siblings or other children in the household. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1584h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The general court finds that deaths or serious injury to children due to abuse or neglect, despite the involvement of government agencies charged with responsibility to protect children, is unacceptable. The general court further finds that public accountability in such cases will help prevent fatalities and near fatalities. To foster public accountability the general court authorizes the commissioner of health and human services, upon request, to publicly disclose certain case-specific information in those few cases in which there has been a fatality or near fatality resulting from abuse or neglect of a child. The general court finds that the above purpose is consistent with the provisions of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act as amended in 1996, Public Law 104-235.

2 New Paragraph; Disclosure of Child Abuse and Neglect Information. Amend RSA 126-A:5 by inserting after paragraph XI the following new paragraph:

XII.(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the commissioner may, upon request, publicly disclose certain case specific information regarding the abuse or neglect of a child as set forth in this paragraph, and the investigation of such abuse or neglect and any services related thereto, if it is determined that such disclosure shall not be contrary to the best interests of the child, the child's siblings or other children in the household and there has been a fatality or near fatality resulting from abuse or neglect of a child. In determining whether disclosure will be contrary to the best interests of the child, the child's siblings, or other children in the household, the commissioner shall consider the privacy interests of the child and the child's family and the effects which disclosure may have on efforts to reunite and provide services for the family. In evaluating the request for disclosure, the commissioner shall consider the source of the request, and whether the disclosure will promote public accountability of the department. As used in this section, "near fatality" means an act or event that places a child in serious or critical condition as certified by a physician.

(b) Information may be disclosed as follows:

(1) Information released prior to the completion of the investigation of a report shall be limited to a statement that a report is "under investigation."

(2) When there has been a prior disclosure pursuant to subparagraph (b)(1) of this paragraph, information released in a case in which the report has been unfounded shall be limited to the statement that "the investigation has been completed, and the report has been determined unfounded."

(3) If the report has been founded, then information may be released pursuant to subparagraph (c) of this section.

(c) For the purposes of this paragraph, the following information may be disclosed:

(1) The name of the abused or neglected child, provided that the name shall not be disclosed in a case of a near fatality unless the name has otherwise previously been disclosed.

(2) The name of the parent or other person legally responsible for the child.

(3) The fact that the department's investigation resulted in a finding of either abuse or neglect and the basis for the finding.

(4) Identification of services and actions taken, if any, by the department regarding the child named in the report and his or her family as a result of any such report or reports.

(5) Any extraordinary or pertinent information concerning the circumstances of the abuse or maltreatment of the child and the investigation of such abuse or maltreatment, where the commissioner determines such disclosure is consistent with the public interest.

(d) Any disclosure of information pursuant to this paragraph shall be consistent with the provisions of subparagraph (c). Such disclosure shall not identify or provide an identifying description of the source of the report, and shall not identify the name of the abused or neglected child's siblings, or any other members of the child's household, other than the subject of the report.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HCR 8, urging nonimplementation of the articles of the Kyoto Protocol on global climate change. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Eugene L. Gagnon for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: This resolution, as amended, simply supports and concurs with US Senate Resolution 98 where, by a vote of 95-0, the Senate rejected the provisions of the Kyoto Protocol. The amendment was a compromise agreed upon by the sponsor and the Department of Environmental Services. Vote 10-4.

Amendment (1464h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

A RESOLUTION urging improvements to the Kyoto Protocol prior to its implementation.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

Whereas, the United States is a signatory to the 1992 United Nations Framework Convention on Global Climate Change (FCCC); and

Whereas, a protocol to implement the goals of the FCCC was negotiated in December 1997 in Kyoto, Japan (Kyoto Protocol), which, if ratified, would require the developed nations of the world, including the United States, to significantly reduce their emissions of greenhouse gases; and

Whereas, appropriate commitments to address greenhouse gas emissions from key developing countries are not currently included in the provisions of the Kyoto Protocol; and

Whereas, flexible market-based mechanisms such as emissions trading have proven to be extremely effective in reducing emissions of non-greenhouse gas air pollutants; and

Whereas, there is reason to believe that such flexible market-based mechanisms would be equally effective in reducing greenhouse gas emissions at the lowest possible costs; and

Whereas, adequately detailed provisions for emissions trading and other flexible market-based mechanisms are not currently in the Kyoto Protocol; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

That the New Hampshire general court urges that prior to the promulgation of federal regulations to implement the Kyoto Protocol, the Administration and the United States Senate, through ratification, should ensure that the Kyoto Protocol includes adequate provisions for:

(1) Emissions trading and other flexible compliance mechanisms, and

(2) Appropriate commitments from key developing countries; and

That copies of this resolution signed by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate be forwarded by the house clerk to the President of the United States Senate and to each member of the New Hampshire delegation to Congress.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This resolution urges that prior to promulgation of federal regulations to implement the Kyoto Protocol, the Administration and United States Senate ensure the Kyoto Protocol includes adequate provisions for emissions trading and other flexible compliance mechanisms, and commitments from key developing countries.

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the resolving clause with the following:

That the final design to be selected for the New Hampshire commemorative quarter shall include the state motto "live free or die", 9 stars representing New Hampshire as the ninth state to ratify the United States Constitution, and the Old Man of the Mountain as a part of such design; and

That the governor, the governor's commemorative coin commission, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the director of the United States Mint shall recommend or select a final design for the New Hampshire commemorative quarter which includes the state motto "live free or die", 9 stars representing New Hampshire as the ninth state to ratify the United States Constitution, and the Old Man of the Mountain as part of such design; and

Reps. Nordgren, Thomas and Fenton addressed the House.

Rep. Loren Jean moved that the remarks made by Rep. Fenton be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Fenton: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Today is a sort of important day to some of us. I'd like to turn the clock back to 1942, 1943 and 1944. The German under-sea boats were sinking our ships before they were getting out of Boston Harbor. They would sit out and they would see the skyline of our cities and if a ship passed in front of it, it was sunk automatically. It was a stranglehold on our allies in Great Britain. They could not get supplies to satisfy their nation's needs and they would soon crumble. At the same time, Japan determined that they were going to take over the Pacific. They did the dastardly job in Pearl Harbor. We had very few fighting ships left and the men of the North Atlantic Fleet and all other fleets and the destroyer people were transferred to the Pacific coast. We invented a new ship. They called it a destroyer escort. It is a smaller ship than a destroyer, heavily armored with three-eighth inch metal and it had two joints in it to help it split when it hit the waves. We were probably the smallest ship-of-the-line, with the exception of a conning tower of a submarine. But, we traversed the oceans of the world bringing men and supplies over to Africa, Italy, Britain, Russia and into our islands down in the Pacific. We took on Japanese battle ships in the Tsushima Strait. We supplied the power to the peninsula of Cherbourg after it was captured. We didn't find out until after the war that these ships only had a life expectancy of six months. That scared the hell out of me, but I was out of the service by that time. There is only one of them left and it was donated back to us by the government of Greece. We sent a volunteer crew over to Greece, sailed the ship back into New York and now it is permanently berthed in Albany, New York. It is the USS Slater. Many of the men here that went across in those troop ships and in the supply ships, they would look out and there was a ship there and then suddenly it wasn't there. We spent most of our time, I believe, under water. We were so light and so small. We were picket ships, which means you were out there for the enemy to hit. If they fired a torpedo at a capital ship, it was our job to get in its way. On June 16th, all across the country, a lot of legislatures, as a sign, dedicated that day in commemoration of the destroyer escort sailors. I wanted to bring that message back to you. I'll have legislation next year and I hope we can join the other states in recognizing very valiant ships, the Destroyer Escorts.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 22

Tuesday, June 22, 1999

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Reverend Lynn Johnson, Pastor of the West Rumney Community Church.

God of life and love, God of compassion, we bless You for the wonders of creation, and we offer You praise for the gifts and for the responsibilities that You have given to us. We are awed by our role as stewards of Your world and humbled by the realization of our influence over the lives of others. In Your wisdom, You have given us into the care of our families, our neighbors, our communities; You have entrusted us all with a common life and with numberless bonds that knit us together, in rejoicing, in suffering, in the care of those around us. Teach us to remember that our dependence upon the work of the minds and hands of others is a reflection of our dependence upon You. Teach us to show in our compassion and respect for our fellows, our reverence for You. Help us in our struggles, that we may confront one another without bitterness or hatred; in grace that only You can give, help us to work together with mutual forbearance and respect. May lives of thanksgiving and unity give praise to You. Amen.

Rep. Flint led the Pledge of Allegiance.

SB 200, relative to child care licensing procedures. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Thomas I. Arnold, Jr. for Children and Family Law: This bill was filed as the result of a legislative study committee on day care licensing procedures. The bill, as amended by the committee, addresses specific issues. As amended, SB 200 provides that child care facilities which are operated in public or private schools which have already met state and local standards for zoning, fire and safety, do not have to have additional inspections in order to provide day care services. The bill also requires that within 30 days of new members or individuals coming into a household who will have regular contact with children, these individuals must undergo the criminal background check currently required of other household and staff members under licensing and registration procedures. Failure of a provider to take corrective action(s) shall be grounds for loss or removal of license. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1613h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to child day care licensing procedures.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Applications; Exemption for Existing School-Based Child Care Centers. Amend RSA 170-E:6 to read as follows:

Any person who intends to operate a child day care agency as defined in RSA 170-E:2, IV, shall apply for a license to operate one or more types of child day care agencies. Application for a license to operate a child day care agency shall be made to the department in the manner and on forms prescribed by rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 541-A. Such forms shall provide for the names, birth names, birth dates, and addresses of all persons having responsibility for care of or regular contact with children at the agency. The applicant shall obtain approvals in accordance with state and local requirements pertaining to health, safety and zoning, as applicable. School age programs located in currently operating public or private schools shall be exempt from the requirement to provide documentation of approval pertaining to fire, health, and zoning.

Child day care providers ~~[which]~~ who are required to be licensed or registered according to the provisions of this chapter shall, within 30 days of adding new staff members responsible for the care of, or having regular contact with children, and within 30 days of adding new household members or other individuals who will have regular contact with children, submit to the department, the names, birth names, birth dates, and addresses of such ~~[staff members]~~ individuals and other information required by the department as prescribed by rules adopted by the commissioner under RSA 541-A.

II. The department shall, for every name submitted on ~~[the]~~ an application, in the registration process, and for each ~~[new staff member, or at each renewal,]~~ individual for whom information is required to be submitted pursuant to paragraph I, review the names, birth names, birth dates, and current and previous addresses of such persons against the state registry of founded abuse and neglect reports. The department shall submit the names, birth names, birth dates, and addresses to the state police files to obtain information about criminal convictions.

III. If any individual whose name has been submitted for a check under this section has been convicted of a violent or sexually-related crime against a child, or of a crime which shows that the person might be reasonably expected to pose a threat to a child, such as a violent crime or a sexually-related crime against an adult, the department shall ~~[deny, revoke, or suspend a license, permit, or registration pending the development and implementation of a corrective action plan approved by the department. (b) If the individual is a board member, household member, or child day care personnel, or any other individual having regular contact with the enrolled children, inform the child day care agency or registered provider that the individual poses a threat to children and give the agency or registered provider an opportunity to take immediate corrective action to remove the individual from the agency, and to, in conjunction with the department, develop a corrective action plan, approved by the department, which shall ensure that the individual will not be on the premises of the child day care program and shall have no contact with children enrolled in the child day care program.

(c) Suspend, deny, or revoke the license or permit if the child day care program refuses to take corrective action as indicated in subparagraph (b), or subsequently fails to comply with the corrective action plan approved by the department.

(d) Upon a finding of criminal activity as described in this paragraph, withhold state funding to registered child day care providers that are exempt from the licensing requirements of RSA 170-E:4 [pending the development and implementation of a] if the provider refuses to take corrective action as indicated in subparagraph (b), or fails to comply with the corrective action plan approved by the department.

3 License Issuance. Amend RSA 170-E:8, III to read as follows:

III. The department shall make monitoring visits a minimum of once yearly during each licensing period. At least one such visit during the licensing period shall be unannounced. Clear and comprehensive records shall be maintained by the department on each licensed agency showing the dates and findings of each such visit. Such records shall be made available to the child day care agency. If the child day care agency is found not to be in compliance with the statute or [the] with rules adopted by the commissioner, a corrective action plan shall be submitted to the department. Failure to submit an acceptable plan shall result in license suspension, denial or revocation.

4 Household Members Having Contact with Children. Amend RSA 170-E:12, XI to read as follows:

~~XI. [Continues to employ a person without taking corrective action after receipt of written notification from the department that the person poses a risk to children, such notification including the basis for the department's determination that the risk exists]~~ Meets the conditions specified in RSA 170-E:7, III.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Adds household members and persons having contact with children in child day care programs to list of persons required to undergo background checks.

II. Further defines the compliance process for child care facilities.

SB 11-FN, relative to the filing fee for securities in a combined prospectus offered for sale in New Hampshire by a mutual fund. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Commerce: This bill changes the method of charging filing fees only on each portfolio in a combined prospectus offered for sale in New Hampshire by a mutual fund. In the past, all funds listed in a prospectus were charged the $1,000 filing fee whether the fund was offered for sale in New Hampshire or not. The change would make only those funds offered in New Hampshire subject to the filing fee.

The sponsors of the bill feel that many more funds will be offered in New Hampshire if this bill passes, therefore actually increasing income to the state rather than losing money.

The fiscal note on this bill ranges from a possible loss of $690,000 to a gain of over $300,000. The amendment creates a review process by which the Secretary of State will file a report from the period of May 1999 to May 2001 on the fiscal impact of legislation so the Legislature can take action in the 2002 session to address any negative fiscal impact Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1506h)

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3:

2 Report. The secretary of state shall issue a report to the governor, the senate president, the speaker of the house, the senate clerk, the house clerk and the state library containing findings and recommendations regarding the fiscal impact, if any, of requiring that issuers pay a filing fee for only those securities in a combined prospectus that are being offered for sale in this state. The report shall cover the period from May 1, 1999 to May 1, 2001; shall provide objective and credible evidence demonstrating that any negative fiscal impact is a direct result of a decrease in the amount of revenue received in connection with the use of combined prospectuses in the state; and shall be due on or before October 1, 2001, to permit legislative action, if any is needed to address such fiscal impact, during the 2002 session of the general court.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that mutual funds pay filing fees to the secretary of state only on each portfolio and each class of securities in a combined prospectus that is being offered for sale in New Hampshire. The bill requires the secretary of state to prepare a report on the fiscal impact of this change in filing fee requirements.

Referred to Finance.

SB 27, relative to assessment fee schedules for trust companies and banks. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sheila T. Francoeur for Commerce: This bill has been proposed by the Banking Department to adjust the distribution of its overhead expense among financial institutions in a fair and equitable manner. Currently, the method for assessing individual financial institutions is in proportion to their size, with trust assets measured at 25% of their value. Even with the 25% valuation, this method allocates a disproportionate regulatory cost on financial institutions which manage billions of dollars of investment, pension and retirement funds. This bill adjusts the assessment to more closely correspond to the Banking Department's regulatory oversight functions by measuring trust assets under management in a graduated manner, such that the first $5 billion in trust assets is included at 25%; the next $5 billion at 20%; the next $5 billion at 15%; the next $5 billion at 10%; the next $5 billion at 5%; the next $25 billion at 2.5%; and any remaining amounts at 1%. No change will occur in the overhead expense of the Banking Department or in any other aspect of its calculation of the assessment. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1318h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Payment of Costs of Examinations; Fiduciary Assets. Amend RSA 383:11, II(a) to read as follows:

(a) From banks and credit unions. Each state-chartered savings bank, commercial bank, trust company, cooperative bank, building and loan association, credit union, Morris Plan bank, or similar institution required to be examined under the provisions of RSA 383:9 shall be charged and pay such proportion of said balance applicable to such institutions under the banking department's program appropriation unit designation, as its total assets bear to the total assets of all such institutions as shown by their reports to the commissioner as of June 30 preceding such charges, except that ~~only 25~~ the percent of the fiduciary assets ~~shall be~~ used in the calculation of the total assets of each institution and all such institutions shall be determined as follows:

(1) Fiduciary assets up to $5,000,000,000 shall be calculated at 25 percent;

(2) Fiduciary assets that are between $5,000,000,000 and $10,000,000,000, shall be calculated at 20 percent;

(3) Fiduciary assets that are between $10,000,000,000 and $15,000,000,000, shall be calculated at 15 percent;

(4) Fiduciary assets that are between $15,000,000,000 and $20,000,000,000, shall be calculated at 10 percent;

(5) Fiduciary assets that are between $20,000,000,000 and $25,000,000,000, shall be calculated at 5 percent;

(6) Fiduciary assets that are between $25,000,000,000 and $50,000,000,000, shall be calculated at 2.5 percent;

(7) Fiduciary assets that are between $50,000,000,000 or more, shall be calculated at 1 percent;

SB 58, allowing clinical mental health counselors to obtain third party payment for services rendered which would otherwise qualify for such payments. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill brings consistency to all classes of licensed mental health practitioners. Now, all licensed groups will receive third-party reimbursement from indemnity health plans in New Hampshire. The amendment removes a statutory reference in the licensing chapter, which does not exist for any other group. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1525h)

Amend the bill by deleting section 1 and renumbering the original sections 2-6 to read as 1-5, respectively.

SB 69-L, relative to health care charitable trusts and community benefits. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce: The amendment clarifies who the bill affects and has a phase-in of a year for smaller healthcare non-profits. These non-profits may also work together in generating their reports. Finally, the amendment also insures that this law will not change or affect a non-profit status as pertaining to property tax exemption. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1647h)

Amend RSA 7:32-d, V as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

V. "Health care charitable trust" means a charitable trust organized to directly provide health care services, including, but not limited to, hospitals, nursing homes, community health services, and medical-surgical or other diagnostic or therapeutic facilities or services. "Health care charitable trust" shall not include any testamentary or inter vivos trust which is not organized to provide health care services.

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 7:32-e as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

7:32-e Community Benefits Plans. Within 90 days of the start of its fiscal year every health care charitable trust shall develop a community benefits plan. The plan shall be developed in accordance with the following criteria on forms supplied by the attorney general:

Amend RSA 7:32-j as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

7:32-j Exemption. If the total value of the fund balances of a health care charitable trust do not exceed $1,000,000, the trust shall have no obligation to comply with the provisions of this subdivision. In addition, those health care charitable trusts for which compliance would be a financial or administrative burden, according to criteria established and administered by the director of charitable trusts, may request an exemption from the provisions of this subdivision. An exemption, if granted, shall be valid for 3 years from the date of issuance unless it is revoked by the director of charitable trusts and written notice of such revocation is provided to the health care charitable trust.

7:32-k Effect on Eligibility for Property Tax Exemption. Compliance with this subdivision shall not establish eligibility for a property tax exemption under RSA 72:23, V, but may be considered if relevant to the criteria established in RSA 72:23, RSA 72:23-I, and at common law.

7:32-l Combined Needs Assessments, Planning, Reporting. Health care charitable trusts may satisfy the requirements of RSA 7:32-e, RSA 7:32-f, and RSA 7:32-g, individually or in a combination with other health care charitable trusts, provided that information required to be reported under RSA 7:32-e, V(a) and (b) shall be specifically reported for each health care charitable trust participating in a combined plan or report.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Prospective Change in Total Equalized Assessed Value Required for Exemption. Amend RSA 7:32-j to read as follows:

7:32-j Exemption. If the total value of the fund balances of a health care charitable trust do not exceed [~~$1,000,000~~] $100,000, the trust shall have no obligation to comply with the provisions of this subdivision. In addition, those health care charitable trusts for which compliance would be a financial or administrative burden, according to criteria established and administered by the director of charitable trusts, may request an exemption from the provisions of this subdivision. An exemption, if granted, shall be valid for 3 years from the date of issuance unless it is revoked by the director of charitable trusts and written notice of such revocation is provided to the health care charitable trust.

3 Legislative Review. The provisions of this act shall be subject to further legislative review and amendment based on the results of the statewide health plan process to be implemented during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2000 and the initial reports by the health care charitable trusts in compliance with this act.

4 Effective Date.

I. Section 2 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2001.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that health care charitable trusts develop community benefits plans each fiscal year which shall be submitted to the director of charitable trusts; and provides what shall be included in such plans. Health care charitable trusts shall also conduct community needs assessments in order to help determine the activities to be included in the community benefits plans. Health care charitable trusts with total value of fund balances not exceeding $1,000,000 are exempt from this bill's provisions. Under this bill, the $1,000,000 exemption figure will change to $100,000 on January 1, 2001. In addition, health care charitable trusts for whom compliance would be a financial or administrative burden may be granted an exemption from the bill's requirements. The bill also authorizes the director of charitable trusts to assess an administrative fine upon charitable trusts for failure to comply with certain requirements.

SB 73, relative to eligibility for off-premise liquor licenses. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE
Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Commerce: This bill would have allowed people who hold a golf facility liquor license to also do off-site catering. Since there is no food requirement for a golf facility license, it would be inconsistent with all other off-site catering licenses. The Liquor Commission is in the process of re-codifying all of their license fees and will address the concerns of the sponsor during the process. Vote 13-1.

SB 78, relative to contract requirements between a paid solicitor and a charitable trust. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce: The amendment changes the order of the paragraphs and clarifies which section of the law the bill effects by adding the appropriate RSA and the phrase "political subdivision of the state of New Hampshire." Vote 14-1.

Amendment (1530h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Contract and Disclosure Requirements. Amend RSA 7:28-c, V(a) to read as follows:

V.(a) There shall be a written contract between a paid solicitor and a charitable trust which shall clearly state:

(1) The respective obligations of the paid solicitor and the charitable trust [~~and shall state~~].

(2) The amount of the gross revenue from the solicitation campaign that the charitable trust shall receive. Said amount shall be expressed as a fixed percentage of the gross revenue or as a reasonable estimate of the gross revenue, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of subparagraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this paragraph.

(3) In addition, for charitable trusts defined under RSA 7:28-c, I(b) and any political subdivision of the state of New Hampshire: that the name and address of each person pledging to contribute, together with the date and amount of the pledge, shall be the sole exclusive property of the charitable trust with no rights to transfer, sell, rent, or otherwise cause to be used except by the originating charitable trust.

SB 90, establishing a committee to study and investigate the needs for small business loans to pay for technical improvements for persons working at home. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: The concerns of home-based business owners having access to small loans for equipment and telecommunication hardware is a serious one, but the committee believes education about existing programs and funding sources is a more efficient and effective means of achieving the sponsor's goal. To ensure this happens, the Business Finance Authority has agreed to work with the sponsor to put together a promotional piece to be distributed through chambers of commerce. Vote 14-2.

SB 99, allowing the same interest rates and charges on small loans under $1,500 as is allowed for small loans over $1,500. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Sheila T. Francoeur for Commerce: This bill will allow the same interest rates and charges on small loans under $1,500 as is allowed for small loans over $1,500. This bill will allow in-state small loan lenders to compete with credit card companies and will assist the small loan borrower with availability of credit. The Banking Department has traditionally opposed usury limits and this bill removes usury limits on small loans under $1,500. Vote 12-3.

SB 103, making certain changes in the insurance laws. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Kathleen N. Taylor for Commerce: This bill was requested by the Insurance Department. It defines institution in the statute and deletes required reporting to the department. It also clarifies procedures when an insurance company is undergoing examination. Vote 15-0.

SB 104, making a variety of changes in certain insurance laws. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Kathleen N. Taylor for Commerce: This bill was requested by the Department of Insurance and: 1.) deletes preferred provider organizations from the requirement of licensure to perform utilization review; 2.) clarifies the procedure to be followed if a group life insurance policy is terminated; and 3.) repeals the temporary licensure provisions relative to continuing care communities. Vote 15-0.

SB 107, relative to fees for examination of domestic societies and foreign societies. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Kathleen N. Taylor for Commerce: This bill extends the time limit for insurance department examinations of domestic and foreign bi-cultural and other societies from two to five years. It also deletes the requirement that fees for examination be capped at $25 per day for each examiner. Vote 15-0.

SB 110, allowing for discharges of mortgages by affidavit of a New Hampshire attorney. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Commerce: This bill will allow any attorney licensed in New Hampshire to execute a discharge of mortgage when a mortgagee fails to make a discharge within 60 days after the receipt of payment of the mortgage in accordance with the payoff statement. The attorney must also file an affidavit stating the facts of the non-discharge and has given the mortgagee at least 15 days' notice in writing by certified mail. The bill also calls for a fine of not more than $5,000 for filing false statements in the affidavit. Vote 14-1.

SB 114, relative to health care carrier disclosure of third party liability. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill simplifies the process the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) goes through to ensure all commercial or third party insurance liability is paid prior to the state Medicaid system picking up those costs. The sharing of information between the Insurance Department and HHS will not violate any confidentiality rights. There is a fiscal note increasing state revenues by over $1,000,000. Vote 14-0.

Referred to Finance.

SB 118, relative to requirements for retail installment contracts for motor vehicle sales. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Tim S. McGough for Commerce: This bill simply adds one sentence to the requirements for retail installment contracts for motor vehicle sales. It requires that the amount actually paid by the seller, pursuant to an agreement with the buyer to discharge a security interest, be included in the language of the document. Vote 15-1.

SB 147, relative to self-referrals for chiropractic care under managed care organizations. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill came to the House late in the legislative process. While significant issues were raised during a well-attended public hearing, there is inadequate time to give the bill the committee's full consideration. There is broad agreement that something has to be done to address the concerns raised during the hearing; therefore, the committee will work with the Department of Insurance, chiropractors, their patients, and the managed care plans to seek a resolution. Vote 14-0.

SB 162, providing for the licensure and regulatory oversight of voluntary small employer health insurance purchasing alliances. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: Healthcare purchasing alliances are one tool available to small employers to help control health insurance cost and provide choice in health plans to employees. The New Hampshire Insurance Department believes that alliances can be formed under current law. This bill would create a structure in which alliances could form, thus giving "state approval" to alliances. This committee worked last summer on a study committee, which recommended the creation of alliances. SB 162 includes some elements not recommended by the study committee. One of these is not allowing "for profit" entities to manage an alliance. There are other changes, which need to be made, and the committee will work seriously over the summer to report out next session a bill that everyone can support. Vote 15-1.

SB 166, establishing a committee to study insurance coverage for certain physical, occupational, and speech therapies. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: The bill created a study committee to look at an issue already being considered by many groups, including the Department of Health and Human Services and, with the encouragement of the Commerce Committee, the Insurance Department. The data collection necessary can occur without the formality of a study committee. Vote 12-2.

SB 167, relative to off-label prescription drugs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sheila T. Francoeur for Commerce: This bill will provide that any insurer providing coverage for prescription drugs will not exclude coverage for a drug for a particular indication on the basis that the drug has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for that indication. Also, drugs that are recognized for an indication in the standard reference compendia recognized by the American Medical Association, are on the formulary of the health plan and are not experimental or investigational, may not be excluded. Vote 12-1.

Amendment (1671h)

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1-3 with the following:

I Statement of Purpose.

I. Off-label use of a prescription drug occurs when a health care provider with appropriate prescriptive authority prescribes a medicine for a use other than what is approved for the product label by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA). Medically appropriate off-label use of FDA-approved drugs occurs when a health care provider with appropriate prescriptive authority makes a clinical judgment that is supported by studies in the medical literature. Off-label coverage has been approved by the federal government since 1993 for federal health programs.

II. In the current health care environment, there is significant pressure to control costs. The most important changes are occurring in how patients get access to prescription drugs. It is essential to preserve the integrity of the health care provider's right to select a prescription drug that he or she believes most appropriately meets the needs of a patient. This bill supports the right of a health care provider with appropriate prescriptive authority to make a therapeutic decision that is fully supported by peer-reviewed clinical data.

2 New Section; Off-Label Prescription Drugs. Amend RSA 415 by inserting after section 6-f the following new section:

415:6-g Off-Label Prescription Drugs.

I. No insurer that issues or renews any individual policy of accident or health insurance providing benefits for medical or hospital expenses and providing coverage for prescription drugs shall exclude coverage for any such drug for a particular indication on the ground that the drug has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for that indication, if such drug is recognized for treatment of such indication in one of the standard reference compendia or in the medical literature as recommended by current American Medical Association (AMA) policies.

II. Any coverage of a drug required by this section shall also include medically necessary services associated with the administration of the drug.

III. Nothing in this section requires:

(a) Coverage for any drug if the FDA has determined its use to be contraindicated for the treatment of the particular indication for which the drug has been prescribed;

(b) Coverage for experimental or investigational drugs not approved for any indication by the FDA; and

(c) Reimbursement or coverage for any drug not included on the drug formulary or list of covered drugs specified in a health plan, contract, or policy.

3 New Section; Off-Label Prescription Drugs. Amend RSA 415 by inserting after section 18-h the following new section:

415:18-i Off-Label Prescription Drugs.

I. No insurer that issues or renews any policy of group or blanket accident or health insurance providing benefits for medical or hospital expenses and providing coverage for prescription drugs shall exclude coverage for any such drug for a particular indication on the ground that the drug has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for that indication, if such drug is recognized for treatment of such indication in one of the standard reference compendia or in the medical literature as recommended by current American Medical Association (AMA) policies.

II. Any coverage of a drug required by this section shall also include medically necessary services associated with the administration of the drug.

III. Nothing in this section requires:

(a) Coverage for any drug if the FDA has determined its use to be contraindicated for the treatment of the particular indication for which the drug has been prescribed;

(b) Coverage for experimental or investigational drugs not approved for any indication by the FDA; and

(c) Reimbursement or coverage for any drug not included on the drug formulary or list of covered drugs specified in a health plan, contract, or policy.

SB 174, relative to the regulation of telemarketers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Tim S. McGough for Commerce: This bill would have enacted a large list of restrictions on telemarketers that would have effectively eliminated many valid forms of legitimate marketing including efforts by charitable organizations to legally solicit contributions from supporters. The Attorney General already has provisions in place to regulate these practices and issues a regular report disclosing all such activity. The committee felt that consumers always have the ability to hang up or not answer the phone or use any of the line-blocking or caller-identification features widely available to enable effective call screening. The committee further recognized that this type of legislation will have no effect on the most common offensive telemarketing that originates outside of the United States. The proposed legislation would also be virtually impossible to enforce and would most certainly not, in and of itself, prevent any such activity. The committee believes that ongoing educational efforts by a variety of organizations including the American Association of Retired Persons are effective and should be applauded and continued. Vote 11-2.

SB 177, allowing marriage and family therapists to obtain third party payment for services rendered which would otherwise qualify for such payments. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill brings consistency to all classes of licensed mental health practitioners. Now, all licensed groups will receive third-party reimbursement from indemnity health plans in New Hampshire. The amendment removes a statutory reference in the licensing chapter, which does not exist for any other group. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1524h)

Amend the bill by deleting section 1 and renumbering the original sections 2-6 to read as 1-5, respectively.

SB 183-FN-A, establishing a New Hampshire health access corporation and continually appropriating a special fund and making an appropriation therefor, requiring the department of health and human services to make a biennial report on the health status of New Hampshire residents, relative to certain transfers to the health care fund, and relative to rates for pharmaceutical services. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: The original bill had four distinct sections. The first section created a Health Access Corporation (Healthy Adults) to devise methods of providing and subsidizing insurance coverage for uninsured, underinsured and transitional medicaid individuals. The second section required any surpluses from the Department of Health and Human Services to be deposited into the health care transition fund to bring that fund back up to original levels. The third section allowed municipalities to pay for medicaid pharmaceutical payments at the same rate as the state does. The fourth section required the Department of Health and Human Services to undertake a biannual report of the health condition of state residents. The amendment retains the original sections 3 and 4, eliminates the second section and completely changes the Health Access Corporation. The new provision creates a subcommittee of the existing Healthy Kids Corporation to accomplish the goals of the sponsor and also allows the Insurance Department and Department of Health and Human Services to cooperate on finding mechanisms to address problems for those with chronic illnesses and disabilities. The amendment also requires this committee to report to the Legislature by November 1, 2000 any recommendations for legislation prior to taking any actions. Hopefully, this mechanism will allow Health and Human Services to raise money through donations and grants to accomplish their goals. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1673h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT requiring the department of health and human services to make a biennial report on the health status of New Hampshire residents, relative to rates for pharmaceutical services, requiring the department to conduct a study, and establishing a subcommittee to study affordable health insurance for low-income working adults.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Report Required. Amend RSA 126-A by inserting after section 4 the following new section:

126-A:4-a Health Care Plan Report Required. The department of health and human services is responsible for activities to improve and protect the health and well-being of citizens of the state of New Hampshire. A part of such activities is an assessment of the health status of the residents of New Hampshire. The department shall continually conduct such an assessment and shall issue a report thereon to the governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house every 2 years commencing on December 31, 2000.

2 New Subparagraph; Pharmaceutical Services. Amend RSA 126-A:3, III by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) When a person is being assisted by a city, town, or county in the purchase of a drug product, pursuant to RSA 165 or RSA 166, no provider of pharmaceutical services shall bill or charge the person, city, town, or county for the drug product at a rate in excess of the rate that would be billed or charged the department of health and human services for that product.

3 Statement of Purpose; Developing Transitional Health Care Coverage for Disabled Persons. Approximately 5,000 individuals in New Hampshire are enrolled in 2 state supplemental assistance programs – the aid to the permanently and totally disabled program and the aid to the needy blind program – which provide financial assistance to individuals who are physically or mentally disabled between the ages of 18 and 64 (4,923 individuals) or blind (219 individuals). These individuals are automatically eligible for medicaid. However, they risk losing medicaid coverage if their earnings from employment (combined with other income) exceed medicaid eligibility income limits. Many of these individuals' lives depend on their eligibility for medicaid because it covers necessary medications, physician services, and medical equipment. While 4 out of 5 of these individuals have responded when asked that they want to obtain employment and leave cash assistance dependency, a critical concern is losing their health care benefits. In effect, they are "locked" out of employment in order to maintain their health insurance. A critical next step in reforming New Hampshire's human service programs and supporting persons with disabilities is developing transitional health care coverage to help people transition to employment without risk to their health.

4 Department of Health and Human Services; Study. The department of health and human services shall investigate how to create better options for transitional public or private health coverage for these individuals. SB 191, relative to the New Hampshire higher educational and health facilities authority. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Martha Fuller Clark for Commerce: The most important part of SB 191 is the expansion of the Authority borrowers to include a wider range of not-for-profit health care and educational institutions eligible for the Authority's funds. The bill changes the name of the Authority to reflect the Authority's expanded powers with respect to its borrowers. Finally, the bill makes changes in the requirements for conducting business by permitting members of the board to participate in meetings by telephone as long as at least two members of the board are physically present at a location available to the public. The majority of the members constituting a quorum present and voting is now necessary for any action taken by the corporation. Present shall mean by phone as well as in person. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1641h)

Amend RSA 195-D:4, IV as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. The board of directors shall elect one of its members as ~~[chairman]~~ chairperson, another as vice ~~[chairman]~~ chairperson, and shall also elect a secretary, who need not be a member of the board. Four members of the board of directors constitute a quorum, and the vote of ~~[4 members of the board of directors]~~ a majority of the members constituting a quorum present and voting is necessary for any action taken by the corporation. A vacancy in the membership of the board of directors of the corporation does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the powers and perform the duties of the corporation. Notwithstanding RSA 91-A or any other law to the contrary, members of the board shall be permitted to participate in meetings by telephone, provided that any board member so participating shall be able to be heard and to hear every other board member participating in the meeting, and unless the board is meeting in nonpublic session pursuant to RSA 91-A:3, shall be able to hear and be heard by all members of the public attending the meeting, and that the meeting is held at a physical location available to the public and identified in the notice of the meeting, and that at least 2 members of the authority are physically present at the meeting. Voting members of the board participating by telephone shall be treated as present at the meeting for all purposes, including the establishment of quorum.

SB 212-FN, requiring the insurance department to develop a plan to address the needs of persons with chronic illnesses and disabilities. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: The bill would have required the Insurance Department to study and report on the unique problems individuals with chronic illnesses and disabilities have with traditional commercial insurance. The committee recognizes these problems, but acknowledges the Insurance Department's reluctance to undertake the study without the $150,000 they estimate is needed to complete the study. The bill has no funding mechanism in it. Instead of simply ignoring the issue, the committee will include language under another bill which allows the Department of Health and Human Services to study methods of providing transitional insurance to individuals leaving medicaid and going to work. The committee feels there is enough similarity in the goals of both pieces of legislation to allow this committee report to pass. Vote 12-1.

HB 746, relative to emergency police assistance. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Andrew Christie, Jr. for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: In New Hampshire today there are 9 special reaction teams. Only the State Police team has jurisdiction throughout the entire state. Because of recent history, we felt it was important to provide a vehicle so the other 8 teams could respond to a community in need. HB 746 does just that by including special reaction teams under the provisions of RSA 106-C, Emergency Police Assistance. This statute covers how the call for assistance is made, where the liability for loss, damage or expenses rests and all other contingencies. Presently all these team leaders are meeting with the Attorney General to coordinate training, communication and other related issues. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1675h)

Amend RSA 106-C:1, VII-VIII as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

VII. "Special reaction team" means any distinct unit of a police department or any regional unit comprised of more than one police department organized and equipped for the purpose of responding to critical incident emergencies and whose members have been specially trained to respond to such emergencies.

VIII. "Critical incident emergency" means a life threatening incident of major proportions, including, but not limited to, hostage situations, barricaded persons, and situations involving armed persons.

Amend RSA 106-C:3-a as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

106-C:3-a Inter-community Special Reaction Team Assistance for Critical Incident Emergency. The chief executive officer, or such officer's designee, of a police department with the special reaction team or the person designated by the chief executive officers of the member communities of a regional special reaction team as authorized to order the deployment of such regional special reaction team is authorized to assign the special reaction team to extend assistance to any other county or municipality in times of a critical incident emergency. Requests for such assistance shall be made by the chief executive officer, or such officer's designee, of the police department in need of emergency police assistance for a critical incident emergency. Requests for such assistance may also be made by the ranking on-duty state police officer when the state police is coordinating the response to a critical incident emergency and is in need of emergency police assistance, or by the commander of a regional special response team when that team is coordinating the response to a critical incident emergency and is in need of emergency police assistance.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the chief officer of a police department with a special reaction team or a person authorized to order deployment of a regional special reaction team to assign the special reaction team to extend assistance to any other county or municipality in times of a critical incident emergency.

Vote 12-0.

Amend RSA 143:11, I(a) as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. All persons have the right to engage in lawful activities and to exercise and enjoy the rights secured by the United States and New Hampshire Constitutions and the laws of the United States and New Hampshire without being subject to actual or threatened physical force or violence against them or any other person or by actual or threatened damage to or trespass on property when such actual or threatened conduct is motivated by race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender, or disability. "Threatened physical force" and "threatened damage to or trespass on property" is a communication, by physical conduct or by declaration, of an intent to inflict harm on a person or a person's property by some unlawful act with a purpose to terrorize or coerce.

II. It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere or attempt to interfere with the rights secured by this chapter.

354-B:2 Civil Action by Attorney General.

I. Whenever the attorney general has probable cause to believe that any person has violated any provision of this chapter, the attorney general may bring a civil action for injunctive or other appropriate equitable relief.

II. The civil action brought by the attorney general shall be filed in the superior court or, in the case of a child under the age of 17, either in superior court or the district court in the county or judicial district where the alleged violator resides or where the alleged conduct occurred. In the case of a child under the age of 17, all such proceedings shall be confidential.

III. Testimony given during civil proceedings held under this chapter by a person alleged to have violated any provision of this chapter shall not be admissible in a criminal proceeding against that person when the criminal proceeding is based on the same event.

IV. In a civil action brought under this chapter, the attorney general shall have the burden of proving the violation by clear and convincing evidence.

354-B:3 Remedies. Each violation of this chapter is a civil violation for which the court may impose any of the following:

I. A civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each violation.

II. Such appropriate injunctive relief as the court may deem necessary to prevent continued violation of this chapter or to protect lawful exercise of these rights secured by this chapter.

III. Other equitable relief, including restitution to any person damaged by the violation. For the purposes of this paragraph "restitution" means out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the person damaged by the violation to the extent not covered by other sources.

IV. Nothing in this section shall limit the right of the person damaged by the violation to pursue any other appropriate cause of action.

354-B:4 Violation of Civil Injunction, Criminal Penalty.

I. A person who knowingly violates a temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction issued under this chapter shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

II. Each temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction issued under this chapter shall include a statement describing the penalties provided in this chapter for knowing violation of the order or injunction. Any combination of injunctions issued under this chapter shall be for a total period of time not to exceed 3 years but may be extended by order of the court upon motion by the attorney general.

III. The clerk of the appropriate court shall transmit one certified copy of each order or injunction issued under this chapter to the appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the location where the defendant is alleged to have committed the act giving rise to the action and to the law enforcement agency where the defendant resides, if different.

IV. All actions brought under this chapter shall have priority in the court scheduling in the court in which the action is brought. Superior court rules relative to temporary restraining orders and injunctions shall apply in actions brought in district courts under this chapter.

354-B:5 Applicability to Persons Under the Age of 17. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an action may be brought in superior court against a person under the age of 17 under this chapter. All provisions of this chapter shall apply to such actions.

354-B:6 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

SB 209-FN-L, establishing a study committee on certain matters concerning superior court justices. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert H. Rowe for Judiciary: The committee unanimously supported the idea of studying the possibility of establishing an appellate division of the courts utilizing superior court justices. The amendment required the three members of the Senate and the three members of the House to be members of the Judiciary Committees, respectively. The amendment further set the reporting date of the study to Feb. 15, 2000. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1615h)

Amend paragraph 1 of section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the senate, who shall be members of the judiciary committee, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, who shall be members of the judiciary committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before February 15, 2000.

SB 32, relative to an employer exemption under the unemployment compensation laws. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Richard E. Dolan for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The committee heard conflicting testimony on the application of tests used to determine whether or not someone is an independent contractor. It was the desire of the majority to support the bill as passed by the Senate but also to amend the bill by adding a joint study committee of House and Senate members. It is our intent that the study committee reviews not only the definitions and treatment of independent contractor under Department of Employment Security (DES) statutes but any other aspect of DES law as well. Vote 15-2.

Amendment (1606h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT exempting employers of certain part-time contractors from providing unemployment compensation, and establishing a study committee to analyze ways to reconcile inconsistencies within the statutes with regard to independent contractors.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subparagraph; Exception to the Term Employment. Amend RSA 282-A:9, IV by inserting after subparagraph (v) the following new subparagraph:

(w) Service performed by an individual who, on a temporary, part-time, contract basis, demonstrates products, offers samples of products or promotional materials to customers, conducts store audits or performs mystery shopping as part of an advertising or sales promotion for the products when such activities are conducted in the field or over the telephone on premises not used or controlled by the person for whom such contract services are being provided.

2 Committee Established. There is established a committee to review the inconsistencies within the state's statutes dealing with independent contractors.

3 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.

The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

6 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 1999.

7 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill exempts employers of certain part-time contractors from providing unemployment compensation, and provides for the establishment of a study committee to conduct an analysis of ways to reconcile inconsistencies within the statutes with regard to independent contractors.

REGULAR CALENDAR – Part I

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Reps. Chandler and Burling move that Rule 48 (a) be suspended as to permit consideration at the present time of HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2000, and June 30, 2001.

Adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2000, and June 30, 2001. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for the Majority of Finance: This bill is the state's budget for the next two fiscal years. It contains virtually no cuts in spending from last year's levels. As our rules require, it is a balanced budget that provides $5.4 billion from all funds, including $2.1 billion in general funds, to meet the state's responsibilities. Those responsibilities include general government, health and human services, justice and public protection, environmental services, transportation, and education. As those responsibilities have increased, the budget has increased. General fund spending for the next biennium is up 6.7% over current spending. In the first year, total general fund appropriations are $1.037 billion, up 3.9% or about $40 million over current spending levels.

This budget is a "live within your means" budget. It not only meets our traditional responsibilities but also fulfills our education obligations. It closes the so-called $90 million Claremont gap, and it does so without new or additional taxes.

Some highlights of the budget: (1) Almost all agencies and programs are level-funded or receive increased funding. (2) Funding for the so-called 27th pay period and for step increases is provided for all state employees except unclassified employees and judges. (3) Provider payments for Medicaid-eligible individuals are funded at higher levels than in the governor's budget. (4) Health and Human Services (HHS) is required to make personnel reductions to recognize the significant investments in computers recently made by the state. (5) A $7 million discretionary fund has been provided for the commissioner of the Department of Health and Human Services to use in meeting critical technology and direct service needs in excess of the levels funded in this budget. (6) The Berlin prison is fully funded to open as scheduled. (7) Transportation needs are fully funded. (8) The University System is level-funded. (9) The Youth Development Services budget reflects reductions designed to force down its $300+ daily rate, of which counties pay 25%. (10) Cities and towns receive nearly $40 million in additional aid. The local share of meals and rooms tax and revenue sharing are fully funded. (11) Retired state employees health insurance premiums are fully funded. (12) Funding is increased for settlement services, including foster care, residential and social and legal services. (13) The Children's Health Insurance Plan (CHIP) is funded from non-general funds. (14) Catastrophic aid for special education is fully funded. (15) Building aid is fully funded. (16) Unlike the governor's budget, over $2 million in food stamp repayments to the federal government are recognized. (16) The general fund match is provided in those areas that have high federal match rates, such as domestic violence and juvenile justice.

There are increases contained in this budget, but they are not as large as those proposed in the governor's budget. They are, however, sufficient to provide essential services to the state's most vulnerable populations. They are also sufficient to fulfill our education funding requirements without imposing additional taxes on our citizens. The governor's budget does not do this. Consequently her budget is not a balanced budget; this budget is. Vote 15-10.

Rep. Mary Jane Wallner for the Minority of Finance: We believe that the enormous cuts from the governor's budget leave New Hampshire's most vulnerable populations with decreased essential services. The governor's budget was funded at a 3% increase, close to inflation despite the fact that many of the costs of programs for Health and Human Services have risen far above the inflation rate. The Finance budget includes massive cuts in most areas of the HHS budget and include but are not limited to the following:

- over $400,000 cut to programs to test sexually transmitted diseases, including HIV/AIDS which will greatly increase the chance of these diseases being spread; equipment maintenance for labs machines which can lead to faulty diagnosis of communicable diseases and unreliable testing for DWI violations which can then be challenged in court

- $36,000 eliminated from newborn screening for metabolic and genetic disorders for 990 infants. This testing detects preventable illnesses that if not treated could lead to a lifetime disability, which in addition to human costs, the state will be paying for over the life of the individual.

- $154,000 not funded which would improve dental access to seven community-based dental clinics for children's dental care.

- $144,000 cut for 93 chronically ill children who will not be able to attend clinics for amputees, feeding or swallowing, and other essential education programs for some of the most vulnerable of NH's children who have no other access to care.

- cuts of $131,000 cutting the purchase of cameras and recorders required by law to tape record all child abuse investigations including recording signs of physical trauma.

- in FY01, due to a cut of $419, 000, 50 abused or neglected children will not receive counseling, foster care, or family support services. The budget does not allow for expected increases in children and youth needing services. In the same year, the budget cuts the rate increases for providers whose fixed costs cannot be met without increases for inflation. This has already created great difficulties in hiring and maintaining personnel.

- Drastic cuts would eliminate 24 child protective workers, resulting in 1600 children not being assessed for abuse or neglect in a timely way. 11 Juvenile service officers would also be cut, making caseloads of over 100 per staff. This eliminates any supervision and reduces monitoring of the delinquents, resulting in higher rates of recidivism and compromising community safety.

- $1 million has been cut from the Community Mental Health System. 3506 children will have their medicaid services limited. 1780 children at risk for serious emotional disturbance will be eliminated as eligible for services. This will increase admissions to NH Hospital, although its capacity has also been cut.

- $6½ million reduction in Developmental Disabilities services will result in approximately 185 individuals on the Developmental Services Priority Wait List in FY 2000 and a projected 70 individuals in FY 2001 not receiving services. The priority wait list is composed of individuals whose need places them at imminent risk of substantial physical or emotional harm or significant regression.

This budget proposes eliminating rate increases for providers of home care, homemakers, adult group day care, respite care, home-delivered and congregate meals to frail elderly living in the community. The budget also eliminates home-delivered meals to 142 homebound elderly, causing many of them to be at risk of needing nursing home admission.

Nursing Services are reduced by $6 million in FY 2000 and $13.3 million in FY 2001. The legislature's mandate to develop home and community-based options for elders are undermined by this budget proposal. In addition to limiting choice for elders, the cuts reduce the overall dollars available. Every general fund dollar eliminated results in the loss of three other dollars that support New Hampshire citizens in their homes and communities.

The Finance Committee divides the operating budget into three parts and assigns each part to a permanent sub-committee called a division. When the division completes its review it recommends action to the full committee where the final budget document is produced.

Few cuts were made to the portion of the budget reviewed by Division I. However, when the full committee met it slashed the budgets of the major agencies across the board by 1% in '00 and 2% in '01. Included in the Division I budget scrutiny is the Liquor Commission, Department of Resources and Economic Development, Department of Environmental Services, and the Department of Corrections, among others. Division I budgets were reduced by a total of $19,000,000.

Division II is responsible for all levels of education from kindergarten through the University System. In the year that New Hampshire labored to provide equal educational opportunities to all its children, the operating budget for education at all levels was decimated. In elementary and secondary education the following cuts to HB 1 took place:

Reading Recovery in 65 school districts – eliminated;

Regional vocational center tuition and transportation 77 school districts – reduced;

Best Schools Initiative - eliminated;

Assistance in using assessment results – eliminated;

Adult Basic Education - 29 local programs denied growth opportunities.

In addition, receipt of $66,000,000 in federal funds has been put in jeopardy by not funding Hearing Record production and reducing the line item for state testing.

Our Voc-Tech Community Colleges will be forced to raise tuition that is already the highest in the country and the quality and breadth of existing programs will be diminished.

For the last decade appropriations to the University System budget not only have failed to keep pace with the CPI, state support for the number of in-state students actually declined. No support at all was provided for the additional 2,446 New Hampshire students enrolled in that time period. Either tuition must be increased or the number of in-state students decreased, or both, to live within a level funded budget.

This list of cuts represents only a sample of the devastation wreaked on all segments of the budget. The minority feels it is not only cruel but also irresponsible to squeeze services to citizens of New Hampshire in order to fund the Claremont decision.

SULLIVAN

and the Burling floor amendment (1715h) was adopted.

The question now being the adoption of the majority report.

On a division vote, 193 members having voted in the affirmative and 161 in the negative, the majority report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

Rep. Gilman declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Reps. Boyce, Wendelboe, Loren Jean and Dalrymple requested that their protest be entered on the Journal.

I (we) have voted against the budget bill, House Bill 1, as amended. This is not a balanced budget. This budget is irresponsible in that it does not include funds to cover the shortfall in the House Bill 117, Claremont resolution. To pass a budget without the funds to cover the appropriation is in clear violation of the balanced budget requirement voted into law last year.

RECONSIDERATION

Having voted with the prevailing side, Rep. Hager moved that the House reconsider its action whereby it ordered to third reading HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2000 and June 30, 2001, and spoke against.

Reconsideration failed.

RECESS

(Speaker Sytek in the Chair)

HB 2-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for the Majority of Finance: This is the companion or trailer bill to HB 1, the biennial budget. It contains necessary statutory changes to allow HB 1-A to be executed appropriately. Other provisions: (1) The 25c tobacco tax increase passed by the House but not by the Senate is re-adopted. (2) The state guarantee on Pease Development Authority bonds was reduced from $60 to $35 million at the PDA's suggestion. (3) An eighth House member is added to the Joint Committee on Employee relations to re-establish parity to the number of House and Senate members. (4) Several study committees are established. (5) Several salary classification changes were made. (6) Should HB 245, relative to fees and appropriations to the division of safety services, become law, boating-related fees would revert to their current status. (7) Prior approval by governor and council of out-of-state trips by state officials is repealed to make it easier for agencies to do their jobs. Vote 14-11.

Rep. Mary Jane Wallner for the Minority of Finance: The minority disagrees with many of the provisions in HB 2 as amended. The amended version contains language which directs the Commissioner of Health and Human Services to reduce the department's personnel lines by 1% in FY 2000 and 2% in FY 2001. This is to reflect efficiencies in the department because of technology, but in the budget bill technology support was cut $2½ million each year. Also in the budget bill the commissioner was required to cut $4.5 million each year out of the personnel lines.

The bill also provides a mechanism for not paying unclassified state employees, judges and retired judges the 27th pay period. This will be done by taking their annual salary and dividing by 27 pay periods instead of 26 pay periods.

An additional $8.4 million of surplus that would have gone by law to the Rainy Day Fund and the Health Care Transition Fund would go to the Education Trust Fund.

The minority was concerned that numerous other items in the bill bypass the usual legislative process.

Amendment (1655h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Intent. The purpose of this bill is to make those changes to the general laws necessary to effectuate the intent of the operating budget, but which are prohibited from being included in the operating budget by Part II, Article 18-a of the New Hampshire Constitution.

For fiscal year 2000, the annual salary or retirement benefits shall be divided by 27 and the result shall be the gross wages or retirement benefits paid to said employees or judges for each biweekly installment. All persons employed in such unclassified positions or persons who are full-time or retired judges shall be notified of the provisions of this section pursuant to RSA 275:49, II.

III. After approval by the fiscal committee the department shall forward a copy of each quarterly report to the house finance committee, the senate finance committee, and the governor and council.

IV. In order to reflect the efficiencies of the recent, significant state investment in computers and other technologies, the commissioner of health and human services shall convert an amount of department of health and human services' funded positions to unfunded positions for which salaries and benefits total one percent of the department's total general fund appropriations for salaries and benefits in fiscal year 2000 and 2 percent of the department's total general fund appropriations for salaries and benefits in fiscal year 2001.

V. The provisions of this section shall not apply to boards which are administratively attached to the department of health and human services.

II. The commissioner of the department of health and human services is authorized to allocate the funds transferred and appropriated in paragraph I to provide additional information technologies and direct services where case loads or costs have increased beyond the levels provided for in the commissioner's budget for reasons beyond the control of the department. In allocating these funds, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, maximization of matching funds and meeting maintenance of effort requirements. These funds shall not be used directly or indirectly, by substitution, transfer, or otherwise, for any other purpose.

III. The commissioner of the department of health and human services shall notify the fiscal committee of the general court of the planned allocation of the funds transferred in paragraph I. If the committee does not object to such allocation within 10 days of receipt of the plan, then the commissioner of the department of administrative services shall cause the funds to be so allocated.

SPECIAL ORDER

HB 703-FN-A-L, establishing a regional youth center pilot program in the city of Nashua and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. L. Randy Lyman for Children and Family Law: The overall intent of this legislation is to encourage and enable the establishment of community-based regional youth centers for the provision of residential and non-residential services for juveniles involved in the juvenile justice system. HB 703 enables a pilot regional youth center in Nashua. It encourages an existing local interdisciplinary group made up of residents of the Nashua community to establish a board which will pursue the design and construction of a facility using federal funds where services can be provided to juveniles by local providers and local schools. The facility will be staff-secure and will only serve non-violent offenders. Violent offenders will continue to be housed at the Youth Development Center. The local district court judge will be able to sentence juveniles to the facility for up to 90 days. The local board will establish rules and regulations for the youth center which will include criteria for admission and dismissal. Facility site and other details will also be determined by the local board. The legislation requires that an outcome based evaluation plan for the facility is established which shall provide for the collection of appropriate data and the identification of specific measures so that the success of the facility can be evaluated. It is contemplated that the Department of Youth Development Services will provide the personnel for the bed supervision. However, there is no appropriation in this bill because operation of the facility will not begin before July 1, 2001. It is estimated that the design and construction of a facility will take the next two years. The committee supports the concept of regional youth centers with the overall goal of doing a better job of serving young people in their local communities so that we may prevent them from going to YDC or the state prison in the future. Vote 13-4.

Amendment (1539h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a regional youth center pilot program in the city of Nashua.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Regional Youth Center Pilot Program Established; Purpose.

I. A regional youth center pilot program for the placement of certain juveniles is hereby established in the city of Nashua, which may include the construction of a new regional youth center facility in the city of Nashua with an initial capacity of 25 residential beds and the capacity to increase to not more than 50 beds.

II. The intent of the legislature is to encourage and enable the establishment of community-based regional youth centers for the provision of residential and non-residential services for juveniles involved in the juvenile justice system. Local providers, the counties, and the state shall work together to provide an appropriate response to those juveniles determined to need a variety of programs and services that can be provided in a staff-secure setting. No similar facility currently exists within this state to provide short-term comprehensive community-based services for such juveniles, and the Nashua regional youth center pilot program is intended to be a model for other community-oriented juvenile facilities throughout this state in the future.

III. The purpose of the pilot program is to provide community-based services, including short-term residential services, for juveniles. The goal of this act is to encourage, in the context of the community, the wholesome moral, mental, emotional, and physical development of juveniles, including but not limited to those between the ages of 12 and 16, who are delinquent, in need of services, truant, runaway, or otherwise wayward, in order to assist the child in becoming a responsible and productive member of society. In order to accomplish this goal, community service providers in the Nashua area have agreed to provide education, treatment, care, guidance, and counseling for juveniles at a regional youth center.

2 Regional Youth Center Pilot Program; Regional Youth Center Board; Purpose; Membership.

I. A regional youth center board shall be established for the purpose of administering the regional youth center pilot program. The members of the board shall be selected by the working group of local agencies currently meeting on a regular basis in the city of Nashua on issues relating to this pilot program. The board shall consist of residents of the communities of Nashua, Hudson, or Hollis. The commissioners of the departments of youth development services, and health and human services, or their designees, shall also be members of the board.

II. Board members shall be appointed and hold their initial meeting within 60 days of the effective date of this paragraph. At this initial meeting officers, including a chairperson and secretary, shall be elected and rules of procedure shall be adopted. Members of the board shall serve without compensation.

3 Powers and Duties. The regional youth center board shall have the following powers and duties:

I. To establish criteria for the admission of juveniles into the regional youth center pilot program and to decline admission to any juvenile who does not meet those criteria. The board may, pursuant to procedures established by the board remove any juvenile from the regional youth center pilot program whose conduct interferes with the objectives of the program or whose behavior negatively affects another participant in the pilot program.

II. With the exception of bed supervision, to contract for the provision of ordinary and necessary services, including but not limited to residential, educational, security, healthcare services and community-based treatment, care, and counseling services for both juveniles attending the pilot program and their families.

III. To pursue additional funding for the pilot program, including but not limited to, grants or other moneys from federal, state, or private foundations or sources, and expend such grants, moneys, or other appropriations for the purposes of said pilot program.

IV. To establish an outcome-based evaluation plan for the program which shall provide for the collection of appropriate data and for the determination annually of the success of the regional youth center programming and services based on specific measures to be determined by the board.

V. To provide residential services to preadjudicated juveniles, adjudicated juvenile delinquents and children in need of services, and juveniles taken into temporary custody pursuant to RSA 169-B:9, II and RSA 169-D:8, II.

VI. To provide non-residential services to court-ordered and non-court-ordered juveniles on such terms and conditions as provided for in the criteria for admission established by the board.

4 Bed Supervision. The department of youth development services shall provide bed supervision for the regional youth center facility established in this act. Bed supervision shall consist of monitoring and supervising juveniles receiving residential services during the night time hours as such hours are established by the regional youth center board. The board shall determine the need for and extent of daytime supervision of juveniles in residence who are unable for any reason, including but not limited to illness, attend or participate in daytime programming. The state shall be responsible only for expenses related to bed supervision of juveniles in residence at the regional youth center facility.

5 Rulemaking. The commissioner of the department of youth development services shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the bed supervision of juveniles placed in the regional youth center facility pursuant to the provisions of RSA 169-B and 169-D.

6 Nashua District Court; Jurisdiction.

I. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the pilot program and services established in this act shall be available for the purposes of actions and proceedings pursuant to RSA 169-B and 169-D in the Nashua district court only.

II. IV. The authority of the Nashua district court to place a juvenile in the pilot program is subject to the criteria established by the regional youth center board for the admission of juveniles to the pilot program and the authority of the board to decline to accept or to remove any juvenile who does not meet those criteria.

SB 52, requiring insurance coverage for infertility treatments. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Joseph D. Kenney for Commerce: The committee felt this legislation needed further study to address male infertility treatment procedures, which the bill left out. Additionally, to determine the types of infertility medical procedures that should be covered under current technology. Lastly, to review the April 27, 1999 Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Ruling which determined infertility as a disability based on the provisions of the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, as amended by the Pregnancy Discrimination Act and how this might affect health insurance coverage under current New Hampshire law. Vote 14-0. Adopted.

SB 93, relative to self-service storage facility liens. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
 Rep. Tim S. McGough for Commerce: This bill, as amended, establishes a process by which an operator of a self-storage facility can recover past due rent and fees and prevent delinquent tenants from removing their belongings without first satisfying their debt. The new process also protects the consumer by prohibiting the operator from opening a locked unit and removing any items before a period of 30 days has passed. After 30 days past due, the operator may remove the items from the unit, but must notify the renter and keep the property for a minimum of an additional 28 days, longer if the property has a lien on it, before they may be auctioned to satisfy the debt. The amendment also defines under what criteria property stored in this type of facility can be deemed abandoned similar to current landlord-tenant abandoned property statutes. Vote 10-3.

Amendment (1508h)

Amend RSA 451-C:3 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

451-C:3 Removal and Disposal of Personal Property. If any of the rent, charges, fees or expenses referred to in this chapter shall remain unpaid for 5 days, the owner may place a lock on the storage unit, in addition to any lock placed thereon by the occupant. The owner may deny access to the unit until the unpaid rent, charges, fees or expenses are paid in full by the occupant. If after 30 days, any of the rent, charges, fees or expenses shall remain unpaid, the owner may remove the occupant's lock as well as the owner's lock, remove any personal property from the unit and retain such personal property, and then, after first satisfying the notice provisions of RSA 451-C:4, RSA 451-C:5 and RSA 451-C:6, unless exempted by RSA 451-C:7, proceed to sell such personal property to satisfy the lien. Proceeds from the sale shall be distributed pursuant to RSA 451-C:6

Amend RSA 451-C:7 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

451-C:7 Abandoned Property.

I. In the event that a storage unit is unlocked, and the rent on the unit is past due, and the entire contents of the unit has a total value under $500, the property shall be deemed abandoned. Such property may then be removed from the self storage unit and shall be retained for 30 days. If after 30 days, the occupant does not claim such personal property and any of the rent charges, fees or expenses remain unpaid, and there is no lienholder of record, the owner may dispose of the property without notice to the occupant.

II. In the event that a storage unit is locked, and the rent on the unit is past due, and the entire contents of the unit has a total value under $500, the property shall be deemed abandoned. If after 30 days, the occupant does not claim such personal property and any of the rent charges, fees or expenses remain unpaid, and there is no lienholder of record, the owner shall be exempt from the requirements of RSA 451-C:5 and RSA 451-C:6, may remove such property from the self storage unit, and dispose of the property without notice to the occupant.

Amend RSA 451-C as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after RSA 451-C:9 the following new section:

451-C:10 Disclosure. An owner of a self storage facility shall disclose, in any rental agreement or lease, the terms and conditions of such rental agreement or lease and the notice provisions of RSA 451-C to an occupant before renting or leasing the storage unit.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Toni M. Crosby for Commerce: The Commerce Committee agrees with the Senate that insurance coverage for prescription contraceptive drugs, devices and services should be required. The amendment removes the somewhat controversial word "procedures" and clearly states that the coverage shall be subject to the terms and condition of the policy. This timely bill addresses the goal of preventing unwanted pregnancies in a cost effective manner. Vote 15-2.

and the report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

Rep. Janet Wall voted Nay and intended to vote Yea.

SB 222-FN-A-L, relative to guarantee of loans to local development organizations. OUGHT TO PASS
 Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill establishes additional bonding authority for the Business Finance Authority to guarantee loans to local development corporations. This is important economic development legislation and the committee hopes it will survive the Finance Committee since it requires an appropriation of $3,000,000. Vote 13-0.
 Adopted and referred to Finance.

SB 122, allowing certain prisoners to earn good conduct credits reducing such person's minimum sentence. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Beth Rodd for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill as introduced is essentially the same bill as SB 181, which was introduced in 1997. The committee felt that passage of SB 122 would undermine New Hampshire Truth in Sentencing laws. An inmate could receive a reduction of their minimum sentence under SB 122 for offenses such as all felony drug offenses under RSA Chapter 318-B; felony stalking, RSA 633:3(a)VI(a) and felony interference with custody, RSA 633:4.I. The committee felt that it is important for the victims to know that the accused will serve the sentence imposed by the judge. Also, if SB 122 passed judges would make sure their sentences reflected available good time credits. For example instead of sentencing 2-4 years as they would in current law, they would sentence 3 ½ to 7 if there were good time credits available. This way they would be sure that the accused would serve a specific amount of time. Another concern for the committee was that if SB 122 became law, word would travel fast that New Hampshire sentences were more lenient and this would attract a criminal element from another state to New Hampshire. SB 122 is a step backwards for Truth in Sentencing, which has been partially responsible for the declining rate of crime in New Hampshire. Vote 15-3.

Adopted.

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Welch moved that SB 227-FN, establishing a gambling business felony be made a Special Order for the next session day in the Regular Calendar order, and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 599-FN-A, relative to initiating a centralized voter checklist and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sylvia A. Holley for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill as introduced established a new Assistant Secretary of State at $32,000 and appropriated $100,000 to hire consultants to work on the development of a centralized voter checklist. This amendment replaces the bill completely and expands the duties of the committee established by SB 124 studying the integration of technology at the state, county and municipal levels to include integration of technology necessary to develop a statewide voter registration database. A member of the House Election Law Committee will serve on this committee. Vote 14-4.

Amendment (1616h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

SB 53-FN, relative to licensure of physicians providing teleradiology services in this state. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Maurice E. Goulet for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill, as amended, establishes the first step in statute of telemedicine in New Hampshire. It deals only with the teleimaging of x-rays. It provides that an x-ray be read by a physician licensed in New Hampshire. It does, however, allow a New Hampshire radiologist to teleimage an x-ray to a consultant radiologist in another jurisdiction. The New Hampshire physician still has the responsibility for the patients' diagnosis and treatment. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1545h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings and Purpose. The general court finds that when appropriately utilized, teleradiology may improve access to radiological evaluations and interpretations and thus significantly improve patient care. Out-of-state physicians who provide radiological services via teleradiology to New Hampshire citizens should be held to the same standard of care as New Hampshire licensed physicians; therefore, to assure quality and accountability, such out-of-state physicians shall be required to obtain a New Hampshire medical license.

2 New Section; Teleradiology. Amend RSA 329 by inserting after section 1-a the following new section:

329:1-b Practice of Teleradiology.

I. In this section, "Teleradiology" means the evaluation, interpretation, or consultation by the electronic transmission of radiological images from one location to another.

II. Any out-of-state physician providing radiological services who performs radiological diagnostic evaluations or interpretations for New Hampshire patients by means of teleradiology shall be deemed to be in the practice of medicine and shall be required to be licensed under this chapter.

III. This section shall not apply to out-of-state radiologists who provide consultation services pursuant to RSA 329:21, II.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the licensure as physicians of out-of-state radiologists who provide teleradiology services in this state.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 115, relative to participation by certain judges in the state employee group health and dental insurance programs. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Michael O'Neil for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill would allow participation by certain judges at their own expense in the state employees group health and dental insurance program. Members of the judiciary agreed that the interest level in such a plan was insufficient to warrant implementation. Vote 11-6.

Adopted.

SB 186-FN, relative to additional cost of living adjustments and increased minimum allowances for certain retired group II members, and relative to requiring spousal acknowledgement of a member's election of an optional retirement allowance. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
 Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill increases the minimum service retirement allowance from Group II, Police and Firemen, from $5,200 to $7,500. This will provide to any Group II member, on a service retirement, an allowance of $7,500. The beneficiaries shall receive a 50% benefit allowance if the retiree selected a beneficiary before retirement. It also includes a requirement that a spouse must acknowledge any election or change in the benefit chosen by the retired member. As of this date, the spouse did not have to be informed as to any arrangements made by the retiree regarding optional retirement allowance. The total actuarial cost of this additional allowance shall be terminally funded from the special account at a cost of approximately 8 million. The amendment also repeals the social security benefit reduction. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1674h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to increased minimum allowances for certain retired group II members, and relative to requiring spousal acknowledgement of a member's election of an optional retirement allowance.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Service Retirement; Group II; Minimum Allowance Increased. Amend RSA 100-A:5, II (c) (1) to read as follows:

(c)(1) Notwithstanding any provision of RSA 100-A to the contrary, any group II member who has retired on a full service retirement allowance shall receive a minimum service retirement allowance of [~~$5,200~~] $7,500. In comparing the minimum service retirement allowance and the full service retirement allowance, the full service retirement allowance shall be the sum of the basic allowance plus COLA's. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to a group II member who has retired on a reduced or on a vested deferred retirement allowance. In the case of a group II member who has retired on a full service retirement allowance, and who has elected to convert the retirement allowance into an optional allowance for the surviving spouse under RSA 100-A:13, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to a proportional share of the [~~$5,200~~] $7,500 which shall be based upon the optional allowance which the surviving spouse is receiving. Under no circumstances shall the provisions of this subparagraph be construed to reduce the retirement benefits being paid to a group II member as of the effective date of this subparagraph.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 Funding of Minimum Allowances. The total actuarial cost of the additional allowances provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(c)(1) as inserted by section 1 of this act shall be funded on a terminal basis from the special account established in RSA 100-A:16, II(h).

4 Repeal. RSA 100-A:5, II(c)(2) and (3), relative to the reduction in minimum service retirement allowance due to federal social security benefits or other benefits, are repealed.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect September 1, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill increases the minimum allowance to retired group II members.

This bill also requires a spousal acknowledgment for an election or change of an optional allowance.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

SB 198-FN, relative to certification of persons installing and servicing propane gas and heating oil equipment. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Alida I. Millham for Executive Departments and Administration: After many attempts to enact legislation to license persons installing and servicing residential and commercial propane gas and heating oil equipment this bill enables the State Fire Marshall to establish a voluntary certification program. There will be an eleven member advisory committee established to assist the State Fire Marshall in developing rules and implementing the program. This bill provides for sunset repeal in three years so that the effectiveness of voluntary certification can be evaluated. Vote 15-3.

Amendment (1516h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to voluntary certification of persons installing or servicing propane gas or heating oil equipment.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Certification of Heating Equipment Installers, Heating Equipment Service Personnel and Gas Piping Installers; Penalty.

I. The state fire marshal shall establish a voluntary certification program for certifying the following:

(a) Individuals involved in the installation of residential and commercial heating equipment systems or domestic water heating systems using heating oil, liquefied petroleum gas (propane) or natural gas.

(b) Individuals involved in the servicing and repair of heating equipment and domestic water heating systems using heating oil, liquefied petroleum gas or natural gas.

(c) Individuals involved in the installation of gas piping for heating systems or domestic water heating systems using natural gas or liquefied petroleum gas.

II. The state fire marshal, with the approval of the commissioner of safety, shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the establishment of minimum educational and training standards for voluntarily certified heating equipment installers, heating equipment service personnel, and gas piping installers.

III. The state fire marshal shall adopt rules, which shall not be subject to RSA 541-A, relative to the establishment of fees for voluntary certification under this section. After the first year of this program, such fees shall be sufficient to produce estimated revenues equal to 125 percent of the direct operating expenses of the previous fiscal year.

IV. Whoever falsely claims to be certified under this section through advertising, signage, or verbal representation shall be guilty of a violation if a natural person, or guilty of a misdemeanor if any other person.

2 Advisory Committee on Heating System Certification.

I. There is established a heating system certification advisory committee appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the council.

II. The advisory committee shall assist the state fire marshal in carrying out the duties assigned under section 1 of this act by providing advice regarding:

(a) Developing rules under paragraph II of section 1 of this act.

III. The advisory committee shall include:

(a) Two representatives of New Hampshire propane gas supply companies.

(f) One representative of the New Hampshire Association of Fire Chiefs, recommended by the association.

(g) Two individuals from the public-at-large.

3 Repeal. Sections 1 and 2 of this act, relative to a program for voluntary certification of persons installing or servicing propane gas or heating oil equipment, are repealed.

4 Effective Date.

This bill provides penalties for those who falsely claim to be certified heating equipment installers, heating equipment service personnel and gas piping installers.

This bill also establishes an advisory committee to provide advice to the state fire marshal in carrying out the fire marshal's duties under this act.

The provisions of this bill are repealed 3 years after adoption.

SB 224, relative to stenographic records and availability of transcripts of adjudicative hearings before licensing boards. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Maurice E. Goulet for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill, as amended, clarifies a process for an adjudicative hearing for an occupational licensee. It provides that if a licensee is ordered to appear before a disciplinary board, the notice must contain the following: (a) the licensee has the right to have an attorney to represent himself/herself (at the party's expense), and (b) that the licensee has the right to request, at their expense, a certified court stenographer to record the hearing. If the licensee does request a certified court reporter, said request must be submitted to the hearing board in writing at least 10 days prior to the proceeding. In the case of a contested decision that might be appealed to a higher jurisdiction, the licensee has at least 60 days to request the transcription of the entire proceeding (at the requesting party's expense). This bill helps to strengthen the disciplinary hearing by both parties. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1598h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to notice requirements and recording of hearings in contested cases and relative to records and availability of transcripts of adjudicative hearings on occupational licensing.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subparagraphs; Contested Cases in Adjudicative Proceedings; Notice Requirements. Amend RSA 541-A:31, III by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new paragraphs:

(e) A statement that each party has the right to have an attorney present to represent the party at the party's expense.

(f) For proceedings before an agency responsible for occupational licensing as provided in paragraph VII-a, a statement that each party has the right to have the agency provide a certified shorthand court reporter at the party's expense and that any such request be submitted in writing at least 10 days prior to the proceeding.

2 Contested Cases; Record of Oral Proceedings. Amend RSA 541-A:31, VII to read as follows:

VII. The entirety of all oral proceedings shall be recorded verbatim by the agency and such record shall be available pursuant to RSA 91-A for at least 60 days after the decision or order. Upon the request of any party or upon the agency's own initiative, such record shall be transcribed by the agency if the requesting party or agency shall ~~first~~ pay all reasonable costs for such transcription. Any party may record an oral proceeding, have a transcription made at the party's expense, or both, but only the transcription made by the agency from its verbatim record shall be the official transcript of the proceeding.

3 New Paragraph; Occupational Licensing Proceeding; Certified Shorthand Court Record. Amend RSA 541-A:31 by inserting after paragraph VII the following new paragraph:

VII-a. At the request of a party in any oral proceeding involving disciplinary action before an agency responsible for occupational licensing except for an emergency action under RSA 541-A:30, III, the record of the proceeding shall be made by a certified shorthand court reporter provided by the agency at the requesting party's expense. A request shall be submitted to the agency in writing at least 10 days prior to the day of the proceeding. If a transcript is not provided within 60 days of a request by a person who is a respondent party in a disciplinary proceeding before an agency responsible for occupational licensing, the proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds notice requirements and provides that a stenographic record shall be made by a certified shorthand court reporter in an agency adjudicative proceeding on occupational licensing, upon the request of a party to the proceeding, and requires dismissal of a complaint if a transcript is not provided.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 108, relative to the co-management of patients with primary open-angle glaucoma and establishing a glaucoma co-management committee. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Francine Wendelboe for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill, as amended by the Senate, was requested by the prime sponsor to be found ITL. The optometrists also strongly objected to the amended Senate version. The Medical Society supported co-management and mandatory referral to an ophthalmologist when glaucoma was even "suspected". The optometrists strongly asked we vote ITL as well. Vote 14-5.

Rep. James Pilliod for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The minority of the committee supported "ought to pass" because this bill requires patients of optometrists who are suspected of having glaucoma (the #1 cause of blindness) to be seen and evaluated by an ophthalmologist within 30 days. This bill provides for the optional co-management of patients with primary open-angle glaucoma by optometrists and ophthalmologists. It also creates a two-year study of the co-management of glaucoma patients, which was modeled after a law in Maine. The study follows a standard "medical model" whereby optometrists would be able to demonstrate their skills at diagnosing and recommending appropriate treatment for the glaucoma patients being co-managed. Every two years, legislators are placed in the awkward position of trying to decide how far to expand the optometric scope of practice based on anecdotal evidence. The study will create factual data about optometrists' skill level, upon which any future legislation can be based.

Majority report adopted.

Rep. Lasky declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

SB 214-FN, relative to ambulatory surgical facilities and establishing a committee to study the health services planning and review board. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Francine Wendelboe for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill lowered the dollar threshold at which hospitals or surgery centers would have to go through the Certificate Of Need process for outpatient surgery to $250,000. Several hospitals expressed strong concerns about a figure this low negatively impacting their operation. The current threshold is $1.5 million for hospital outpatient surgery and $1 million (plus inflation index) for ambulatory surgery centers. The House position, as passed under HB 657, leveled the playing field and made the threshold equal for both at $1.25 million. The committee voted to amend SB 214 to the same language of HB 657 to hopefully get to a committee of conference. Although the two bills are far apart on the threshold figure, the committee saw several positive areas in the bill as it came from the Senate and hopes to include them in the committee of conference. Vote 15-6.

Amendment (1578h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the health services planning and review board and the certificate of need process.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

The bill also requires the staff appointed to serve the board to report to the board.
Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 85-FN, including the judiciary as a public employer under the public employee labor relations act. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. John M. Pratt for Judiciary: This is a bill which would give 575 non-judicial employees of the court system the right to collective bargaining. In spite of a proposed amendment which could have addressed some of the committee's concerns, the committee believes there were too many issues, including constitutional ones, to pass this bill at this time. The $36,000 fiscal impact on the budget of the judicial system was of major concern to some members of the committee. The idea is of sufficient importance to justify a more detailed study. Vote 15-3.
Adopted.

SB 82, relative to the termination of employees. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Nancy W. Wall for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill requires employers to provide terminated employees, who have been employed 6 months or more, with a written reason for termination upon the request of the terminated employee (within 30 days after the termination). The majority of the committee feels that the current "at will" status in NH works well; that the additional burdens of expense, work and court costs are not warranted; that records are open and available at the Department of Employment Security; that there are many "unintended consequences". Vote 12-5.

Rep. Mears spoke against.

Rep. Daniels spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Mears requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 457, extending the committee to study electric rate reduction financing. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. John H. Thomas for Science, Technology and Energy: There has been a Memorandum of Understanding between the Governor of the State of New Hampshire and Public Service Company of New Hampshire that includes a number of components, one of which is legislative review and approval of securitization. There are two bills currently before the Senate, one being HB 464, which deals with securitization. Therefore, the committee preferred to re-refer this bill for study. Vote 15-0. Adopted.

SB 20, relative to the sale or resale of tickets to motor sports events at the New Hampshire International Speedway. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce: This bill addresses a concern the New Hampshire International Speedway is having regarding individuals selling and replicating counterfeit tickets to speedway events. The bill would have prevented individuals from scalping tickets within 15 miles of the speedway. The committee found that prohibiting scalping could not prevent the problems of counterfeiting. Therefore, the committee worked with the sponsors to devise a solution which would make all parties happy. The amendment makes it a violation to stop or flag down any vehicle on a public way for the sole purpose of selling a ticket to an entertainment or sports event. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (1643h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to soliciting or selling tickets to entertainment or sports events on public ways.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Prohibition on Stopping Vehicles to Solicit Ticket Sales. Amend RSA 265:40 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. No person shall signal a moving vehicle or stop a vehicle on any public way in order to solicit or sell a ticket of admission to an entertainment or sports event.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill prohibits the signaling or stopping of a vehicle on a public way in order to solicit or sell tickets of admission to entertainment or sports events.

Adopted.

Rep. Kennedy spoke against.

Reps. Buckley, Keith Herman and Hunt spoke in favor.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 537, relative to background checks for firearms purchases. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert G. Holbrook for Finance: This bill authorizes the Department of Safety to perform background checks for firearm purchases with costs of checks being funded by federal funds or from the Department's existing budget. This bill also stresses the need of confidentiality when any checks are completed. If federal funds do not become available, in the next session gun owners may be asked to pay a fee to cover the cost of background check. Vote 23-0.

Reps. Marple and Weber spoke against.

Rep. Welch spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Marple requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

 Ordered to third reading.

SB 135-FN, relative to water supply land protection grants. MAJORITY: RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. David M. Lawton for the Majority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill would establish a state grant program authorizing certain non-profit corporations, municipalities and public water supply corporations to utilize state dollars to acquire lands and/or easements around sources of public drinking water. The cost to the general fund for this program would be $3 million for the biennium. While the committee strongly agrees with the intent of the bill, the strong 17-4 majority believes that re-referral of SB 135-FN at this time will best serve the interests of protecting New Hampshire's valuable water resources. During 5 subcommittee meetings many areas of concern were uncovered in the details of what was initially assumed to be a simple piece of legislation. One item of contention was the level of the state's 50% share of acquisition/easement costs relative to the applicant's share. Another contentious item was the question of who would be responsible for the stewardship of the lands acquired and where the funds for this would come from. If re-referred, a hard-working subcommittee will be formed to address all of the issues and will present an amended version in January, 2000, which will resolve the many areas of concern uncovered in SB 135-FN. Vote 17-4.

Rep. MaryAnn N. Blanchard for the Minority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill creates a matching grant program of up to 50% from the Department of Environmental Services (DES) to assist in the acquisition of land or easements for the purpose of protecting drinking water resources. This bill resulted from a study by DES and Society for Protection of New Hampshire Forests (SPNHF) which documented the unprotected state of the majority of the lands surrounding New Hampshire's public water supplies and increasing the possibility of protecting them. This bill is supported by the NH Municipal Association, the Farm Bureau, BIA, regional planning commissions, towns municipal water suppliers, Society for Protection of New Hampshire Forests and DES. The Minority thinks that this bill is sound water resource management, sound municipal planning, sound economic development and is especially critical now for many New Hampshire communities experiencing soaring development on lands around their public water supplies.

Reps. Blanchard and Leishman spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. David Lawton spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Whalley spoke in favor.

Rep. Royce requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Francoeur and Fuller Clark addressed the House.

Rep. O'Neil moved that the remarks made by Rep. Francoeur be printed in the Journal.
Adopted.

Rep. Francoeur: I know it is hot. This won't take long. Madam Speaker, as you and the members of this House know, last week while we were in session, there was a very serious fire at Hampton Beach. What we did not know at that time was how devastating a fire it was nor how many businesses were involved. Rep. Bridle, who also happens to be a Hampton firefighter, was beeped during session and left immediately to return to Hampton. What he found when he arrived was a five-alarm fire that engulfed an oceanfront block, a wind coming right off the ocean accelerating the blaze and a beach full of tourists, enjoying what they thought was going to be a day in the sun, adding to the turmoil. Several businesses were completely destroyed: a popular restaurant, a hotel, a gift shop and several apartments. Losses will be several million dollars. A fire at the beach, or any place, is always a terrible thing. But, when your business depends on a short and intensive season it can be devastating. All these businesses were getting ready for "the season" and they were fully stocked, or, in the case of the hotel, just about fully booked for the season. Approximately 100 people have lost their jobs and there will be a loss to the state in rooms and meals tax. But as disastrous as this fire was, you also have to look for some good and in this case you don't have to look too far. First, 23 fire departments responded to help Hampton, 200 firemen and women put their lives on the line, talk about mutual aid. Thanks go out to those departments of North Hampton, Hampton Falls, Exeter, Newington, Greenland, Rye, Stratham, Portsmouth, Newfields, New Castle, Newmarket, Kensington, Seabrook, Dover, Raymond, Epping, Brentwood, the Navy Yard and Salisbury, Amesbury, Merrimack, Newburyport and Newbury, Mass. We take our firefighters for granted until we need them, but, thanks to all of these men and women, what could have been a real disaster was not any worse than it was. Thankfully there were no major injuries. The businesses that were destroyed were all long-established businesses owned by local families and operated by those families. They work extremely hard to make it during a short season and now they have had a season burnt out from under them. But, showing true New England determination, they have all stated that they will rebuild and are moving ahead as best and as fast as they can. So, Madam Speaker, what was truly a surreal scene at Hampton Beach last week has shown me that the true New Hampshire spirit lives in the strength of the families who, faced with devastation, are not hesitating to look to the future and rebuild, the caring of the people who have stepped forward to help them and last, but by no means least, the dedication and quick response of the firefighters like Rusty Bridle and the rest of the Hampton force and all the mutual aid teams. To them we all say "Thank you."

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 23

Wednesday, June 23, 1999

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Representative Gary L. Johnson from the Franconia Community Church of Christ.

Let us be in an attitude of prayer. God of the Universe, once again we come before You, ever mindful that we are both Your children and leaders of Your children. We are looked to for leadership and answers. We come before You in humility and humbleness, understanding our serious responsibility. We ask for Your guidance. Grant us wisdom, grant us understanding. Give us insight and sensitivity. Help us to remember that what we do today can make a difference for tomorrow. We pray for patience in our work and patience with each other. Bless the family of this House, representatives and staff; and bless their families who support their work and understand their absence. And now Lord, help us to always pray as if everything depended on You, and to work as if everything depended on us. Amen

Rep. Callaghan led the Pledge of Allegiance.

COMMITTEE REPORTSCONSENT CALENDAR – PART II

Rep. Chandler moved that the Consent Calendar – Part II with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HB 224-FN-A, establishing a joint committee on code enforcement and appropriating funds for hiring fire investigators in the division of fire safety. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill establishes a joint committee on code enforcement. It also would have established two new fire investigators in the Division of Fire Safety, at a cost of $270,000 in general funds for the biennium. The committee amendment removes the two new positions and the appropriation; since given the current budget situation, the committee is unable to support this appropriation at this time. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1685h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a joint committee on code enforcement.

Amend the bill by deleting section 2 and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 2.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a joint committee on code enforcement.

HB 297-FN, permitting a jury trial in the superior court for alleged violations of the state law against discrimination for a certain time period or with the written assent of the commission for human rights after an action has been filed with the commission. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: This bill as amended by the policy committee allows both claimants and employers to remove discrimination complaints from the Commission for Human Rights after only three months. Since the average time to issue a decision (reduced two-thirds in recent years) has stabilized at 12-15 months, the Finance Committee felt that this would result in nearly all discrimination cases going to the court system. The bill was re-referred to get better information on the costs and on effects of changing the time period. Vote 19-0.

HB 417-FN-A, relative to the rehabilitation of the Walker building at New Hampshire hospital and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Robert E. Clegg for Finance: This bill would appropriate $340,000 of general funds for design work to rehabilitate the Walker building on the state hospital campus. In light of the state's pressing financial needs at this time, the Committee felt it should delay considering this bill until next year. Vote 16-0.

HB 498-FN, establishing a special education catastrophic aid fund and relative to exempting certain unexpected catastrophic special education expenses from the provisions of the municipal budget law. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE
Rep. Avis B. Nichols for Finance: This bill would establish a $2 million special education catastrophic aid fund. It would also exempt certain unexpected catastrophic special education expenses from the municipal budget law. The Committee felt that the special education catastrophic aid fund was not needed, as school districts can borrow for these unanticipated expenses in advance of state reimbursement. The exemptions from the municipal budget law are taken care of in HB 577, which the Committee has recommended for passage. As a result, this bill is no longer needed. Vote 16-0.

HB 577, relative to the power of a school district to expend catastrophic special education funds and relative to the exemption of certain unexpected catastrophic special education expenses from the provisions of the municipal budget law. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Norman L. Major for Finance: This is a technical corrections bill. As amended, it authorizes a school district to expend funds reflecting the total catastrophic special education costs for pupils in the district and provides that certain catastrophic special education expenses which could not be identified or anticipated prior to the adoption of the school district budget shall be exempt from the provisions of the municipal budget law. The bill also clarifies the costs and the Department of Education liability for the cost of the school district borrowing relative to these special education funds. No additional general funds are involved. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1474h)

Amend RSA 186-C:18, X as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

X. Unexpected special education costs incurred by a school district which are eligible for reimbursement from the state pursuant to RSA 186-C:18, III and which could not be identified prior to the adoption of the local district budget shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 32:8, RSA 32:9, RSA 32:10, and RSA 32:11, III.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes a school district to expend funds reflecting the total catastrophic special education costs for pupils in the district and provides that certain unexpected special education expenses which are eligible for reimbursement from the state pursuant to RSA 186-C:18, III and which could not be identified or anticipated prior to the adoption of the school district budget shall be exempt from the provisions of the municipal budget law.

HB 618-FN-A, establishing a voucher program for smoking cessation and continually appropriating a special fund. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: This bill is not the first nor certainly the last seeking to allocate funds from the tobacco settlement. It sought to reserve a portion of the tobacco settlement money for a smoking cessation program. While the Committee felt this may be an appropriate use of these funds, since this money will most likely not be received until sometime next year it seems logical to re-refer this so that it can be considered along with other proposals which are sure to follow. Vote 23-0.

HB 630-FN-L, relative to the Skyhaven airport transfer plan. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Paul J. Dwyer, Sr. for Finance: This bill would transfer the Skyhaven state airport to the city of Rochester. Due to time constraints and the overwhelming Finance Committee agenda this year, Division I felt it needed more time to address this matter. Vote 19-0.

HB 694-FN, relative to prevention and prohibition of MTBE contamination of drinking water, wells, and surface and groundwater resources. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE
Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill relates to the study and control of methyl t-butyl ether (MBTE), a controversial gasoline additive. The House passed SB 70 last week, a slightly amended version of this bill with the fiscal impacts removed, and the policy committee has requested that we find this now-redundant bill Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 17-0.

HB 699-FN-A, establishing the granite state scholars program and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: This bill establishes a Granite State Scholars Program which recognizes highly qualified high school graduates by providing them with incentive grants to pursue degrees at the state's public colleges. Private funds raised by the public institutions will be matched with state funds and together will be the source of student grants. The bill calls for general fund appropriations of $5 million for each year of the biennium. The state's financial participation would end when it had contributed a total of $25 million. In view of the shortage of state revenues to fund primary and secondary education pursuant to HB 117, the Committee cannot recommend passage at this time. Re-referring the bill will give the Committee the opportunity to consider other possible funding sources. Vote 16-0.

SB 37-FN, relative to fees for testing of domestic animals for disease. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Margaret A. Lynch for Finance: This bill requires fees for testing of domestic animals to include the costs of mileage, hourly wage and lodging be paid to the Department of Agriculture, Markets and Food. There is no impact on the general fund as the fees are paid by those using the service. Vote 19-0.

SPECIAL ORDER

SB 227-FN, establishing a gambling business felony. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Frank D. Callaghan for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill establishes a gambling business felony. It makes it a misdemeanor for a person to knowingly and unlawfully permit gambling on the premises of a business conducted, financed, supervised, directed, or owned by such person. It makes it a felony for a person to knowingly and unlawfully conduct, finance, manage, supervise or direct any gambling activity of a certain magnitude or duration. It also requires persons convicted of illegal gambling operations to forfeit any implements, equipment, and apparatus, including money or proceeds wagered or gained by such gambling operations. Vote 10-7.

Rep. Welch spoke against.

Report failed.

Rep. Welch moved Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Rep. Loren Jean offered a floor amendment (1765h).

Floor Amendment (1765h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Business Conducting Illegal Gambling. Amend RSA 647:2 by inserting after paragraph I the following new paragraph:

I-a. (A) A person is guilty of a misdemeanor if such person conducts, finances, manages, supervises, directs, or owns all or part of a business and such person knowingly and unlawfully permits gambling on the premises of the business.

(b) A person is guilty of a class B felony if such person conducts, finances, manages, supervises, directs, or owns all or part of a business and such person knowingly and unlawfully conducts, finances, manages, supervises, or directs any gambling activity on the business premises which does any of the following:

(1) Has had gross revenue of $2,000 in any single day.

(2) Has been or remains in substantially continuous operation for a period in excess of 10 days.

(3) Accepts wagers exceeding $5,000 during any 30 day period on future contingent events.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Makes it a misdemeanor for a person to knowingly and unlawfully permit gambling on the premises of a business conducted, financed, managed, supervised, directed, or owned by such person.

II. Makes it a felony for a person to knowingly and unlawfully conduct, finance, manage, supervise, or direct any gambling activity of a certain magnitude or duration on the premises of a business conducted, financed, managed, supervised, directed, or owned by such person.

Rep. Robert Lawton spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Loren Jean and Welch spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Vaillancourt moved that SB 227-FN, establishing a gambling business felony, be laid on the table.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART II

HB 25-A, making appropriations for capital improvements. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: This is the capital budget bill. The Public Works and Highway Committee had done a fine job of reviewing requests to keep from exceeding the Treasurer's recommendation of $50 million in general fund bonding.

Changes made by the Finance Committee were to extend bonding authority on ten projects approved in previous budgets, but about to lapse due to delays. Many of these requests arrived after Public Works' action on the bill.

The Department of Education expressed difficulty in accomplishing mandates from HB 117 without more information technology spending. The committee added $265,550 to their capital budget by reclassifying Department of Safety budget to highway funds. There was also a $75,000 increase in Fish and Game bonding at the department's request. Vote 15-0.

I. The appropriations made for the purposes mentioned in section 2 and the sums available for these projects shall be expended by the trustees of the university system of New Hampshire. All contracts for the construction of all or any part of said buildings or facilities shall be let only after competitive sealed bids have been received and only after an advertisement calling for such bids has been published at least once in each 2 successive calendar weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in New Hampshire or in a trade journal known to be circulated among the contractors from whom bids will be sought with the state of New Hampshire or elsewhere in the area. The first publication of such advertisement shall be not less 30 days prior to the date the bids will be received. All conditions considered, wherever possible, it is recommended that the services of New Hampshire architectural and construction firms be considered within the discretion of the trustees.

The appropriations made in section 2 are available for all costs incidental to the completion of the projects enumerated including the costs of the services of architects, engineers, and other consultants of such kind and capacity as the university system board of trustees, in its discretion, may wish to employ on such terms and conditions as the board determines. These moneys shall be spent under the direction of the university system board of trustees.

IV. The board of trustees of the university system has the right to reject any and all bids and, if the lowest bid is in excess of the appropriation, the board has the right to negotiate with the low bidder or with the 3 lowest bidders for a contract for the construction upon terms considered most advantageous to the university. HB 279-FN-A, relative to refinancing the cost and rehabilitation of the Cheshire Bridge. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance This bill suggests refinancing the cost and rehabilitation of the Cheshire Bridge by abolishing the tolls used to pay off $2,000,000 bonded indebtedness and authorizing bond payments from a special account established in the highway fund. Although the elimination of the toll collection is likely to have a positive economic impact on Charlestown and surrounding towns, the Finance Committee along with Public Works and Highways needs to determine the 4-to-1 federal match implications which would result from utilizing the gas tax funds towards bridge payments instead of using them for the federal match. The use of $2 million in gas tax funds over 5 years is likely to cause the loss of $8 million in federal matching funds. Moreover, the committee needs to consider the impact of the precedent set by this bill. Time is needed to get answers to these important questions. Vote 13-3.

Reps. Phinizy and Vaughn spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 303-FN-A, relative to the preservation of and access to legislative records and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: This bill is the result of a study committee (HB 111, Chapter 36:1, Laws of 1998). It requires the Division of Records Management and Archives, Department of State, to preserve legislative committee records, and appropriates general funds for equipment and other costs.

The study committee reviewed present procedures for receiving, storing and accessing our historical legislative records, reviewed various technologies, costs, durability and processes with many consultants, information system managers and others for accomplishing this task. The implementation and cost of the recommended preservation and electronic access plan is included in this bill. With the sponsor's approval, we are recommending that this bill be re-referred to allow investigation of other methods of funding the $140,000 cost. Vote 17-2.
Adopted.

HB 553-FN-A, establishing a commission on the status of men, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: This bill would require $45,000 per year which is not in the budget. The committee amendment removes the appropriation but leaves in the ability for the commission to accept and expend gifts or grants. Vote 17-2.

Amendment (1699h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a commission on the status of men.

Amend the bill by deleting section 4 and renumbering the original section 5 to read as 4.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a commission on the status of men to address issues of cultural bias and stereotyping, health problems unique to men, and methods for encouraging personal growth.

The commission is terminated on September 1, 2005.

Adoried.

Rep. Bickford requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the report.

Ordered to third reading.HB 617-FN-A-L, relative to funding and monitoring seacoast harbor issues. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: The committee has attempted to deal with the important harbor dredging and pier maintenance issues in this bill. Unfortunately time pressures have not allowed us to settle these issues and re-referral will give us the time to give these issues the full attention they deserve. The studies contained in this bill have been placed in HB 2. Vote 17-0.

Adopted.

HB 625-FN-A, relative to a mercury emissions reduction and control program and a study of mercury in ash landfills. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill establishes a mercury emissions reduction and control program. The committee enthusiastically supports the provisions of this bill as they apply to the Penacook incinerators, since these will have no general fund impact. The committee was unwilling to fund 100% of the cost of the mercury emissions reduction equipment at the Claremont incinerator (this would have cost over $170,000 per year for 5 years), and was unable to determine what fraction the state should pay or whether Part 1, Article 28-a would apply. The committee amendment postpones the applicability of the new state mercury emissions standard for the Claremont incinerator until it is subject to a new federal standard which appears to be in the pipeline, and eliminates the now-unnecessary grant program. This will also allow additional time to examine additional options. There is no financial impact to the general fund in this bill as amended. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1703h)

Amend RSA 125-L:3, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. Any municipal waste combustor with a design capacity to burn 100 tons per day or more of municipal solid waste which is subject to a federal maximum mercury emission rate of 0.08 milligrams per dry standard cubic meter (mg/dscm) or less shall reduce its mercury emissions to achieve a mercury emission rate of no greater than 0.028 mg/dscm corrected to 7 percent oxygen by volume on a dry basis, or at least 85 percent control efficiency.

Amend RSA 125-L:4 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

125-L:4 Rulemaking Authority. The commissioner shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A relative to:

I. Procedures and frequency for stack testing, testing protocols, measurement methods, and other such actions as may be necessary to verify compliance with this chapter.

II. Fees for implementing and enforcing the terms and conditions relating to reduction of mercury emissions of a permit issued in accordance with RSA 125-C.

Amend RSA 125-L:5, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. No person shall operate a municipal waste combustor with the design capacity to burn 100 tons per day or more of municipal solid waste without a temporary or operating permit issued by the department in accordance with RSA 125-C. Any source subject to this section shall file a complete application for a permit or permit modification under the provisions of RSA 125-C and a plan for achieving compliance with this chapter. Combustors with a design capacity of 250 tons per day or more shall submit such plan and application by July 1, 2000 in order to comply by January 1, 2001 with the emission limits established by this chapter. Combustors with a design capacity of less than 250 tons per day but not less than 100 tons per day which are subject to RSA 125-L:3, I shall submit such plan and application by January 1, 2001 in order to comply by July 1, 2001 with the emission limits established by this chapter.

Amend RSA 125-L as inserted by section 1 of the bill by deleting RSA 125-L:8.

Adopted.

HB 643-FN-A-L, transferring the regulation of emergency medical services from the department of health and human services to the department of safety. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill transfers the regulation of emergency medical services from the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Safety. This transfer has been studied for several years and is supported by all relevant parties. All costs and appropriations of the division, previously budgeted under the Department of Health and Human Services are being transferred to the Department of Safety, so the only increased cost is due to converting the new division director from a classified employee to an unclassified employee. The committee amendment completes the original intention of the bill to place all operating fees and operating revenues generated by this division in the general fund. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1523h)

Amend RSA 21-P:12-b, II(1) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(1) With the approval of the commissioner, accept in the name of the state any and all donations and grants from any governmental unit, public agency, institution, person, firm, or corporation and receive, utilize, expend, and dispose of such funds subject to budgetary provisions, consistent with the rules of the department of safety and the purposes or conditions of the donation or grant.

Amend RSA 21-P:12-b, III as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. The receipt of a donation or grant under subparagraph II(1) shall be noted in the biennial report of the department of safety, which will also identify the nature of the donation or grant and the conditions of the donation or grant, if any. Any moneys received by the division pursuant to subparagraph II(1) shall be deposited in the state treasury to the account of the department of safety and shall not lapse. In addition, the division may receive, hold, and use gifts, bequests, and devises either outright or in trust for purposes consistent with this chapter.

Amend RSA 153-A:15 as inserted by section 6 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

153-A:15 Fees. The commissioner may charge a fee for licensure of an emergency medical service unit, an emergency medical service vehicle, or an emergency medical care provider. However, no fee shall be charged to a nonprofit corporation or volunteer association. The sums obtained from fees charged for licensure shall be forwarded to the state treasurer to be deposited into the general fund.

Amend paragraph II as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. All of the functions, powers, duties, and responsibilities of the department of health and human services, office of community and public health, bureau of emergency medical services are transferred to the department of safety, division of emergency medical services. The transfer provided for in this section shall include all of the personnel, books, papers, records, equipment, unexpended appropriations or other available funds in any account or subdivision of an account of the department of health and human services and authorized for use by the office of health management, bureau of emergency medical services, actions and other property or obligations of any kind of the department of health and human services, office of community and public health management, bureau of emergency medical services.

Amend paragraph IV as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 21-P:3, II and RSA 21-P:12-b, the first term of the director of emergency medical services shall be for a period of one year. The initial salary for the first-appointed director of emergency medical services shall be at step 1 of RSA 94:1-a, group N.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 12 with the following:

13 Contingency. Sections 1-12 of this act shall take effect on the date on which 1999, HB 1-A, An Act making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2000, and June 30, 2001, takes effect.

14 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1-12 of this act shall take effect as provided in section 13 of this act.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 649-FN, relative to nitrogen oxide emissions from electricity generation. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill relates to air pollution emissions of nitrogen oxides from small power plants. There is no cost to the general fund, only the collection of funds for a dedicated fund. The committee amendment simplifies the dates on which charges collected change, and eliminates the collection of charges until January 1, 2000. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1704h)

Amend RSA 125-J:13, II(b) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) The payment provided for in subparagraph II(a) shall be made annually and shall be equal to the number of tons of NOx emitted by the NOx-emitting generation source, less the tons of NOx not requiring emission reduction mechanisms under paragraph I, times a fee of $200 per ton for tons emitted during the period running May 1 to September 30 and a fee of $100 per ton for tons emitted during the period running October 1 to April 30. These fees shall be multiplied by:

- (1) Zero for tons emitted prior to January 1, 2000.
- (2) One for tons emitted between January 1, 2000 and June 30, 2000, inclusive.
- (3) Two for tons emitted between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2001, inclusive.
- (4) Three for tons emitted between July 1, 2001 and June 30, 2002, inclusive.
- (5) Four for tons emitted between July 1, 2002 and June 30, 2003, inclusive.
- (6) Five for tons emitted on or after July 1, 2003.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 669-FN, relative to the determination of current comparable compensation for persons with gainful earnings who receive disability retirement benefits. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill benefits a small number of employees who became disabled, attempted to return to work at a lower rate of pay, and subsequently lost some of their disability benefits as a result. The committee agrees that these employees should be commended for their attempt to return to work after their disability, not punished with a smaller disability benefit. The total cost to the retirement system's special account will be $786,000 in FY 2000. By law, there is no current or future impact on the general fund. Vote 19-0.

Adopted.

Ordered to a third reading.

RECESS

(Speaker Sytek in the Chair)

HB 704-FN-A, establishing a wildlife damage control program and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Finance: This bill, as filed, would have obligated the Fish and Game Department to substantially increase its expenditures to assist farms and orchardists in fencing their fields, yet kept those farmers eligible to receive payment for crop damage caused by game. The policy committee amendment reversed the effect of the bill by reducing the amount of funding for fences, eliminating the appeals board, and repealing all of the game damage statutes. The amended bill was presented to the House as a compromise, but before the Finance Committee it became clear that this was not a compromise. Finance therefore first decided to recommend ITL, but was persuaded to reconsider.

Three members of Finance who thought that it might be possible to find a more acceptable compromise thus met in work session with representatives of both the Wildlife and Marine Resources and the Environment and Agriculture committees. The session was very informative, but we were unable to reach any agreement between the extremes of no fencing assistance and no damage payment program, and increased fencing assistance and maintenance of the existing damage payment program. However, neither side wanted ITL or Re-refer, either.

Finance members were sympathetic to the policy position that the state should not provide business risk protection for one specific type of free enterprise. However, we also felt that suddenly eliminating that protection for those who have made long-term investments based on its existence would likely create another area of litigation which could be very costly to the state.

The amendment put forth by the Finance Committee therefore reflects what we think is the most fiscally sound approach of eventually eliminating damage payments. It allows growers who have already planted crops which normally produce yields for at least three years from one planting to apply for fencing assistance, and appropriates $350,000 from Fish and Game funds for that purpose. Fish and Game can decide who gets the assistance and when. It further provides that any grower who has made such application shall continue to be eligible for compensation for damages caused by game animals, but no longer birds, up until the grower gets the fencing assistance or his crop needs to be re-planted, whichever comes first. It also reinstates the appeals board because that is less expensive for everyone than appeals to a superior court.

Although we doubt that this amendment will satisfy those on either side of the argument, we believe that it is a reasonable solution to a very contentious issue Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1462h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Legislative Findings and Purpose. The general court finds that wild animals are a valuable ecological, recreational, and economic resource enjoyed by New Hampshire citizens and by visitors to the state, however, the general court notes that damage to agricultural and horticultural products by game and other wild animals often creates conflicts and economic losses. The general court further finds that as a consequence of continued growth in New Hampshire's human population and development patterns that result in frequent contacts between people and wild animals, as well as increases in some wild animal populations, demands to address conflicts may be expected to increase in the future. Therefore, a wild animal damage control program is hereby formally established to minimize the effects of wild animals on agriculture, human health and safety, property, and natural resources by providing educational and technical advice and recommendations to all citizens while conserving the wildlife resources of the state.

2 Subdivision Heading Changed. The subdivision heading preceding RSA 207:22 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

Wild Animal Damage Control

3 Limitations for Persons Posting Property. RSA 207:22-a is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

207:22-a Limitations for Persons Posting Property. Any person whose land is posted pursuant to RSA 635:4 to prohibit hunting shall forfeit the right to participate in the wild animal damage control program established pursuant to RSA 207:22-c, or to receive payment pursuant to RSA 207:23-a, except that this limitation shall not apply in the following circumstances:

I. To a person who posts only the person's land lying within 100 yards of a dwelling or other farm or outbuildings contiguous to the person's dwelling and used regularly by the person, or the person's family or tenant.

II. To any person whose land is posted for the protection of crops only during the closed season for the type of animals for which the person seeks assistance from the wild animal damage control program.

III. To any person who posts such person's land "Hunting by Permission Only", provided that the names and addresses of the hunters who have received permission to hunt that land in that year shall be furnished when requested by the executive director, and that in the judgment of the executive director, the history of hunter access and hunter density represents a good-faith effort by the landowner to allow hunting.

4 New Sections; Wild Animal Damage Control Program; Advisory Board Established. Amend RSA 207 by inserting after section 22-a the following new sections:

207:22-b Wild Animal Damage Control Advisory Board.

I. There is established a wild animal damage control advisory board which shall consist of the following members:

(a) The executive director of the fish and game department, or designee, who shall act as chairperson.

(b) The commissioner, department of agriculture, markets, and food, or designee.

(c) The director for New Hampshire of the United States Department of Agriculture, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Services, Wildlife Services, or designee.

(d) A fish and game commissioner appointed each fiscal year by the chairperson of the commission.

(e) The executive director of the New Hampshire Farm Bureau Federation.

II. The board shall have responsibility for the duties designated to the board under RSA 207:22-c, II.

III. The chairperson of the board shall submit an annual report by October 1 of each year, beginning in 1999, to the governor, the senate president, the speaker of the house, and the chairpersons of each of the senate and house standing committees having jurisdiction over wildlife and agriculture matters, relative to all receipts and disbursements of the wild animal damage control program established in RSA 207:22-c.

207:22-c Wild Animal Damage Control Program; Administration. There is established a wild animal damage control program which shall be administered by the executive director in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture and the New Hampshire department of agriculture, markets, and food. The program shall emphasize a comprehensive approach that integrates wildlife management and wildlife control methods and strategies and shall respond to conflicts between wild animals and human populations by stressing the importance of prevention of damage by initiating one or more of the following courses of action:

I. A general wild animal damage mitigation program:

(a) The general wild animal damage mitigation program shall address conflicts between wild animals and human populations by disseminating educational and technical information, and providing assistance. The program may make available various repellents, institute the loan of direct control devices and materials including electric fences and frightening devices, and make referrals to nuisance wildlife cooperators.

(b) Actions under this paragraph shall be of a temporary nature and may include any other nuisance control methods available, as determined by the executive director, or designee.

II. A cooperative fencing program:

(a) Commercial growers, whose crop normally produces significant yield for at least 3 years from the time of planting, may participate in a cost-share-fencing program on a 75 percent state to 25 percent commercial grower cost share basis. Under this program, the executive director may provide payment from funds designated for this program in the fish and game fund to an eligible commercial grower for the purchase of fencing materials and their installation, provided the commercial grower's participation and eligibility has been approved by the wild animal damage control advisory board.

(b) Commercial growers desiring to participate in the 75/25 cost share program shall submit written applications to the executive director in such manner as prescribed by the executive director on or before January 1, 2000. Separate applications shall be required for non-contiguous areas. Each application shall include a statement of the nature of the crop to be fenced and the date its planting was completed.

(c) Maintenance costs of installed fences shall be the responsibility of the applicant.

(d) The wild animal damage control advisory board shall determine on an annual basis no later than June 30 of each year the recipients of the fencing moneys for the ensuing year. The board will make its determinations based on urgency of need for damage relief, the remaining useful life of the planting, and any other factors necessary to ensure a fair and equitable allocation of funds. The decisions of the board shall be final.

(e) The failure of a commercial grower to properly install and maintain fencing purchased under this paragraph shall make the commercial grower ineligible to participate in this program until such time as approved by a majority of the wild animal damage control advisory board.

(f) The executive director shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A to implement and execute the cooperative fencing program, which may include but not be limited to eligibility criteria, fencing specifications, funding levels, and inspection procedures.

(g) The provisions and penalties of RSA 641 concerning false statements shall apply to all reporting and documentation required pursuant to this paragraph.

(h) For purposes of this paragraph, a "commercial grower" means any person who grows an agricultural or horticultural crop from which the person has derived, or reasonably expects to derive an annual gross income from the sale of crops normally produced of at least $2500.

III. A depredation permit program:

(a) The executive director shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, regulating the issuance of depredation permits to kill animals causing damage to commercial crops. Such rules shall address the method and manner of taking animals, the disposition of animals taken under such permits, as well as the qualifications necessary to participate in the program. Such qualifications shall include, but not be limited to, the provision of information concerning the history of damage, the record of preventative methods used in the past, and the public hunting access history.

(b) The depredation permit program shall include the issuance of 2 pre-damage deer kill permits, each with 6 deer tags, to commercial growers as defined in RSA 207:22-c, II(h) upon request to the director. Issuance of pre-damage deer kill permits will facilitate protection of qualifying crops at the onset of deer visitation to said crops. Any deer taken under this provision shall be subject to investigation by the local conservation officer to determine whether or not the potential existed at the time of taking for damage to have occurred. Any additional depredation permits shall be issued following the procedures in this paragraph.

5 Damage by Game. RSA 207:23 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

207:23 Game Damage.

1. Commercial growers who have made application for inclusion in the fencing program under RSA 207:22-c, II may receive payment for damages to crops caused by game after the time that application is made and before the funds are made available for fencing and the fencing is installed, provided that:

(a) The crop for which application has been made was planted no later than June 1, 1999;

(b) The crop for which application has been made produces a significant yield for at least 3 years after planting;

(c) The crop, if an orchard, was planted no more than 20 years before the date of the damage, or if any other crop, was planted no more than 3 years before the date of the damage; and

(d) Installation of the fencing has not been unjustifiably delayed after receipt of funds from the fencing program.

II. A person who suffers loss or damage to crops, fruit trees, or nursery stock shall, if the person claims damages therefor, within 10 days from the discovery thereof, notify the executive director in writing of such damage. The executive director or agent shall investigate such claim within 30 days from the receipt of notice of such damage, determine whether such damage was caused by game, and appraise the amount thereof to be paid. The appraisal shall be made at the time of harvest. Rep. Mock offered a floor amendment (1731h).

Floor Amendment (1731h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Legislative Findings and Purpose. The general court finds that wild animals are a valuable ecological, recreational, and economic resource enjoyed by New Hampshire citizens and by visitors to the state, however, the general court notes that damage to agricultural and horticultural products by game and other wild animals often creates conflicts and economic losses. The general court further finds that as a consequence of continued growth in New Hampshire's human population and development patterns that result in frequent contacts between people and wildlife, as well as increases in some wildlife populations, demands to address conflicts may be expected to increase in the future. Therefore, a wildlife damage control program is hereby formally established to minimize the effects of wild animals on agriculture, human health and safety, property, and natural resources by providing educational and technical advice and recommendations to all citizens while conserving the wildlife resources of the state. In addition to the appropriation contained in this act, it is the intent of the general court and the fish and game department to secure the necessary appropriations in future bienniums to fund the wildlife damage control program.

Amend the bill by replacing section 9 with the following:

9 Appropriation; Funding.

I. There is hereby appropriated the sum of $350,000 for the biennium ending June 30, 2001 from the fish and game fund to the fish and game department for the purpose of funding the wildlife damage control program, established in RSA 207:22-c.

II. The executive director may accept and expend federal funds and funds from any other source that may be designated for wildlife damage control programs.

III. The sums appropriated by this section shall not be used for any other purpose and shall be non-lapsing.

The floor amendment (1731h) was adopted.

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Peterson moved that HB 707-FN, relative to the family division of the courts be made a special order for the next session day in the regular calendar order .

On a division vote, 233 members having voted in the affirmative and 6 in the negative, the motion was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

SB 12-FN-A, relative to the World War II memorial campaign and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill would have appropriated $60,000, representing $1 for each of the 60,000 New Hampshire World War II veterans, as a contribution to a national World War II memorial. The committee is aware that considerable private funds have also been raised, but given the current budget situation, the committee is unable to support this appropriation at this time. In a few months the situation may have changed. Vote 12-5.

Rep. Kurk spoke against.

On a division vote, 17 members having voted in the affirmative and 227 in the negative, the report failed. Rep. Kurk moved Ought to Pass.

On a division vote, 238 members having voted in the affirmative and 9 in the negative, the motion was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

Ordered to third reading.

SB 36-FN-A, relative to salary increases for care providers for persons with developmental and acquired disabilities and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: There was discussion about whether this proposed increase of funds would actually increase the pay to direct care personnel since there was testimony that not all are receiving the current $7.54 rate. There is no money in the proposed budget or in the governor's budget to pay the $4.5 million annual cost of this increase. We would like to re-refer this bill in order to find further answers to the problems brought to the committee. Vote 16-3.

Rep. Manning spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 205 members having voted in the affirmative and 30 in the negative, the report was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

MOTION TO SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Jacobson moved that SB 40, relative to the health care fund be made a Special Order for the next session day in the Regular Calendar order.

On a division vote, 225 members having voted in the affirmative and 17 in the negative, the motion was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

SB 134-FN, relative to medicaid reimbursement rates and dental care. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: This bill sought to increase the rate of reimbursement to dentists for services to Medicaid-eligible children in the expectation that this increase would result in more children being treated by dentists. This bill would increase general fund spending by $350,000 in fiscal year 2000, increasing subsequently to $1.1 million in fiscal year 2003. Such additional funds are not available at this time. Re-referring this bill will allow the committee to investigate other possible sources of funding.

In addition, significant questions were raised regarding the existence of other reasons why so few dentists will treat these children, beyond the current Medicaid reimbursement rates. The fraction of Medicaid children already being treated in New Hampshire is already significantly above the national average. Time is needed to get answers to these important questions. Vote 11-7.

On a division vote, 226 members having voted in the affirmative and 13 in the negative, the report was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

SB 145-FN-A, relative to state financial aid for state fairs, and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill would have appropriated $250,000 annually from the general fund to support state agricultural fairs. The committee does not believe that this appropriation is of sufficient comparative importance to be funded in this biennium. Vote 15-4.

On a division vote, 209 members having voted in the affirmative and 28 in the negative, the report was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

SB 205-FN, expanding medical coverage to pay dental assistance for adults on medicaid. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: These are new services not now provided, and there is a question about a 28-a violation since 25% of the cost would fall upon the counties. While the cost of this in 2000 would have been $200,000 in general funds, it is projected to grow to $1.5 million in 2003. There is no money in the proposed budget or in the governor's budget to pay for this. Vote 11-7.

Rep. Kurk spoke against.

On a division vote, 15 members having voted in the affirmative and 232 in the negative, the report failed.

Rep. Kurk moved Re-refer to Committee.

On a division vote, 241 members having voted in the affirmative and 6 in the negative, the motion was adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

Her Excellency, Governor Jeanne Shaheen, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Reverend Carolyn H. Keilig, Pastor of the Community Church of Harrisville and Chesham.

Eternal and unchanging God, be with us as we work this day. Challenge us to hear with new ears, what sometimes seems to be the same old discussion. Help us to not let the heat of the day dictate how responses are made to complicated issues. Call on us to make any debate as substantial and fast-moving as a greatly needed summer thunderstorm. Strengthen and renew us, should we become weary, and guide us in the decisions that will be made this day. Amen.

SB 105, relative to continuation of coverage of health insurance. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kathleen N. Taylor for Commerce: This bill clarifies the provisions relating to continuation of coverage of health insurance for employees in group plans. It provides for temporary continuation of insurance coverage for members of group plans and their dependents who have become ineligible for continued coverage due to various circumstances beyond their control. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1381h)

Amend RSA 415:18, VII(g)(1)(F) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

~~(E)~~ The individual, surviving spouse, divorced spouse, legally separated spouse, or dependent shall elect to continue the participation in the group plan according to rules adopted by the commissioner under RSA 541-A. The individual, surviving spouse, or dependent shall be responsible for payment of premiums which may include an administrative fee not to exceed 2 percent of the monthly premium to the employer or policyholder throughout the extension period. ~~[With respect to a divorced spouse or legally separated spouse, the extension shall be provided without additional premium or examination therefor, as if the decree had not been entered; however, the premium may include an administrative fee not to exceed 2 percent of the monthly premium to the employer or policyholder throughout the extension periods.]~~ Any divorced spouse or legally separated spouse who is responsible for making a portion of or full payment to the employer shall notify the employer and the insurance company, in writing within 30 days of the decree of divorce or separation, that coverage under this subparagraph is requested. Any employee who is responsible for making a portion of or full payment to the employer shall likewise notify the employer and the insurance company, in writing within 30 days of the decree of divorce or separation, that coverage under this subparagraph is requested. The employer shall have the right to terminate coverage for a former dependent spouse who is receiving coverage under this subparagraph if any payment for the coverage is not received from the former dependent spouse within 30 days of the date the premium payments are due. If any payment for the coverage for which the employee is responsible is not received from the employee within 30 days of the date the premium payments are due, the employer shall have the right to terminate coverage for a former dependent spouse; however, no such termination shall occur without 30 days' prior notice to the former dependent spouse, during which time the former dependent spouse shall be given an opportunity to make the payments due or to secure payment from the employee. Upon termination of the extension period, the member, surviving spouse, divorced spouse, legally separated spouse, or dependent shall be entitled to exercise any option which is provided in the group plan to elect a converted policy. After timely receipt of the premium payment from the individual, surviving spouse, divorced spouse, legally separated spouse, or dependent, if the employer fails to make payments to the insurer or health service corporation or health maintenance organization, with the result that coverage is terminated, the employer shall be liable for benefits to the same extent as the insurer or health service corporation or health maintenance organization would have been liable if coverage had not been terminated.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the provisions relating to continuation of coverage of health insurance for employees in group plans.

SB 29-L, relative to the proper sheltering of dogs. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Everett A. Weare for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: The concerns raised by dog owners, kennel owners and the SPCA could not be resolved in subcommittee. However, the merits of the bill have value in the protection of dogs and these differences can best be worked in a study. Vote 12-1.

SB 88-FN, relative to penalties for third driving while intoxicated offenses. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Everett A. Weare for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: The hearing on the issue of driving under the influence of alcohol raised many questions in regards to the present laws and programs that govern this very serious problem. After discussion with the sponsor it was determined that the committee should hold on to this bill and wait until the outcome on HB 84 is complete. Therefore, the request for re-refer is recommended. Vote 13-0.

SB 125, placing restrictions on name changes for certain felons. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William V. Knowles for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill is very similar to HB 215. Since we passed HB 215 and agreed to the senate amendment, SB 125 is no long necessary. Vote 13-0.

SB 143-FN, relative to penalties for incest. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. William V. Knowles for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill deals with the penalties and the elimination of the statute of limitations in cases of incest. This is an important bill and the committee feels we need time to study it and come out with an equitable piece of legislation. Vote 12-1.

SB 228-FN, relative to spousal benefits upon the death of certain retired group II members of the New Hampshire retirement system. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Michael O'Neil for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill would provide spousal benefits equal to 50% upon the death of retired group II members who opted not to take the benefit and retired before April 1, 1987. The committee feels it needs additional time to gather information on the cost and ramifications of changing this benefit for all group II members. Vote 13-0.

CACR 10, relating to restricting the use of a statewide property tax and all funds deposited into the education trust fund to education funding. Providing that all revenues resulting from a statewide property tax and all funds deposited into the education trust fund shall be used exclusively for elementary and secondary education. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This is one of three constitutional amendments that the committee voted to re-refer in order to have more time to look at the issues. This will not delay implementing any possible constitutional amendment, since no amendment can be placed before the voters until November, 2000. Vote 17-1.

HB 455-FN-L, designating all tobacco-related funds to be used exclusively to supplement state aid to public education. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: The committee appreciates the willingness of the sponsors of this bill and many others to bring forward myriad ideas concerning education funding. We have all learned a lot in the more than five months since this bill was filed, and will continue to learn more. However, education funding is not our only responsibility and, while in the immediate future we will be spending our tobacco settlement money on education, the committee was not willing to commit to this as a long-term policy. Vote 16-0.

HB 735-FN-A, establishing a contributory judicial retirement plan. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE
Rep. Franklin G. Torr for Finance: This bill establishes a contributory judicial defined contribution retirement plan administered by the administrative office of the courts. Although carefully crafted and reviewed, this bill is very complex. The sponsor recommended the bill be re-referred. Also there needs to be a determination from the IRS that there would be no loss of tax exemption for retirees remaining in the present retirement system if a new retirement system were created. Vote 16-0.

SB 176-FN-A, relative to technology support for individuals and making an appropriation therefor. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: The bill would make a $500,000 appropriation from the general fund to the Department of Health and Human Services to provide technology support, assistive devices, information, and training programs to individuals with disabilities. The committee expressed great interest in the programs that would be part of this effort but, with the end of this session looming, there was not sufficient time to explore alternative funding possibilities. Vote 18-0

SB 76-L, allowing certain municipalities to offer tax exemptions to foster commercial and industrial construction. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Anthony F. Simon for Municipal and County Government: While believing that the North Country of our state needs economic assistance, the committee feels that this bill requires clarification of the types of uses to which tax exemptions could apply and the municipalities that would be eligible to grant such exemptions. Vote 13-0.

SB 86, relative to enforcement of the collection and payment of county taxes by the county treasurer. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: This bill would allow county treasurers to collect county taxes in the same way that state or local tax collectors now accomplish this task. Although this policy may accommodate the needs of the unincorporated places, the committee wishes more time to ascertain its effect on our incorporated cities and towns, which traditionally have paid the county taxes assessed on their property owners even when the property owner did not pay the county taxes to the town. Vote 13-0.

SB 89-L, relative to library trustees. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Anthony F. Simon for Municipal and County Government: This bill would establish procedures for the appointment of alternate library trustees, schedules for payment of appropriations to libraries and the status (lapsing or non-lapsing) of library funds. The committee feels that this bill needs further refinement to establish the proper relationship between municipalities and library trustees. Vote 13-0.

SB 188-L, allowing school districts operating under the official ballot form of meeting to have more than one special meeting per year through court petition on an appropriation question or issue. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: In SB 2 towns there is already a mechanism to hold a special meeting for school districts as stated in RSA 197:3: "Raising Money at Special Meeting." If the issue concerns an annual school district's amendment or rejection of the cost items or fact finder's reports concerning a collective bargaining agreement, then the special meeting can be called without court approval. This mechanism was enacted in 1997 and needs a chance to work in its current form. As long as the same issue or question is not addressed and there is an emergency, a school district may petition the court for additional special meetings. With the passage of HB 117 and the increased funding to the majority of school districts in this state resulting from that law, the committee did not feel that changing the rules regarding special school district meetings was judicious at this time. In addition, Section 2 of this bill would apply to all school meetings held in 1999. But HB 111 (Chapter 2 of the Laws of 1999) provides the opportunity to all school districts and municipalities to have one special meeting without court approval this year to address any Claremont-related issues. Therefore, the committee feels that this bill is not necessary and unanimously voted "inexpedient to legislate." Vote 13-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART I

SB 199, establishing certain standards of accountability for health maintenance organizations and other entities providing health insurance through a managed care system. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Keith R. Herman for the majority of Commerce: This is the Governor's "HMO Accountability Act." The bill, as sent over from the Senate, contained four separate parts, each designed to provide consumers with information and tools necessary to ensure they receive adequate, timely health care services from HMO insurance companies.

These four sections are: 1.) Requiring all medical directors employed by an HMO to hold a valid New Hampshire physician's license. 2.) Providing for an independent external grievance procedure for cases where an HMO has denied payment for a covered benefit. 3.) Prohibiting any contract between an insurance carrier and a physician from containing a financial inducement to deny necessary care. 4.) Defining a decision not to pay for a specific health service or drug as "The Practice of Medicine."

The Commerce Committee believes strongly that consumers are entitled to receive any care necessary to maintain and improve their health conditions. The consumer should also receive those services without having to worry if their insurance company will pay for them as long as the service is a covered benefit. (No one is entitled to services without paying for those services.) To acknowledge these and other concerns the Commerce Committee has passed an amendment to SB 199, which includes aspects of all four sections of the original bill.

The committee worked in a bipartisan fashion to improve the language and simplify the processes of the original bill. The amendment requires an HMO to have a medical director who is licensed to practice medicine in New Hampshire. The amendment creates an independent external review process with oversight by the New Hampshire Insurance Commissioner. The amendment prohibits financial inducements in contracts between doctors and insurance companies. The amendment requires notification and disclosure to consumers of all their rights and obligations under this chapter. The amendment subjects any medical director who is overturned by an independent review organization to scrutiny by the Insurance Commissioner and two national accreditation boards which establish standards for utilization review decisions. The amendment creates a statutory study committee to develop guidelines for the board of medicine to use when determining whether a medical director exhibits a pattern of practice to be investigated by the board. The amendment adds a "hold harmless" clause so patients aren't responsible for the cost of care while going through the grievance process. The amendment reorganizes the bill to make RSA references easier to find and follow.

The Governor testified during the public hearing the costs (increases in health insurance premiums) of this bill would not exceed $2 per month per covered person. This would translate into a $720,000 increase in cost to the state employees' health benefit. (There are approximately 30,000 state-covered lives when you consider spouses and dependents.) The committee amendment would still cause premiums to rise, but by less than half of the Governor's estimated cost.

The only major portion of the original bill not included in the amendment is the expansion of the definition of "Practice of Medicine." RSA 329:1 currently defines the practice of medicine as a diagnosis, treatment, performance of surgery, or prescription of any treatment for any disease or human ailment. The committee simply does not agree that a "determination which denies authorization or payment for a covered service" can be interpreted as fitting the intent of the current definition of practice of medicine. The committee agrees that a medical director should be responsible for decisions, which result in harm to the patient, just as all other licensed physicians are currently. The original bill however, would have a medical director responsible for simply enforcing an insurance company policy which recommends one treatment over another regardless of the impact on the patient. There is no requirement harm is done, simply refusing to pay would be sufficient to trigger the responsibility and liability provisions in the original bill. This is inconsistent with the public health intent of the current definition in RSA 329:1.

The committee feels the amendment more accurately reflects the public policy statement that consumers should have access to care, which is paid for, without having to be concerned about insurance company reimbursement. The amendment accomplishes this by creating a process by which a medical director can be subjected to discipline (like all other physicians) for exhibiting a pattern of practice, which denies medically necessary care to patients.

The minority simply refuses to accept this process and is only willing to accept the definition change included in the original bill. The minority is willing to disregard the hard work put into creating an improved bill with bipartisan agreement on the changes the amendment makes. The committee knows the amendment effectively takes care of all the public policy concerns addressed by the Governor's original bill. Having a medical director be licensed in New Hampshire and having that medical director's adverse determinations subject to review and scrutiny are enough to ensure consumer protection and will not unreasonably increase the costs of insurance. Only five states require licensure by statute. NO OTHER STATE defines an adverse determination as the practice of medicine. This is not about being able to sue your HMO. New Hampshire repealed its corporate practice of medicine doctrine in 1995. Under current New Hampshire law, an HMO can be sued. The House previously passed HB 640-FN, which dealt with an external grievance procedure. The committee was willing to disregard this established House position in order to make improvements which all could agree on. Those improvements will not be reflected if the committee amendment is not accepted. Vote 9-8.

Rep. Martha Fuller Clark for the Minority of Commerce: The 9-8 vote for SB 199, the HMO Accountability Act, is the result of a fundamental difference within the Commerce Committee. The amended version omits part 2 from the original bill as passed in the Senate on a 20-4 vote. This section expands the definition of the practice of medicine to include medical directors. This statutory language clarifies that when medical directors are denying covered care on the basis of medical necessity, they are practicing medicine. The principal reason an HMO hires a physician as a medical director to make determinations of coverage is because they are using their medical expertise in rendering such decisions. Therefore, they should be held to the same standard of accountability and review as any other doctor. Without the language in part 2 of the original bill, this can not happen. Additionally, the original bill retains a grievance process which is more favorable to the consumer, despite the fact that certain improvements to the process of external grievance are contained in the amendment. The minority believes that these improvements are not of such importance that the underlying need for medical director accountability should be sacrificed in the process. Consumers need the grievance process to hold HMO's accountable and the New Hampshire Board of Medicine needs the statutory language to hold medical directors accountable. This bill should be passed in its entirety as it came to the House from the Senate if the Legislature is to enact significant HMO reform.

A health carrier shall review it as a second level grievance. (d) The covered person's cost for the amount in controversy is, or is anticipated to be, equal to or in excess of a total of $500;

(e) The health carrier determination does not relate to any category of health care services that is excluded from the external review provisions of this section pursuant to paragraph II; and

I. Within 7 business days after the date of receipt of a request for external review, the commissioner shall determine whether the individual meets the criteria for external review by assessing whether:

(a) The individual is or was a covered person under the health benefit plan;

(b) The determination that is the subject of the request for external review meets the conditions of eligibility for external review stated in RSA 420-J:5-a, I; and

(c) The covered person has provided all the information and forms required by the commissioner that are necessary to process a request for an external review.

II. Upon completion of the preliminary review pursuant to paragraph I, the commissioner shall immediately notify the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative in writing:

(a) Whether the request is complete; and

(b) Whether the request has been accepted for external review.

III. If the request is not complete, the commissioner shall inform the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative what information or documents are needed to make the request complete. The covered person or the covered person's authorized representative shall submit such information or documentation within 3 business days of being notified that the request was incomplete.

(b) Immediately notify the health carrier in writing of the request for external review and its acceptance.

V. If the request for external review is not accepted, the commissioner shall inform the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative and the health carrier in writing of the reason for its non-acceptance.

420-J:5-c Standard External Review; Expedited External Review. Standard external review shall be conducted as follows:

I. The external review procedures set forth in this section shall not be utilized to adjudicate claims or allegations of health care provider malpractice, professional negligence, or other professional fault against participating providers or medical directors.

II. At the time a request for external review is accepted, the health carrier shall select an independent review organization that is certified pursuant to RSA 420-J:5-d, I to conduct the external review. Such independent review organization shall be selected from a list of at least 3 independent review organizations with which the carrier maintains a contract. The carrier shall not select the same independent review organization for each external review, but shall rotate among the organizations with which contracts are maintained, using all contracted organizations equally. The commissioner may allow the use of an independent review organization regardless of the rotation if the commissioner determines that the use such independent review organization is necessary for the fair adjudication of the case in question.

III. Within 10 days after the date of issuance of the notice provided pursuant to RSA 420-J:5-b, IV, the health carrier or its designated utilization review organization shall provide to the selected independent review organization and to the covered person all information in its possession that is relevant to the adjudication of the matter in dispute, including but not limited to:

(a) The terms of agreement of the health benefit plan, including the evidence of coverage, benefit summary or other similar document;

(b) All relevant medical records, including records submitted to the carrier by the covered person, the covered person's authorized representative, or the covered person's treating provider;

(d) The clinical review criteria used and the clinical reasons for the determination;

(e) The relevant portions of the carrier's utilization management plan;

(f) Any communications between the covered person and the health carrier regarding the internal or external review; and

(g) All other documents, information, or criteria relied upon by the carrier in making its determination.

IV. Failure by the health carrier or the covered person to provide the documents and information required in paragraph III within the specified time frame shall not delay the conduct of the external review.

V. The selected independent review organization shall review all of the information and documents received from the carrier pursuant to paragraph III and any other information submitted by the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative or treating provider pursuant to RSA 420-J:5-b, IV(a) and any testimony provided. In addition to the information provided by the health carrier and the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative or treating provider, the independent review organization may consider any applicable, generally accepted clinical practice guidelines, studies or research, including those developed or conducted by the federal government, national or professional medical societies, boards and associations. The independent review organization shall consider anew all previously determined facts, allow the introduction of new information, and make a decision that is not bound by decisions or conclusions made by the health carrier during internal review.

VI. The selected independent review organization shall render a decision upholding or reversing the determination of the health carrier and notify the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative and the health carrier in writing within 20 days of the date that any new or additional information from the covered person is due pursuant to RSA 420-J:5-b, IV(a). This notice shall include a written review decision that contains a statement of the nature of the grievance, references to evidence or documentation considered in making the decision, findings of fact, and the clinical and legal rationale for the decision, including, as applicable, clinical review criteria and rulings of law.

VII. Expedited external review shall be conducted as follows:

(a) Expedited external review shall be available when the covered person's treating health care provider certifies to the commissioner that adherence to the time frames specified in RSA 420-J:5-b and 420-J:5-c, I, II, III, IV, V and VI would seriously jeopardize the life or health of the covered person or would jeopardize the covered person's ability to regain maximum function.

(b) Except to the extent that it is inconsistent with the provisions of this paragraph, all requirements for the conduct of standard external review specified in RSA 420-J:5-b and 420-J:5-c, I, II, III, IV, V and VI shall apply to expedited external review.

(c) At the time the commissioner receives a request for an expedited external review, the commissioner shall immediately make a determination whether the request meets the standard set forth in subparagraph VII (a) for expedited external review, as well as the reviewability requirements set forth in RSA 420-J:5-b, I. If these conditions are met, the commissioner shall immediately notify the health carrier. If the request is not complete, the commissioner shall immediately contact the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative and attempt to obtain the information or documents that are needed to make the request complete.

(d) The health carrier shall select an independent review organization that is certified pursuant to RSA 420-J:5-d, I to conduct the expedited external review. If an independent review organization is not selected to conduct the review by the health carrier, the commissioner shall select an independent review organization that has been certified pursuant to RSA 420-J:5-d, I to conduct the review.

(e) The health carrier or its designated utilization review organization shall provide or transmit the documents and information specified in paragraph III to the selected independent review organization by telephone, facsimile or any other available expeditious method within one business day of receiving the commissioner's notice of the request for expedited external review pursuant to subparagraph VII(c).

(f) When handling a review on an expedited basis, the selected independent review organization shall make a decision and notify the carrier and the covered person as expeditiously as the covered person's medical condition requires, but in no event more than 72 hours after the expedited external review is requested.

(g) If the notice provided pursuant to subparagraph VII(f) was not in writing, within 2 business days after the date of providing that notice, the selected independent review organization shall:

(1) Provide written confirmation of the decision to the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative and the health carrier; and

(2) Include the information set forth in paragraph VI

(h) An expedited external review shall not be provided for determinations made by the health carrier on a retrospective basis.

(i) A covered person shall not be held liable to either the health plan, the hospital, the physician, or the services provider for the cost of services in excess of the applicable copayment, coinsurance, or deductible incurred, pending the independent review organization's determination of an expedited external review.

VIII. The health carrier against which a request for external review is filed shall pay the cost of the external review, such costs shall not exceed $1,500. The commissioner shall notify the independent review organizations of the cost limitation for conducting an external review. The cost for an external review may exceed $1,500 if the commissioner determines an additional cost is necessary to ensure the fair adjudication of the case in question.

IX. An independent review organization shall maintain all standards of confidentiality. The records and internal materials prepared for specific reviews by an independent review organization under this section shall be exempt from public disclosure under RSA 91-A.

X. An external review organization acting in good faith shall have immunity from any civil or criminal liability or professional discipline as a result of acts or omissions with respect to any external review, unless the acts or omissions constitute willful and wanton misconduct.

XI. The right to external review under this section shall not be construed to change the terms of coverage under a health benefit plan nor shall the health carrier retaliate against the covered person for exercising his or her right to an independent external review.

XII. When requested by the covered person, the commissioner shall provide consumer assistance in pursuing the internal grievance procedures and the external review process under RSA 420-J:5 and this section.

XIII. The commissioner shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on the number of grievances subjected to external review, the number of decisions resolved wholly or partially in favor of the covered person, the number of decisions resolved wholly or partially in favor of the health carrier. Such reports shall not include those cases when the health carrier reversed its decision prior to a final determination by an independent review organization or those cases when the covered person and the health carrier agree to resolve the dispute prior to a final determination by the independent review organization.

XIV. If, in any calendar year, the determination of a health carrier is overturned on 3 separate occasions for the same treatment or service by an independent review organization, the commissioner may require the health plan to provide support for the clinical guidelines in question. If, in the judgment of the commissioner, the clinical guideline in question does not have a sound clinical basis, the commissioner may notify the Utilization Review Accreditation Committee (URAC) or the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA), as appropriate. The commissioner may require the health carrier to contract with URAC or NCQA for an audit of the health carrier's compliance with those accreditation standards related to the development and application of utilization.

420-J:5-d Certification of Independent Review Organizations.

I. The certification of independent review organizations shall be conducted as follows:

(a) The commissioner shall certify independent review organizations eligible to be selected to conduct external reviews under this section to ensure that an independent review organization satisfies the minimum qualifications established under paragraph II.

(b) The commissioner shall develop an application form for initially certifying and recertifying independent review organizations to conduct external reviews.

(c) Independent review organizations wishing to be certified shall submit the application form and include all documentation and information necessary for the commissioner to determine whether the independent review organization satisfies the minimum qualifications established under paragraph II.

(d) The commissioner may determine that accreditation by a nationally recognized private accrediting entity with established and maintained standards for independent review organizations that meet or exceed the minimum qualifications established under paragraph II is sufficient for certification under this paragraph.

(e) The commissioner shall maintain and periodically update a list of certified independent review organizations.

II. To be certified under paragraph I to conduct external reviews, an independent review organization shall meet the following minimum qualifications:

(a) It shall develop and maintain written policies and procedures that govern all aspects of both the standard external review process and the expedited external review process.

(b) It shall establish and maintain a quality assurance program that:

(1) Ensures that external reviews are conducted within the specified time frames and required notices are provided in a timely manner;

(2) Ensures the selection of qualified and impartial clinical peer reviewers to conduct external reviews on behalf of the independent review organization with suitable matching of reviewers to specific cases;

(3) Ensures the confidentiality of medical and treatment records; and

(4) Ensures that any person employed by or under contract with the independent review organization adheres to the requirements of this section.

(c) It shall agree to maintain and provide to the commissioner such information as may be required to fulfill the provisions and purposes of this section.

(d) It shall assign clinical peer reviewers to conduct external reviews who are physicians or other appropriate health care providers and who:

(1) Are experts in the treatment of the covered person's medical condition that is the subject of the external review;

(2) Are knowledgeable about the recommended health care service or treatment through actual clinical experience;

(3) Hold a non-restricted license in a state of the United States and, for physicians, a current certification by a specialty board recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties in the area or areas appropriate to the subject of the external review;

(4) Have no history or disciplinary actions or sanctions that have been taken or are pending by any hospital, governmental agency, or regulatory body; and

(5) Have agreed to disclose any potential conflict of interest.

(e) It shall be free of any conflict of interest. To meet this qualification, an independent review organization may not own or control or in any way be owned or controlled by a health carrier, a national, state or local trade association of health carriers, or a national state or local trade association of health care providers. In addition, in order to qualify to conduct an external review of a specific case, neither the independent review organization selected to conduct the external review nor any clinical peer reviewer assigned by the independent organization to conduct the external review may have a material professional, familial or financial interest in any of the following:

(1) The health carrier that is the subject of the external review;

(2) Any officer, director or management employee of the health carrier that is the subject of the external review;

(3) The health care provider or the health care provider's medical group or independent practice association recommending the health care service or treatment that is the subject of the external review;

(4) The facility or institution at which the recommended health care service or treatment would be provided;

(5) The developer or manufacturer of the principal drug, device, procedure or other therapy being recommended for the covered person whose treatment is the subject of the external review; or

(6) The covered person or the covered person's authorized representative.

(f) For the purpose of allowing in-state health care providers to act as clinical peer reviewers in the conduct of external reviews, the commissioner may determine, in specific cases, that an affiliation with a hospital, an institution, an academic medical center, or a health carrier provider network does not in and of itself constitute a conflict of interest which is sufficient to preclude that provider from acting as a clinical peer reviewer, so long as the affiliation is disclosed to the covered person or the covered person's authorized representative.

(g) The following organizations shall not be eligible for certification to conduct external reviews:

(1) Professional or trade associations of health care providers;

(2) Subsidiaries or affiliates of such provider associations;

(3) Health carrier or health plan associations; and

(4) Subsidiaries or affiliates of health plan or health carrier associations.

and the Hager/Burling floor amendment (1856h) was adopted.
Rep. Sapareto offered a floor amendment (1833h).

Floor Amendment (1833h)

Amend the bill by inserting after section 45 the following and renumbering the original section 46 to read as 56:

46 New Chapter; Statewide Education Property Tax. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 76 the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 76-ASTATEWIDE EDUCATION PROPERTY TAX

76-A:1 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Assessing official" means the assessing authority of any town, city, or place.

II. "Claimant" means a person who:

(a) Has filed a claim with a municipality for reduction in such claimant's property taxes under this chapter; and

(b) During the 3 fiscal years preceding the year in which the person files a claim for relief under this chapter:

(1) Has had an ownership interest in a homestead and was domiciled in the homestead upon which education property taxes have accrued and for which the person is making a claim for tax relief from the statewide education property tax in this state; and

(2) Was not a full-time student claimed as a dependent by any taxpayer under the United States Internal Revenue Code.

III. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of revenue administration.

IV. "Consumer price index" means the most recent available consumer price index for the Boston metropolitan area published by the United States Department of Labor.

V. "Department" means the department of revenue administration.

VI. "Education property taxes" means the sum of the statewide education property tax under this chapter and the education portion of property taxes assessed by a municipality.

VII. "Equalized assessed value" or "equalized assessed valuation" means the modified assessed valuation of property equalized by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 21-J:3, XIII. In this paragraph, "modified assessed valuation" means the sum of the assessments of taxable property in a municipality less the statutory exemptions provided in RSA 72:12-a, 72:12-b, 72:37, 72:39-a, and 72:39-b. "Modified assessed valuation" shall not include optional exemptions provided in RSA 72:37-b, 72:62, 72:66, and 72:70.

VIII.(a) "Excess education property taxes" means the sum of:

(1) The product of the state education rate determined by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 76-A:2 multiplied by the equalized value of qualifying homesteads not exceeding $100,000 and exclusive of special assessments not including current use, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied as of April 1 on a claimant's homestead in this state; and

(2) The amount of the education portion of property taxes assessed by the claimant's municipality levied as of April 1 on a claimant's homestead in this state; which is in excess of 10 percent of a claimant's household income for the calendar year preceding the tax year of the excess education property tax claim.

(b) In this paragraph, "equalized assessed value of qualifying homesteads" means the local assessed value of the homestead equalized by applying the equalization ratio for the municipality, as determined by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 21-J:3, XIII, for the year of the claim.

(c) A qualifying homestead is the first $100,000 of equalized value of a homestead. If a homestead is owned by 2 or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common, and one or more persons or entities are not members of the claimant's household, "excess education property taxes" applies to that part of statewide education property taxes levied on the homestead which reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant and the claimant's household. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a multi-dwelling building, the statewide education property taxes shall be that percentage of the total education property taxes accrued as the total inhabitable area of the claimant's dwelling is of the total inhabitable area of the building. For purposes of this paragraph "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

IX.(a) "Homestead" means the dwelling owned by a claimant which is used as the claimant's principal place of residence for not less than 240 days in a calendar year and includes the following:

(1) The land upon which the dwelling stands;

(2) Visual and ordinary appurtenant structures such as but not limited to garages, wood sheds, barns, and other out buildings;

(3) The land upon which such appurtenant structures stand;

(4) Land contiguous to such dwelling and appurtenant structures that is groomed and maintained around them; and

(5) Land necessary to the support and service of the dwelling such as but not limited to driveways and maintained rights-of-way for purposes of ingress and egress to the dwelling.

(b) A homestead may consist of a part of a multi-unit dwelling and its proportionate share of the land upon which it stands and other ordinary appurtenant common facilities.

(c) In this paragraph the term "owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.

(d) "Homestead" shall not include personal property such as furniture, furnishings or appliances, or structures.

(e) Manufactured housing may be a homestead.

X. "Household income" means federal adjusted gross income as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code.

XI. "Municipality" means a city, town, or place.

XII. "Statewide education property tax" means a tax levied at an equal and uniform rate on the equalized assessed valuation of property.

XIII. "Tax collector" means the appointed or elected collector of taxes for a municipality.

XIV. "United States Internal Revenue Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, without the rules, regulations, forms, and procedures of the United States Internal Revenue Service. The rules, regulations, forms and procedures of the United States Internal Revenue Service may, however, be used by the commissioner of revenue administration in formulating rules for adoption under RSA 541-A. This definition shall be operative unless and until a specific statutory exception to its adoption is provided in this chapter, or until the application of one of its provisions is held to violate the New Hampshire constitution.

76-A:2 Statewide Education Property Tax Established.

I. A statewide education property tax is levied annually on all taxable real estate in the state, except property subject to the tax under RSA 82 and RSA 83-F, to compensate each municipality, on an equal per pupil basis by grade, for its costs in the preceding school year to:

(a) Provide a constitutionally adequate education pursuant to part 2, article 83 of the New Hampshire constitution.

(b) Compensate each municipality on an equal per pupil basis for kindergarten where provided in the last completed school year or where provided in the current school year and not in the last completed school year.

(c) Provide additional grants to certain qualifying municipalities whose tax effort per pupil exceeds an equalized rate of $5.

II. Valuation of the property for the purpose of apportionment and setting the equalized state education rate shall be determined by equalized assessed valuation as prepared annually by the department.

III. The total amount to be raised, each year, shall be the sum calculated pursuant to RSA 198:40, 40-a, 40-b, and 41.

IV. The rate shall be established by the commissioner of revenue administration each year based on the equalized state education rate required to raise the total amount in RSA 76-A:2, III. The commissioner shall report to the legislature on or before December 1 of each year.

76-A:3 Apportionment. The commissioner, before December 15 of every year, shall apportion the amount to be raised by each municipality according to its proportion of the equalized assessed valuation of the state from the most recently available equalization survey. The commissioner shall report the amounts assessed against each municipality to the state treasurer and to each municipality.

76-A:4 Time of Assessment and Payment. The statewide education property tax shall be deemed assessed on April 1 in each year and is payable on demand to the education trust fund on or after said date.

76-A:5 Collection. The assessing officials for each municipality shall make a list of all statewide education property taxes by them assessed against property under their hands and seals to the tax collector, directing the tax collector to collect the statewide education property taxes along with other property taxes. It shall be listed as a separate line on the single municipal property tax bill. Upon application by the assessing officials, the commissioner for good cause may extend the time for delivery of the statewide education property tax warrant.

76-A:6 Remedies for Collection. The statewide education property tax may be collected by all of the means and methods provided for the collection of property taxes under RSA 80.

76-A:7 Interest and Charges for Nonpayment. Nonpayment of the statewide education property tax shall incur the same charges and interest accruing to municipalities as are imposed by law for nonpayment of property taxes.

76-A:8 Liability of Cities and Towns. Each municipality shall be liable to the state for all statewide education property taxes lawfully assessed in such municipality.

76-A:9 Payment to State. Each municipality shall cause its tax collector to certify such information as the state treasurer shall require, and shall cause its treasurer to pay over to the state treasurer, less any payments due from the state treasurer or which would be due to the state treasurer attributable to this chapter, 25 percent, of the assessed statewide property taxes on each of the following dates: July 1, October 1, January 1, and April 1.

76-A:10 Failure to Make Payment. If any municipality fails to make payments as provided in this chapter:

I. The state treasurer shall withhold an amount equal to any unremitted statewide education property taxes for which the municipality is liable, from any amounts payable by the state to such municipality. The state treasurer shall not pay to any municipality any amounts that may be due it from the state until all payments of statewide education property tax as due have been paid; and

II. The commissioner shall penalize the municipality for an amount which is twice the amount owed by the municipality under this chapter.

76-A:11 Extents. The state treasurer may also issue an extent for the amounts of all statewide education property taxes not remitted by any municipality as provided in this chapter.

76-A:12 Supplementary Bond of Collector. Whenever the commissioner considers it necessary, a tax collector may be required to furnish a further and additional bond beyond that required by other provisions of law, with sureties, in such form and amount as the commissioner approves. The additional premium costs shall be paid by the state from the education trust fund established by RSA 198:39.

76-A:13 Disposition of Taxes. All funds received by the state treasurer under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in the education trust fund established by RSA 198:39.

Statewide Education Property Tax Relief

76-A:14 Claims for Statewide Education Property Tax Relief.

I.(a) A claimant shall be entitled to make claim to the taxing municipality for statewide education property tax relief equal to the excess education property taxes as levied under this chapter on the first $100,000 of equalized valuation of the claimants homestead. Such claims shall not exceed $2,250 per claimant during any calendar year. A claimant shall not be entitled to any statewide education property tax relief if there are no excess education property taxes or for any excess education property taxes which accrued prior to January 1 of the preceding calendar year.

(b) No claim with respect to relief by a claimant under this subdivision shall be allowed unless the claim is filed with the municipality by March 1 following the date of notice of tax as defined in RSA 72:1-d. The municipality shall include all necessary forms for filing as provided by the department in the first bill.

II. No interest shall be allowed on any relief to which a claimant may be entitled under this subdivision.

76-A:15 Rebate to Claimant. Within 30 days of receipt of a claim, the municipality shall reduce the claimant's tax bill by the qualifying excess education property taxes. Where more than one tax bill is issued by the municipality, the excess education property taxes shall be divided proportionally between the bills. Timely payment to the municipality of net taxes by the claimant is not required to receive the tax reduction under this chapter.

76-A:16 Reports of Claims. Municipalities shall report to the department by April 1 of each year on the total amount of rebates made under RSA 76-A:15. By April 15 of each year, the department shall report to the state treasurer the total amount of rebates made by each municipality under RSA 76-A:15.

76-A:17 Reimbursement to Municipalities for Claims. Within 30 days of receipt of the report by the department required under RSA 76-A:16, the state treasurer shall reimburse municipalities for the total of qualified claims received under RSA 76-A:15. Such payments shall be charged against the education trust fund established in RSA 198:39.

76-A:18 One Claimant Per Household. Only one claimant per household per year shall be entitled to relief under this subdivision.

76-A:19 Claim is Personal. The right to file a claim under this subdivision shall be personal to the claimant. The right to file a claim under this subdivision shall survive the claimant's death to the extent that this right may be exercised on behalf of a claimant by a legal guardian, attorney, spouse, or another person who could have qualified as the claimant had the decedent not filed.

76-A:20 Administration; Rulemaking.

I. This subdivision shall be administered and enforced by the department.

II. The department shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, necessary to administer and enforce this subdivision.

76-A:21 Forms for Claim.

I. The commissioner of revenue administration shall make available to municipalities suitable forms with instructions for claimants. Such forms may require claimants to provide all information reasonably necessary to determining the accuracy of claims, including, but not limited to, property taxes accrued, changes of homestead, household membership, household income, size and nature of property claimed as the homestead, and a statement that the property taxes have been or will be paid by the claimant.

II. Municipalities shall make such forms available to claimants.

76-A:22 Verification of Claim; Redetermination.

I. If a municipality has reason to suspect the accuracy of a claim, the municipality may request that the department verify the household income of the claimant.

II. Upon receipt of such income verification from the department, the municipality may redetermine the claim and assess and collect, in the same manner as provided for property taxes under RSA 80, any amount of such claim in excess of the predetermined amount.

76-A:23 Fraudulent Claims; Penalty. A person shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor who:

I. Files a fraudulent claim.

II. With fraudulent intent, assisted in the preparation or filing of the fraudulent claim or supplied information upon which the fraudulent claim was prepared.

76-A:24 Appeals. Any person aggrieved by the denial in whole or in part of a claim under this subdivision, except when the denial is based upon late filing of claim, may appeal the denial to the board of tax and land appeals or to the superior court in the county in which the person resides by filing a petition within 30 days after such denial. Procedures for an appeal of a denial of a claim shall be the same as the procedures for an appeal of a denial of an abatement of property tax under RSA 76:16-a-76:17.

76-A:25 Claim Applied Against Outstanding Liabilities. The amount of any claim otherwise payable under this subdivision may be applied by the municipality against any liability outstanding against the claimant or against anyone who was a member of the household in the taxable year to which the claim relates.

47 Education Trust Fund. Amend RSA 6:12, I(www) to read as follows:

(www) Money received under RSA 76-A, RSA 77-A, RSA 77-E, RSA 78, RSA 78-A, RSA 78-B, RSA 83-F, RSA 198:46, and from the sweepstakes fund, which shall be credited to the education trust fund under RSA 198:39.

48 Rate of Utility Property Tax Increased. Amend RSA 83-F:2 to read as follows:

83-F:9 Exemption from ~~[Local Taxation]~~ Statewide Education Property Tax. Persons and property subject to taxation under this chapter shall not be subject to tax under RSA ~~[76:3]~~ 76-A; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to exempt such persons or property from local school, municipal, district, or county taxation under RSA 76.

50 New Paragraph; Definition; Tax Effort Per Pupil. Amend RSA 198:38 by inserting after paragraph XI the following new paragraph:

XII. "Tax effort per pupil" means the equalized education tax rate for a municipality based on equalized assessed valuation that is required to raise $1,000 per pupil above that provided by the adequate education grant in this subdivision and other non-municipal sources. Pupil counts are based on the average daily membership in residences, as defined in paragraph X.

51 Payments to Cap Tax Effort Per Pupil Added. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 198:39, I to read as follows:

I. The state treasurer shall establish an education trust fund in the treasury. Moneys in such fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to distribute adequate education grants to municipalities' school districts pursuant to RSA 198:42 and make payments to municipalities to cap their tax effort per pupil under this subdivision. The state treasurer shall deposit into this fund immediately upon receipt:

198:40-b Supplemental Distributions to Cap Tax Effort per Pupil. Any municipality for which there is a dollar amount needed to reduce the municipality's tax effort per pupil to an equalized rate of $5 for education spending greater than provided by the education trust fund and all other non-municipal sources for the last completed school year for any fiscal year shall be entitled to a quarterly supplemental distribution over the next school year equal to that amount which would have reduced the municipality's tax effort per pupil, in the immediately preceding tax year, as defined in RSA 198:38, XII, to a rate of $5 based on equalized assessed valuation. Such supplemental distributions shall be distributed in the same manner as adequate education grants under RSA 198:42.

54 New Section; Use of Funds. Amend RSA 198 by inserting after section 43 the following new section:

RECESS(Speaker Sytek in the Chair)*REGULAR CALENDAR – PART I (CONT'D.)

SB 68, establishing minimum 300 foot buffer zones around sensitive areas from application of herbicides, authorizing a study of environmental effects from residual herbicides and making an appropriation therefor. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. David L. Babson, Jr. for the Majority of Environment and Agriculture: The majority of the Environment and Agriculture Committee felt that the proposed 300-foot buffer zone around wells, boundary lines, springs, and groundwater would dramatically reduce the working area designated for spraying, making the process uneconomical. The current practice of spraying utilizes the latest technological advances and is only used on a designated area once or twice in the lifetime of the area's trees (approximately 70 years). Although the committee heard anecdotal reports, no scientific evidence was presented that this valuable and cost-effective timberland practice is detrimental to the environment. The majority felt it more likely that the use of household chemicals by the general public presented a far greater environmental threat than the well-monitored and controlled practice of aerial spraying. There was little opposition to the increased monitoring which would be required in this bill. Vote 9-6.

Rep. Betty B. Hall for the Minority of Environment and Agriculture: Aerial spraying of herbicides is a procedure to kill the hardwoods and promote certain species desired by the timber owner for targeted desired markets. The effect on wildlife, soil and water is not well understood. How far it may drift is a variable factor and may affect not only the environment but also residential areas. Monitoring of possible environmental damage is a responsibility of the Department of Environmental Services. The department has not been funded to do this monitoring. This bill provides modest available funding.

Rep. Hall spoke against.

Rep. Phinizy spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Melcher and Spang spoke in favor.

Rep. Scanlan spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Burling requested a roll call, sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the majority report.

SPECIAL ORDERS

HB 707-FN, relative to the family division of the courts. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This bill would expand the family court system to add Carroll and Belknap counties to the existing two counties. The court believes that expanding the family court system will add considerable costs to the judicial branch. The committee finds many of the features of the family court system to be desirable, and therefore would like to re-refer the bill in order to thoroughly examine these suggested additional costs to see how they can be minimized Vote 14-2.

Rep. Kurk spoke against.

The report failed.

Rep. Kurk moved Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Rep. Kurk offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (1877h)

Amend paragraph 1(a) as inserted by section 4 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) Three members of the house, 2 of whom shall be members of either the judiciary committee or the children and family law committee and one of whom shall be a member of the finance committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.

Amend the bill by replacing section 9 with the following:

9 Effective Date.

I. Sections 3-7 of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a family division of the courts in Rockingham and Grafton counties and requires the supreme court to expand the family division to Carroll and Belknap counties. The bill also establishes a committee to study implementation of a statewide family division.

Rep. Peterson spoke in favor.

Adopted.

The question now being Ought to Pass with Amendment.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Burling declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

SB 40, relative to the health care fund. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert E. Clegg for Finance: This bill would require separate legislation and a 2/3 vote of the House and Senate before any transfers of funds from the Health Care Fund could occur. It would also require the fund to be at the same level at the end of a biennium as it was at the beginning. The Committee felt the cause noble but realized that the statute could be by-passed and funds could still be transferred through "notwithstanding any law to the contrary" language. As a result, it appears to the Committee that the bill would not serve its intended purpose. Vote 11-5.

Rep. Jacobson spoke against.

Rep. Clegg spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Adopted.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART II

CACR 11, relating to the use of lottery revenues for educational purposes. Providing that lottery revenues be distributed directly to the governing body of the city or town. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This is one of three constitutional amendments that the committee voted to re-refer in order to have more time to look at the issues. This will not delay implementing any possible constitutional amendment, since no amendment can be placed before the voters until November, 2000. Vote 12-5.

Adopted.

CACR 26, relating to the state's duty to assure the opportunity for an adequate primary and secondary public education to all pupils in the state. Providing that the state shall have the duty to assure the opportunity for an adequate primary and secondary public education to all pupils in the state; the nature and means of the fulfillment of such duty shall be determined by the legislature and judicial review shall be limited to whether or not there is any rational basis therefor; the legislature shall have exclusive authority to determine and fund the costs or to delegate the authority to impose assessments, rates, and taxes for education to political subdivisions, which if so delegated shall be deemed local and shall be proportional and reasonable within the political subdivision in which they are imposed. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: This is one of three constitutional amendments that the committee voted to re-refer in order to have more time to look at the issues. This will not delay implementing any possible constitutional amendment, since no amendment can be placed before the voters until November, 2000. Vote 15-1.

Adopted.

SB 62-FN-A-L, relative to the acquisition of Umbagog Lake Campground in Cambridge, New Hampshire, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Norman L. Major for Finance: This bill appropriates funds to the Department of Resources and Economic Development for the purchase of a certain tract of land, currently operated as Umbagog Lake Campground, located in Cambridge, New Hampshire, on Umbagog Lake. The tract totals approximately 9.6 acres on the southern shore of Umbagog Lake and is operated as a campground. The acquisition by the state of this tract of land will secure state access to and assure future control of recreational opportunities on and around this lake. Umbagog Lake is a water body that encompasses approximately 7,850 acres (4,532 acres in New Hampshire) and the several thousand acres of adjoining bay area to the north is the last large undeveloped parcel of its kind in the state of New Hampshire. The area is an important habitat for an abundance of wildlife such as blue herons, bald eagles, ospreys and loons. The purchased property will be managed by the Department of Resources and Economic Development, Division of Parks and Recreation. Currently this property is owned by the Trust for Public Lands. The Division of Parks and Recreation will operate this campground under agreement with the Trust for Public Lands until the state's purchase is final. The final sale price of the property has been determined by appraisal, and shall not exceed $600,000. The Department of Resources and Economic Development (DRED) indicates total state revenues from operating the campground will exceed all state expenses associated with this land purchase and campground operation for all future years. This bill increases general fund bonded indebtedness by $600,000. Payments of principal and interest on the bonds and notes shall be made from the state park fund, not the general fund. Vote 12-6.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 102, relative to payment of the premium tax. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: This bill simply requires insurers whose annual estimated tax liability is $400 or less to make one advance annual payment rather than four quarterly payments. Vote 15-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 113, establishing a division of travel and tourism development within the department of resources and economic development. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Franklin G. Torr for Finance: This bill elevates travel and tourism from an office to a division. This action puts travel and tourism in a more prominent position. Additionally there is established an advisory committee on travel and tourism to recommend ideas and provide input to the Division of Travel and Tourism. There is a minor cost of approximately $2,000 each year. Vote 10-8.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 153-FN-A, requiring that a percentage of profits derived by the liquor commission be placed into and continually appropriated to a special fund for alcohol education and abuse prevention and treatment programs. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Finance: The bill would have required that a percentage of Liquor Commission profits be spent on alcohol education and abuse prevention and treatment. Data was presented concerning the successfulness and cost-effectiveness of these programs. The committee needs more time to evaluate this data and obtain answers to many questions before it can determine what priority should be placed on spending money for this purpose compared with others. Vote 10-5.

Reps. Pilliod and Eaton spoke against.

Reps. MacGillivray, Millham, Vaillancourt and Belvin spoke in favor.

Rep. Pilliod requested a roll call; not sufficiently seconded.

On a division vote, 202 members voting in the affirmative and 108 in the negative, the report was adopted.

SB 182-FN, relative to eligibility for ordinary death benefits under the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Paul J. Dwyer, Sr. for Finance: This bill is to help spouses of retirees who have passed away and were in service at the time of their death. It offers those spouses a choice of accepting the retiree's earnable compensation in a lump sum or by monthly payments. There is no cost to the retirement system or to the general fund. Vote 15-2.

Adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

SB 187-FN-L, relative to payment of group health insurance premiums for eligible retired teachers in the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: This bill provides a health care supplement for retired teachers who are currently retired or will retire prior to July 1, 2004. The $89.1 million cost will come from the teacher portion of the special account of the New Hampshire Retirement System. The special account was established in 1983 to provide cost-of-living adjustments and other benefit enhancements. The special account has sufficient funds for this purpose. After funding the bill there will be $74 million remaining to fund reasonable COLAs for the next three to four years. The benefit and funding mechanism is the same as the health care program for retired police and firefighters which has been in effect for the past eleven years. The Finance Committee amendment provides $110,000 over the biennium from within the budget of the Department of Health and Human Services to fund the legislatively-established Long Term Care Institute. There will be no increase in state or local expenditures as a result of this bill. Vote 15-2.

Amendment (1822h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to payment of group health insurance premiums for eligible retired teachers and for certain active or retired group II members in the New Hampshire retirement system, and relative to allocation of funds appropriated to the department of health and human services to the long term care institute.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 7 the following and renumbering the original section 8 to read as section 9:

8 Allocation of Funds; Department of Health and Human Services; Long Term Care Institute. Of funds appropriated to the department of health and human services, the commissioner shall pay over to the long term care institute established under RSA 126-L the sum of $55,000 for each year of the biennium ending June 30, 2001.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides for the payment by the retirement system of the cost of group health insurance for eligible retired teachers. The additional benefits shall be funded from the special account for current retired teachers and projected eligible teachers for the next 5 years.

The bill includes certain active or retired group II members for funding of payment of medical benefits.

The bill also provides for the allocation of $55,000 for each year of the biennium to be paid over from funds appropriated to the department of health and human services to the long term care institute.

Rep. Kurk spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Reps. Copenhaver, Wallin and Haettenschwiller spoke against.

Rep. Belvin spoke in favor.

Rep. Chandler requested a roll call, sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the amendment.

COMMITTEE REPORTSCONSENT CALENDAR – Part III

Rep. Chandler moved that the Consent Calendar – Part III, as printed in House Record No. 70, dated June 28, 1999, be adopted.

SB 11-FN, relative to the filing fee for securities in a combined prospectus offered for sale in New Hampshire by a mutual fund. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for Finance: With the final grains of sand passing through the upper portion of the hourglass, Finance did not have the necessary time to devote to this bill which deals with changes in how mutual funds pay filing fees to the state. The fiscal note was far from helpful. It revealed that the impact of this bill could range from a loss of $690,000 a year to a gain of $310,000. By re-referring this bill, Finance intends to get a better handle on this data and then decide whether it is in the best fiscal interests of the state. Vote 17-0.

SB 114, relative to health care carrier disclosure of third party liability. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert K. Boyce for Finance: The Finance Committee agrees with the Commerce Committee that this bill simplifies the process the Department of Health and Human Services goes through to ensure all commercial or third party insurance liability is paid prior to the state Medicaid system picking up those costs. The sharing of information between the Insurance Department and HHS will not violate any confidentiality rights. There is a fiscal note decreasing expenditures by over $1,000,000; the state would retain at least half of these savings. Vote 17-0.

SB 186-FN, relative to additional cost of living adjustments and increased minimum allowances for certain retired group II members, and relative to requiring spousal acknowledgement of a member's election of an optional retirement allowance. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: This bill increases minimum allowances from $5,200 to $7,500 annually for retired group II members, requires a spousal acknowledgement of members' election of optional retirement allowance, and repeals the reduction by a social security offset of a minimum service retirement. Currently, the police special fund has a balance of $62.5 million and the fire $45.5 million. These figures include the July COLAs. This legislation further depletes the special funds by $3.8 million and $3.6 million respectively. Due to time constraints, and lack of a 5-year actuarial table demonstrating losses attributable to the repeal of a social security offset, the Finance Committee recommends Re-refer. Vote 16-1.

SB 222-FN-A-L, relative to guarantee of loans to local development organizations. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: The committee, having just received this bill, no longer has enough time to collect the information needed to pass it, and asks for Re-refer. Vote 18-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR – PART IIIHB 235-FN-A, increasing the exemption amount under the interest and dividends tax. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Bruce F. Hunter for Finance: This bill would increase the exemptions under the interest and dividends tax. The Finance Committee found that a comprehensive review of this tax is warranted. Members heard many suggestions for modifying this tax, including increased exemptions, increased exemptions for people over 65, and increased exemptions for those individuals with limited total income. The Department of Revenue Administration reported that this bill would decrease state revenue by $10.2 million in FY 2000 and each year thereafter. The committee will spend the next several months looking at various proposals to limit this tax and to insure that any exemption structure is fairly constructed. Vote 16-0.
Adopted.

HB 615-FN-A, establishing a brain and spinal cord injury trust fund and continually appropriating a special fund and establishing a registry for brain and spinal cord injuries. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. O. Alan Thulander for Finance: The committee spent considerable time on this bill trying to find an acceptable method of funding this trust fund that would be adequate and sustainable. We were unable to do so. We therefore eliminated the funding portion so that the registry could proceed and the trust fund be taken up when more information is available. The registry should provide the Department of Health and Human Services and the legislature with the data to help determine the nature and cost of future services to people with brain and spinal cord injuries. Vote 17-0.

HB 709-FN-A-L, relative to the railroad tax. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jean R. Wallin for Finance: This bill clarifies the tax treatment of railroad companies that operate on state-owned railroad corridors and provides a share of the revenues from these operations to the twenty-eight towns and cities on the four railroad corridors. Cities and towns along state-leased corridors will share approximately $25,000, and cities and towns along other railroad corridors will share approximately $155,000. The state general fund will receive approximately $311,000 from the railroad tax, a decrease of approximately $140,000. The remaining revenue (approximately $293,000) is paid to a special railroad fund (RSA 228:68-69) which provides for the maintenance and repair of the railroad lines. Vote 14-2.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Leishman declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

SB 195-FN-A, appropriating funds for sludge testing. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Susan W. Almy for Finance: The Department of Environmental Services, under citizen pressure to act and against the advice of the Joint Administrative Committee on Legislative Rules, put rules into effect in March 1999 requiring that all municipalities with wastewater treatment plants whose products are spread as sludge or compost undergo re-certification. This re-certification entails $10,000 of testing the first year and $2,500 every year thereafter. The municipalities raised this as a 28-a issue. The Senate voted to approve the $500,000 that the first year of testing would entail. The House Finance amendment drops this cost to $210,000, after an agreement from the department to waive the testing for those municipalities whose treatment lagoons are only emptied once in 10-15 years. There are seven municipal plants that regularly land-apply sludge and ten that turn it into compost. Next year the department will bring in a bill through which this issue can be properly debated by the legislature. The $210,000 cost is to the FY 99 general fund from department wastewater funds that would otherwise lapse. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (1837h)

1 Transfer of Appropriation. The amount of $210,000, appropriated for state aid grants by 1997, 350:1 PAU 03, 04, 02, 01, 04 for fiscal year 1999, shall be transferred as income to the sampling and analysis of sludge or biosolids samples fund under RSA 485-A:4, XVI-c.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill transfers $210,000 appropriated for state aid grants to the sampling and analysis of sludge or biosolids samples fund.

This bill is a request of the department of environmental services.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Recommendation:

That the Senate recede from its position of nonconcurrence with the House amendment, and concur with the House amendment, and

That the Senate and House adopt the following new amendment to the bill as amended by the House, and pass the bill as so amended:

Amend the bill by replacing paragraph V(c) of section 1 with the following:

(c) The department of environmental services in consultation with the department of health and human services adopt primary and secondary drinking water standards and ambient ground-water quality standards designed to protect the public health. The general court urges the department of environmental services as part of their review on MTBE to examine the scientific record that led California to adopt a public health goal of 13 parts per billion for MTBE for drinking water and to adopt a secondary drinking water standard of 5 parts per billion for MTBE.

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 New Subdivision; Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether (MTBE). Amend RSA 485 by inserting after section 16 the following new subdivision:

Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether (MTBE)

485:16-a Drinking Water Standards and Notification.

I. The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of health and human services, shall adopt primary and secondary drinking water standards pursuant to RSA 485:3, and ambient ground-water quality standards pursuant to RSA 485-C:6, applicable to MTBE. The commissioner shall not commence rulemaking for these standards until after the department has reviewed the scientific record on the risks posed by the presence of MTBE in drinking water supplies. Such review shall be completed at the earliest possible date, but no later than January 1, 2000. The commissioner shall commence rulemaking no later than January 1, 2000.

II. Any public water system delivering water with greater than 5 parts per billion of MTBE shall notify each customer of the MTBE content.

485:16-b Authority to Limit MTBE in Gasoline; Penalties.

I. The commissioner shall seek all necessary waivers from the Environmental Protection Agency such that conventional gasoline, or some other substitute gasoline that is readily available and reasonably priced, may immediately replace reformulated gasoline in Strafford, Rockingham, Hillsborough, and Merrimack counties. The waivers shall expire on January 1, 2002. The temporary waivers shall not be predicated upon the state implementing substitute air emissions reduction strategies in order to comply with the state implementation plan.

II. In addition to the authority to seek waivers under paragraph I, the commissioner, after consultation with the commissioner of health and human services, may limit, with the approval of the governor and council, the concentration of MTBE allowed in any gasoline sold in all or part of the state after first holding a public hearing on the issue and certifying to the air pollution advisory committee established in RSA 125-J:11 that gasolines which meet such limit are:

- (a) Readily available to New Hampshire consumers at a reasonable price;
- (b) Less hazardous overall to humans and the environment than gasoline having higher MTBE concentrations taking into account all exposure routes, including air and water; and
- (c) Approved for use in New Hampshire by the Environmental Protection Agency without a requirement to substitute additional air emissions reductions.

III. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the commissioner from phasing in any limitations approved under paragraph II.

IV. Retail sellers of gasoline and the suppliers to such retail sellers shall comply with the provisions of paragraph II or be subject to the enforcement provisions of RSA 485:58.

V. The limitations on MTBE concentrations established under the provisions of this section shall be exempt from the requirements of RSA 541-A, the administrative procedure act. The department shall file, however, in the office of legislative services a copy of all rules adopted, amended, or repealed under this section by the department.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 New Subparagraph; Proceedings in Special Cases; Administrative Procedure Act; Exceptions; Limits on Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether. Amend RSA 541-A:21, 1 by inserting after subparagraph (u) the following new subparagraph:

(v) RSA 485:16-b, II relative to limits on the concentration of methyl tertiary butyl ether in gasoline.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

I. Requires that the commissioner of environmental services adopt primary and secondary drinking water and ambient groundwater quality standards applicable to MTBE.

II. Authorizes the commissioner to limit the concentration of MTBE allowed in gasoline.

III. Requires that public water systems delivering water with a certain concentration of MTBE notify each customer of the MTBE content.

IV. Requires that the commissioner seek waivers from the Environmental Protection Agency so that reformulated gasoline may be replaced in Strafford, Rockingham, Hillsborough, and Merrimack counties.

Conferees: Sens. Wheeler, Dist. 21; Cohen, Dist. 24 and Russman, Dist. 19.

III. If the agency finds that public health, safety or welfare requires emergency action and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, immediate suspension of a license may be ordered pending an adjudicative proceeding. The agency shall commence this adjudicative proceeding not later than 10 working days after the date of the agency order suspending the license. A record of the proceeding shall be made by a certified shorthand court reporter provided by the agency. Unless expressly waived by the licensee, agency failure to commence an adjudicative proceeding within 10 working days shall mean that the suspension order is automatically vacated. The agency shall not again suspend the license for the same conduct which formed the basis of the vacated suspension without granting the licensee prior notice and an opportunity for an adjudicative proceeding.

2 New Subparagraphs; Contested Cases in Adjudicative Proceedings; Notice Requirements. Amend RSA 541-A:31, III by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraphs:

(e) A statement that each party has the right to have an attorney present to represent the party at the party's expense.

(f) For proceedings before an agency responsible for occupational licensing as provided in paragraph VII-a, a statement that each party has the right to have the agency provide a certified shorthand court reporter at the party's expense and that any such request be submitted in writing at least 10 days prior to the proceeding.

3 Contested Cases; Record of Oral Proceedings. Amend RSA 541-A:31, VII to read as follows:

VII. The entirety of all oral proceedings shall be recorded verbatim by the agency. Upon the request of any party or upon the agency's own initiative, such record shall be transcribed by the agency if the requesting party or agency shall [first] pay all reasonable costs for such transcription. If a transcript is not provided within 60 days of a request by a person who is a respondent party in a disciplinary hearing before an agency responsible for occupational licensing, the proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. Any party may record an oral proceeding, have a transcription made at the party's expense, or both, but only the transcription made by the agency from its verbatim record shall be the official transcript of the proceeding.

4 New Paragraph; Occupational Licensing Proceeding; Certified Shorthand Court Record. Amend RSA 541-A:31 by inserting after paragraph VII the following new paragraph:

VII-a. At the request of a party in any oral proceeding involving disciplinary action before an agency responsible for occupational licensing except for an emergency action under RSA 541-A:30, III, the record of the proceeding shall be made by a certified shorthand court reporter provided by the agency at the requesting party's expense. A request shall be submitted to the agency in writing at least 10 days prior to the day of the proceeding.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds notice requirements and provides that a stenographic record shall be made by a certified shorthand court reporter in an emergency action and in an agency adjudicative proceeding on occupational licensing upon the request of a party to the proceeding, and requires dismissal of a complaint if a transcript is not provided.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Reps. Chandler and Burling moved that House Rule 44 (b) be so far suspended as to permit consideration at the present time, without the required notice, of the committee report on HB 747-FN-A-L, relative to the education property tax and adequate education grants.

Adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

CONSIDERATION OF HB 747

HB 747-FN-A-L, relative to the education property tax and adequate education grants. RE-REFER TO COMMITTEE

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Finance: This bill, admitted through Rules in the waning days of this session, had its public hearing on June 29. It contains some elements which have already been rejected by the House, some which correct technical errors in the education funding process, and others which may or may not make improvements. The Finance Committee would like the time to get firm numbers on the effects of the various changes. Vote 9-6.

Adopted.

HOUSE ADDRESS 1

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON ADDRESS FOR THE REMOVAL OF CHIEF JUSTICE BROCK

The committee has voted unanimously not to recommend the address for the removal of Chief Justice Brock. Part II, Article 73 of the New Hampshire Constitution provides that the: Governor with consent of the council may remove any commissioned officer for reasonable cause upon the address of both houses of the legislature, provided nevertheless that the cause for removal shall be stated fully and substantially in the address and shall not be a cause which is sufficient ground for impeachment, and provided further that no officer shall be so removed unless he shall have had an opportunity to be heard in his defense by a joint committee of both houses of the legislature.

The committee does not believe that HA 1 meets the criteria established in the constitution. The conduct described by the 5 items listed in HA 1 does not rise to the level of conduct that requires removal. The members do not believe that HA 1 either stated a reasonable cause for removal or that the causes in HA 1 were fully and substantially stated.

The committee began by examining Part II, Article 73 in the New Hampshire Constitution. The provision was included in our original constitution and was amended in 1966 to spell out certain requirements for the address and to provide due process for the respondent. The committee held several organizational meetings to develop clear rules of committee procedure. This was particularly important because there have been no addresses before the legislature since the adoption of the 1966 amendment. The committee believes that based on the 1966 amendment to Article 73, the address is a legislative procedure to be used with great care and in circumstances where there is reasonable cause for removal. The committee discussed and formally adopted Special Rules of Procedure. Two separate days of hearings were held to provide the sponsors of the bill, the public, and the Chief Justice opportunities to testify.

The Special Rules of Procedure included the 1966 amendments in the Constitution which require the address to:

- a)state a reasonable cause for removal;
- b)be fully and substantially stated; and
- c)not be a cause which is sufficient ground for impeachment.

Members believe that there is a certain level of misperception about both the independence of each of the three branches of government as well as the level of cooperation that is necessary between the branches. The committee believes that a priority should be placed on establishing a better working relationship between the judiciary and the public and an improved relationship between the three branches.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Copenhagen addressed the House.

Rep. Manning moved that the remarks made by Rep. Copenhagen be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Copenhagen: I am here, and I thank you, members of the House. Today is the last day of a very contentious, tumultuous session. I think we would be remiss, however, if we did not recognize, the long, dedicated service of the House Nurse, Lois Spearman. The 21 years she has quietly tended to the various ills of this body should be noteworthy. I fortunately have not needed her expertise but have been comforted knowing that she was there. Those of you with asthma, heart conditions, post-surgery needs know all too well what a fine, supportive human being Lois has been. So, Madame Speaker, I ask this House to salute Lois Spearman for her 21 years in keeping us fit and able to push the buttons on our voting machines. Thank you.

SENATE MESSAGES

REQUESTS CONCURRENCE WITH AMENDMENTS

HB 464, relative to electric rate reduction financing. (Amendment printed SJ 27, 7/1/99)

Rep. Bradley moved that the House concur and spoke in favor.

Rep. Norelli spoke in favor.

Adopted.

REMARKS

Rep. Chandler moved that the remarks made by Reps. Norelli and Bradley be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Norelli: Thank you, Madam Speaker. A couple of weeks ago I spent an afternoon testifying on behalf of the Science, Technology and Energy Committee before the Finance Committee and after that a couple of my colleagues on the Finance Committee said to me, "Boy, we don't understand all that stuff you guys do in Science and Technology. We aren't really interested in that, but thank goodness somebody's doing it." I think that view is probably shared by a lot of people, other members of the House, and that's probably the reason that the Speaker has asked Rep. Bradley and myself to do two things with regard to this bill that we're addressing now. One is to put in your seat pockets a summary of House Bill 464 and the second is to give you all the information we can give you this afternoon. Keeping in mind it is late in the day, the last day, this bill deals with an issue that potentially is as significant as Claremont and which has received a lot of media play but almost no attention in the House. Given the time, but also given the significance of the issue in front of us, I'm going to try to make it as pleasant as possible and as clear as possible what it is we would like to accomplish this afternoon.

Back in the mid-90's, as it is today, New Hampshire had the highest electric rates in the country. Consequently, this legislature enacted HB 1392, which was the restructuring legislation, with the intent to bring New Hampshire to competition in electric generation to customer choice. Consequently, we hoped to lower rates in the near term and in the long term. In February, 1997, the Public Utilities Commission issued its final order on restructuring and within a couple of days Public Service of New Hampshire was in court to sue the state.

Rep. Bradley, I believe, is going to give you an update on what the status of that litigation that's currently in federal court in Rhode Island is. But there is one issue that I have heard a couple of people say to me over the last couple of days that they really don't understand and that issue is at the very base of moving from, transitioning from, a monopoly situation that we are in to a competitive situation and that is the concept of stranded costs.

Under a monopoly situation, a utility is guaranteed to recover their prudent investments with a certain rate of return. If it's determined that a utility should invest, let's say $100,000, in a certain generating asset, then they are guaranteed to recover that $100,000 with whatever the rate of return is. Over time, the book value of that asset would go down and let's say it gets down to $60,000, and at that time, for whatever reason, the actual market value of that asset is only $40,000. Under a regulated, monopoly situation that we have now, the utility would still recover the entire $60,000. But, as we move to competition, they can only recover the $40,000 of actual market value, so there is $20,000 once we get to competition that that utility was told they would recover and all of a sudden there is no place to recover it. That $20,000 difference in this particular instance is what is known as stranded costs. And that's sort of at the base of all the settlement negotiations and the litigation that's going on.

While this litigation has been going on, simultaneously there have been settlement negotiations. Granite State Electric Company met with various parties to see if they could reach sort of a settlement agreement that would get them in their territory to restructuring. Likewise, Unitil was meeting with various parties to see if they could reach a settlement agreement and PSNH off and on over the last couple of years has been meeting with various parties to see if they could reach a settlement agreement. Granite State Electric and other parties did eventually sign off on a proposed settlement that was filed with the Public Utilities Commission. After that, the PUC held a lengthy, several months, adjudicatory hearing process and at the end of that process approved the settlement agreement with conditions. In other words, they said there are certain changes that you have to make to this settlement in order for us to approve it. In the case of Granite State, they said, "OK, we will accept those changes" and they moved forward with restructuring and customer choice in the Granite State territory. In the case of Unitil, the process was similar; they reached an agreement, filed a proposed settlement with PUC, there was a subsequent hearing process over several months at the end of which the PUC said, "We'll approve this settlement with conditions."

But in the case of Unitil, Unitil did not accept those conditions and that was the end of the settlement. In the case of Public Service of New Hampshire, as I said, over the last couple of year, we have been in and out of negotiations with Public Service of New Hampshire and as probably most of you know, because there has been a lot of press about it lately, they've been in negotiations with the state team for several months and have at last come to some agreement about settling the restructuring. One thing a lot of people may not recognize is that in the case of Granite State Electric and in the case of Unitil, the legislature played absolutely no part in that process in the sense that there wasn't any legislation that we had to vote on, there wasn't any approval that the legislature had to give either to the Granite State settlement or to the Unitil settlement. But in the case of Public Service of New Hampshire, a lot of people are saying, "What about this settlement? Should we approve it?"

So the question is, what makes the Public Service of New Hampshire settlement any different from the Granite State or the Unitil settlement? And that is, that the Public Service settlement includes, as part of that settlement, a refinancing mechanism that's known as securitization. And again, I believe, Rep. Bradley is going to talk a little bit more about what that exactly is. But the key point here is that it requires legislation by this body. That process is not going to take place today. That's not what we are voting on today. That process will, in fact, take place, the consideration of whether or not to pass securitization won't take place until early next session.

In a sense, because securitization is intimately tied to the settlement agreement, voting on securitization, in essence, is a vote on the settlement agreement. So, in the case of Public Service of New Hampshire, in fact, the legislature will play a very significant role.

So, I just want to take a second and let you know what the process is that we will be going through. Currently, the parties have filed with the Public Utilities Commission, a memorandum of understanding. That's a document that is roughly 25 pages and it outlines in broad respect the settlement agreement that the parties have reached. By August, it is anticipated that the parties will file with the Public Utilities Commission a very detailed settlement agreement. After that, just as in the case of Granite State and Unitil, there will be a long hearing process at the end of which the Public Utilities Commission will have three options. They can approve the settlement, they can reject the settlement or they can approve the settlement with certain conditions. If the last case happens to be what happens, then Public Service would be able to accept or reject those conditions. At the end of that, if there is an agreement, then the legislature would have to consider, at that time, whether or not to authorize securitization. The question that we will have to answer, each and every one of us at that time, is, "Is the deal (that's presented to us at that time) good enough for us to say yes to securitization or is it not good enough?" Consequently, that's what House Bill 464 is all about. House Bill 464 does several things. The first is it sets out some legislative principles about what we think should happen in terms of customer benefits, before we would approve securitization. And again, I think Rep. Bradley is going to go over those principles - what they are and why we think they are important. The second thing that it does is to authorize the legislature to hire an independent consultant that would review and analyze both the settlement and securitization, and report back to the legislature through the Electric Utilities Restructuring Oversight Committee, as well as the House Science committee and the Senate Energy committee; make a report back to us about their analysis of the settlement and securitization. The legislation authorizes up to $50,000 to do that; that money does not come out of the General Fund. It would be an assessment against the electric utilities. The third thing that this legislation does has to do with the fact the parties to the memorandum of understanding have asked the Public Utilities Commission to suspend various dockets that are currently pending before the Public Utilities Commission. These have to do with the FPPAC agreement and the rate base case. In this legislation, what we have said to the Commission is just not to be so quick to do that. To please encourage all the participants to file testimony and exhibits and data requests; and the reason for doing this is so that the Commission can build up a factual record that both the Commission and we in the legislature, come January or so, can use as a benchmark to compare the settlement agreement against other options. For instance, the option of what happens if there is no settlement agreement. The fourth thing that HB 464 does is to allow the Commission to hold hearings relative to securitization simultaneously as they are holding the hearings on settlement. It also allows them to issue a conditional securitization order which would have to be, at some future time if the legislature so chooses to do so, approved by the legislature. This would happen, as I said, probably in January and we would actually have four different options at that time. At that time there would be a settlement, there might be an issue on securitization, an order on securitization issued by the Commission and we would have four options. One option would be to approve securitization; the second option would be to reject securitization; and then we have a couple of options somewhere in between. One, as I see it, is similar to what the Commission has done in the Granite State and Unital settlement agreements and that is we could approve securitization with some conditions on it. We get to decide the dollar amount so, for example, one condition might be a different dollar amount than the Commission has recommended. The last option that the legislature would have at that time would be to say back to the Public Utilities Commission, "Well, you know what? We are not happy with the information you have given us; we really think you need to take another look at this; go ahead and hold some more hearings."

So, I think that in January, once we have had an opportunity to have all of this information, we have four options at our disposal at that time. We will be in good shape. The question that I have been asked by many people since the memorandum of understanding has come out is, "Is this a good deal?", and that's something I think is still to be determined; and that's exactly why we need to pass HB 464 today because we need to let the Commission know what the principles are that the legislature thinks are important before we pass securitization. We need to have the input of an independent consultant who can analyze the settlements securitization and report back to the House. And we need to have as much information about the pending rate case to be able to have a benchmark against which each and every one of us can compare the settlement agreement to know whether or not it's a good deal. Without HB 464, I don't believe we would be in as good a position to make the best judgement that we can make, and I don't believe the Commission would be in the best position to obtain the most concessions that they can on behalf of the ratepayers. So, I would ask each and every one of you, please, to support the concurrence with Senate amendments on HB 464. I tried to get Rep. Bradley to let me field only the easiest of questions but I think what we will do is defer questions until after he had a chance to fill you in on the rest of the details. But I would remind everybody that this is a very, very important issue that has potential, significant consequences for electric ratepayers in New Hampshire and that not only today, but between now and January when we have to vote on this, to talk to as many members of the Science, Technology and Energy Committee with as many questions as you have, get them all answered, keep asking them between now and January. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Rep. Bradley: Thank you, Madam Speaker. I know that at 4:45 p.m. on a hot day, I am taking my life in my hands when I get up here and I thank you very much for your attention. As Rep. Norelli indicated, I was going to speak about the history of this situation. We know it has been awful for 25 years so I don't think I need to go into that any more. The impact that having the highest average electric rate in the nation in New Hampshire – trust me, it's bad – and talk about the litigation, it's going terribly, I ought to move concurrence right now, Madam Speaker, but let me just say a couple of things to reiterate what Rep. Norelli said.

This bill does not approve this settlement or securitization. It sets up a process where all 400 of us and our 24 colleagues in the Senate will have ample opportunity and information to decide if the way that the settlement is proceeding is good and should be approved or needs to be improved, which I happen to believe it does, or should be rejected. The principles lay out the quid pro quos that we expect, the concessions from Public Service of New Hampshire. For you legislators who represent New Hampshire Electric Cooperative customers, there is a very key ingredient in here on an offer that has to be submitted from PSNH to resolve the Cooperative situation. As Rep. Norelli said, there are strong benchmark provisions in this legislation that we will have that adequate information so that our experts at the commission can look at this and advise us and we'll know where we are proceeding. There is language in here for a consultant that will help us in the independent review that's absolutely necessary. Madam Speaker, I'll just conclude by saying the process, the involvement, the public hearings that this bill seeks to create, as the color of our extensive handout shows, is designed to shed some sunshine and the light of ample discussion and debate by all New Hampshire citizens. That's what this bill is about and I would maintain it differs completely from the process of 1989. I believe that members of the legislature have learned from that process and will not repeat it again. Thank you.

Rep. Mock: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Representative Bradley you may have answered this question, I'm not too sure. Will this legislation permit, allow or help the New Hampshire Electric Cooperative, a company that serves my district, primarily to lower their rates as well as Public Service?

Rep. Bradley: It says to Public Service of New Hampshire that at the same time as the settlement, the final document is filed at the Public Utilities Commission, they must make an offer to resolve their differences between the Cooperative and PSNH. It doesn't absolutely resolve them, but at least they have to put an offer on the table and then the Coop will have some basis for response and that, quite frankly, has been a problem in the past. Rep. Mock, my mother lives in Tuftonboro which is a Cooperative territory so I'd be in real trouble were that not taken care of. They are going to put a roadblock up between Wolfeboro and Tuftonboro if this doesn't happen.

Rep. French: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Representative Bradley, if an organization is concerned about securitization being no higher than $500 million, would this bill insure that?

Rep. Bradley: This bill will give adequate opportunity for every interested stake holder, business, customer group, individual citizen, to appear in front of the legislature, where we always welcome the public, and the Public Utilities Commission, so, obviously you're speaking to a certain extent, I believe, on behalf of the Campaign for Ratepayers Rights, which has indicated that they're willing to accept some level of securitization. So, yes, it will give them and every other organization ample opportunity to intervene with the legislature and the Commission.

Rep. French: Thank you, Representative Bradley. Would you also say that since this is a very important policy issue that we are working on, under ordinary circumstances we would have had ample time to talk about this and think about it, that therefore since we haven't, it is crucial that we all be income involved and informed in the process so that next year we make an informed, intelligent, responsible decision?

Rep. Bradley: Absolutely, Rep. French. I believe virtually every member of the Science, Technology and Energy Committee has or will intervene in the settlement docket that will be created at the Public Utilities Commission and for other members of the legislature who want to do the same.

That's a way to become much more knowledgeable, remembering that this is a vote today about an open process, information gathering and hopefully a rational decision, either yes, no or maybe with conditions, in the future.

Rep. MacGillivray: Thank you, Representative Bradley. Thank you, Madam Speaker. Am I correct, that if this bill doesn't pass we'll be worse off because the process would go forward; we wouldn't have our $50,000 for an independent study and if, come January, we decided we liked the settlement, after looking at all the various things, we wouldn't be able to implement it immediately, we would have to wait six months additional while the Commission went through another whole round of hearings and so forth? Am I correct that we are, therefore, better off with this bill?

Rep. Bradley: The answer, Rep. MacGillivray, is yes, yes and yes. And we obviously welcome your support as a former member of the Science, Technology and Energy Committee.

Rep. Rose: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Rep. Bradley, isn't it true basically the first year they would give us a break of maybe 18 percent like the Governor said but that's not sure? Isn't it also true that after the first year, ratepayers in this state will be locked into 12 years of paying whatever PSNH wants us to? I say that because usually the Public Utilities Commission, the PUC, has been a rubber stamp in the past and they probably will be in the future.

Rep. Bradley: Let me start with your last question first and your last statement about the Public Utilities Commission being a rubber stamp. This legislature passed the first and, what remains to be the most aggressive deregulation law in the country, that did not guarantee recovery of stranded costs. The Public Utilities Commission took a very, very aggressive stand in implementing that order. It would have forced Public Service of New Hampshire to write-off $400 million in stranded costs. I think most of us would have liked to have seen that happen. That was the cause of the litigation. Rep. Rose, I would say that we have a very determined Public Utilities Commission and it is determined to protect ratepayers.

Rep. Rose: Along with that same thing, you didn't answer the question that we will be locked into 12 years of paying increasing, increasing, increasing charges on the ratepayers of this state.

Rep. Bradley: That's if the settlement, as it was exactly filed by the Governor and the state negotiating team was approved without conditions and, most importantly, this legislature voted for that, yes, that would be the case. But, I would caution you, Representative, that those costs, you and I are paying in rates today. This is not something new. It is just a way of amortizing those costs out if we approve it; if we find that this is a good way of proceeding. If we don't, and it does not offer the adequate protections that all of us want, then I assume this legislature will reject that.

Rep. Rose: Are you aware that some people have said, and I think it was the Bartlett group, said that we could, New Hampshire could, take this over instead of PSNH we could buy out PSNH and do it ourselves and maybe ratepayers would get a bigger break.

Rep. Bradley: Rep. Rose, I'm glad you've asked that question. As I recall, that letter that was in the Josiah Bartlett paper urged the state of New Hampshire to actually go out and acquire stock of Northeast Utilities. Now, most of us, or a lot of us, are probably investors in this country, 50 percent of us own mutual funds or are involved in the stock market, how many of us would actually choose to invest our money, at $18 a share, and purchase the Seabrook Nuclear Power Plant, Millstone 3 which has been out of service until recently for several years, Millstone 2 which has just been returned to service and the now-being-decommissioned Connecticut Yankee and Millstone 1 that will soon be? So, I would offer to you that that would be the worst situation that the state of New Hampshire could get involved with.

Rep. Rose: Of course, New Hampshire would not have to necessarily buy the whole of PSNH. It has been talked about that there are several things that could be done, like the lines and the poles could be sold separately and the rest of it could be divided up. Couldn't that happen?

Rep. Bradley: Yes, Representative, that is a possibility. It would need legislation to do that. You would have to go through the condemnation process. A determination of the value with all of the stranded costs would be part of that. Obviously, we would fight about that with Public Service of

New Hampshire. We would own those assets afterwards and I would question, Representative, if the state of New Hampshire wanted to be in the position of owning and operating the largest utility in the state.

Rep. Rose: Do you believe that most of this argument we've heard about, this HB 464, is mostly to help PSNH and we haven't heard a lot about, except for the first year, what's going to happen after the first year?

Rep. Bradley: I would disagree with that Representative as I think both myself and Representative Norelli have said, this is about creating a process by which we can decide if this settlement, or this settlement with changes, should be approved, rejected, or conditioned.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HOUSE BILL 527

June 25, 1999

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

I have this day vetoed House Bill 527, An Act relative to the duties of the public utilities commission. Section 2 of H.B. 527 repeals the existing state ethics law prohibiting the members of the Public Utilities Commission and senior staff of the commission from future employment with regulated utilities for two years and replaces it with a less rigorous restriction that covers fewer commission employees.

Under existing state law, "[n]o commissioner, executive director, finance director, general counsel, ombudsman or chief engineer of the commission shall accept any employment with any utility under the control of the commission until 2 years after he shall become separated from the commission." RSA 363:12-b.

Section 2 of H.B. 527 would replace that law with the following less restrictive provision: "For one year after leaving the employment of the commission, the commissioners and general counsel shall not appear as a lobbyist or as an advocate in any matter over which the commissioner or general counsel had direct responsibility while with the commission."

It is incumbent on public servants at all times to avoid both real and perceived conflicts between their personal financial interests and the interests of the people they serve. To make an ethics law covering the Public Utilities Commission less rigorous, particularly now, when two industries regulated by the Public Utilities Commission - the electric industry and the telecommunications industry - are currently undergoing significant structural changes that have immense financial implications, threatens to diminish people's faith in the integrity of government.

I would support the enactment into law of the remaining sections of H.B. 527 and have so advised the sponsor of this legislation, who has indicated his support for this veto.

Jeanne Shaheen, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 527, relative to the duties of the public utilities commission, become law?

Rep. Bradley spoke against.

As required by the State Constitution, a roll call was taken.

COMMUNICATIONS

August 1, 1999

William M. Gardner, Secretary of State

It has been my pleasure to have served as a Representative for the Town of Raymond, Rockingham District 12, since January 1995.

It has always been my desire to reciprocate in kind for my life experiences, and my service in the legislature has been motivated by that desire.

Unfortunately, I find it extremely difficult to continue my commitment to serve the remainder of this present term. Would you kindly take any necessary action to make this resignation effective September 1, 1999.

Richard E. Dolan, Rock. 12

The Speaker accepted the resignation with regret.

August 23, 1999

Hon. Donna Sytek, Speaker of the House

It is with regret that I am writing to inform you that I will be resigning my House seat effective September 1, 1999. While I would like to have finished out my term, it has become apparent that my focus needs to shift toward resolving the health issues that have prevented me from actively participating during the 1999 legislative session. While my health is improving, it has forced me to re-evaluate my priorities and where I will focus my efforts. I do not believe that I can devote sufficient time to represent my district and fulfill my responsibility to the district while continuing to focus on my rehabilitation, family and other business responsibilities.

I leave with a great deal of respect for the New Hampshire Legislature and its many hardworking citizen legislators. I sincerely thank you for all the courtesies extended to me by your office.

Peter O. Crowell, Merr. 2

The Speaker accepted the resignation with regret.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 999-FN-A-L, an act establishing a uniform education property tax to provide funding for an adequate public education and providing education property tax hardship relief to low and moderate income taxpayers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. David J. Alukonis for Finance: HB 999 establishes a uniform statewide property tax for the purpose of funding an adequate education. The bill utilizes many of the well-considered elements of the property tax originally adopted in HB 117 and further incorporates a program for property tax hardship relief for low- to moderate-income taxpayers.

The hardship provision functions by granting a rebate of up to 100% of any growth in education property taxes greater than those on the 1998 property tax bill. The 100% rebate would be available to single individuals with adjusted gross incomes of up to $15,000. The same level of rebate would be available to married couples and heads of households with incomes up to $30,000. Lesser levels of rebate would be available for singles with incomes up to $25,000 and married persons/heads of households of up to $50,000. Further, the rebate applies only to the first $200,000 of equalized value of an applicant's primary residence. The entire hardship relief provision sunsets in four years.

The committee amendment makes numerous minor technical changes to the bill as a result of discussions with the Department of Revenue Administration (DRA) and the N.H. Municipal Association. Of significance are the following changes:

1. The amendment removes the provision that allowed for municipalities to administer the abatements. Rather, the committee agrees with the DRA and NHMA that the DRA should be the sole "handler" of all abatement requests.

2. The committee has added a standard severability clause to the bill. If any provision of the bill is deemed invalid, the remaining provisions and applications shall remain in effect.

3. The DRA is granted emergency rulemaking authority for a period of 180 days subsequent to passage in order to allow for an expeditious application of the hardship abatements.

The financial implications of the bill. As in HB 117, the statewide property tax at the rate of $6.60 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation raises $442.1 million. The hardship relief provisions reduce that amount by $8 million, $3 million in the first year of the biennium and $5 million in the second.

The elimination of the phase-in and the substitution of the hardship relief provisions result in net additional revenue of approximately $33 million over the biennium. This would reduce the so-called Claremont "gap" from $104 million to $71 million.

The committee amendment also calls for the transfer of $31 million of unanticipated general fund surplus from FY 1999 to the Education Trust Fund. This would further reduce the "gap" to $40 million. In addition, the amendment increases anticipated lapses for the current biennium by $10 million based on our experience in the last biennium. The net result is that our "gap" would stand at $30 million. Vote 12-6.

Amendment (2214h)

Amend RSA 198:50, II as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. "Homestead" means the dwelling owned by a claimant or, in the case of a multi-unit dwelling, the portion of the dwelling which is owned and used as the claimant's principal place of residence and the claimant's domicile for purposes of RSA 654:1. "Homestead" shall not include land and buildings taxed under RSA 79-A or land and buildings or the portion of land and buildings rented or used for commercial or industrial purposes. In this paragraph, the term "owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common. Amend RSA 198:51 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

198:51 Education Property Tax Hardship Relief.

I. Pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, eligible claimants shall be granted education property tax hardship relief following the effective date of the reenactment of the statewide property tax under RSA 76:3 in this act.

II. Residents shall apply to the department of revenue administration for such relief.

III. An eligible hardship relief claimant is a person who:

(a) Owns a homestead or interest in a homestead subject to the education property tax;

(b) Has resided in such homestead for a period of one year, except such persons as are on active duty in the United States armed forces or are temporarily away from such homestead but maintain the homestead as a primary domicile;

(c) Realizes in any year after the effective date of the reenactment of the statewide property tax under RSA 76:3 in this act a net increase in property taxes, exclusive of municipal and county taxes, which exceeds the local education property tax portion of such claimant's local property taxes for the tax year ended March 31, 1999; and

(d) Realizes total household income of $25,000 or less if a single person and $50,000 or less if a married person or head of a New Hampshire household.

IV. A portion of the net increase in an eligible hardship relief claimant's property taxes, exclusive of municipal and county taxes, shall be abated as follows:

(a) Deduct the municipal and county tax rates from the claimant's total current tax rate;

(b) Subtract the amount of the claimant's local education property tax rate for the tax year ended March 31, 1999 from the sum computed in subparagraph (a) to determine the net rate increase;

(c) Multiply the net rate increase computed in subparagraph (b) by the following percentage as applicable to determine the amount of the hardship relief:

(1) If a single person and total household income is:

(A) less than $15,000, 100 percent of the net rate increase;

(B) $15,000 but less than $20,000, 66 2/3 percent of the net rate increase; or

(C) $20,000 but less than $25,000, 33 1/3 percent of the net rate increase.

(2) If a married person or a head of a New Hampshire household and total household income is:

- (A) less than $30,000, 100 percent of the net rate increase;
- (B) $30,000 but less than $40,000, 66 2/3 percent of the net rate increase; or
- (C) $40,000 but less than $50,000, 33 1/3 percent of the net rate increase.

(d) Multiply the amount computed in subparagraph (c) by the local assessed valuation from the 1998 property tax bill.

(e) The total amount of tax relief allowable in any year shall not exceed the amount the claimant would receive with respect to a homestead with an equalized value of $200,000 in that municipality for tax year 1998.

V. If a homestead is owned by 2 or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, and one or more of such joint owners do not principally reside at such homestead, hardship relief applies to the proportionate share of the homestead value that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant. Only one claim may be filed for a single homestead.

VI. Claims filed with the department of revenue administration shall be filed within 60 days of the due date of the taxes.

VII. Each claim shall be accompanied by a copy of the claimant's federal income tax return filed by the claimant for the immediately prior tax period. Claimants who were not required to file a federal tax return for the immediately prior tax period may submit an affidavit to such effect in lieu of a tax return which document shall include the claimant's social security number. Any documents submitted shall be considered confidential, handled so as to protect the privacy of the claimant, and shall be destroyed after all appeal periods have expired.

VIII. The provisions of RSA 359-C shall not apply to the documents required to be submitted under this section.

Amend RSA 198:52 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

198:52 Rulemaking; Forms; Notice.

I. The commissioner shall adopt emergency rules under RSA 541-A relative to the administration of excess tax payments and the hardship relief provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding RSA 541-A:18, II, such emergency rules shall be effective for 180 days. After 180 days the commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A.

II. The commissioner shall approve and provide forms relative to the administration of this subdivision.

III. Claim forms shall include the following:

- (a) Instructions on completing and filing the form;
- (b) Sections for information concerning the claimant, the claimant's household, the property for which relief is sought and such other information as is reasonably necessary to determine the accuracy of the claim;
- (c) Instructions on appeal procedure and time limits relative to such appeals;
- (d) A place for the claimant's signature with a certification by the claimant that the claim is made in good faith and that the facts contained in the claim are true.

IV. The commissioner shall publicize notice of the education property tax hardship relief provisions in a suitable manner.

Amend RSA 198:53, II as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The commissioner may assess and collect the amount of any sums granted for hardship relief relative to a fraudulent or erroneously paid claim including interest provided under RSA 21-J:28 and an additional penalty of 25 percent for the erroneous amount of such claim or an additional penalty of the greater of 25 percent or $1,000 for a fraudulent claim.

Amend RSA 198:54 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

198:54 Appeals.

I. Whenever the commissioner refuses to grant a claimant an education property tax hardship relief claim, the claimant may appeal in writing within 30 days of notice of such refusal to the board of tax and land appeals.

II. When a taxpayer appeals the denial of a claim to the board of tax and land appeals, the board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review when there is an error of law or when the board finds the commissioner's action to be arbitrary or unreasonable.

Amend RSA 198:55 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

198:55 Refund of Tax Claims. The department of revenue administration shall review a claim for hardship relief filed with it and, if such claim is determined to be valid, shall certify such amount to the state treasurer within 90 days. The state treasurer shall pay the claim to the claimant from funds in the education trust fund. The department shall notify a claimant whose claim is rejected in whole or in part of such determination within 90 days of the department's receipt of the claim and all required documentation.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 15 with the following:

16 Appropriation. The sum of $200,000 is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 2001 from the education trust fund established in RSA 198:39 to the department of revenue administration for the purpose of administering the education property tax hardship relief provisions established in RSA 198:50-55.

17 General Fund; Deposit of Undesignated Surplus into the Education Trust Fund for the Biennium Ending June 30, 1999. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 9:13-e, the state treasurer shall deposit any general fund undesignated surplus as of June 30, 1999 into the education trust fund as established in RSA 198:39.

18 Estimate of General Fund Undesignated Surplus for Biennium Ending June 30, 2001; Lapses Adjusted. Amend 1999, 159:13 to read as follows

Floor Amendment (2229h)

Amend RSA 198:50, II as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. "Homestead" means the dwelling owned by a claimant or, in the case of a multi-unit dwelling, the portion of the dwelling which is owned and used as the claimant's principal place of residence and the claimant's domicile for purposes of RSA 654:1. "Homestead" shall not include land and buildings taxed under RSA 79-A or land and buildings or the portion of land and buildings rented or used for commercial or industrial purposes. In this paragraph, the term "owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.

Amend RSA 198:51 and RSA 198:52 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

198:51 Education Property Tax Hardship Relief.

I. Pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, eligible claimants shall be granted education property tax hardship relief following the effective date of the reenactment of the statewide property tax under RSA 76:3 in this act.

II. Residents shall apply to the department of revenue administration for such relief.

III. An eligible hardship relief claimant is a person who:

- (a) Owns a homestead or interest in a homestead subject to the education property tax;
- (b) Has resided in such homestead for a period of one year, except such persons as are on active duty in the United States armed forces or are temporarily away from such homestead but maintain the homestead as a primary domicile;
- (c) Realizes in any year after the effective date of the reenactment of the statewide property tax under RSA 76:3 in this act a net increase in property taxes, exclusive of municipal and county taxes, which exceeds the local education property tax portion of such claimant's local property taxes for the tax year ended March 31, 1999; and
- (d) Realizes total household income of $25,000 or less if a single person and $50,000 or less if a married person or head of a New Hampshire household.

IV. A portion of the net increase in an eligible hardship relief claimant's property taxes, exclusive of municipal and county taxes, shall be rebated as follows:

- (a) Deduct the municipal and county tax rates from the claimant's total current tax rate;
- (b) Subtract the amount of the claimant's local education property tax rate for the tax year ended March 31, 1999 from the sum computed in subparagraph (a) to determine the net rate increase;
- (c) Multiply the net rate increase computed in subparagraph (b) by the following percentage as applicable to determine the amount of the hardship relief:
 - (1) If a single person and total household income is:
 - (A) less than $15,000, 100 percent of the net rate increase;
 - (B) $15,000 but less than $20,000, 66 2/3 percent of the net rate increase; or
 - (C) $20,000 but less than $25,000, 33 1/3 percent of the net rate increase.
 - (2) If a married person or a head of a New Hampshire household and total household income is:
 - (A) less than $30,000, 100 percent of the net rate increase;
 - (B) $30,000 but less than $40,000, 66 2/3 percent of the net rate increase; or
 - (C) $40,000 but less than $50,000, 33 1/3 percent of the net rate increase.
- (d) Multiply the amount computed in subparagraph (c) by the local assessed valuation from the 1998 property tax bill.

(e) The total amount of tax relief allowable in any year shall not exceed the amount the claimant would receive with respect to a homestead with an equalized value of $200,000 in that municipality for tax year 1998.

V. If a homestead is owned by 2 or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, and one or more of such joint owners do not principally reside at such homestead, hardship relief applies to the proportionate share of the homestead value that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant. Only one claim may be filed for a single homestead.

VI. Claims filed with the department of revenue administration shall be filed within 60 days of the due date of the taxes.

VII. Each claim shall be accompanied by a copy of the claimant's federal income tax return filed by the claimant for the immediately prior tax period. Claimants who were not required to file a federal tax return for the immediately prior tax period may submit an affidavit to such effect in lieu of a tax return which document shall include the claimant's social security number. Any documents submitted shall be considered confidential, handled so as to protect the privacy of the claimant, and shall be destroyed after all appeal periods have expired.

VIII. The provisions of RSA 359-C shall not apply to the documents required to be submitted under this section.

198:52 Rulemaking; Forms; Notice.

I. The commissioner shall adopt emergency rules under RSA 541-A relative to the administration of excess tax payments and the hardship relief provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding RSA 541-A:18, II, such emergency rules shall be effective for 180 days. After 180 days the commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A.

II. The commissioner shall approve and provide forms relative to the administration of this subdivision.

III. Claim forms shall include the following:

(a) Instructions on completing and filing the form;
 (b) Sections for information concerning the claimant, the claimant's household, the property for which relief is sought and such other information as is reasonably necessary to determine the accuracy of the claim;

(c) Instructions on appeal procedure and time limits relative to such appeals;

(d) A place for the claimant's signature with a certification by the claimant that the claim is made in good faith and that the facts contained in the claim are true.

IV. The commissioner shall publicize notice of the education property tax hardship relief provisions in a suitable manner.

Amend RSA 198:53, II as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The commissioner may assess and collect the amount of any sums granted for hardship relief relative to a fraudulent or erroneously paid claim including interest provided under RSA 21-J:28 and an additional penalty of 25 percent for the erroneous amount of such claim or an additional penalty of the greater of 25 percent or $1,000 for a fraudulent claim.

Amend RSA 198:54 and RSA 198:55 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

198:54 Appeals.

I. Whenever the commissioner refuses to grant a claimant an education property tax hardship relief claim, the claimant may appeal in writing within 30 days of notice of such refusal to the board of tax and land appeals.

II. When a taxpayer appeals the denial of a claim to the board of tax and land appeals, the board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review when there is an error of law or when the board finds the commissioner's action to be arbitrary or unreasonable.

198:55 Refund of Tax Claims. The department of revenue administration shall review a claim for hardship relief filed with it and, if such claim is determined to be valid, shall certify such amount to the state treasurer within 90 days. The state treasurer shall pay the claim to the claimant from funds in the education trust fund. The department shall notify a claimant whose claim is rejected in whole or in part of such determination within 90 days of the department's receipt of the claim and all required documentation.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 15 with the following:

16 Appropriation. The sum of $200,000 is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 2001 from the education trust fund established in RSA 198:39 to the department of revenue administration for the purpose of administering the education property tax hardship relief provisions established in RSA 198:50-55.

17 General Fund; Deposit of Undesignated Surplus into the Education Trust Fund for the Biennium Ending June 30, 1999. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 9:13-e, the state treasurer shall deposit any general fund undesignated surplus as of June 30, 1999 into the education trust fund as established in RSA 198:39.

Rep. Mirski offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (2223h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the state's cost per pupil of an adequate education.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The general court finds that the state's per pupil adequate education cost needs to be accurately determined before appropriating state aid for an adequate education. The per pupil cost of an adequate education is a function of all of the program components of an education, currently being determined by the adequate education and education financing commission established in RSA 198:49, and which will be subject to review and adjustment by the legislature prior to implementation. The general court intends to set the per pupil cost of a constitutionally adequate education at zero dollars until such time as the process for determining that cost is completed by the legislature.

2 Determination of Per Pupil Adequate Education Cost. RSA 198:40 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

198:40 Determination of Per Pupil Adequate Education Cost. The per pupil cost of a constitutionally adequate education shall be zero dollars until such time as an accurate determination of such cost, which is a function of all of the program components of an education, is set by the adequate education and education financing commission established in RSA 198:49, and is subsequently reviewed, adjusted, and adopted by the legislature.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill sets the per pupil cost of an adequate education at zero dollars until an accurate determination of the cost is set by the adequate education and education financing commission and subsequently reviewed, adjusted, and adopted by the legislature.

Rep. Mirski spoke in favor and yielded to questions.
 Rep. Mirski requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.
 The question being the adoption of the Mirski floor amendment (2223h).

Rep. Mirski offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (2231h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT rejecting certain ruling of the supreme court in Claremont I and Claremont II.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Preamble. The legislature finds that:

I. In order to preserve the taxing authority reserved to the people of New Hampshire by the state constitution and in order to preserve the power granted the legislature to represent the interests of the people, the legislature rejects those aspects of the Claremont I and Claremont II rulings which require the state to "guarantee" funding of a constitutionally adequate education. Article 28 of part I of the New Hampshire constitution requires that:

"No subsidy, charge, tax, impost or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body."

II. To accede to the court's Claremont I ruling - reaffirmed in Claremont II - that the state "guarantee" funding of a constitutionally adequate education would be to concede that education spending should always preempt spending for public safety, public health, disaster relief, public welfare, job creation, infrastructure improvements, criminal justice, the judiciary and the courts, pollution control, recreation, natural resources and the environment, public parks, and the administration of government itself.

III. To concur with the court that education funding be "guaranteed" would be to remove 1/3 or more of all current public spending from meaningful public debate.

IV. To concur with the court would be to deny the people's constitutional right, under part I, article 28, to vote on which of those services of government are most important to them and to determine to what extent elected services are worthy of financial sacrifice.

V. To concur with the court that the people and their elected representatives must approve education funding as mandated by the court would cause the legislature to deny the people and their representatives the right to vote and would cause the legislature to become complicit in the extinction of representative government in New Hampshire.

VI. As constitutional officers, members of the legislature are compelled to support the constitution of New Hampshire. Legislators are compelled by the constitution to maintain constitutional separation of powers and to insure that the cost of government not be imposed on the people without their consent. The legislature finds that the court's holding that the state "guarantee" education funding irresolvably conflicts with part I, article 28.

VII. If allowed to stand, the supreme court's rulings will materially affect the separation and balance of power among the 3 branches of government in ways which transcend taxes and spending.

VIII. The court's rulings shift the power of government from the people to unelected bureaucracies appointed by the governor. The legislature believes that as the debate over what constitutes educational adequacy plays out, judges, rather than the people, will define and redefine what constitutes educational adequacy. The legislature further finds that by removing from the people the right to freely determine education funding the court grants itself and state bureaucracies unwarranted and unconstitutional influence over the disposition of what presently amounts to more than a billion dollars of spending statewide.

IX. The court's transference of powers belonging to the people, to the judiciary, and to the state's bureaucracies, is unconstitutional because the constitution prohibits the judicial and executive branches of government from exercising legislative authority.

X. The court's requirement that "adequate education's" appetite for appropriations be satisfied before the needs of any other state or municipal service will cause the funding demands of "adequate education" to dominate virtually all future public and legislative debate to the detriment of all other matters of public policy.

XI. Since funding of education will be required regardless of the state of the economy, during recessions educators and those employed within the state's education bureaucracy will be guaranteed their livelihoods while taxpayers suffer lost jobs. The legislature further finds that in order to guarantee education funding during recessions or whenever state revenues fail to meet expectations, state taxes and fees will either have to be increased or state services cut. Should taxes fail to be raised during future recessions, the legislature finds that state employees in all areas of government other than education may have to be laid off or dismissed in order to accommodate funding shortfalls.

XII. By elevating educators to privileged economic status, the supreme court aborts the fundamental intent of government articulated in part I, article 10 of the New Hampshire constitution which states that "Government ..." is "... instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family or class of men ...".

XIII. If permitted to stand, the "state must guarantee funding" component of the Claremont I and II decision's will convert the New Hampshire house of representatives, the most representative legislature in the world, to an institution utterly subservient to forces beyond its control.

XIV. Education funding disparities between New Hampshire towns and cities must be resolved. Nevertheless, the legislature finds that it is constitutionally prohibited from considering any resolution of educational funding disparities which would diminish, in any way, the fundamental right of the people to determine how or for what purpose they should be taxed.

2 Statement of Intention to Reject Those Portions of the Supreme Court's Claremont I and Claremont II Rulings Which Require the State to "Guarantee" Funding of a Constitutionally Adequate Education.

I. The legislature finds that:

(a) In Claremont School District v. Governor, 138 N.H. 186, 635 A.2d 1375 (1993) (Claremont I) the supreme court reversed the trial court's dismissal of the petition for declaratory and injunctive relief which challenged the method by which education is funded in New Hampshire, holding that "...it was the state's duty to provide a constitutionally adequate public education and to guarantee adequate funding...". The supreme court reasserted this view in Claremont II, basing its interpretation on the language of part II, article 83, of the New Hampshire constitution which states that it is the "...duty of the legislators and magistrates, in all future periods of this government, to cherish the interest of literature and the sciences, and all seminaries and public schools, to encourage private and public institutions, rewards and immunities for the promotion of agriculture, arts, sciences, commerce, trades, manufactures, and natural history of the country..." The "...duty...to cherish..." the court said "...commands that the state support public schools."

(b) The supreme court further opined in Claremont II that since RSA 198:1-7 obligates the imposition of a school property tax in order to raise funds for education and since the court's interpretation of part II, article 83 requires the state to provide and fund education, the school property tax is, by its very nature, a state tax. The court concluded that since the statewide imposition of the school property tax results in tax disparities between communities, those disparities cause the school property tax to fail the constitutional requirement imposed by part II, article 5 that state taxes be proportionately levied.

(c) The people of New Hampshire granted the New Hampshire house of representatives and senate the exclusive constitutional authority to legislate on their behalf. That authority was given the legislature, with the understanding, that the power granted the general court and the authority granted the executive and judicial branches derives exclusively from the people and is limited in scope and application by the 39 articles which comprise part I of the New Hampshire constitution, its bill of rights. The constitution's bill of rights tempers all authority granted government in part II which defines New Hampshire's form of government.

(d)(1) The New Hampshire supreme court ruling of December 17, 1997 declaring present school-funding methodology unconstitutional is itself a clear violation of the constitution. It fails to heed the explicit words of part I, article 28 of the New Hampshire constitution which requires that: "No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body."

(2) The court does not have the power to mandate the tax which its ruling requires, given that part I, article 28 expressly prohibits the creation of any pretext by which the power to tax or impose charges of any kind upon the people might be wrested from "...the people, or their representatives in the legislature".

(3) As representatives of the people, legislators are individually and collectively required to assert the rights of the people when their rights are infringed. Given the supreme court's usurpation of the people's power to tax, it is now the responsibility of the legislature to right this grievous wrong.

(e) The supreme court's reasoning concerning the Claremont I and Claremont II decisions fails to recognize and abide by the limitations imposed by part I of the constitution upon the power and authority granted government in part II of the constitution, particularly with regard to taxes and how they shall be levied. Neither the judicial branch nor the executive branch can usurp the right of the people, "...or their representatives in the legislature..." with regard to either the election of funding priorities or the allocation of financial responsibility. The selection of governmental priorities worthy of financial sacrifice is solely the province of the people and their elected representatives to the general court.

(f) The fault with the New Hampshire supreme court's decision is that its interpretation of part II, article 83 imposes an obligation upon the people of New Hampshire to expend funds and to tax themselves in ways not freely determined by them. The New Hampshire supreme court does not possess the power to impose funding obligations upon the people of New Hampshire. The funding obligations which are inextricably a part of the Claremont I and Claremont II rulings create a pretext for levying either a tax, charge, subsidy, impost, or duty upon the people in order to meet the obligations which the court has contrived. Since the constitution expressly prohibits the creation of any pretext which could require the people of New Hampshire to tax themselves, it follows that the supreme court's interpretation of part II, article 83 which creates such a pretext is fundamentally unconstitutional.

II. Therefore, since the holding of the supreme court in Claremont I to the effect that the state must guarantee funding, is unconstitutional on its face, the rationale and conclusions which follow and which are based upon that wrongful holding fail as well. For this reason, the legislature rejects the rulings of the New Hampshire supreme court in both the Claremont I and Claremont II cases to the extent that they require the state to "guarantee" funding of any sort and asserts that the legislature is constitutionally prohibited from complying with such rulings. The legislature cannot permit the judicial branch to usurp the fundamental right of the people to act freely with regard to choosing which of the financial burdens of government they wish to assume. For the legislature to act otherwise would be to reincarnate, validate, and reimpose the practice of taxation without representation, a practice which the adoption in the year 1784 of part I, article 28, of the bill of rights of the New Hampshire constitution was meant to cure.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill states that the legislature rejects the supreme court's Claremont I and Claremont II rulings to the extent to which the rulings require the state to "guarantee" funding of an adequate legislation, on the grounds that imposition upon the legislature of such a requirement is unconstitutional under part I, article 28 of the New Hampshire constitution.

Rep. Mirski spoke in favor, then withdrew his floor amendment 2231h

Rep. Sapareto offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (2220h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the statewide education property tax, establishing a program to rebate certain excessive property tax payments of eligible taxpayers, and relative to funding of an adequate education.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose; Intent. In view of the New Hampshire supreme court decision of October 15, 1999, which determined that portions of the statewide property tax enacted in 1999, 17, are unconstitutional, the New Hampshire general court desires to reenact the statewide property tax, by appropriate revisions, to provide funding for an adequate public education.

2 Education Property Tax. RSA 76:3 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

76:3 Education Property Tax. An annual education property tax at a uniform rate established by the commissioner of revenue administration each year based on the equalized state education rate required to raise the sum calculated pursuant to RSA 198:40 and 41 is hereby imposed on all persons and property taxable pursuant to RSA 72 and RSA 73, except property subject to tax under RSA 82 and RSA 83-F. The commissioner shall report to the legislature on or before December 1 of each year.

3 New Chapter; Statewide Education Property Tax Relief. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 76 the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 76-A

STATEWIDE EDUCATION PROPERTY TAX RELIEF

76-A:1 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Claimant" means a person who:

(a) Has filed a claim with a municipality for reduction in such claimant's property taxes under this chapter; and

(b) During the 3 fiscal years preceding the year in which the person files a claim for relief under this chapter:

(1) Has had an ownership interest in a homestead and was domiciled in the homestead upon which education property taxes have accrued and for which the person is making a claim for tax relief from the statewide education property tax in this state; and

(2) Was not a full-time student claimed as a dependent by any taxpayer under the United States Internal Revenue Code.

II. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of revenue administration.

III. "Department" means the department of revenue administration.

IV. "Education property taxes" means the sum of the statewide education property tax under RSA 76 and the education portion of property taxes assessed by a municipality.

V. "Equalized assessed value" or "equalized assessed valuation" means the modified assessed valuation of property equalized by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 21-J:3, XIII. In this paragraph, "modified assessed valuation" means the sum of the assessments of taxable property in a municipality less the statutory exemptions provided in RSA 72:12-a, 72:12-b, 72:37, 72:39-a, and 72:39-b. "Modified assessed valuation" shall not include optional exemptions provided in RSA 72:37-b, 72:62, 72:66, and 72:70.

VI.(a) "Excessive education property taxes" means the sum of:

(1) The product of the state education rate determined by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 76:3 multiplied by the equalized value of qualifying homesteads not exceeding $200,000 and exclusive of special assessments not including current use, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied as of April 1 on a claimant's homestead in this state; and

(2) The amount of the education portion of property taxes assessed by the claimant's municipality levied as of April 1 on a claimant's homestead in this state; which is in excess of 10 percent of a claimant's household income for the calendar year preceding the tax year of the excessive education property tax claim.

(b) In this paragraph, "equalized assessed value of qualifying homesteads" means the local assessed value of the homestead equalized by applying the equalization ratio for the municipality, as determined by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 21-J:3, XIII, for the year of the claim.

(c) A qualifying homestead is the first $200,000 of equalized value of a homestead. If a homestead is owned by 2 or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common, and one or more persons or entities are not members of the claimant's household, "excessive education property taxes" applies to that part of statewide education property taxes levied on the homestead which reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant and the claimant's household. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a multi-dwelling building, the statewide education property taxes shall be that percentage of the total education property taxes accrued as the total inhabitable area of the claimant's dwelling is of the total inhabitable area of the building. For purposes of this paragraph "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

VII.(a) "Homestead" means the dwelling owned by a claimant which is used as the claimant's principal place of residence for not less than 240 days in a calendar year and includes the following:

(1) The land upon which the dwelling stands;

(2) Visual and ordinary appurtenant structures such as but not limited to garages, wood sheds, barns, and other out buildings;

(3) The land upon which such appurtenant structures stand;

(4) Land contiguous to such dwelling and appurtenant structures that is groomed and maintained around them; and

(5) Land necessary to the support and service of the dwelling such as but not limited to driveways and maintained rights-of-way for purposes of ingress and egress to the dwelling.

(b) A homestead may consist of a part of a multi-unit dwelling and its proportionate share of the land upon which it stands and other ordinary appurtenant common facilities.

(c) In this paragraph the term "owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.

(d) "Homestead" shall not include personal property such as furniture, furnishings or appliances, or structures.

(e) Manufactured housing may be a homestead.

VIII. "Household income" means federal adjusted gross income as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code.

IX "Municipality" means a city, town, or place.

X. "Statewide education property tax" means a tax levied at an equal and uniform rate on the equalized assessed valuation of property.

XI. "Tax collector" means the appointed or elected collector of taxes for a municipality.

XII. "United States Internal Revenue Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, without the rules, regulations, forms, and procedures of the United States Internal Revenue Service. The rules, regulations, forms and procedures of the United States Internal Revenue Service may, however, be used by the commissioner of revenue administration in formulating rules for adoption under RSA 541-A. This definition shall be operative unless and until a specific statutory exception to its adoption is provided in this chapter, or until the application of one of its provisions is held to violate the New Hampshire constitution.

76-A:2 Claims for Statewide Education Property Tax Relief.

I.(a) A claimant shall be entitled to make claim to the taxing municipality for statewide education property tax relief equal to the excessive education property taxes levied under RSA 76:3 on the first $200,000 of equalized valuation of the claimants homestead. Such claims shall not exceed $2,250 per claimant during any calendar year. A claimant shall not be entitled to any statewide education property tax relief if there are no excessive education property taxes or for any excessive education property taxes which accrued prior to January 1 of the preceding calendar year.

(b) No claim with respect to relief by a claimant under this chapter shall be allowed unless the claim is filed with the municipality by March 1 following the date of notice of tax as defined in RSA 72:1-d. The municipality shall include all necessary forms for filing as provided by the department in the first bill.

II. No interest shall be allowed on any relief to which a claimant may be entitled under this chapter.

76-A:3 Rebate to Claimant. Within 30 days of receipt of a claim, the municipality shall reduce the claimant's tax bill by the qualifying excessive education property taxes. Where more than one tax bill is issued by the municipality, the excessive education property taxes shall be divided proportionally between the bills. Timely payment to the municipality of net taxes by the claimant is not required to receive the tax reduction under this chapter.

76-A:4 Reports of Claims. Municipalities shall report to the department by April 1 of each year on the total amount of rebates made under RSA 76-A:3. By April 15 of each year, the department shall report to the state treasurer the total amount of rebates made by each municipality under RSA 76-A:3.

76-A:5 Reimbursement to Municipalities for Claims. Within 30 days of receipt of the report by the department required under RSA 76-A:4, the state treasurer shall reimburse municipalities for the total of qualified claims received under RSA 76-A:3. Such payments shall be charged against the education trust fund established in RSA 198:39.

76-A:6 One Claimant Per Household. Only one claimant per household per year shall be entitled to relief under this chapter.

76-A:7 Claim is Personal. The right to file a claim under this chapter shall be personal to the claimant. The right to file a claim under this chapter shall survive the claimant's death to the extent that this right may be exercised on behalf of a claimant by a legal guardian, attorney, spouse, or another person who could have qualified as the claimant had the decedent not filed.

76-A:8 Administration; Rulemaking.

I. This chapter shall be administered and enforced by the department.

II. The department shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, necessary to administer and enforce this chapter.

76-A:9 Forms for Claim.

I. The commissioner of revenue administration shall make available to municipalities suitable forms with instructions for claimants. Such forms may require claimants to provide all information reasonably necessary to determining the accuracy of claims, including, but not limited to, property taxes accrued, changes of homestead, household membership, household income, size and nature of property claimed as the homestead, and a statement that the property taxes have been or will be paid by the claimant.

II. Municipalities shall make such forms available to claimants.

76-A:10 Verification of Claim; Redetermination.

I. If a municipality has reason to suspect the accuracy of a claim, the municipality may request that the department verify the household income of the claimant.

II. Upon receipt of such income verification from the department, the municipality may redetermine the claim and assess and collect, in the same manner as provided for property taxes under RSA 80, any amount of such claim in excess of the predetermined amount.

76-A:11 Fraudulent Claims; Penalty. A person shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor who:

I. Files a fraudulent claim.

II. With fraudulent intent, assisted in the preparation or filing of the fraudulent claim or supplied information upon which the fraudulent claim was prepared.

76-A:12 Appeals. Any person aggrieved by the denial in whole or in part of a claim under this chapter, except when the denial is based upon late filing of claim, may appeal the denial to the board of tax and land appeals or to the superior court in the county in which the person resides by filing a petition within 30 days after such denial. Procedures for an appeal of a denial of a claim shall be the same as the procedures for an appeal of a denial of an abatement of property tax under RSA 76:16-a-76:17.

76-A:13 Claim Applied Against Outstanding Liabilities. The amount of any claim otherwise payable under this chapter may be applied by the municipality against any liability outstanding against the claimant or against anyone who was a member of the household in the taxable year to which the claim relates.

4 Rate of Utility Property Tax Increased. Amend RSA 83-F:2 to read as follows:

83-F:2 Tax Imposed. For taxable periods beginning April 1, 1999, a tax is imposed upon the value of utility property at the rate ~~of $6.60~~ established by the commissioner under RSA 76-A:3 on each $1000 of such value, to be assessed annually as of April 1, and every year thereafter, and paid in accordance with this chapter.

5 Education Trust Fund; Purpose; Property Tax Relief Added. Amend RSA 198:39, I to read as follows:

I. The state treasurer shall establish an education trust fund in the treasury. Moneys in such fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to distribute adequate education grants to municipalities' school districts pursuant to RSA 198:42, and to provide education property tax relief under RSA 76-A. The state treasurer shall deposit into this fund immediately upon receipt:

6 Tax Equity and Efficiency Committee. Amend 1999, 17:55, I to read as follows:

7 Semi-annual Rate for Property Tax Payments. 1999, 17:51, I is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

I. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 76:15-a and RSA 76:15-b for the tax year beginning April 1, 1999, in municipalities liable for an excess statewide education property tax payment pursuant to RSA 198:46, the partial payment of taxes assessed shall be computed by taking the prior year's assessed valuation times $\frac{1}{2}$ of the previous year's municipal tax rate; $\frac{1}{2}$ of the previous year's county tax rate; $\frac{1}{2}$ of the previous year's local school tax rate; and adding thereto $\frac{1}{2}$ of the statewide education property tax rate which would collect the amount to be collected and remitted for tax year 1999 under RSA 198:46, as determined by the department of revenue administration; provided, however, that whenever it shall appear to the selectmen or assessors that certain individual properties have physically changed in valuation, they may use the current year's appraisal in place of the prior year's valuation to compute the partial payment.

8 General Fund; Deposit of Undesignated Surplus into the Education Trust Fund for the Biennium Ending June 30, 1999. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 9:13-e, the state treasurer shall deposit any general fund undesignated surplus as of June 30, 1999 into the education trust fund as established in RSA 198:39.

9 Estimate of General Fund Undesignated Surplus for Biennium Ending June 30, 2001; Lapses Adjusted. Amend 1999, 159:13 to read as follows

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill changes the method of calculating the statewide education property tax and the utility property tax and establishes a program for the rebate of excessive property tax payments made by eligible taxpayers in the state. The bill also provides for the use of certain surplus state funds for education.

Reps. Sapareto and Wallin spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Sapareto requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the Sapareto floor amendment 2220h.

Rep. Mirski re-offered floor amendment 2231h.

Floor Amendment (2231h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT rejecting certain ruling of the supreme court in Claremont I and Claremont II.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Preamble. The legislature finds that:

I. In order to preserve the taxing authority reserved to the people of New Hampshire by the state constitution and in order to preserve the power granted the legislature to represent the interests of the people, the legislature rejects those aspects of the Claremont I and Claremont II rulings which require the state to "guarantee" funding of a constitutionally adequate education. Article 28 of part I of the New Hampshire constitution requires that:

"No subsidy, charge, tax, impost or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body."

II. To accede to the court's Claremont I ruling - reaffirmed in Claremont II - that the state "guarantee" funding of a constitutionally adequate education would be to concede that education spending should always preempt spending for public safety, public health, disaster relief, public welfare, job creation, infrastructure improvements, criminal justice, the judiciary and the courts, pollution control, recreation, natural resources and the environment, public parks, and the administration of government itself.

III. To concur with the court that education funding be "guaranteed" would be to remove 1/3 or more of all current public spending from meaningful public debate.

IV. To concur with the court would be to deny the people's constitutional right, under part I, article 28, to vote on which of those services of government are most important to them and to determine to what extent elected services are worthy of financial sacrifice.

V. To concur with the court that the people and their elected representatives must approve education funding as mandated by the court would cause the legislature to deny the people and their representatives the right to vote and would cause the legislature to become complicit in the extinction of representative government in New Hampshire.

VI. As constitutional officers, members of the legislature are compelled to support the constitution of New Hampshire. Legislators are compelled by the constitution to maintain constitutional separation of powers and to insure that the cost of government not be imposed on the people without their consent. The legislature finds that the court's holding that the state "guarantee" education funding irresolvably conflicts with part I, article 28.

VII. If allowed to stand, the supreme court's rulings will materially affect the separation and balance of power among the 3 branches of government in ways which transcend taxes and spending.

VIII. The court's rulings shift the power of government from the people to unelected bureaucracies appointed by the governor. The legislature believes that as the debate over what constitutes educational adequacy plays out, judges, rather than the people, will define and redefine what constitutes educational adequacy. The legislature further finds that by removing from the people the right to freely determine education funding the court grants itself and state bureaucracies unwarranted and unconstitutional influence over the disposition of what presently amounts to more than a billion dollars of spending statewide.

IX. The court's transference of powers belonging to the people, to the judiciary, and to the state's bureaucracies, is unconstitutional because the constitution prohibits the judicial and executive branches of government from exercising legislative authority.

X. The court's requirement that "adequate education's" appetite for appropriations be satisfied before the needs of any other state or municipal service will cause the funding demands of "adequate education" to dominate virtually all future public and legislative debate to the detriment of all other matters of public policy.

XI. Since funding of education will be required regardless of the state of the economy, during recessions educators and those employed within the state's education bureaucracy will be guaranteed their livelihoods while taxpayers suffer lost jobs. The legislature further finds that in order to guarantee education funding during recessions or whenever state revenues fail to meet expectations, state taxes and fees will either have to be increased or state services cut. Should taxes fail to be raised during future recessions, the legislature finds that state employees in all areas of government other than education may have to be laid off or dismissed in order to accommodate funding shortfalls.

XII. By elevating educators to privileged economic status, the supreme court aborts the fundamental intent of government articulated in part I, article 10 of the New Hampshire constitution which states that "Government ..." is "... instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family or class of men ...".

XIII. If permitted to stand, the "state must guarantee funding" component of the Claremont I and II decision's will convert the New Hampshire house of representatives, the most representative legislature in the world, to an institution utterly subservient to forces beyond its control.

XIV. Education funding disparities between New Hampshire towns and cities must be resolved. Nevertheless, the legislature finds that it is constitutionally prohibited from considering any resolution of educational funding disparities which would diminish, in any way, the fundamental right of the people to determine how or for what purpose they should be taxed.

2 Statement of Intention to Reject Those Portions of the Supreme Court's Claremont I and Claremont II Rulings Which Require the State to "Guarantee" Funding of a Constitutionally Adequate Education.

I. The legislature finds that:

(a) In Claremont School District v. Governor, 138 N.H. 186, 635 A.2d 1375 (1993) (Claremont I) the supreme court reversed the trial court's dismissal of the petition for declaratory and injunctive relief which challenged the method by which education is funded in New Hampshire, holding that "...it was the state's duty to provide a constitutionally adequate public education and to guarantee adequate funding...". The supreme court reasserted this view in Claremont II, basing its interpretation on the language of part II, article 83, of the New Hampshire constitution which states that it is the "...duty of the legislators and magistrates, in all future periods of this government, to cherish the interest of literature and the sciences, and all seminaries and public schools, to encourage private and public institutions, rewards and immunities for the promotion of agriculture, arts, sciences, commerce, trades, manufactures, and natural history of the country..." The "...duty...to cherish..." the court said "...commands that the state support public schools."

(b) The supreme court further opined in Claremont II that since RSA 198:1-7 obligates the imposition of a school property tax in order to raise funds for education and since the court's interpretation of part II, article 83 requires the state to provide and fund education, the school property tax is, by its very nature, a state tax. The court concluded that since the statewide imposition of the school property tax results in tax disparities between communities, those disparities cause the school property tax to fail the constitutional requirement imposed by part II, article 5 that state taxes be proportionately levied.

(c) The people of New Hampshire granted the New Hampshire house of representatives and senate the exclusive constitutional authority to legislate on their behalf. That authority was given the legislature, with the understanding, that the power granted the general court and the authority granted the executive and judicial branches derives exclusively from the people and is limited in scope and application by the 39 articles which comprise part I of the New Hampshire constitution, its bill of rights. The constitution's bill of rights tempers all authority granted government in part II which defines New Hampshire's form of government.

(d)(1) The New Hampshire supreme court ruling of December 17, 1997 declaring present school-funding methodology unconstitutional is itself a clear violation of the constitution. It fails to heed the explicit words of part I, article 28 of the New Hampshire constitution which requires that: "No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body."

(2) The court does not have the power to mandate the tax which its ruling requires, given that part I, article 28 expressly prohibits the creation of any pretext by which the power to tax or impose charges of any kind upon the people might be wrested from "...the people, or their representatives in the legislature".

(3) As representatives of the people, legislators are individually and collectively required to assert the rights of the people when their rights are infringed. Given the supreme court's usurpation of the people's power to tax, it is now the responsibility of the legislature to right this grievous wrong.

(e) The supreme court's reasoning concerning the Claremont I and Claremont II decisions fails to recognize and abide by the limitations imposed by part I of the constitution upon the power and authority granted government in part II of the constitution, particularly with regard to taxes and how they shall be levied. Neither the judicial branch nor the executive branch can usurp the right of the people, "...or their representatives in the legislature..." with regard to either the election of funding priorities or the allocation of financial responsibility. The selection of governmental priorities worthy of financial sacrifice is solely the province of the people and their elected representatives to the general court.

(f) The fault with the New Hampshire supreme court's decision is that its interpretation of part II, article 83 imposes an obligation upon the people of New Hampshire to expend funds and to tax themselves in ways not freely determined by them. The New Hampshire supreme court does not possess the power to impose funding obligations upon the people of New Hampshire. The funding obligations which are inextricably a part of the Claremont I and Claremont II rulings create a pretext for levying either a tax, charge, subsidy, impost, or duty upon the people in order to meet the obligations which the court has contrived. Since the constitution expressly prohibits the creation of any pretext which could require the people of New Hampshire to tax themselves, it follows that the supreme court's interpretation of part II, article 83 which creates such a pretext is fundamentally unconstitutional.

II. Therefore, since the holding of the supreme court in Claremont I to the effect that the state must guarantee funding, is unconstitutional on its face, the rationale and conclusions which follow and which are based upon that wrongful holding fail as well. For this reason, the legislature rejects the rulings of the New Hampshire supreme court in both the Claremont I and Claremont II cases to the extent that they require the state to "guarantee" funding of any sort and asserts that the legislature is constitutionally prohibited from complying with such rulings. The legislature cannot permit the judicial branch to usurp the fundamental right of the people to act freely with regard to choosing which of the financial burdens of government they wish to assume. For the legislature to act otherwise would be to reincarnate, validate, and reimpose the practice of taxation without representation, a practice which the adoption in the year 1784 of part I, article 28, of the bill of rights of the New Hampshire constitution was meant to cure.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill states that the legislature rejects the supreme court's Claremont I and Claremont II rulings to the extent to which the rulings require the state to "guarantee" funding of an adequate legislation, on the grounds that imposition upon the legislature of such a requirement is unconstitutional under part I, article 28 of the New Hampshire constitution.

Reps. Mirski, Nancy Wall and Loren Jean spoke in favor.

Rep. Mirski requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being the adoption of the Mirski floor amendment (2231h).

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Boyce requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

House Bill 999, as amended, writes into statute the incorrect interpretation of the New Hampshire Constitution by the Supreme Court in their several Claremont rulings. Further, the Supreme Court has, by striking down selective sections of House Bill 117 and leaving others intact, attempted to legislate from the bench in clear contravention of their sworn duties to uphold the Constitution. For these and other reasons, I have voted against House Bill 999 as amended.

SENATE MESSAGESREQUESTS CONCURRENCE WITH AMENDMENTS

HB 294-FN-L, relative to state aid to municipalities for closure of certain municipal incinerators. (Amendment printed SJ 28, 10/19/99)

Rep. Musler moved that the House concur and spoke in favor.

HB 649-FN, relative to nitrogen oxide emissions from electricity generation. (Amendment printed SJ 29, 10/22/99)

Rep. Thomas moved that the House concur and spoke in favor.

RESOLUTION

Rep. Chandler offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time, that the reading of bills be by title only and resolutions by caption only and that all bills ordered to third reading be read a third time by this resolution, and that all titles of bills be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time, and when the House adjourns today it be to meet at the call of the Chair.

Adopted.

LATE SESSIONThird reading and final passage

HB 999-FN-A-L, establishing a uniform education property tax to provide funding for an adequate public education and providing education property tax hardship relief to low and moderate income taxpayers.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Thomas, Kennedy and McColgan addressed the House.

Rep. Weare moved that the remarks made by Rep. Thomas be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Thomas: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Thank you, Representatives, for allowing me this time. Next Monday, Governor Shaheen will sign into law HJR 10 which is another first-in-the-nation which New Hampshire is so famous for. HJR 10 requires that on November 10th every year, the Marine Corps flag will be flown over the capitol building in honor of the birthday of the Corps and the men and women who served so proudly within its ranks and in the finest traditions. No other state has such a law. Please allow me a few minutes, if you would, to indulge in a brief history of the Corps and a few of the meanings and symbolisms that are the basis of the pride, and yes, the sometimes-referred-to arrogance of the Corps.

The Marine Corps was organized on November 10, 1775 at a place called Tunn's Tavern in Philadelphia by an Act of the Continental Congress. They became "our soldiers of the sea" during the Revolutionary War.

The high thick collar on the dress blue uniform was at one time made of leather to ward off saber slashes, hence the term "leather neck." The term "devil dog" comes from the German soldiers who fought fiercely in the battle of Belleau Wood in France in World War I. It was attributed to the Marines and the ferocity of their fighting. The stirring Marine Corps' hymn which causes every Marine, present and past, to stand at rigid attention has its own reflections to the history of the Corps. The red stripe on our uniform is symbolic of the blood shed at Chapultepec, Mexico which gives us "from the Halls of Montezuma." The Marine officers sword is identical to the one surrendered to Lt. Presley O'Bannon by the Pasha of Tunisia which gives us "the shores of Tripoli." The third most recognizable symbol in the world is the Iwo Jima Memorial in Washington. It depicts the raising of the United States flag over that mountain, Suribachi, by five Marines and one Navy Corpsman. One of those Marines was our own Rene Gagnon from Manchester, New Hampshire. Another Marine who helped take that mountain was our own Alf Jacobson.

We Marines will never forget the fierce determination of our brothers who fought through seven enemy divisions and the frozen Chosen Reservoir in Korea. There are more recent memories of Marines who endured weeks of savage street fighting to reclaim Hue city and the many who perished at Khe Sanh when it was almost lost and finally retained in the political debacle of Vietnam. And, not to forget those who served in the Gulf War and the "brush fires" around the world from Somalia to Bosnia.

Last, but not least, is the Marine Corps emblem, the eagle, globe and anchor, indicating the Marine service on land, sea and air. On November 10th, every Marine Corps station and detachment in the world has a birthday celebration in honor of our Corps for reflections on our history. I will think of the Marines who have passed through my life and of the source of their pride, their selflessness and their sense of purpose. The Marines who have gone before us, through their shared devotion and sacrifice, have set the enduring ethos of our Corps and on November 10th we renew our commitment to the standards which they have set. The ethos of our Corps is that of the warrior and is defined by two qualities. The first is valor. When called to battle we pick up our helmets and our gear. We pick up our weapons; we fight, some of us die but we will win, absolutely. The second is values. We hold ourselves and our Corps to the highest standards of honor, courage and commitment. These ethos have linked every Marine inextricably and forever.

And, so, Madam Speaker, I wish my fellow Marines in this hallowed institution a very happy birthday and Semper Fi. And, finally, Madam Speaker, in jest, there is always a healthy, friendly rivalry between all branches of the armed forces. We Marines are called "Jarheads," seagoing "bellhops." We respond to the Navy when they say that the Marines are a department of Navy – "Yes," we say, "the Men's Department." In jest to the Army when they say things to us, we respond, ARMY means "Ain't Ready to be Marines Yet" and to the Air Force we say, "Well, somebody had to fly." However, more seriously, Madam Speaker, as shown in the Desert Storm War, together we are one. To the wonderful men and women of the Army, Navy, the Air Force, the Coast Guard and the Merchant Marine, a very honorable and happy Veteran's Day. Thank you.

REGULAR CALENDAR

CACR 16, relating to establishing a restricted education trust fund; establishing a maximum rate on an income tax, and dedicating income tax revenues to education. Providing an education trust fund be established, that revenues from a state-run lottery and revenues from the imposition of an income tax shall be deposited into the education trust fund, and that the moneys in such trust fund shall be used exclusively to provide relief from local school property taxes and to fund the state's duty to cherish the interest of public schools under Article 83, Part 2 of the New Hampshire constitution, and shall not be transferred or diverted to any other purpose. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Steve Vaillancourt for Finance: This proposed constitutional amendment came to the House after passing the Senate by the requisite three-fifths vote. There was testimony that this CACR passed the Senate in a compromise wherein CACR 17 was passed at the same time. That fact notwithstanding, the Finance Committee considered each CACR separately. This was viewed as a flawed amendment even by those who expressed a modicum of support. It attempts to accomplish several goals. First, it grants the General Court the power to impose an income tax, a power which the General Court already has. Thus, the CACR is not necessary on that front and was viewed by some as an attempt to place forward a referendum in the guise of a constitutional amendment.

The CACR would also limit any income tax, should one ever be passed, to four percent without a three-fifths vote by both the House and Senate. Some viewed this as a compromise, an attempt to minimize the level of what might happen in the future. The majority, however, saw this as both unnecessary and ultimately unwise. If, at some time in the future, an income tax might be viewed as the best solution to raising revenue, would it be best to limit it to four percent or to leave that decision up to the future legislature which would consider it?

The CACR also attempts to restrict any monies raised by an income tax to the funding of education by placing the monies in the education trust fund. Further, the CACR attempts to guarantee that monies raised from any income tax be used to provide local property tax relief. Whether or not the CACR is worded so as to accomplish these goals is problematic. In any event, all the goals in this CACR could be accomplished by any future General Court which would so desire. It is not constitutional wording which would prevent such legislation but rather the will to move in such a desired direction. Vote 14-6.

Adopted.

CACR 17, relating to the state's responsibility to provide to all citizens the opportunity for a public education. Providing that the general court shall have the exclusive authority to determine the content, extent, and funding of a public education and that the state may fulfill its responsibility to provide to all citizens the opportunity for a public education by exercising its power to levy assessments, rates, and taxes, or by delegating this power, in whole or part, to a political subdivision, provided that upon delegation, such assessments, rates, and taxes are proportional and reasonable throughout the state or the political subdivision in which they are imposed. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William S. Belvin for Finance: The Senate passed CACR 17 in November 1999 as a companion amendment to CACR 16, which concerned limitations on any future NH income tax, were such a tax to be enacted. CACR 17 would amend Article 83, second part, and assert legislative authority in setting public education policy, and affirm the state's responsibility for providing to all citizens the opportunity to receive a public education. It also claims legislative power to fulfill this responsibility by imposing rates and taxes on other political subdivisions within the state as long as those rates and taxes were proportional within those subdivisions. In effect it would allow a return to the education funding system in place prior to the various Claremont rulings.

After careful examination of CACR 17, a serious drafting problem was brought to light. There is a difference in the wording of the actual language that would be inserted in the constitution and the wording for the question that would be put to the voters. In similar past circumstances where there is a disconnect between actual amendment language and voter intent, the Supreme Court has ruled such an amendment and vote to be invalid. The Finance Committee considered an amendment to CACR 17 that would remedy this defect, but in testimony by Senate sponsors came to understand that body would likely reject any modifications to the Senate version. An additional amendment was considered that would separate the legislative authority assertion from the funding mechanisms and allow only the legislative authority part to go forward. After additional information gathering and debate this approach too was rejected. It was felt this approach should be considered through a separate CACR.

The funding of public education and various constitutional amendments will continue to be primary legislative concerns. However the committee felt that fresh initiatives in the 2000 session would be a better process to follow rather than to continue with last year's effort that linked both CACRs 16 and 17 and therefore voted Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 17-1.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Wendelboe moved that CACR 17, relating to the state's responsibility to provide to all citizens the opportunity for a public education. Providing that the general court shall have the exclusive authority to determine the content, extent, and funding of a public education and that the state may fulfill its responsibility to provide to all citizens the opportunity for a public education by exercising its power to levy assessments, rates, and taxes, or by delegating this power, in whole or part, to a political subdivision, provided that upon delegation, such assessments, rates, and taxes are proportional and reasonable throughout the state or the political subdivision in which they are imposed, be laid on the table.

The motion failed.
